GRF SECURITY

$500 reward offered for information leading to hit-and-run arrest

The Golden Rain Foundation is offering a $500 reward for information leading to the arrest of the hit-and-run driver who struck a Leisure World resident walking across St. Andrews Drive at about 8:35 p.m. on Dec. 25. The victim had just parked his vehicle on southbound St. Andrews Drive just past the speed bump before Golden Rain Road. As he began to walk across the roadway, a southbound car struck the man, who was thrown about 30 feet, according to Security. After a few moments, the vehicle drove around the victim and fled the scene.

The victim, who has not been identified, is in stable condition and expected to survive, according to Security. Seal Beach police investigators believe the hit-and-run car may have been a Fiat (or similar-sized car). There would be damage on the driver's side light and bumper.

Anyone with information is asked to call Security Services Director Victor Rocha at 431-6586, ext. 371. People can leave messages 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

GRF ADMINISTRATION

Elevator repairs to begin next Monday

The elevator in the GRF Administration building will be out of service beginning Monday, Jan. 7, until a date to be determined in March to undergo essential repairs.

During this time, people who are unable to use the stairs should go to the Stock Transfer Office on the ground floor of the Administration Building, where the receptionist will help them connect with staff on the second floor.

All public meetings usually held in the Administration Conference Room have been moved to either Conference Room B in Building 5 or to Clubhouse 3.

People can check the calendar or contact Administration or Mutual Administration staff for more information. The GRF apologizes for any inconvenience this may cause. Updates will be publicized in the LW Weekly and via LW Live!.

Sweeping changes started Jan. 1; some will affect everyday life

CALIFORNIA LEGISLATION

New 2019 California laws will raise the minimum age to buy a rifle, determine custody of a pet during divorce and make life easier for home cooks. These are among the hundreds of new California state laws that went into effect on Jan. 1. Here are a few of the ones that people may immediately notice:

• AB 1884: Plastic Straws

Plastic straws are going the way of plastic bags. Dine-in restaurants in the state will be prohibited from giving out single-use plastic straws unless they are requested by a customer. Businesses that don't comply will be fined $25 a day and up to $300 a year.

• SB 1192: Children's Meals

Restaurants with children's meals can no longer offer sugary drinks, such as juice and soda, as the primary choice in their menus. The default option will be milk, water or flavored water with no added sweeteners.

• SB 946: Street Food Vendors

Street vendors will have more freedom to sell food. Cities and counties will not be able to ban sidewalk vendors, but they can set up licensing systems to regulate them. Vendors who violate local laws can only be punished with a fine or citation, not criminal charges.

• SB 1164: Craft Distillers

Craft distillers will be able to operate more like wineries. Starting in 2019, small-batch craft distilleries can sell whiskey, vodka and other spirits directly to customers. Right now, consumers must first take a tour or sign up for a tasting to buy alcohol.

• SB 1138: Vegetarian Meals

There will be more meal options for people in hospitals. Healthcare facilities will now have to offer plant-based meals to patients.

• AB 626: Home Food Businesses

Anyone who can cook can start a business under this new law. It allows people to sell food they make in their home kitchens to the public. They can also prepare dinners in their homes for paying guests. The home kitchens must undergo food safety inspections. Food must be sold directly to consumers, not as part of a delivery service.

• Minimum Wage

The state minimum wage gets another boost to $11 an hour for people working at companies with 25 or fewer employees, and to $12 an hour for those working at companies with 26 or more employees.

• SB 1252: Work Personnel File

Employees who want to check their employment records will be able to do more than just see them at their human resources office. They will be able to request a personal copy of their employment file.

• SB 826: Women on Board of Directors

Publicly traded companies are being put on notice. They must have at least one woman on their boards of directors by the end of 2019 and two or more women on their board of directors by 2021.

• AB 2274: Divorce and Pets

Judges will be able to decide who gets custody of a family pet during a divorce. The judge will consider factors like who takes care or feeds the pet.

• AB 485: Pet Stores

Pet stores will be prohibited from selling live animals like dogs, cats or rabbits that come from breeders. The animals must be obtained from an animal shelter and the store must post the name of the agency where it got the animal.

