WE WANT YOUR FEEDBACK

by Kathy Thayer
Assistant Recreation Manager

The Golden Rain Foundation serves at the pleasure of its shareholder/members, and because of that relationship is always seeking ways to improve the living experience of those it serves.

Over the next three weeks, the Recreation Department, in conjunction with GRF, needs your opinion and direction for improvements that have been suggested.

Next week, the LW Weekly will present the first of three surveys for you to complete and return to designated locations within 30 days.

GRF President Linda Stone commented, "It is very important that the Board of Directors collect feedback from the community so that we can continually improve the quality of life in Leisure World, Seal Beach. We want to know what amenities our residents enjoy ... and possibly those they don't."

"Gathering the opinions of the community at large gives some valuable perspectives and is a crucial step to successful decisions."

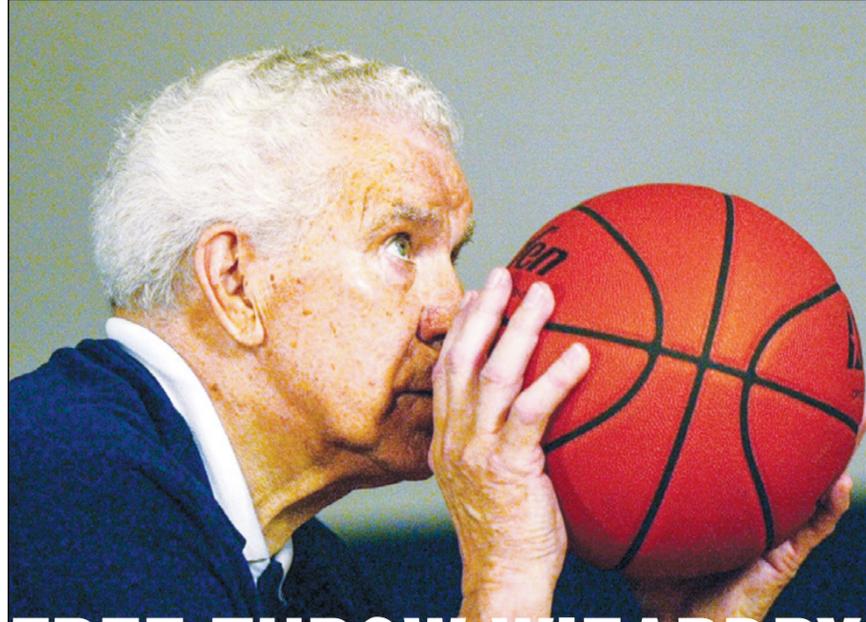

The amenities being considered are an on-site restaurant, Clubhouse 6 fitness center improvements and a learning center.

Recreation Committee Chair Leah Perrotti expresses the importance of community feedback on these potential projects: "The Golden Rain Foundation is dedicated to providing the best possible amenities for our members/shareholders."

"In an ongoing effort to meet your needs, we would like to know what is important to you as a valued member of our community. Our surveys will be distributed throughout Leisure World. As the Chairperson of the Recreation Committee, I am asking that you respond to these brief surveys. Your answers will help us to determine how to meet the needs of the majority of the Golden Rain Foundation Members living here."

"The results of the surveys will be discussed at subsequent Recreation meetings beginning in July. There will be three surveys: (1) a restaurant/bar leased to a restaurateur, (2) fitness center adequacy and (3) a learning center to conduct a variety of classes. Your responses will make a difference and we

FREE THROW WIZARDRY

The late Tom Amberry honored in court dedication

It took 12 hours and 2,750 shots for Tom Amberry, a 71-year-old retired California podiatrist who lived in Mutual 14, to set the world record for free throws consecutively shot and made.

Over and over, 10 witnesses watched his six-second routine — parallel feet, three bounces of the ball, bent knees, tight elbows — inside the Rossmoor Athletic Club (it once occupied space at the Shops at Rossmoor) on Nov. 15, 1993. Amberry stopped at the 12-hour mark, but only because the gym janitors made him.

"I could have made a bunch more,"

The plaque that dedicates the court to Dr. Tom Amberry with a basketball bearing his handprint.

Amberry told the Orange County Register in 1995. "I was 'in the zone,' as the kids say."

He was a sought-after free-throw coach well into his 80s. He died at age 94 on March 18, 2017, at the height of March Madness.

On Monday, the basketball court at Mission Park was dedicated in his honor.

His sons Bill and Tom, and other family members attended the ceremony.

"He was a great father, grandfather, friend, podiatrist and free throw shooter," said GRF Recreation Committee chair Leah Perrotti in dedicating the court.

His son Bill said that Amberry loved living in Leisure World: "He loved getting in his car and driving a quarter mile to work out in the gym to ride the stationary bike at zero resistance everyday. It made him feel good."

