LOS AL ARMY AIRFIELD Training exercises bring airfield traffic

A U.S. Army aviation unit from Hawaii will conduct night flight operations at Los Alamitos Army Airfield (LAAAF) on the Joint Forces Training Base through Jan. 31. The visiting unit is staging at LAAAF while supporting soldiers training at the National Training Center near Barstow. The training is designed to maintain overall operational readiness and proficiency of the soldiers in the air and on the ground and will include periods of increased air traffic.

Residents living near Joint Forces Training Base may hear aircraft arriving and departing outside of normal airfield operating hours and increased aircraft noise during the hours of darkness. Efforts will be taken to minimize inconvenience during the training. For additional information, contact Col. (CA) Richard Lalor at 795-2096 or via email at richard.w.lalor2.nfg@mail.mil, or Senior Airman Crystal Housman at (805) 458-3825 or via email at crystal.c.housman.mil@mail.mil.

COPY & SUPPLY CENTER Notary service is now available

Leisure World residents now have notary services, $15 per signature, available by appointment in the Copy & Supply Center in Building 5. For an appointment, call 431-6586, ext. 345. The Copy & Supply Center also carries small items, such as batteries, shower heads, fire extinguishers, emergency vests and other items, from the Purchasing Department.

People who use medical alert systems prolong independence because they can count on immediate help in the event of incapacitation.

HEALTH WATCH

Get help with the push of a button

Studies show that seniors who receive medical assistance within one hour following an emergency have a 90-percent chance of maintaining independence. Medical professionals call this the “Golden Hour.” In Leisure World, it’s easy to have a lifeline to immediate help. And the reasons to link up are compelling.

Consider this:

- After the age of 65, six out of 10 visits a person will make to a hospital emergency room are a result of a fall in or around the home, according to the Consumer Product Safety Council.
- 30 percent of people over the age of 65 fall each year, according to the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.
- 50 percent of older adults hospitalized with a hip fracture are unable to return home or live independently again, according to the American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons.
- 45 percent of all household accidents resulting in serious injuries take place in the bathroom and 20 percent occur in the kitchen, according to the Consumer Safety Council.

Subscribers of medical emergency response systems, like Lifeline, have fewer hospital admissions and shorter stays after they subscribe. This allows them to live independently longer, according to a study by The New England Journal of Medicine. Recently in LW, a resident lay incapacitated for 36 hours before help arrived, and it’s not an uncommon occurrence here.

According to the New England Journal of Medicine, the mortality rate is five times higher for people laying alone for 12 hours vs. those who get immediate help.

Medical alert systems are gaining popularity as affordable protection for seniors. Medical monitoring is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week, and if emergency assistance is required, an individual can speak to trained emergency medical personnel within seconds through a two-way voice communication device. Most call centers employ trained and certified healthcare professionals that have the knowledge and experience to effectively respond to emergency medical situations. In Leisure World, medical alert devices are a phone call away.

For decades, the Golden Age Foundation oversaw a Lifeline program that connected residents to LW Security, and later, to an outside emergency response team. Then the Health Care Center managed the program, ultimately handing it off to Tunstall Emergency Alert, a leading provider of telecare/telehealth solutions

A Message from the GRF President

On behalf of GRF, I am taking this opportunity to express sincere regret over a recent paid advertisement that was placed as an insert in the LW Weekly. It was regarding property values and the Mutual financial qualification process. This insert has caused great concern in our community.

Linda Stone

The publishing of paid advertisements in any GRF publication does not indicate any recommendation, endorsement, or any opinion about the advertiser’s message. GRF does not make any representation or agreement regarding the quality or accuracy of a paid advertisement.

In December, a local real estate firm, doing business in our community, attended the Communications Committee meeting. The company representatives, one of whom lives here, requested that they be allowed to place a paid advertisement within the LW Weekly. The committee examined the proposed advertisement but took no position on its accuracy or veracity...only that the ad appeared to meet the GRF policy for placing such an ad. The committee understood the potential controversial nature of the ad and determined that it would only be allowed as an insert to the newspaper, not a printed advertisement. An error was made that the term “Paid Advertisement” did not appear on the insert.