• AB 2989: Electric Scooters

Adults 18 or older will be allowed to ride electric scooters without a helmet. The new law also increases the speed limit for scooters from 25 to 35 mph. It would

INVESTMENT FORUM

The 2019 financial outlook is topic on Jan. 8 in CH 3

The Investment Forum will meet at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 8, in Clubhouse 3, Room 6. January's presentation will be Outlook 2019—Fundamentals: How to Focus on What Really Matters in the Markets." Several factors are weighing on investor sentiment right now, including policy uncertainty regarding trade, weaker oil prices, the path of interest rates and the geopolitical environment. Despite these pressures, the fundamental backdrop supporting growth in the economy and corporate profits remain sound, suggesting that this recent market weakness may not lead to a recession in 2019. Market volatility can be alarming for investors, yet a combination of high employment, solid consumer spending, improved trends for business investment and mild inflation should result in a firm, fundamental foundation supporting growth in the economy and corporate profits in the year ahead. All are welcome to the presentation. Questions and comments are encouraged.

For over 30 years, the Investment Forum has been committed to informing and educating Leisure World residents by presenting monthly discussions on timely and important financial topics and current economic trends. The Forum provides information residents can use to make more informed and effective financial decisions. Presentations are sponsored by Stratos Wealth Management Group, an independent RIA (Registered Investment Advisor) of LPL Financial. Presentations are hosted by Larry Pino, CTFA, partner and private wealth advisor.

CHILDREN-A-PRIORITY

Guest speaker Jeanne Reinhardt to speak on OC agency for children

Children-A-Priority will meet at noon today, Jan. 3, in Clubhouse 4. Guest speaker Jeanne Reinhardt, RN, will discuss the wide range of benefits provided for children through the Orange County Children and Families Commission. LW residents, and CAP members and their guests are welcome to enjoy a catered luncheon for the new price of $12. The price increase was necessary because caterer expenses have gone up. Also on the agenda is an update on the club's partnering with local children's charities and collaborating with resources to help underprivileged youth. CAP thanks LW residents and members who gave so generously to the club's December toy drive for children of deployed soldiers from the Los Alamitos Joint Forces Training Base. Chris Moore will serve as president in 2019. The club is excited to welcome her enthusiasm and willingness to lead the club into the future. For more information, call (714) 345-5314 or 493-1924.

Pathways seeks 'Friendly Visitors' for lonely neighbors

Many people have had to deal with issues related to safety and their sense of vulnerability. This can lead to isolation, which increases the challenges that come with living alone. Pathways, a local non-profit that works with clients in Leisure World, is looking for volunteers who want to befriend a neighbor and help them to stay independent in their home. A "Friendly Visitor" is someone who visits weekly, giving an hour or two of their time for conversation, social support and/or assistance with errands. Pathways will host a one-hour informational session on Jan. 16, at 10 a.m. in Building 5 (Room C) to go over the organization and share about what it would be like to help someone in the neighborhood feel supported and safe. For more information, contact Tammie Ottenad at Pathways 531-3031 or Cynthia Tostado, LCSW, at 431-6586, ext. 317.

SAFETY FIRST

Pedestrians, drivers should keep an eye on one another

by Eloy Gomez
Safety and Emergency Coordinator

Walking near a road or intersection can be dangerous. Motorists need to be vigilant of pedestrians, and pedestrians need to be vigilant of motorists. Although drivers have more responsibility under the law when operating a motor vehicle, pedestrians have more at stake.

Pedestrians must ensure their own safety when sharing the roadway with vehicles.

Traveling on foot along the road requires careful observation, sound judgment and care.

Walk defensively and be ready for unexpected events. Know what's going on around you and don't allow your vision to be blocked by clothing, hats or items you are carrying.

Most important, never assume you are safe when crossing a street using a crosswalk.

Walk on the sidewalk whenever possible.

Make yourself visible to drivers and make eye contact with them whenever possible. This is especially important at night, in low-light conditions such as dusk or dawn or in inclement weather.

Wear lightly colored or reflective clothing at night and brightly colored clothing during the day.

Carry a flashlight when walking in the dark.

Pedestrians should pay attention to the surrounding roadway and the behavior of an approaching driver. Many motorists may be distracted while driving, and often do not consider whether a pedestrian may be in the area.

Pedestrians should be especially careful at intersections, where drivers may fail to yield the right-of-way to pedestrians while turning onto another street.

Always look left, right, and left again before crossing a street, and keep watching as you cross. Be aware that drivers have differing levels of eyesight and skill in operating motor vehicles.