In the quarter century that followed Amberry's free throw marathon in Rossmoor, he wowed David Letterman and Tom Brokaw on TV, wrote a free throw guide book, "Free Throw—Seven Steps to Success at the Free Throw Line," and traveled the globe teaching players of all ages—amateur and all-star alike—how to master the most utilitarian way to win a basketball game.

"A free throw is a gift," he often said. "You should take advantage of it."

Chief Warrant Officer 3 Michael Aguirre of the California Army National Guard and his team of retired aviator volunteers resurrected this Vietnam-era "Huey."

Historic 'Huey' has returned to service

A labor of love for U.S. Army Chief Warrant Officer 3 Michael Aguirre of the California Army National Guard and his dedicated team of retired aviator volunteers came to fruition on May 4 at the Los Alamitos Joint Forces Training Base (JFTB). The team rolled out a restored Vietnam-era, Bell UH-1M Iroquois Helicopter—more commonly known as a "Huey"—for permanent exhibition on the installation.

Slurry seal coating to be applied June 7-11

Slurry seal coating will be applied between June 7-11 on Golden Rain Road and St. Andrews Drive. Between June 11-14, crews will be resurfacing Pelham Road, Danbury Lane, Wentworth Lane and Medinac Lane.

Slurry seal is a protective coating that is placed on top of asphalt to extend the life of the pavement.

Application of slurry seal is a two-step process. First, surface cracks are filled and surface patching is done. There is no parking on the affected street on the day this takes place. Notices will be posted in advance. Streets will be closed to parking and driving during the application, although limited driving will be allowed in case of emergency. Normal driving and parking will be allowed after the contractor removes the "No Parking" signs at the end of the working day.

Slurry seal requires a few hours

Our culture of contempt

by Jim Greer
LW Interfaith Council

“A quarrelsome man has no good neighbors” stated Benjamin Franklin.

If you follow social media as I do, you recognize that quarrels occur frequently. As the spouse of a scientist, I’ve learned to have my facts straight before ever starting an argument. I get called on the carpet whenever I make a biased or factually flawed statement, which is good. It has taught me that I have to do some research and present my case with truth and logic.

Engaging in logical discussions can be helpful in validating ideas but exhibiting irrational anger toward others for holding beliefs different than our own may lead to contempt for, rather than goodwill toward, our neighbors.

According to Arthur C. Brooks - author of “Love Your Enemies: How Decent People Can Save America From the Culture of Contempt,” current political scientists recognize that the country is more polarized today than it has been since the Civil War. “One in six Americans has stopped talking to a family member or close friend because of the 2016 election.” People are organizing their social lives and their news exposure along ideological lines.

Researchers have determined that the average Republican and the average Democrat suffer from motive attribution asymmetry (MAS) - one group’s belief that their rivals are motivated by emotions opposite to their own, similar to the attitudes between Palestinians and Israelis. Those who have developed MAS believe they are driven by benevolence, while their political enemies are evil, motivated by hatred — an enemy with whom they cannot negotiate or compromise.

The German philosopher Arthur Schopenhauer, described contempt as “the unsullied conviction of the worthlessness of another.” It caters to our ideological psyche, leading to addiction and feeds our belief that we are completely right and that the other side completely wrong.

But contempt negatively impacts both a contemptuous attacker and

Letter to Editor

Editor:

The City of Seal Beach provides a Rossmoor bus from Leisure World Monday through Friday. It is surely a great help to shareholders shopping at the Rossmoor Shopping Center.

My shopping spree with friends at Target, Ralpins, Sprouts and sometimes Marshalls and Kohls is very fruitful.

It is very pleasant finding healthy and good produce, and I find Sprouts organic foods very reasonable. Most of the employees are very kind and helpful when help is needed.

Kohls, Targets and Marshalls carry a variety of good merchandise.

I deeply appreciate the City of Seal Beach helping senior citizens enjoy and have fun shopping at the Rossmoor Shopping Center for groceries and other important needs. The bus driver is kind, friendly and very helpful.

Medicare is top financial scam targeting seniors

by Cathie Merz
cathiem_news@lwsb.com

Medicare is the top financial scam targeting seniors, according to the National Council on Aging, and several LWers can attest to the findings.

Financial scams have become so prevalent that they’re considered “the crime of the 21st century.”

Every U.S. citizen or permanent resident over age 65 qualifies for Medicare, so there is little need to research what insurance company older people have in order to scam them out of some money.

Recently a shareholder received three calls within an hour about Medicare.

Another caller wanted to warn others because she had fallen victim to a scam, and gave out her new Medicare number. She said she was caught unaware, and the caller was so convincing she gave out her information. She quickly called Medicare, (800) 633-4227, and she is receiving a new Medicare number.