The truth is real estate sales in California are dropping. That is also true nationwide. Seal Beach Leisure World does have a larger inventory of units for sale than in recent history. But, as reported in the Jan. 13, 2019, Orange County Register, the City of Seal Beach sales as a whole are down 40.9 percent from 2018. The OC Register reports that our sister community, Laguna Woods, is down 39.2 percent, Los Alamitos is

GRF ADMINISTRATION

Elevator repairs are underway

The elevator in the GRF Administration building is out of service until a date to be determined in March to undergo essential repairs. During this time, people who are unable to use the stairs should go to the Stock Transfer Office on the ground floor of the Administration Building, where the receptionist will help them connect with staff on the second floor. All public meetings usually held in the Administration Conference Room have been moved to either Conference Room B in Building 5 or to Clubhouse 3. People can check the calendar or contact Administration or Mutual Administration staff for more information. The GRF apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause. Updates will be publicized in the LW Weekly and via LW Live!

OC Senior Needs Assessment

The Orange County Office on Aging (OoA) is working with the Orange County Aging Services Collaborative (OCASC) to conduct a needs assessment of older adults residing in Orange County. The focus of this assessment is to evaluate issues and perceived needs of older adults. In a 2017 needs assessment, respondent's top three concerns were socialization, 54 percent; financial assistance, 43 percent; and transportation, 40 percent. The Office on Aging is requesting Leisure World residents' assistance in completing the 10-minute needs assessment survey to identify new and current needs within the community. People can participate in one of three different ways: 1. Access the survey on www.surveymonkey.com/r/2018ocascsln. 2. Complete the survey at the Leisure World Health Care Center Lobby area and submit in the enclosed locked box. 3. Complete the survey at the Leisure World Library and submit in the enclosed locked box. This survey is anonymous; however, people seeking additional personalized assistance have an option to leave contact information or they can call the Office on Aging at (714) 480-6450 or (800) 510-2020. With community help, the Office on Aging can continue to employ collaborative partnerships and innovative programming to maximize limited resources and improve the older adult service delivery system in Orange County. Surveys can be submitted through the end of February.

down 57.1 percent, and Westminster is down 35.9 percent. We may be a gated community, but we are not immune to the challenges faced by our neighboring communities. The fact is that the Mutual Board of Directors are volunteers who devote many long hours to serve their shareholders and protect their respective assets. Fiduciary responsibility (acting in the best interest of the shareholders) is one of the most important and challenging duties that Mutual Board Members face. Establishing a policy for financially qualifying in order to purchase a home in any Mutual is a critical step in safeguarding the Mutual's financial health. Buyers must be able to afford to pay the monthly assessment, not only today but in the future. If they can't, ultimately it costs the Mutual's bottom line and that means it costs you, the shareholder. GRF takes its responsibilities serving the Mutuals very seriously. We also take seriously the image we project to the surrounding communities, and we have worked hard these past years to enhance that image. GRF, its volunteer Board of Directors and its management team are always in search of better ways to do things. The approach taken is that "good" is not good enough. We are in search of excellence. On behalf of GRF we regret the concern this may have caused our shareholders and the backlash many Mutual Directors have received. They deserve better, and we are committed to ensuring this does not happen again. We are grateful for the opportunity to serve this community and appreciate your continued trust and support. GRF invites all Mutual Presidents and/or Board Members, who wish to participate in making a factual rebuttal to the advertisement, to contact the Communications Committee. The submitted rebuttals will be printed in the LW Weekly. With sincere apologies from myself, the GRF Board of Directors and the Management Team.

SENIOR PATRIOTS FOR PEACE

Main Gate vigil to honor Dr. King’s legacy

by Lucille Martin
LW contributor

Senior Patriots for Peace will resume peace vigils on Jan. 30 from 4-5:30 p.m. on the sidewalk along Seal Beach Boulevard at the main entrance of Leisure World.

The GRF Board of Directors observed the Martin Luther King federal holiday in Leisure World with a celebration for all shareholders on Jan. 21.

Senior Patriots for Peace will continue the remembrance of Dr. King’s life by dedicating the peace vigil to the legacy of the Civil Rights activist and Nobel Peace Prize recipient.

Available signs will reflect King’s message of non-violence, peace, equality and justice for all.

Following King’s assassination in 1968, his widow, Coretta Scott King, reinforced his message when she said “We must never stop trying to push back the barriers of discrimination, hatred and suffering. We must always strive to make change in a forceful, but nonviolent manner. To do otherwise would be to turn our backs on the principals for which Martin Luther King Jr. stood.”