If possible, make eye contact with drivers in stopped vehicles to ensure they see you before crossing in front of them. Using the orange flags located at many crosswalks in the community is highly encouraged for improved visibility.

Cross streets at a corner, using traffic signals where available and crosswalks. Watch the pedestrian signals, not the traffic signal, and follow the "Walk/Don't Walk" lights.

Look for pedestrian push buttons for crossing protection at signalized intersections. If a crosswalk is unavailable, be sure to cross the road in a well-lit area and wait long enough for gap in traffic.

Use caution when crossing driveways and alley entrances. Drivers may not expect you to be there or see you.

Parking lots can be as dangerous as streets. Pedestrians should avoid walking through parking lots if possible. It can be difficult for a motorist to see a pedestrian walking behind their vehicle due to blind spots.

Pedestrians should avoid items or behavior that could cause them to become distracted while traveling next to the roadway, including listening to music with headphones, texting or talking on cellphones, reading while walking or engaging in inappropriate behavior.

Letter to the Editor

Editor:

Being resilient is one of my New Year's resolutions. I find it to be very rewarding in my daily life aside from having reliable good friends and associates that make life wonderful.

I enjoy attending the seminars at St. Mary's Medical Center in Long Beach and various club meetings in Leisure World. I will take it easy on red meat, sweets, sodium and shortening and eat more fruit and vegetables.

Shopping sprees and daily exercise with friends help keep me alert and enthusiastic. I wish everybody's resolution is to be in the best of health in 2019.

VIEWPOINT

Are New Year's resolutions in one year, out the other?

By Jim Greer, Mutual 11
Leisure World Interfaith Council

Jim Greer

Someone once said, "a New Year's resolution is something that goes in one year and out the other."

Let's face it, most resolutions are abandoned just weeks after they are adopted. So, before we get any further into 2019 let's consider some sound advice on how to succeed at keeping our resolutions.

In the Jan. 12 edition of Fast Company, Stephanie Vozza provided seven simple steps to establish and achieve reasonable New Year's resolutions:

- Focus on goals instead of activities. Activities can change, but goals stay constant. So, stay focused on your goals, and be flexible with the activities that help achieve goals.
- The steps to success should be small. Larger goals are best addressed one small step at a time. Rename those small steps "little successes," and let them bring you closer to the big target.
- Find a quick win. Select a simple, achievable goal and meet it right out of the gate. Let small victories propel you to greater success throughout the year.
- Educate yourself around your goal. Get to know everything you can about your goal and how to achieve it. The more you know, the less likely you are to fail.
- Fight boredom with variety. Attacking a resolution the same way every day can wear you down. Mix it up. Find more interesting paths to your destination.
- Change your language. "Modify your statements with gratitude for what already is," says May McCarthy, author of "The Path to Wealth." The positivity of acknowledging blessings you have already received will lead to even more.
- Expect to make mistakes. Seventy-one percent of people who were successful in keeping their resolutions slipped in the first month, the same rate as did people who were not successful." So, plan a way to deal with your mistakes positively, and success will come.

In the grand scheme of things, what we're trying to accomplish through our resolutions is to change and improve. As seniors, we needn't have change thrust upon us unprepared. If we adopt a regular habit of anticipating change and preparing for it, we can grasp and maintain control over our lives.

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Epiphany Day marks arrival of Wise Men

The end of the Christmas season or Christmastide is on Jan. 6. In western churches, Epiphany Day marks the observance of the arrival of the wise men.

The magi followed a different belief system from that of the family of Jesus, or even the people of Herod's empire. But the signs they saw through the window of their own religious world view compelled them to respond to the beliefs of this other faith tradition.

Seeing Jesus for themselves not only confirmed that he is indeed the one of whom the prophets spoke, but that the sign they read in the sky led them to something real and joyful.

They experienced the divine presence and power personally, kneeling before Him in worship.

All are invited at 9:50 a.m. Sunday when members of Community Church worship Jesus as the magi did so long ago.

Pastor Johan Dodge will give a message titled, "Made Known" from Ephesians 3:1-12 and Matthew 2:1-12. Lois Han will be lay liturgist.

Refreshments and coffee follow in Edgar Hall.

Rev. Johan Dodge will deliver the message "Made Known" Sunday.

FIRST CHRISTIAN

Thursday Bible study resumes this evening

First Christian Church's Calvary Chapel Bible study with Pastor Phil O'Malley will resume at 6 p.m. today, Thursday.

