GOLDEN AGE FOUNDATION

GAF volunteer Carl Kennedy at the bike service event April 3.

More than 125 cyclists came for bike check-ups

More than 125 LW residents pedaled their bikes to a free bike service event hosted by the Golden Age Foundation (GAF) in collaboration with the Golden Rain Foundation (GRF) April 3 in the parking lot outside of Clubhouse 6. Dave Hanson, president of JAX Bicycle Center, was there to dispense free bike advice and make minor repairs.

The event was so popular that more than 20 bikers had to be turned away, but they will be first in line at the next event on May 1 from 2-4 p.m. at the JAX tent in the parking lot of Clubhouse 6.

On April 3, Hanson transported 14 bicycles to the JAX Bicycle Center for service and repair. Owners will be able to pick them up Wednesday, April 17, from 2-4 p.m., in Clubhouse 6 parking lot.

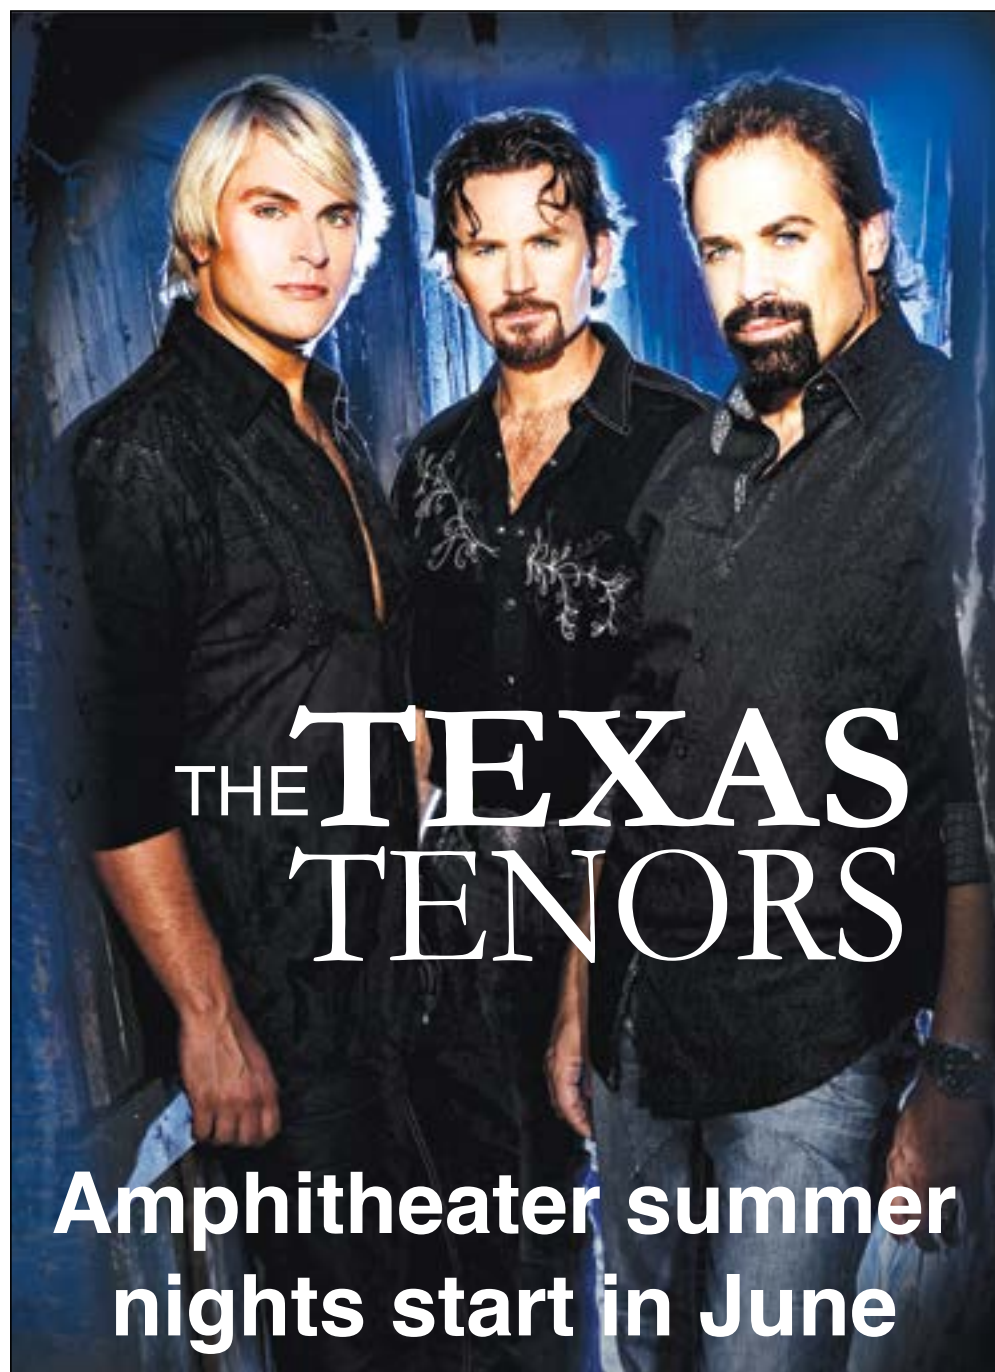

The bike repair service will be provided on a trial basis once a month through June. The purpose of the event is to help people who want to ride but have problems with their bicycles that keep them off the road. Call GAF Hospitality Chairman Carl Kennedy, (661) 810-9410, for more information.