The principals for which King stood are reflected in the Senior Patriots for Peace Mission Statement, “to call attention to the need for a return to peace in our cities and our world with a renewed tolerance of others.” To that end, the club additionally focuses on issues of social justice and the environment to nurture a world where people can live healthy and peaceful lives for generations to come. As Dr. King said, without justice, there can be no peace.

All are invited to take action and pay tribute to the legacy of Dr. King by participating in the peace vigil between 4-5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 30. Rain will cancel. For further information, call Lucille Martin at 430-1047.

Playing games help people stay sharp, and it’s a great chance to socialize.

LW LIBRARY

Game Day is Feb. 21 at Vets Plaza

The Leisure World Library wil host another Game Day at under the red-and-white canopy at Veterans Plaza from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. on Feb. 21.

Residents are invited to come and play Yahtzee, checkers, Uno, Battleship, mahjong, Cornhole, Ladder Toss, Giant Jenga, Giant Connect Four and more.

The Wii video game console will be set up with sports games and library staffers will be there, ready to play.

Studies show that older adults should intentionally exercise their brains on a regular basis. Seniors who engaged in cognitive exercises by playing board games or doing Sudoku puzzles were much less likely to develop dementia than those who did not.

And playing games is a fun way to socialize and meet people. All are welcome.

RECREATION COMMITTEE

Flea market dates assigned by GRF

LW clubs and organization may apply at the GRF Recreation Office in Building 5 to host a flea market or rummage sale as an organization fundraiser. Flea market spaces will be raffled off in a lottery. Winners will be drawn at random on Jan. 31. Flea market dates will be assigned by the Reservations Office, according to space available, but clubs may express a preference for the month of their sale. The GRF Recreation Committee has approved three open flea market reservations a year, subject to clubhouse availability. Take time to know your neighbors

Mutual 14

Most of us would agree that Leisure World is a good place to live for those of us approaching, or in, retirement.

I, too, have felt this way since moving here seven years ago. Because of the age requirement, obviously the average age is very skewed, resulting in more deaths than the normal population, all to be expected.

I am a resident of Mutual 14, where in the past few months we have had an unusually large number of shareholders close by, who have passed away.

I found myself perplexed, uneasy, and somewhat depressed over this. In reviewing it over and over in my mind, I wasn't able to figure out what was bothering me.

I had known most of them, they were older, some of them lived very close by. Some had been hospitalized, but I didn't know that.

Some had had a recent change in their health status. I wasn't aware of that. I finally realized that as close as we live to each other, I had not kept in touch with them adequately.

Some, I walk by their unit every time I go to my car, yet I was somewhat surprised when learning of their passing.

Even as retired people, we often have busy lives, sometimes missing those around us who may need a little extra attention or a visit or just a friendly conversation.

I think there is a bigger lesson to be learned by me, and maybe some of you, too.

In living so close to one another among people age 55 and

Odd UPS phishing scam by phone fails to fool LWers

by Jim Breen
jimb_news@lwsb.com

A Leisure World couple received three calls last week from John Meyers, who was falsely representing United Parcel Service (UPS).

He talked about a delivery to their Mutual 8 home that contained a check for a large amount of money. "My husband talked with him to try to get more information and thought that it was an obvious scam," she said.

"The guy's voice sounded digitized, possibly disguised. At first we thought it was a robo call," said the husband.

He left a return number to call, but the couple refused to take the bait. Most phishing scams using UPS arrive via email, but this attempt in LW came by telephone.

UPS made it clear on its website that the international shipping company wants to learn about such scams:

"If you suspect someone is fraudulently claiming to be UPS, let us know at fraud@ups.com. Reporting fake or bogus contacts helps us in our fight against criminal activity," it read.

I got an odd email last week from an inspection officer at Salisbury-Ocean City Airport in Wicomico, Maryland, about a shipment waiting for me to claim. It made no sense to contact a stranger in California, but Spencer Williams found me in Seal Beach, more than 2,700 miles away.

I don't know anyone in Maryland, and don't expect any large shipments.

In tiring detail, he described the size of a 180-pound crate with a trolley handle that he found abandoned in the airport. It contained three packages, and one revealed $3.5 million when scanned. How that was done, I will never know.

"The address in the shipping manifest is very oddly, which made us to put the package on hold as abandoned," he wrote in clumsy English.

"I hope we can work together."