Sunday begins with Elder Jack Frost teaching Bible study at 9 a.m. in the book of Exodus.

At 9:30 a.m. the Hospitality Room opens for fellowship and light refreshments with co-hosts Carol Speake and Sue Kaminski.

Pastor Bruce Humes begins the service at 10:15 a.m. with praise, prayer and Scripture. Margaret Humes will lead the hymns "Cleanse Me," "I'd Rather Have Jesus" and "Jesus Loves Me."

The Communion hymn will be "My Saviors Love."

Directed by Anita Ragole, the choir will sing "Morning Has Broken."

Elder Frost will present the Communion meditation and service.

For the offertory, the Praise

Pastor Phil O'Malley

Team will sing, "I Have Set The Lord Always Before Me."

Jerry Tester will sing, "I Don't Know About Tomorrow," followed by Barbara Frost, who will read Matthew 18:1-4.

The Hospitality Room opens 45 minutes before each service for fellowship and light refreshments.

Prayer and verse-by-verse Bible studies are held on Tuesdays with Pastor Humes and on Thursdays with Pastor Cherryholmes both beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Begin 2019 by attending church services Sunday

A good way to spend the first Sunday of 2019 is to attend services at Faith Christian Assembly. All are welcome and will find friendly people and hear the music at the 10:30 a.m. service. “Where the Hymns are Sung,” under the direction of musician, Ginny Vaughn will be presented, along with Pastor Gwynn Vaughn’s message from God’s Word. Studies have shown that people who attend church and worship regularly tend to be happier than those who do not. Church attendance has also been known to decrease the risk of Alzheimer’s disease. To receive a free newsletter and for more information, call 598-9010 or visit the church website at www.FCAchurch.net.

Senior's Choice services available to all residents

Seniors' Choice Physical Therapy (SCPT) has been serving the Leisure World community since 2008.

Located in the Health Care Center, the program provides patient-focused care for stroke, post-surgical conditions, arthritis, sports injuries, chronic pain, sprains, strains and balance issues.

Staffed with three licensed physical therapists and a certified hand specialist, the service offers more than 75 years of combined experience. The fully equipped gym has two private treatment rooms and nutrition counseling is available..

Owner Jeremy Matteson, Physical Therapist, described the program in a question-and-answer session.

Q: What brought you to Leisure World in 2008?

A: I was invited after several local orthopaedic surgeons endorsed my services. In addition to being a licensed physical therapist, I am certified in strength and conditioning. However, all of our therapists are experts in the care of the senior population. We have extensive experience in balance training, strengthening and the rehabilitation of all musculoskeletal injuries and surgeries.

Q: Is Seniors' Choice Physical Therapy available to all Leisure World residents?

A: Absolutely. In fact, we book about 500 appointments every month.

Q: What do you think of the OptumCare transition at the HCC?

A: It has gone quickly and smoothly from our perspective.

Q: .What do you like about working here?

A: It's the residents who make this community so special.

Q: What's your advice for staying healthy?

A: Active or not, movement is a key component to health. Walking, gardening, swimming and yoga are examples. There's something for everyone, they just have to figure out what it is.

Q: Do you have any holiday safety and travel tips?

A: Be safe, don't rush. Bring a cane or walker if you need one. Avoid carrying heavy items. Get help when you can. Enjoy yourself.

SCPT accepts all major health plans, including traditional Medicare, Medicare Advantage, AARP and commercial plans, as well as cash. Patients should have a referral from their primary care doctor for physical therapy.

Appointments are available weekdays between 8 a.m.-noon and 1-5 p.m. For more information, call 795-6217.

Losers always the winners at Wa-Rite Club

by Margaret Humes
LW contributor

You may not want to be a loser in life but that's what members of the Wa-Rite Club want to be.

After the Christmas festivities, quite a few put on some pounds. And, one of the hardest things to do is show up at the meeting and be accountable.

I'm happy to report that there were losers, led by Kathy Rose, who dropped three pounds.

The club did not meet for a couple of weeks so she said she got her festive eating in early, then got serious.

She kept a journal, drank plenty of water, raised her walking steps and tried to stay balanced with fruit, vegetables, protein and carbs. She makes sure there's plenty of color on her plate.

Kathy assured members that she struggles like everyone else. If she's having a hard day she writes, "day off" in her journal, then starts fresh the next day.