JAX Bicycle Center was established in 1971 and has since become the largest Trek retailer in California. There are 10 Jax locations, including Long Beach and Huntington Beach.

EMERGENCY INFORMATION

Expert comes to LW to aid earthquake preparedness

The Emergency Information Council will host an earthquake presentation called “Earthquakes Threaten Southern California—Are You Prepared?” All are welcome to attend. Margaret Vinci from the Caltech Office of Earthquake Programs will speak on May 9 from 1-3 p.m. in Clubhouse 2. Vinci will share the latest information on earthquake hazards and potential losses, and provide earthquake preparedness resources for home, work and business. All are invited to empower themselves to be ready for the next disaster. With 22 million people living and working in Southern California, a major earthquake in the region could cause an unprecedented catastrophe. What people do now, before a big earthquake, can help mitigate the damage.

The presentation will be focused on the science of earthquakes, and the risks and hazards particular to Southern California, including a scenario involving a 7.8 magnitude along the San Andreas fault. The presentation will include a realistic portrayal of what could happen in a major earthquake on the southern end of that fault. Topics will cover how it would affect residents and what people need to do to protect themselves.

DRUG TAKE BACK

Safely dispose of meds on April 27

The Seal Beach Police and the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) host a pill disposal event from 10 a.m.-2 p.m., April 27. It's a chance to rid your homes of potentially dangerous expired, unused and unwanted prescription drugs. Bring pills for disposal to Leisure World's Security building at the Main Gate. (The DEA cannot accept liquids or needles or sharps, only pills or patches.) The service is free and anonymous, no questions asked.

Last September, Americans turned in 350 tons (over 702,000 pounds) of prescription drugs at more than 5,000 sites operated by the DEA and more than 3,800 of its state and local law enforcement partners. Overall, in its 10 previous Take Back events, DEA and its partners have taken in over 5.5 million pounds—more than 2,750 tons—of pills.

This initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue.

Rates of prescription drug abuse in the U.S. are high, as are the number of accidental poisonings and overdoses due to these drugs.

Studies show that a majority of abused prescription drugs are obtained from family and friends, including from the home medicine cabinet.

In addition, Americans are advised that flushing meds down the toilet or throwing them in the trash pose potential health hazards.

For more information about the April 27 Take Back Day event, go to the DEA website at http://www.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/drug\_disposal/index.html.

VIEWPOINT

Leave the cocoon and pollinate your neighbors with kindness

By Jim Greer, Mutual 11
Leisure World Interfaith Council

In 1963, Brian Wilson and Gary Usher wrote the iconic Beach Boys song, “In My Room.” According to Usher, Wilson’s domineering father, Murry, showed little respect for the talent of the two songwriters, who together wrote many Beach Boys hits. In recalling their tortured relationship, Gary explained that even after writing so many hits, the nicest thing Murry Wilson ever said was, “not bad, Usher, not bad” after first hearing them play “In My Room.”

Just like Usher and Wilson, each of us needs a cocoon where we lock out all our worries and our fears. Our cocoons could be in a quiet corner sitting in an overstuffed chair reading a good book or listening to the calming sound of the surf in a secluded cove on the seashore.

In the animal kingdom, the cocoon or chrysalis is the transformational enclosure where the voracious caterpillar morphs into the beneficial butterfly.

This amazing transition converts a self-focused consumer of plants into a beneficial pollinator. We witnessed just such an awakening after California’s most recent heavy rains. March’s super bloom brought millions of painted lady butterflies through California.

Attracted by colorful blooming flowers that provide fuel for hatching caterpillars, butterflies pollinated millions of blossoms continuing the planet-preserving process of plant propagation.

These recent swarms of northbound butterflies should inspire each of us to come out of hiding to bless the lives of others while on our life journey.

The difference between our cocoons and those of the insect world is that in their rooms caterpillars emerge as beautiful winged beings. Perhaps each of us should look at our human chrysalides as an opportunity to metamorphize.

Shouldn’t the warmer, longer spring days prompt us to come out of our protective chrysalises and pollinate our neighbors with kindness? Maybe this is what Gandhi meant when he suggested, “be the change that you wish to see in the world.”

In the June 15, 2013, edition of Psychology Today, Dr. Emma M. Seppala shared the findings of studies that discovered “our well-being influences that of those around us, up to three levels of separation.” She cited one study that asked participants to share their positive experiences with close friends or romantic partners. Researchers noticed those who received constructive, encouraging and positive messages from friends and loved ones, showed more significant signs of happiness, love and appreciation.