The most important rule to remember is that Medicare will never call, email, or visit and ask for personal information. Examples of personal information include Medicare number, Social Security number, bank account number and address.

If anyone trying to “help you” with Medicare asks for personal or financial information, assume it is a scam. Hang up the phone, delete the email or close the door immediately.

Medicare fraud wastes a lot of money each year and results in higher health care costs and taxes for everyone.

There are three main types of Medicare scams— identity theft, Medicare fraud and improper care.

Medical identity theft, the fastest growing form of identity theft. Criminals or fraudulent providers use those medical identities to get medical care, buy drugs, or submit false billings to Medicare/Medicaid under that stolen name.

Identity theft occurs when someone pretending to work for Medicare asks for confidential information under the guise of updating medical records or helping to re-evaluate coverage. A legitimate Medicare employee would never ask for personal information over phone or email—they already have it on file.

If you suspect identity theft, or feel like you gave your personal information to someone you shouldn’t have, contact the Federal Trade Commission.

Medicare fraud happens when Medicare is billed for services or

GOP CLUB

Vietnam refugee shares her story

The LW GOP Club meeting on May 15 featured California Republican Central Committee member Amy Phan West, a former refugee from Vietnam who is a candidate for Westminster City Council.

Amy began by describing her experiences as a refugee from Vietnam.

Her story begins when her dad, at the age of 11, saw his father and his uncle murdered by the Communists right in front of him.

At 16 he joined the South Vietnamese Army by saying he was 18. Immediately, he went back and married the woman who would later become Amy's mother.

He fought on the side of the Americans against the Communists. In 1975 when the Communists took over South Vietnam, he fled with his young family into the jungle to avoid being murdered by the Communists.

When his wife was about to go into labor, he took her into town to a hospital.

"He acted like a madman," Amy said, "so the Communists would think he was harmless and leave him alone."

After several failed attempts to escape, in 1984 he gathered his family together and put them in his fishing boat and headed out to sea.

After three days at sea, with the children suffering severe dehydration, they happened upon a German transport ship that rescued them. The family spent one-and-a-half years in a refugee camp in Thailand and then six months in the Philippines. They were then flown to Southern California by the U.S. military because of his service with the Americans.

They settled in Huntington Beach, where a local Christian church "adopted" them.

"I remember the joy that we had as a family riding our bikes, skateboards and skates down to the beach and playing in the water and on the sand," Amy said.

Amy and her husband now have three young boys and own a thriving car rental business that they started from scratch four years ago. "The secret is great customer service," she said.

In conclusion, she pleaded with the audience never to forget that the freedoms that we in America enjoy are priceless.

Amy's story can be seen throughout the month of June on Spectrum cable SBTV-3 on Harmonizing Humanity, a show that features people who make the world a little bit better. It will also be available on YouTube.

The LW Republican Club meets every third Wednesday at 6:30 in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. All are welcome.

supplies never received. This could include a healthcare provider billing Medicare for care or someone using your Medicare card to bill for fake services and then pocketing the money. If you suspect that Medicare is being charged for a service you didn't ask for, call the federal government's official Medicare hotline at (800) 633-4227.

The last Medicare scam is improper care. All Americans deserve high-quality, affordable healthcare as they age. Your local Beneficiary and Family Centered Care Quality Improvement Organization (BFCC-QIO) can help file a complaint about the quality of medical care. For questions about a specific service, look at your Medicare Summary Notice (MSN) or log into MyMedicare.gov. You can file an appeal if you disagree with a coverage or payment decision made by Medicare, your Medicare health plan or Medicare Prescription Drug Plan.

If anything ever seems suspicious or uncomfortable, don't hesitate to contact Medicare. They are there to help. Visit Medicare.gov or call toll-free (800) 633-4227 with any questions or concerns.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Members gather to watch presidential debates

Leisure World Democrats have announced plans to come together to watch the first of the upcoming presidential debates scheduled for 6 p.m. on June 26, July 30 and possibly July 31.

Club members and supporters are welcome to attend but, in order to be sure to secure a space, reservations must be made in advance by phoning 296-8521 or emailing lwsbdemocraticclub@gmail.com. The events will be held in various rooms in Clubhouse 3, and will include light refreshments on June 26, and a potluck on July 30 or 31 if a third debate is scheduled. Watching these debates together with other club members or friends should be fascinating.

The LW Democratic Club monthly membership meeting program, scheduled Wednesday, June 19, in Clubhouse 4 will be on the topic, "What's Happening in the Battle for Control of the America Court System?"

The meeting will include a presentation on the history of the Supreme Court appointment process. For background information, members are encouraged to read a new report just released by the Washington Post. This report looks at activist Leonard

Leo, executive vice president of the Federalist Society, who also acts as an adviser to President Donald Trump. He has reportedly helped raise hundreds of millions of dollars for a network of interlocking nonprofit groups that work behind the scenes to support judicial appointments.