Kathy thinks of her co-members as her support group and they say she's their inspiration.

Her goal is one day at a time.

Thought of the week is "It's not what you eat between Christmas and the New Year, it's what you eat between the New Year and Christmas."

"For many of us we ate like there's no tomorrow, well tomorrow is here today. We'll get serious, tomorrow," said one member, a "gainer."

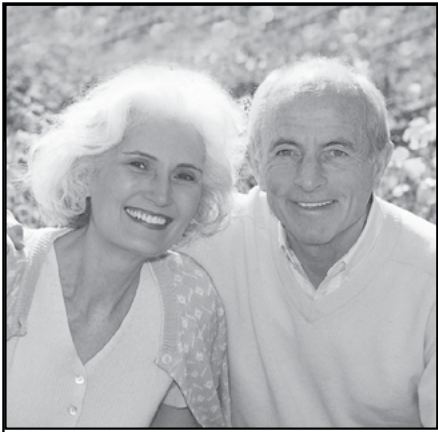

Wa-Rite is a support group for women who need to lose 10 pounds or more. Meetings are from 9-10 a.m. on Fridays in Clubhouse 3, Room 1.

Weigh-ins are from 8-8:45 a.m. Annual dues are $10.

To join or visit a meeting call Diana Goins at 760-1293.

Community Karaoke

On the Wednesday before Christmas, Community Karaoke Club singers were filled with the spirit, enjoying the carols of the season.

Susan Kelleghan received lots of applause for her “All I Want for Christmas is You.”

Singing is about feelings and emotions. Conveying emotions is the basic element that will move an audience. Many karaoke members do just that.

Lee Rickerson, a country-western singer from Texas, celebrated his birthday with the club. Jeannie McPharlin brought his favorite carrot cake for everyone to enjoy.

It was fun to have some group singing on stage with the popular carols like “Chestnuts Roasting on an Open Fire,” “Little Saint Nick” by Culley Eaby and David Noble and “White Christmas” by Janice Chapman and Rosemary Freman. From the audience, Karen Morris joined a group doing “Frosty the Snowman.”

Hosts Walt Bier and Margie Thompson hope to see the faithful karaoke members and wonderful audience in Clubhouse 1 on Wednesday nights for the karaoke parties.

GRF Weekly Dance

The Golden Rain Foundation sponsors a weekly dance on Saturdays from 7-10 p.m. in Clubhouse 1.

The Jim Gilman Band will play Jan. 5. Gilman has been a regular performer at the GRF Saturday Night and New Year's Eve for dances many years, bringing ballroom dancing favorites from 1940s swing to 1950s ballroom.

The Jim Gilman Band

at Knott's Berry Farm after my father saw an ad in the newspaper, 'Wanted-Accordion Player.'

After graduating, I added electronic keyboards. I met Tony Carinon through an index card on a bulletin board.

"We toured as Free and Easy for several years throughout the midwest.

"I formed The Associates with Gordon Powers and Paul Reed in 1976. Gordon has retired and Mick Waller joined the band in 2010. We've played for cruise ships, hotels, country clubs and private parties all over Southern California.

"Adrian Tapia joined us a few years ago and has been a tremendous asset to the band. He's a huge talent and we're very lucky to have him," said Gilman.

Residents can enjoy the band the first Saturday of every month at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 1. Guests must be accompanied by the GRF member who invites them.

The GRF Recreation Department asks residents and their guests to adhere to the following rules:

- Do not park on the east side of Clubhouse 1. Parking for the clubhouse is across Golden Rain Road at the golf course or on Burning Tree Lane.
- People must be out of the clubhouse no later than 10 p.m. to permit adequate time for the custodian to prepare the space for the following day.
- Only the bands can make announcements from the stage.
- Clubhouse lighting and audio-visual equipment can only be adjusted by the custodian according to the instructions they have been given
- Everyone should sign in, either as a resident or guest. This is the only way GRF can judge the popularity of bands.

LW ART LEAGUE

Watercolor artist to demonstrate Jan. 8

The Leisure World Art League will start off the new year with a bang, hosting a demonstration by widely acclaimed watercolorist Joseph Stoddard on Tuesday, Jan. 8.

The monthly meeting starts at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 4. People should arrive early to get good seats, as the Art League demos draw large turnouts from the community.