Have you been the victim of a scam attempt? Send details to Jim Breen at the email address above or call 431-6586, ext. 387, Wednesday- Friday between 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Ada Briceño, newly elected chair of Democratic Party in Orange County.

LW DEMOCRATS

New leadership for OC Demos was selected

January continues to be a busy month for Orange County Democrats. On Jan. 14 the party elected a new leadership team to lead Orange County Democrats through the 2020 Presidential campaign cycle.

The new team includes Ada Briceño as chair and Victor Valladares as vice chair of the Western Region, which includes Seal Beach. Briceño is the first Latina to lead the team in more than two decades. She came to the U.S. at age 6, when her family fled Nicaragua’s revolution and she is currently co-president of UNITE HERE, Local 11, in Orange County. In the Jan. 17 issue of the Orange County Register, Briceño spoke about her plans for the party, looking to what happened in the last election in Costa Mesa as a model to follow.

All Leisure World Democrats, regardless of whether or not they are current members of the Democratic Club, are urged to come out to vote on Sunday, Jan. 27, to help elect delegates to the 2019-2020 California Democratic Party Central Committee. Fellowship is important at Faith Christian Assembly

Most people know from experience that having good friends can enrich their lives.

But research now shows that friends may also increase longevity.

In a 10-year longevity study of people 70 and older, the Centre for Aging Studies concluded that a network of good friends is more likely than close family relationships to increase longevity in seniors.

With that in mind, all are invited to Faith Fellowship at Faith Christian Assembly.

Every Tuesday from 11 a.m.-2:30 p.m., the group meets for fellowship, games, sack lunches, worship and prayer in the church's Garden Room. It is directed by Dave and Sharron Thomas.

All are invited to attend and bring a friend.

Tuesday is Faith Fellowship, at 11 a.m. in the Garden Room midweek Bible study taught by Pastor Sheri Leming is at 7 p.m., Wednesdays in the Garden Room.

Ruthie Nelson (l), reached her short term goal and Carol Chambers was the top loser the week for the Wa-Rite Club.

Carol Chambers was Wa-Rite Club’s top loser of the week

by Margaret Humes
LW contributor

Carol Chambers was able to shed two pounds to emerge as the top loser of the week on Jan. 18 at the weekly Wa-Rite Club meeting. Her success came despite not being able to take her outdoor walks because of the rain.

But that didn’t stop Carol, who got out an exercise CD and worked out at home. She also continued to journal her food intake and cut back on portions.

The food for thought was, “It’s a new year for a new goal, try to practice portion control.” That worked in well with the program title, “Get Serious!” by Margaret Humes.

After indulging during the holidays, some members veered off track for a few days before going back to eating healthy and sensibly.

Others got derailed and out of control. It doesn’t take long to fall back into old and unhealthy eating habits.

We become compulsive and need to stop and get serious. Mental attitude is a major key to success. Deciding it’s time to make a change, committing to a group of peers with the same struggles, arming yourself with knowledge of healthy foods and a plan to take control is a good start.

Avoid highly processed foods laden with sugar, chemicals and growth hormones will help improve quality of life.

Our bodies become insulin resistant and that leads to a host of other problems.

If you are out of control, welcome to the human race and join Wa-Rite, a support group for women needing to lose 10 pounds or more.

Members meet on Fridays in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, from 9-10 a.m. Weigh-ins are from 7:45-8:45 a.m.

Annual dues are $10.

To join or visit a meeting call Diana Goins at 760-1293.

COMMUNITY SING

Betty Ballen will lead sing-along

by Ethel Carter
LW contributor

The Community Sing will meet Monday night, Jan. 28, at 6:30 p.m. in the lobby of Clubhouse 3.

Come and enjoy singing or just listen to old favorite songs accompanied by a pianist. Come at 6 p.m. to be part of the first half hour of Opening Acts. Bring music for the pianist and sign in with leader Betty Ballen. Betty’s half-time guest will be the famed singer and ukelele player, Sam Calderon.

On Jan. 14 Ethel Carter was the emcee. Opening Acts began with Byong Choi singing “Anything That’s Part of You” accompanied by Pat Kogok.

Then Jerry Schwin sang a song he composed called “Huckle Buck,” which he did a capella.

A hard rain that night kept people away, but audience enthusiasm more than made up for sparse attendance.

At 7:15 Ethel introduced her half-time guest, “Mr. Hank” Barto. He thrilled the audience with his skillful piano playing and singing.