The Washington Post article can be downloaded at https://www.washingtonpost.com/graphics/2019/investigations/leonard-leo-federalists-society-courts/?utm_term=.3aefa5a084b8.

Brandon Love, one of the club's favorite commentators, will facilitate a response to the presentation. Members should be aware that the June meeting will start later than usual, most likely at 2:30 p.m., due to an earlier GRF scheduled town hall meeting on changes in the 2020 Orange County voting procedures.

The Democratic Club annual fundraising brunch will be held on Saturday, July 13, in Clubhouse 4. Seating will begin at 9:30 a.m. with the brunch beginning at 10 a.m. There will be no reserved seating. Catering will be handled by Country Gardens, with both traditional and vegan meals available. Attendees are invited to bring their own champagne for mimosas. Tickets are available at $30 each with additional donations welcome. The reservation deadline is July 5. Call (909) 957-9886 or email lwsbdemocraticclub@gmail.com. There will be no tickets available at the door on the morning of the event. Net proceeds will be used by the club to do voter outreach during the 2020 election season.

their prey. The Psychological Association has found that when we are treated with contempt, our anxiety, depression and sadness increase. And, those same feelings fall upon the assailant in equal measure.

Rather than harboring contempt for one another, we can entertain a robust "competition of ideas" or in other words engage in respectful disagreement to help us innovate, improve and find the truth. It is easy to fall into the trap of acquiring motive attribution asymmetry. To help us avoid this trap Arthur C. Brooks suggests four things we can do to prevent it;

1. Turn away from the powerful people who are profiting from the culture of contempt. Be aware that you are being used by malefactors that aren't teaching you something or expanding your world view and moral outlook.
2. Make a personal commitment to never treat others with contempt, even if you believe they deserve it.
3. Recognize when you have become addicted to contempt, then reject it and make amends wherever you can.
4. Change your view of contempt, and see it as an opportunity, by responding with warm-heartedness and good humor.

Abandoning our personal views and beliefs may not be necessary, as long as we are willing to caringly share important ideas openly and compassionately. In doing so we will never cause others emotional distress or create fear. If we welcome challenging discussion and prepare to validate our positions with reason and civility our "enemies" will become our allies. By carefully avoiding the temptation to react with contempt, we can emulate Abraham Lincoln who wisely asked, "Do I not destroy my enemies when I make them my friends?"

OPTUMCARE AT HCC

Sleep health class is June 10

It's 3:03 a.m. in the morning, and you're awake. You've been watching the minutes pass by for some time now. You don't know if you will be able to fall back asleep.

Sleep problems affect everyone. But if you have trouble sleeping often, it is more than frustrating. It can increase your risk for chronic conditions, like depression, diabetes and heart disease. Poor sleep has also been linked to memory problems and falls.

Thu Tran, a clinical pharmacist, will lead a class on sleep health. The class will be held June 10 from 10-11 a.m. in Conference Room 1 at the Health Care Center. She shared a few tips on ways to improve your sleep:

- Make a routine. Go to bed at the same time every night. Get up at the same time every morning. Even if you can't sleep or are groggy when you wake up, stick to your routine. And that includes weekends.

- Relax first. Help your body and mind get ready for bed. At least 30 minutes before your bedtime, do something to relax. Read a book, meditate, listen to calming music. Avoid watching TV or using your phone or tablet, though. The light from those screens can

Mary DiDonna and Beverly Bender were tied this week as top losers at the Wa-Rite Club. Each had a three-pound loss. Mary attributed her loss to a 2-1/2-pound gain the week before, which caused her to cut out junk food.

Beverly ate dinner early, then brushed her teeth to keep from eating more.

The Food For Thought this week: Make a decision to change what needs to be changed, it begins with one bite at a time. Both Mary and Beverly made changes and became successful in weight loss.

Wa-Rite is a support group for women who need to lose 10 pounds or more.

Members meet on Fridays in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, from 9-10 a.m.

Weigh-ins are from 7:45-8:45. Annual dues are $10.

Community Church

Community Church will conclude the Season of Easter with a powerful Pentecost Sunday service. Throughout the eight-week season, various approaches to worship were explored.

This Sunday, a unique and special Korean prayer style called Tongsung Kido will be the focus. Tongsung means "cry out together loudly," and Kido means "pray." So Tongsung Kido means "praying together out loud."

This unique form of Korean prayer is an important part of prayer life among the spirit-filled prayer life of Korean Christians. To engage in this meaningful prayer practice, congregants will pray the Lord's Prayer, all in unison, in the language of their native tongue. Represented in Community Church are people from all over the world, including the Netherlands, Korea, China, Japan, Hungary, Sumatra, Mexico, the Philippines, so it will be a cacophony of prayer not to be missed.