The demonstration promises to be entertaining and educational, as Joseph is a talented painter who is gifted with a special talent in explaining his work and techniques to longtime artists, novices and everybody in between. While Joseph’s work concentrates primarily on watercolors, the demo will provide insights that will be useful across a broad range of artistic styles.

Despite full-time employment as a partner at SKA Design (an environmental graphics design office) in South Pasadena, Joseph finds time in the evenings and on weekends to pursue his lifelong passion for watercolors. Much of his work centers on Southern California venues, including Pasadena and the greater Los Angeles area, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Death Valley. He is currently working on a sketchbook featuring Colorado, his boyhood home.

Joseph has produced paintings for a number of Pasadena events, including the annual Bungalow Heaven Tour, the Colorado Street Bridge Party, the Pasadena Showcase House of Design, the California Art Club Artists for Architecture Painting Project, the Pasadena Symphony and the Pasadena Pops Orchestra. His work was recently featured in the latest issue of “The Art of Watercolor,” a French art magazine, as well as “Studios” magazine and “Watercolor Artist” magazine. His studio was featured in “The Man Cave Book.”

His work has also been on the covers of a variety of publications, including “Westways” magazine, “Pasadena Magazine,” a book series published by the Historical Society of Southern California, and the “Lost and Found Series” by Many Moons Press. In 2001 a book of his sketches titled “Pasadena Sketchbook” was published. The second edition was published in October 2008. A collection of sketches of the University of Redlands titled “Redlands Sketchbook” was published in 2007. Walter Foster Publishing published “Expressive Color,” a painting instruction book, in August 2008.

In 2012, Azusa Pacific University purchased a series of 10 original sketchbooks for its permanent collection, and a print of his painting of Maranatha High School was given to Laura Bush by the school. In 2013, he was invited to submit art for the Bright Side of the City art event Jyvaskyla, Finland.

His painting of the Pasadena Train Station is in the permanent collection of the Pasadena Museum of History. He developed the theme paintings for the Pasadena Showcase House of Design for 2012 and 2014.

He is currently working on a sketchbook about Los Angeles. Those interested in previewing Joseph’s work and learning more about this talented artist are encouraged to visit his website, www.josephstoddard.com.

Members must submit their art work for display by 6:30 p.m. The popular choice theme this month is “Winter.”

Refreshments will be available, and one of the artist’s pieces will be the prize in the raffle.

“Mamma Mia! Here We Go Again,” rated PG-13, will be shown at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Jan. 6, in Clubhouse 4.

Five years after the events of Mamma Mia! (2008), Sophie prepares for the grand reopening of the Hotel Bella Donna as she learns more about her mother’s past.

Her mother, Donna (Meryl Streep), now an independent hotelier in the Greek islands, is preparing for her daughter’s wedding with the help of two old friends.

Meanwhile Sophie, the spirited bride, has a plan. She secretly invites three men from her mother’s past in hope of meeting her real father and having him escort her down the aisle on her big day.

Heaven’s Gate?

Joe was waitin’
By this funny lookin’ gate,
He said “I’m sure glad you’re here
But what made you so durn late?”

“Well, the kids asked about money
And really started to squall
When they finally figgered out
Medical bills ‘most took it all.”

“They let me know that they was sure
We wuz both some kind of fool,
For sellin’ off most of our land
To put ‘em all through school.”

“Each girl wanted Grandma’s china,
And stirred up a turrible fuss,
I just cain’t hardly believe them four
Really come from us!

When the boys got all lathered up
And fought over your old chevy,
I had to run ‘em all away
‘Cause my old heart was gettin’ heavy.

But then I felt almighty good
After I figgered out what to do,
So I made a new will leavin’
What’s left to the ACLU.”

Well, Joe fell over laughin’
And o’ course I joined right in,

And it’s none of your durn business
What we did then!”

‘Pagliacci’ will be shown on Jan. 8

Everyone is invited to come and watch Leoncavallo’s “Pagliacci” at Clubhouse 3, Room 1, on Tuesday, Jan. 8, at 1:30 p.m.

This is not the usual meeting date and will be the club’s only meeting in January.

Opera club member Sylvan Von Burg will introduce the opera.

The virtuoso production is under the baton of Christian Thielemann at the Staatskapelle Dresden.

It features the popular tenor Jonas Kaufmann in the title role and Maria Agresto as his wife. The story, which consists of a play within a play, focuses on the real life dilemma of love, attraction, jealousy and rage.