The audience gave him a standing ovation for his performance of “La Paloma,” “I’m Confessing that I Love You,” “Here’s That Rainy Day,” “For All We Know,” “As Time Goes By,” “The Entertainer,” “These Foolish Things” and “Music of the Night” from Phantom of the Opera.

Many thanks to pianist, Pat Kogok.

that has helped scores of LWers.

"A quick response from a monitoring center can be the difference between life and death in an emergency," said Tunstall Medical Alert Consultant Heidi Maddocks, who serves in Leisure World.

“But in a situation that doesn’t require EMTs, simply knowing that a friendly voice will always be there when you press your medical alert button is just as important. In fact, our operators dispatch non-emergency services more often than EMTs, police officers and firefighters combined. So whether you want a friend or neighbor to check in on you, or if you simply need someone to lend an ear, you can use your medical alert for any situation.”

About 125 residents currently have the alert system, which costs $29.95-$49.95 per month, depending on the level of service requested. Leisure World residents receive a $5-per-month discount for any service selected. The discount is exclusively for Leisure World Seal Beach.

The service includes free activation, free installation and free unlimited service calls. Tunstall offers a no-contract, month-to-month service for programs such as Medical Alert for Home, Medical Alert for On The Go (GPS) and Fall Detection.

Depending on which personal emergency medical alert system is selected, a lightweight and water-resistant medical alert button can be worn around the neck, wrist or on a belt clip so people can comfortably and discreetly wear it at all times, even in the shower.

When the button is pressed, the device immediately sends a wireless signal to Tunstall's monitoring center. Within moments of pressing the medical alert button, you will be connected to a company operators who is trained to handle any situation, even those that don't require emergency personnel.

Upon subscribing, a medical alert consultant will come to the home and help create a specialized profile, including a list of emergency contacts that is kept on file.

This enables operators to call family or other members when the medical alert system is activated.

The installation typically takes 45 minutes. Heidi or one of the company's other trained reps sits down with residents and builds their profile, including allergies they may have, medical conditions they want listed, and family friends and neighbors to be notified in case of an emergency.

The medical alert representative will then set up the system and test to ensure everything is working properly.

For more information on Tunstall, call (949) 339-3200. For general information, call Cindy Tostado, GRF member resources and assistance liaison, at 431-6586, ext. 317. She has a complete list of agencies that provide emergency response systems.

Hui O Hula gets the crowd going with audience participation. The Hawaiian hula club is looking forward to entertaining at LW Community Sings' half-time on Feb. 4.

HUI O HULA

Learn how to hula or just listen to live aloha music on Mondays

Hui O Hula welcomes everyone to try hula, the Hawaiian dance, or even just listen to live Hawaiian music at 10 a.m. on Mondays upstairs in Clubhouse 6. All classes are free.

Musician Jim Coots plays and sings traditional Hawaiian songs for an hour on Mondays. Instructor Jojo Weingart will translate the Hawaiian lyrics and explain the movements before each dance.

In Tuesday's class, dancers are learning the hula to the song "Kaneohe." Class begins at 1:15 p.m.

This song, written in the 1930s, commemorates the installation of electricity at Kaneohe, located on the windward side of O'ahu. In 1881, King Kalakaua met Thomas Edison in New York to see the incandescent light bulb. Iolani Palace, the only palace in the United States, became one of the world's first royal residences to be lit by electricity in 1886.

Honolulu streets were lit by electricity for the first time in 1888.

In 1914, Hawaiian Electric established service to Kaneohe by stringing an 11,000 volt line over the mountain range to service a wireless telegraph company. All are welcome to watch or learn this hula. For more information, call 431-2242.

OPERA CLUB

Mascagni's 'Cavalleria Rusticana' will be shown on Feb. 5 in CH 3

Everyone is invited to come and watch Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, at 1:30 p.m. on Feb. 5. This opera is a first cousin to "Pagliacci," which the club enjoyed in January.

"Cavalleria," another short opera, which was first performed two years earlier, also took place in a small Italian village, also in the Verismo style, with themes of love, rejection, infidelity and murderous rage.

This opera of rustic chivalry is a newly revised production by the German director Philipp Stolzi, under the baton of Christian Thielemann at the Osterfestspiel Salzburg and features the popular tenor Jonas Kaufmann.