The Sunday evening Bible Study, led by Joy Reed, meets every Sunday at 5 in the Fireside Room. The topic is "Death and Resurrection." Everyone is welcome to attend.

Pastor Johan Dodge will lead a Korean prayer style on Sunday.

LW Coin Club

The Leisure World Coin Club will meet in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 12. The topic will be about collecting type sets.

A type set, or a type collection, is a coin collection based upon the coin's design or type. Instead of assembling a collection of coins based upon date and mint, a type set will consist of one coin from each design type.

Club members are familiar with the classic blue Whitman coin holders that have a place for every coin in a particular series, for example, mercury dimes. It's possible that there is one key coin in a given series whose circulation is so low that it is never seen in circulation, and it's just too expensive to purchase. So, the set then is never completely finished. This is where type sets come into play.

Only one coin of every series issued by the mint, in any condition, is needed. Pocket change becomes a source and coin dealers have a multitude of old circulated coins at all levels of condition and cost.

Eventually collectors can get all the coins to fill the book.

Come to the meeting to learn more about this collecting adventure. All Leisure World shareholders are welcome, collectors or not.

Garden Club Lunch

The Leisure World Garden Club's summer luncheon will be held on Monday, June 17, at 11:30 a.m. in Clubhouse 2. Howell's Catering will provide delicious light fare, including quiche and salad as well as dessert.

make it harder to sleep.

• Naps are great, but.... An afternoon or evening nap might feel good at the time, but it can throw your sleep schedule off. Feeling a little tired during the day? Go for a walk or do something physical. If you do need to rest, try to keep your nap to just 20 minutes.

• Avoid sleep medications if possible. Sleeping medications, like Ambien or Lunesta, can put you at greater risk for falls and confusion. If you're having trouble sleeping, talk to your primary care doctor. There may be safer alternatives you can try.

• If you find yourself awake in the middle of the night, and you can't fall back asleep, get up. Fold laundry, read, meditate—do something that doesn't require much energy. When you feel tired, go back to bed.

Getting into a sleep habit takes time, but keep at it. A healthy night's sleep can make for a healthy day. If you're still having a difficult time falling or staying asleep, bring it up at the next appointment with your primary care doctor.

One other tip: turn that alarm clock around. Falling back to sleep is a challenge, but watching the minutes tick by can make it harder.

LW Orchestra

The LW Orchestra's concert on May 30 was well received by an enthusiastic audience. The turnout was close to a sellout as almost all the 200 seats were filled for a feast of good classical music and good food. Some of the highlights were "Overture in D Minor," by Handel, a great example of multiple themes all played at once.

Orchestra vice president and pianist Esther Chun played "Little" Rhapsody in Blue, by Gershwin, a beautiful theme made famous by Paul Whitman.

Spirited appreciation was given to "Fiddler on the Roof-Overture," in a Philip Lang arrangement. The finale was a spirited "Ballet Parisien," by Offenbach. Afterward, there was a wonderful spread of treats, including sandwiches, meatballs, homemade cookies and much more.

LWSO conductor Rae Boeving got a standing ovation and a bouquet of red roses from the orchestra president.

The next concert will be a Christmas event in Clubhouse 4 at noon on the second or third Saturday in December (to be decided). New members are welcome. Musicians will help people regain proficiency so they can enjoy making music again. The LWSO has about 30 members and would like to grow. LW EXCURSION

Tickets on sale for July 16 museum trip

The Leisure World Library is excited to announce a bus trip to Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA) on Tuesday, July 16.

LACMA is an art museum located on Wilshire Boulevard in the Miracle Mile vicinity of Los Angeles. LACMA has its roots in the Los Angeles Museum of History, Science and Art, established in 1910 in Exposition Park.

In the ensuing decades, both the campus and the collection grew considerably. Now LACMA is the largest art museum in the western United States and attracts nearly a million visitors annually. It holds more than 150,000 works spanning the history of art from ancient times to the present.

To attend the bus trip, purchase tickets at the Recreation Department for $43. For more information on the trip, visit the library or call 598-2431. For information regarding ticket availability, call 431-4586, ext 326.

LW ART LEAGUE

Versatile artist to demonstrate June 11

Artists and art lovers are in for a special treat when the Leisure World Art League hosts a demonstration by the talented impressionist artist Marina Pavlovich on Tuesday, June 11, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 4.

People are advised to arrive early to get good seats, as Art League demos continue to draw large turnouts.

The demonstration promises to be both entertaining and educational, as Marina is an experienced teacher and master of several mediums and styles.