In Act I, Canio, a theater manager and actor, is promoting his upcoming comedy about a circus clown named Pagliacci. During the preparations he learns from a fellow actor that his wife Nedda is being courted by a local villager who plans to elope with her after the evening’s show. As Canio dresses for his role, he sings the celebrated “vesti la giubba” commiserating his predicament as the spurned husband.

Act II opens as the audience is watching the clown’s wife rejecting a suitor but reacting to the attentions of another man played by Harlequin. The similarity of the plot to Canio’s real life problem forces Canio to drop all defenses and demand of Nedda the identity of her real life suitor.

As she refuses he grabs a knife and chases her off the stage into the audience, where he kills her along with her real life suitor and announces “the comedy is finished.”

The opera is sung in the original Italian with English subtitles, Room 1 is open at 1 (but not before). No dues are collected. For further information, contact Beverly Emus at 296-5586 or bemus@socal.rr.com.

GRF Olympics coming to LW this spring

Ever dreamed of standing on top of the podium with a medal around your neck and the national anthem playing? Now is an opportunity to make your dreams come true... the Golden Rain Foundation will host the first Leisure World Olympics in 2019.

Don't worry if you are no longer in prime athletic shape, others won't be either. Mind-over-matter will be beneficial in many of the events. The events are regular activities that are played in LW regularly, including card and board games and team and individual sports such as bowling, shuffleboard, bocce ball and shuffleboard or individual events such as walking and swimming. Or for basketball fans, there will be a free-throw competition at the new basketball court in Mission Park.

Tournaments will be organized by clubs to determine the top three participants in various games and sports. The tournaments will culminate with an awards ceremony in May. All competitors must be members of the GRF.

Sports and games clubs within LW are encouraged to participate by organizing tournaments. Individuals who participate in events and athletic skills, such as swimming, freestyle, backstroke, breaststroke and relay teams, that are not organized by clubs are also invited to take part in the LW Olympics.

Suggested events include bridge, Mexican Train dominoes, golf, tennis, table tennis, Bunco, pinochle, bocce ball, chess, Scrabble, pickle ball, shuffleboard, cribbage, Yahtzee, billiards, poker, bowling, bicycling, walking, swimming, Mah Jongg, Pan, Go

March to April and an awards ceremony with medals will be held in the Amphitheater in May.

Genres with multiple clubs must work together to participate in one tournament resulting in a first, second and third place winner for each game or sport.

Y Service Club Membership Chair Bill Denton has deep roots in California. He's a fourth generation Californian, born and raised in what he describes as the then sleepy little town of San Ysidro, just this side of the Mexican border. Bill has Hispanic descendants on both sides of his family and grew up speaking English and Spanish. Casa Machado, a historic house in the Old Town area of San Diego, housed some of his family and Rosarito, Baja California, was named for his Machado great-grandmother. His great-great grandfather, an Englishman named Denton, was responsible for surveying the Baja California peninsula.

Bill was drafted in 1969, spending two years in the Army, including 14 months in Germany. He married his first wife in 1974 and they moved to her hometown of Omaha, Nebraska, in 1978, where Bill worked in the restaurant industry for 18 years. He has five children, 11 grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

While living in Omaha, Bill answered an ad for the Ford Motor Credit Company seeking Spanish-speaking representatives, beginning a 16-year career that took him to Las Vegas, Sacramento and Long Beach. Now divorced from his first wife and a widower when his second wife died, Bill met his current wife, Shirley, while walking on the Seal Beach pier. They have been married and residents of Leisure World for six years. Bill and Shirley are avid travelers and their home is filled with beautiful memories of trips to Alaska, China, Africa and Hawaii. The Dentons are also Disneyland enthusiasts and frequently visit the Magic Kingdom with their annual passes. Bill loves listening to music and is a wonderful gardener. In addition to growing gorgeous plants in front of his home in Mutual 16, Bill selected, planted, and cares for scores of plants surrounding the Mutual laundry room.

Bill joined the Y Service Club after attending one of the club's pancake breakfasts. He is grateful to fellow club member Michael Breen for showing him how to do many of the services club members provide to individual shareholders. Bill is impressed by how grateful residents are for the help he and others provide and sees his involvement as a way of giving back to the California community he was away from for 18 years.