In the Prelude, a young man Turiddu is seen singing of his love for Lola while the villagers of a small town in Sicily are preparing for Mass at the local Church. In fact Turiddu is the spouse of Santuzza and loving father to their child, an altar boy in the church. Santuzza sends them both off to celebrate Easter Sunday, but instead she visits Turiddu's mother Mamma Lucia to talk about her son.

Her approach unfortunately is interrupted by Alfio, husband of Lola, who enters to demand the whereabouts of Turiddu. Mamma Lucia claims no knowledge, then attends half-heartedly to Santuzza's tale about Turridu's secret pursuit of Lola. Not getting a sympathetic ear, Santuzza proceeds to Turiddu to berate him, but is interrupted by the arrival of Lola. Distraught, Santuzza blurts out her tale of woe to Alfio who swears revenge.

The intermezzo contains beautiful music as the serenity of the village is contrasted with the emotions of the action onstage. When Turridu comes out of the church, he invites everyone in town to celebrate Easter Sunday with sparkling wine and a most spectacular drinking song. Alfio enters to challenge Turridu and defend his honor. Turridu departs, asking Mamma Lucia to look after Santuzza.

The music swells to a violent pitch, until the townspeople rush back to report Turridu has been killed.

The opera is sung in Italian with English subtitles. Room 1 will be open at 1 p.m. (but not before).

No dues are collected.

LBSO

Round-trip bus is available to Feb. 2 concert

The Long Beach Symphony Orchestra will provide round trip bus transportation from Leisure World for concert-goers who are at the bus loading area in front of the Amphitheater on Saturday, Feb. 2, by 5:45 p.m. The bus departs at 6. People can purchase round-trip tickets at the bus for $16 cash (exact change requested) or personal check.

Lovers of the Classical period will revel in a program that features Beethoven's epic "Eroica" and a lovely work by the first classical composer of African ancestry, Josef Boulogne, sometimes referred to as the "Black Mozart." The two were acquainted, and in his spirited Overture to Lamant anonyme, the stylistic similarities are unmistakable.

The concert will also include Haydn's Symphony No. 85. The work was a favorite of Marie Antoinette who was Queen of France at that time. Haydn's music had a substantial influence on later composers, including Beethoven, who was his pupil.

Beethoven's Symphony No. 3, Eroica, is a work of epic proportion that marks an important landmark in the transition between the Classical and Romantic periods.

For information about purchasing single concert tickets and purchasing bus tickets on credit cards, call 436-3203, ext. 1. Learn more about purchasing remaining season and bus tickets with discounts by joining with the LWSB Opera Club.

Future concerts are scheduled for March 9, April 27 and June 8, featuring symphonies by Mozart, Sibelius and others, and Beethoven's 9th Symphony with soloists and chorus

Elm Street Band

GRF

Elm Street Band comes to LW Valentine’s Day

The GRF Third Annual Valentine’s Day Dance, slated for Thursday, Feb. 14, is just around the corner, and this year will be a free event for all GRF members. The romantic not-for-couples-only evening begins at 5 p.m. in Clubhouse 2. Koffel’s will provide its famous virgin margarita and piña colada bar for purchase. People can bring their own snacks and beverages. Music and dancing with the Elm Street Band will round out the evening.

In 1986, somewhere between a luau in Hawaii and the Rock n’ Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland, The Elm Street Band was born at the corner of Elm Street and Anaheim Street in Long Beach. They rocked a house party that night and the rest is history.

Elm Street Band is one of the most well-known bands in the area and headlines the Long Beach Summer Concert Series along with the Long Beach Municipal Band.

Fans in greater Long Beach refer to Elm Street Band as “The world’s greatest garage band world.” That garage band feel is a big part of their secret. As vocalist and keyboard player Roland Misajon puts it, “A garage band... that’s exactly what we’ll be ‘till the final curtain. There’s not another

LONG BEACH STATE

Excitement abounds at ‘The Beach’ games

by Cathie Merz
cathiemerz_new@lwsb.com

Go Black and Gold! Go Black and Gold...

Be part of the crowd on Wednesday, March 6, as the Long Beach State (CSULB) 49ers take on the Highlanders of UC, Riverside, at the Long Beach Pyramid for the final game of the men’s basketball season.

Now with LeBron James in town it is nearly impossible to get a ticket to see the Lakers play, and if a ticket is available it is usually over $100 for a seat in the rafters next to where the banners hang.

