USE OF COMMUNITY FACILITIES

Clubhouse Displays

All clubhouses and Trust property are available for the temporary display of artwork created by Golden Rain Foundation (GRF) Members as space permits. The Recreation Department head, in consultation with the Architectural Design and Review (ADR) Committee, is responsible for the display of such artwork in the clubhouses.

Display of artwork is at the discretion of the Recreation Department head, in consultation with representatives of arts and crafts clubs and/or the ADR, to make the selections for display.

Permanent display of artwork or pictures will not be permitted without specific permission of the Recreation Department head in consultation with the ADR.

Honorariums earned by members or clubs may be temporarily or permanently displayed at the discretion of the Recreation Department head in consultation with ADR.

All artwork is the responsibility of the owner. In case of loss or damage, the owner will hold harmless the (GRF) for any loss or damage to same.

GRF President's office and employees' offices are exempt from this policy.