Marina is a classically trained impressionist artist of Russian heritage. She was educated at one of Europe's most prestigious art schools, the Stroganoff Academy of Art and Design in Moscow. She has worked as a designer and art instructor and participated in art and design shows in Moscow, Germany, Los Angeles and Orange County.

As an artist, Marina prefers the impressionistic style. She has devoted years to painting portraits and figures from live models, which she considers interesting and challenging. She also likes plein air painting of seascapes, landscapes and cityscapes.

As an impressionist painter, Marina believes painting quickly brings life and movement to the canvas. She especially values brush strokes as the most obvious indicator of artistic talent. For this reason she loves the spontaneity, distinctive colors and confident brush strokes found in expressionism, her second favorite style.

As an art instructor, Marina believes in teaching fundamentals, with emphasis on structural drawing, good composition and painting from real life. Her teaching methodology is systematic, scientific and analytic.

Marina is a member of several art groups in Orange County and has won awards in a number of juried shows. Her paintings have been exhibited at many local galleries, including the Virga Gallery in Laguna Beach, the Bistango Gallery in Irvine, and Design Center in L.A.

Those interested in seeing more of Marina's work can visit <https://fineartamerica.com/profiles/marina-pavlovich.html>.

Members must submit their art work for display by 6:30 p.m. The popular choice theme this month is "Water." As always, refreshments will be available and one of the artist's pieces will be raffled off.

The Iroquois served in a variety of utility roles and was the U.S. Army's first gunship. The Los Al "Huey" was built by Bell Aircraft in 1966 in Fort Worth, Texas, and saw extensive service in Southeast Asia during the Vietnam War—surviving combat damage in May 1970.

Following the war, the aircraft was transferred to the California Army National Guard where it provided yeoman service from October 1972 through December 1975.

"We undertook this restoration project about six years ago, working weekends and dedicating any other available free time when we could bring together at least three people to work on the project," recalled Aguirre. "Our volunteers included several former Army Aviators who had served in the Army Aviation Support Facility, plus members of the JFTB Department of Public Works. Time was limited, and money was tight, but our goal was to have the helicopter on display before I retired from the Army at the end of August. We did it!"

"It was also really cool to see the turnout of legacy Army Aviators on hand when we placed the helicopter on display," Aguirre said. "Some of them had retired out of Los Al; some of them had flown in Vietnam, and all of them had a connection to our 'Huey' in one way or another."

"For them that helicopter now serves as a living symbol of their military service to our country."

REMEMBERING MOM

Hardship built strong character she passed on

by Marge Dodero
LW contributor

Editor's note: This was sent in as a Mother's Day contribution, but because the author was a Mutual candidate it could not be published at that time.

I never had a grandmother but my mother and my mother-in-law were two of the most wonderful women in my life. They taught me how to be strong in adversity and how to be a loving wife and mother. What a gift... what women.

My mother was an orphan. Her mother died when she was only 3 and her father was unable to raise the six children by himself. Her younger sister, Aunt Rose, was on her own, barely a middle age teenager. The baby, younger than my mother, was taken in by her mother's family, and the other four children were placed in an orphanage. The two boys kept running away to get to their father. My mom always loved her father and spoke about it to me. When Mom was 13, she finished eighth grade and graduated from the orphanage. She lived with her sister, Rose, who was married and had two children. Mom became the caregiver for her nieces while Aunt Rose worked.

She said a woman who she later worked for taught her how to sew and that is how she supported herself, as a furrier and seamstress. That is how she met my dad. She was working for his mother and she introduced them. Mom said her life started when she met my dad.

Mom was tough! Her sisters were tough. They all taught themselves trades and help their husbands support the families. They were the Brunelle sisters. Somehow all four sisters kept in touch with each other all their lives and always were there when one needed help. I saw that and learned from them.

Beatrice Knox (l) left a strong impression with everyone she met, especially her daughter LWer Marge Dodero (r).

"I am like a paramedic... I am always there when you need me but don't call me every day because I have taught you to be strong."

Mom took any classes offered at the local school when she needed to know something. She was self-conscious about having only an eighth grade education. She and my dad went to church every Tuesday evening to say a special novena to St. Joseph that their children would go to college and be successful in life. My parents never missed Mass on Sunday (Mom converted Dad to become a Catholic) and Mom always had a special prayer for every occasion.

My dad had a massive heart attack in his early 40s and mom took classes to learn to cook to avoid him having a second heart attack.

We found out later that he had an autoimmune disease that took his life when he turned 60. Mom was working in aerospace at the time and she requested an emergency leave of absence because her husband was dying. They refused and she said, "Then I retire (she was just 55) because my husband needs me!"

Her retirement income was drastically reduced but she did it anyway.