Y Service Club members are available to help with many non-professional household tasks, including putting air in bicycle tires, changing light bulbs, opening jars, turning mattresses, hanging small pictures and mirrors, hooking up electronic equipment, making minor repairs to cabinets and furniture, taking down high items from closets and carports, changing smoke alarm batteries and ceiling lights and changing filters for heat pumps.

The Y Service Club always needs more volunteer members to meet shareholder needs. There is no better guy to call about becoming a member than Membership Chair Bill Denton who can be reached at 209-0816.

Don't miss an opportunity to see the world famous Harlem Globetrotters make slam dunks Globetrotter-style with friends and neighbors.

Yiddish Club learns about I.B. Singer

The Yiddish Club of Leisure World will meet today, Jan. 3, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2.

The topic will be the life and creation of one of the most famous Jewish writers, Nobel Prize winner, I.B. Singer.

After new words and proverbs in Yiddish are introduced, President Yakob Basner will discuss the topic and stories by Singer will be recited.

Refreshments will be served after the program.

SCHMOOZE CLUB

Klezmer musician is guest Jan. 8

Join the Schmooze Club for an entertaining morning of music with renowned clarinetist Leo Chelyapov in "A Klezmer Performance", Tuesday, Jan. 8, in Clubhouse 3, Room 9. Refreshments and "schmoozing" (socializing) are at 10 a.m. followed by the program at 10:30. There is no cost to attend; donations are gratefully accepted.

Leo received his musical training in Russia and achieved the status of solo artist, conductor and composer. He brought his talents and expertise on many other instruments to America where has become a much sought after performer and composer.

It is a treat to hear Leo perform as he masterfully blends klezmer, the lively music of Jewish celebrations from eastern Europe, with American jazz, Israeli and other middle eastern melodies. Klezmer was brought by Yiddish speaking immigrants to America, where it has enjoyed a revival and increasing popularity since the 1970s.

Everyone is welcome to enjoy a morning of camaraderie with the Schmooze Club, which meets at 10 a.m. on the second Tuesday of every month.

As always, "there are no dues to schmooze." Call Darlene Rose, 347-8088, for more information.

Cruise dress codes are more relaxed

Cruising dress codes have become much more relaxed over the years. You really can wear what you want with only a few limitations, so if fashion isn’t your thing there’s no need to stress out about your wardrobe, say the cruise experts at CruiseCompete.

But if it’s important to you to be impeccably dressed for every occasion, let’s start by understanding the different terms the cruise lines use to describe attire, and what their expectations are for every situation.

- Casual - Sport shirts for men and anything casual, not cutoff jeans, for women anything resort-like.

- Business casual, resort casual, cruise casual, smart casual, country club casual - all mean similar things: slacks and shirts for men. Polo shirts are OK on most lines, though some like to see button-down shirts. For ladies, skirts/dresses, slacks and sweaters.

It’s a good idea for women to plan to mix and match separates to create different outfits to avoid over-packing. A simple black dress can also be dressed up with a jacket, jewelry and accessories. Sandals with a casual skirt and a white blouse easily transform into cocktail attire with jewels on the sandals and a fancy blouse or top and more jewelry, so do bring your sparkly jewelry.

- Elegant casual, cruise elegant, evening chic, semiformal - f or men, dress slacks, dress shirts, jackets, preferred, yet optional exception semiformal. For women, elegant clothing of any type.

- Black tie, gala attire and formal - formal attire for men refers to a tuxedo; a suit and tie; or sport coat, tie and slacks. For women, formal attire means evening gowns, cocktail dresses and dressy resort wear - at a minimum, think a sparkly top and black pants.

Some guests wear tuxedos and evening gowns on formal nights, though most guests wear suits and cocktail attire. Others will do the minimum required - slacks, a sport coat and a dress shirt.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
• There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
• When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
• Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.

RESOLUTIONS

Albert Einstein observed, "The measure of intelligence is the ability to change."

So, the intelligent thing to do is to undertake new activities and interests that enhance our outlook and improve our quality of life. Our age need not be a barrier to achievement.

Those who have achieved the extraordinary in their senior years include John Glenn, who at age 77 returned to space and circled the globe 134 times, 131 more orbits than his first Mercury mission in 1962.

Gladys Burrill, at age 92 became the oldest woman to run a marathon, after beginning a running hobby at age 86.

"It's so important to think positive. It's easy to get discouraged and be negative," she said.

"It makes such a difference in how you feel and your outlook on everything."