For only $6, including transportation, Leisure World shareholders can attend a highly entertaining game and sit so close to the action you can hear Coach Dan Monson, in his 18th season, barking at the refs and players.

“The ‘Niners” or “The Beach” as fans affectionately refer to their team, play an exciting brand of basketball, led by seniors Temidayo Yussuf and Deishuan Booker.

Booker is second in the league in free throw percentage, slightly below 90 percent. He set a school record in the first league game this season, going 19 of 20. He is also leads the team’s in scoring and dishing out assists.

Yussuf is a beast in the middle, hauling in rebounds and barreling his way to the rim to score. He is one of the leaders in Big West in several categories.

KJ Byers, Edon Maxhuni and Jordan Roberts also are known to score in double-figures for the Beach, while the other senior big man, Mason Riggins, is another beast in the rebounding department for the Beach.

It’s hard not to get excited during the game. Ask Perry Moore and Norma Poe, Mutual 17.

Moore, who rarely misses a game, was the athletic director at Long Beach from 1974-1982, and even after retiring, is found courtside at the Walter Pyramid.

“Perry is the best booster any university can have,” says the school’s former president, Dr. Robert Maxson.

Perry donates money to the university’s athletic programs, and is always willing to lend his support. One of his donations is the Perry Moore scoreboard located at the west end of the Pyramid.

There all kinds of activities going on during the timeouts, including 49er cheer and dance teams performances, corny contests that are worth a laugh and watching the big screen as it pans the crowd usually focusing on cute kids up to silly antics. And once “The Beach” scores 49 points, the popcorn is on the house.

Where else does $6 go so far? Hurry to the Recreation Office in Building 5 to make reservations or email events@lwsb.com, or call 431-6586, ext. 324.

Guests are welcome, but must be accompanied by a GRF member. No accessible seating is available for this event.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Senior finances is topic tomorrow

Olivia Clauson, financial manager, will be the guest speaker at the Sunshine Club, tomorrow, Jan. 25, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. Her talk will be about seniors and finances.

Clauson began a new career in financial management in 2017 and has been busy studying, training, earning certificates and licensing.

She is excited to share her knowledge with her Leisure World neighbors and to use her training to make better financial decisions in her own life and theirs.

Inflation is one danger facing seniors today. The life expectancy of a person retiring at age 65 is 20 years. Preserving capital in retirement and keeping up with the rising cost of living is key.

The second financial challenge facing today’s seniors is time itself. Stretching the retirement savings to last 20-30 years requires a sum of money larger than most people realize.

She will cover how seniors can stretch their wealth to keep up with life expectancy after retirement; how to preserve capital in retirement; and keeping up with the rising cost of living.

She is confident that she can help some of her senior neighbors and is thankful for the opportunity.

Clauson was employed by a small manufacturing company in Downey for over 40 years as a human resources manager. In 2017, she started a new career with Revolution Financial Management.

The club appreciates shareholders bringing their own coffee mugs to participate in the “Save The Earth” program.

Shareholders should arrive early to guarantee good seats.

The Sunshine Club is designed to help people get along in the community, for neighbors to have better communication and to get the best out of living in Leisure World.

Classes are held from 10 a.m.-noon on Fridays, in Clubhouse 3, Room 2 (except the first Friday in Room 8). All shareholders are welcome to attend; membership is not required. Refreshments are served. Bring a cup for coffee.

For more information, call Anna Derby, 301-5339.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Civil War band will perform in LW on Feb. 20

Sunshine Club presents The Band of the California Battalion on Wednesday, Feb. 20, in Clubhouse 2 at 7 p.m. The doors will open at 6 p.m. Admission is free.

The Band of the California Battalion, a reenacted Union Civil War Brass Band, begins its 28th year of presenting authentic music from the American Civil War. As their promotional materials suggest, they perform “stirring martial music and poignant popular aires” from a time when “instruments had character and characters had instruments.”

The band was featured at both national Civil War brass band festivals in Campbellsville, Kentucky, the only group from west of the Rocky Mountains. The group was invited twice to be the keynote band at the Gettysburg Brass Band Festival that included emotional command performances for the National Park Service on the battlefield at the Pennsylvania Monument. The Band of the California Battalion was also the only group featured in a special musical performance for the Smithsonian Institute in Washington, D.C. In addition they have toured and performed at Antietam, Harper’s Ferry and the National Civil War Museum in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. They most recently performed at Ft. Sumter in Charleston, South Carolina, for the National Park Service.