At the time my dad died, my brother Tom was heading to Vietnam and within a year my youngest brother, Milt, was also drafted and sent to Vietnam. Mom was alone. She eventually got a job at a bakery. People told me how she was the nice lady who always listened to their problems.

I always remember when we moved from one house to another, a neighbor or neighbors were crying because Mom was leaving. She always left a strong impression on everyone she met. She always found a way to teach herself how to do whatever she needed, she always had a prayer to solve a problem.

We knew we were loved and as she liked to tell us, "I am like a paramedic... I am always there when you need me but don't call me every day because I have taught you to be strong."

Yes Mom, I have learned to live my life as a strong, loving woman. I am a Brunelle woman and proud of it.

I have run out of time but I was so lucky. My mother-in-law was also a wonderful woman who had many challenges that she needed to overcome. She and my mother were fantastic women who shaped my life and I feel the need to tell the world how lucky I was to have them in my life.

SPECIAL OLYMPICS

Games return this weekend to CSULB

The Southern California Special Olympics games will be held Saturday and Sunday, June 8-9, at California State University, Long Beach (CSULB). Admission and parking are free.

The games attracts more than 1,100 athletes from across Southern California who compete for gold, silver, and bronze medals and ribbons. The games will feature five summer sports, track and field, basketball, bocce, flag football and swimming.

Opening ceremonies will begin at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday with competitions following from noon-4 p.m. Sunday competitions are from 9 a.m.-3 p.m., followed by the closing ceremonies at 3 p.m.

Become a fan in the stands and help support Special Olympics.

The festival includes the competitions, live entertainment, law enforcement displays, sponsor booths and more.

Special Olympics was founded by Eunice Kennedy Shriver in 1968, 50 years ago. She believed that individuals with intellectual disabilities could excel through involvement in sports and become more independent, build self-esteem and live healthier lives.

Athletes range in age from 2-78 with the average age at 21. Many participate in the program for over a decade and live at or below the poverty level.

Special Olympics Southern California would not exist without the expertise, time and enthusiasm of its volunteers. They are on the sports field guiding the athletes through drills. They are behind the scenes ensuring events run properly. And they are giving and receiving more high fives and hugs than they can count.

"I love working with the athletes. I love their spirit, their joy, their playfulness and their dedication to their sport. They have taught me a valuable of patience and staying in the moment. What wonderful friends I have made through Special Olympics," says Joy Kolesky, Mutual 2.

MEN'S GOLF CLUB

Longtimer Harry Konishi turns over membership duties

by David LaCascia
LW contributor

After 11 years of devoted service, Harry Konishi is turning in his tee as membership chairman of the LW Men's Golf Club.

During his tenure, membership practices were streamlined, member directories were regularly produced and total club membership increased. Something that will be especially missed by the members are the doughnuts Harry faithfully delivered to every club meeting.

Harry was born on July 25, 1927, in Fort Lupton, Colorado. His parents immigrated from Japan to the U.S. around 1915. He married his late wife, Thelma, who was also a golfer, and they had three children, Claudine in Irvine and Colleen in Hawaii. Their son, Calvin, passed away several years ago. Harry is the proud grandfather of four and great-grandfather of two.

Harry moved to Leisure World in early 1984 and started playing golf that very day. On his second day as a resident, he had a hole-in-one on the seventh hole. Since then, "They have been few and far between," he joked.

Harry joined the Men's Golf Club that year and has held every position except president. His tenure as membership chairman is by far the longest of any board member and he's been golfing here long enough to remember the temporary starter shack on the sixth tee, although he doesn't remember why it was there.

LADIES' GOLF CLUB

Chip-ins were plentiful during final week

The Ladies' Golf Club played its third and final week of the club championship tournament. The winners were announced at the Ladies Golf Club luncheon on June 3.

Fifty-one members played for low gross, low net and chip-ins on May 28. Ten players chipped the golf ball from off the green directly into the hole.

The winners were:

Flight A - Low gross, Devora Kim, 28; low net, tie between Ann Tran and Yvonne Yim, 24; and chip-ins/hole, Jane Song, No. 5, Sandy Derouin, No. 6, Mary Ann Moore, No. 2, and Soo Choi, No. 7.

Flight B - Low gross, tie between Grace Choi, Marilyn Hewitt and Theresa Lim, 30; low net, Melinda Lee, 23; chip-ins/hole, Melinda Lee, No. 1, and Young Yoon, No. 1.

Flight C - Low gross, tie between Keiko Sekino and Betty Regalado, 30; low net, Laura Garcia, 22; chip-ins/hole, Laura Garcia, No. 5, Hailee Yang, No. 8.

Flight D - Low gross, Kay Hong, 30; low net, Jean Cose, 24; and chip-ins/hole, Kay Hong, No. 2, and Susan Abouaf, No. 4.

Harry Konishi has been a mainstay with Men's Golf Club, holding all positions, except president and increased membership during his tenure.

Harry started golfing in 1976 when he lived in Buena Park. He played all over Orange County and fondly recalls the various courses and the changes over the years.

He says that the LW Golf course has not changed much other than the trees are larger.

He also recalled the two golf matches played between the Laguna Woods and LW Men's Golf Clubs in the late 80s or early 90s. He says we got "beat bad" both times.

A more recent milestone for Harry happened in September 2017. He writes: "Believe it or not, I am now on Facebook!"

Although no longer playing golf, he is still a member of the club and participates in social events and club meetings.

Thank you, Harry, for your many years of dedicated service from all the fellas at the Men's Club. We'll be seeing you around the greens.

GUYS AND GALS

Circle hole winners were abundant

The second May Guys and Gals golf tournament was played on May 29 at the local course. The morning was cool, but sunny and stayed that way for the entire tournament.

Thirty-five teams of one man and one woman competed over 18 holes in three flights. "A" Flight has teams with combined handicaps of 0 - 10. "B" Flight 11 - 14, and "C" Flight 15 - 18. All scores are net: (actual score minus handicap).

No golfer had a hole-in-one, but there were 14 circle hole winners, the most in recent memory.

A Flight winners: Young Lee-Hae Lee, 43; Bill Lyons- Pam Krug, 44; Bob Tuner-Janice Turner, 46; and Alan Sewell-Patti Smith, 47.

B Flight winners: Dale Williamson-Mary Greig, 41; Mike Carlson-Yvonne Kim, 45; Steve Moody-Sandy Derouin, 47; Terry Thrift-Liz Meripol, 48.

C Flight : First place had a three way tie between Bill Zurn-Neva Senske, Joon Yoon-Young Yoon and Lee Broadbent-Joanne Lim, 45; and a four way tie for second place between Marvin Jones-Marliyn Hewitt, Jae H. Lee-Sun Lee, James Choi-Grace Choi, and Suk Im-Ock Im, 49.

Closest to the pin on hole No. 8 was Bob Barnum, 5-foot, 2 inches and Laura Garcia, 13-foot, 8 inches. On the 17th hole it was Fujio Norihiro, 1-foot, 3 inches, and JoAnn Lim, 4-foot, 5 inches.

The Guys and Gals Tournament is held on the third Wednesday of each month, and on the fifth Wednesday of months that contain five Wednesdays. The next tournament is scheduled for June 19.

The Men's Golf Club annual picnic is at the Clubhouse 1 picnic area on Wednesday, June 19, at 1 p.m. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased from the golf course starter. The menu consists of barbecued ribs and fried chicken plus soup, salads, mashed potatoes, rolls, and dessert. Cut off date to purchase tickets is Friday, June 14.

The Men's Golf Club meeting is June 11 in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, at 9 a.m. Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Bingo words played in May were 'control,' 'natures,' 'coasting'

by Maria Giegerich
LW contributor

High scores told the story of the month for Scrabble Club members. Larry Edgar edged out everyone with 444 points. Ruth Depuy scored 413. Seven players ended their games in the high 300s. Larry Edgar had three such games while Zoe Pickell did it twice. The remaining five were single high scorers, Marilyn Moody, Sylvia Makus, Pam Smithson, Florence Nesland and Maria Giegerich.

Playing all seven tiles in a single turn, a bingo, is very difficult. Doing so earns the player 50 additional points. Three members were able to do it in May. Ruth Depuy's word was "control" Patricia Cor-dray's "natures" and Flo Thompson's "coasting."

Members play three successive games each one-on-one unless an odd number of players attend, in which case one table plays a trio. Most games end in the mid-200s.

The challenge takes place Wednesday afternoons in Clubhouse 3, Room 5 beginning at 1 p.m. Newcomers are welcome. Players are asked to arrive early as games start promptly at 1. Contact Flo Nesland at 598-1384 for questions or further information.

SHUFFLEBOARD

The 2018/2019 Shuffleboard Club's league play continued into Week 28 on May 31. The games were touch and go for awhile, but the Puck Masters pulled ahead of the Classics with a 1-1/2 point lead, with only one game to go.

Puck Masters narrowly leads The Classics 19-1/2 to 18; Sliders are in third with 11 points and Girl Power trails with 7-1/2 points.

The Sliders beat The Classics 10-8. The Sliders all game winner was Connie Lee. The Classics all game winner was Ellie West.

Puckmasters beat Girl Power 13-5. Puck Masters all game winners were Sal LaScala, Gary Jantzen, Bob Peterson and Darlene Meyers.

The last league game, Week 29, will be June 7 at the Clubhouse 1

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
 • There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
 • When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
 • Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
 • Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
 • Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