The Band of the California Battalion was a featured performer in the inaugural concert series at the new Grammy Museum in Los Angeles, as well as the opening of the new Lincoln Exhibit at the Huntington Library. The Band continues to perform at concerts, reenactments, special performances and festivals around California and around the country.

For more information, call Anna Derby, 301-5339.

As this is expected to be a full-house event, GRF IDs are required at the door and seating will be first come, first served. For information, contact the Recreation Department at 431-6586, ext. 398 or 326, or email events@lwsb.com.

The LW Wine Lovers hosted a holiday dinner on Dec. 28 in Clubhouse 4. Shrimp cocktail, mini meatballs and veggie crudites were served for hors d’oeuvres. Caesar salad was served family style with a buffet of entrees including salmon en crouete, sausage and peppers, chicken fettuccine Alfredo and spinach and cheese raviolis. Italian mini desserts included raspberry, tiramisu, pistachio and triple chocolate. There was a cherry cheesecake and 120 profiteroles with chocolate sauce. “Mr. Hank” Barto played through the night. Mr. Hank said, “it was one of the most elegant events that I have seen in LW.” There was a 50/25/25 raffle with three winners; the top prize was $110.

Hans Solo was rescued from the Long Beach Animal Care Services by Joyce Gillette. Shareholders are reminded to remember the GRF pet policies before adopting a pet.

PET OF THE MONTH

Hans Solo is friendly cat with 9 lives

Hans Solo is 9 years old and he truly does have nine lives. The night before he was scheduled to be put to sleep, he was rescued from Long Beach Animal Care Services by Joyce Gillette. He was deemed unadoptable at 17 pounds during the height of kitten season. Hans loves to nest himself in the dry bathroom sink, and in cardboard boxes. He loves belly rubs, chin rubs, and meeting/greeting people, dogs and other cats. Hans spreads his kitty-joy by visiting folks at nearby nursing homes. Hans is a very loving and caring pet/friend to all. Joyce enjoys her best buddy immensely, and has been an active LW resident for six years in Mutual 5. She came to LW from Long Beach. Joyce is proud to say that she grew up in Youngstown, Ohio. Joyce is relocating to the Carolinas to be closer to family. She will be missed in LW, where she has made many friends.

For more than five years, Kay Matthews, Mutual 2, has knitted 100-plus caps and scarves for the homeless in the Long Beach area. Kay needs yarn or cash donations to help with her ongoing charitable work. Kay knits for Hearts and Hands United in Giving (HHUG), a non-profit organization which includes several other Leisure World members. Kay also knits for her church, the Seal Beach Center for Spiritual Living, where she donates caps and scarves for the homeless. Kay can be reached at 598-1079.

GRF RECREATION

Shareholders invited to see ‘Life Could Be a Dream’

The Golden Rain Foundation Recreation Department will escort an outing to see “Life Could Be a Dream” at the Beverly O’Neill Theater in Long Beach on Thursday, March 7, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $70 and include ticket, bus fare and gratuity for the driver. “Life Could Be a Dream” is a jukebox musical featuring doo-wop music. Jukebox musicals are musical films or stage performances that feature the songs of popular music acts. “Life Could Be a Dream” was written and directed by Roger Bean, creator of “The Marvelous Wonderettes,” and produced by David Elzer. It premiered at the Hudson Theatre in Hollywood on Aug. 7, 2009, and received numerous awards, including the LA Drama Critics Circle award for Production of the Year and the LA Weekly award for Best Musical of the Year. It had a record-breaking 12-month run in Los Angeles. The show is set in 1961, when doo-wop peaked as an intergenerational pop phenomenon that cut across racial and social lines in the United States. Doo-wop first developed in African-American communities in cities across the United States in the 1940s. Early doo-wop was strongly influenced by blues, swing, barbershop quartets and groups like the Ink Spots and the Mills Brothers. Much of it was developed informally by groups of three-six singers on street corners singing a cappella and improvising syllables to go with the vocal harmonies, often imitating instrumental sounds. The show features 21 popular doo-wop songs. The bus will leave from the Amphitheater at 6:15 p.m. Be at the loading area no later than 5:45 p.m. For information, contact the Recreation Office at 431-6586 ext. 326 or email events@lwsb.com.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
• There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
• When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
• Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.

 Ads for a variety of household services may appear in the Handyman and/or House Cleaning classifications.