Dr. Seppala concluded that “to try and be happy may seem like a selfish endeavor but it is a worthwhile goal to pursue, not just for oneself, but for our community.”

Words of caring and acts of service for others not only enhance our wellbeing, but augment others’ joy by sharing positive experiences, and likewise encourage them to acknowledge and share their own.

When expressing our joy as we exit our social cocoons, we enhance the well-being of friends and acquaintances.

We see the impact our positivity can have on our friends and everyone connected to them.

May we all come to the great realization that was expressed by Dr. Albert Schweitzer when he said, “Happiness is the only thing that multiplies when you share it.”

Letters to the Editor

Editor:
In response to the traffic enforcement safety program proposed for Leisure World (LW Weekly March 21):

Pedestrian safety is one of the reasons cited for such a program that would bring city police traffic enforcement into Leisure World.

We already have stop signs and painted crosswalks, most with flags and at least one with flashing lights. Whether other such devices might be available is hard to imagine, but if there are more, shouldn’t we try those first?

And if there are simpler remedies, shouldn’t we try those first? I suggest:

- Remove a few parking spaces at specific places to improve pedestrians’ view of oncoming traffic. No cost but a few buckets of paint.
- Inexpensive LED devices could make walking after dark safer. They could be distributed community-wide at relatively little cost.

We know the proposed program doesn’t station a policeman at each crosswalk, so what makes it more effective for pedestrian safety than some simpler measures?

There is, of course another consideration. Experience tells us that the $200,000 already spent and the Police Department’s new costs will want to be justified and recouped.

If the program is put into action, we can probably look forward to larger fines and much stricter enforcement of even more regulations.

Then, too, a $200,000 expenditure is a heavy thumb on the decision scale. Is the program still subject to decision, or does the expenditure make it inevitable?

I deeply appreciate Nataly Chigireva publishing my article in the LW Weekly recently.

I was surprised at receiving phone calls requesting more details on the Friday transportation in Leisure World. I advised them to call the Fleet Manager Grant Winford at 431-6586, ext. 372, or check the schedule posted at the Hub.

On March 29, the bus was jammed. Everyone enjoyed a shopping spree. Keeping aware of the good transportation service was manifested.

Spring, Grandma scam, return

by Jim Breen
jimb_news@lwsb.com

Almost in lockstep with spring, the Grandma scam has returned to Leisure World. The ruse is usually reported by residents about four times a year, oddly, right around the change in seasons.

It reappeared last week when Marcia Stammerjohn of Mutual 12 was called by a young man posing as one of her grandsons.

He read from a script that was nearly identical to what was used on LWers in the past. He took a trip, got into trouble, was arrested and needed $5,000 to bail him out of jail.

The youthful thief gave Mrs. Stammerjohn the phone number of a “public defender” to call and arrange for payment.

“I can’t afford that kind of money,” she said. “Then, can you go to the bank and see if you can send part of it?” he asked.

Coincidentally, Mrs. Stammerjohn had just talked to her daughter and knew that grandson was home, not in some jail.

So she never called the number, nipping yet another spring scam in the bud.

With so many robocalls scams in circulation these days, its almost rare to see a scammer call on the telephone. It happened to a Mutual 15 resident last week when a mumbling man called and said he was from AT&T. He said her account would be closed unless she could answer some questions.

“It sounds like a scam to me,” said the resident. But the caller said no, he already had most of what he wanted “even your address.” But when he read it to her, it was an old one.

Have you been the victim of a scam attempt? Send details to Jim Breen at the email address above or call 431-6586, ext. 387, Wednesday- Friday between 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Security Corner Minimizing petty thefts

We are fortunate in Leisure World that most of the crimes that occur inside the community are petty thefts. There are ways to minimize the risk of being a victim of this type of crime.

Most petty thefts from your vehicle or residence are “crimes of opportunity,” meaning that someone may have not thought beforehand to take someone’s property, but faced with an opportunity to steal they chose to do so. Remember these tips to minimize petty thefts:

- The only spare key for your residence outside should be in the lockbox. Do not hide keys underneath a mat or flower pot.
- Lock your car! Most car thefts do not involve breaking a window to gain entry – the owner left the door unlocked so the thief could just open the door and remove property.
- Secure your storage cabinets in your carport.
- Lock all doors and windows when leaving your residence.

The Security Department needs your help. Always call the Security Department on its direct line, 594-4754, if you observe any activity that appears out of the ordinary. Be assured you can remain anonymous.

WA-RITE CLUB

Goins, Humes, Chambers honored

Diana Goins was recognized at the April 5 meeting of the Wa-Rite Club, for earning her master of weight degree. She has maintained her weight for over two years and credits her success to “just showing up every Friday.”

Knowing she has to weigh in and report keeps her from getting out of control. She walks for exercise and swims to firm up. She also serves others by donating blood. She loses 650 calories and others benefit from her donation.

Margaret Humes was named queen of the month after dropping 12-1/2 pounds. No white sugar or white flour, eating mainly protein, vegetables and fruit and two meals a day, within eight hours, were contributing factors. But the hard comes trying to maintain the loss.

HEALTH CARE CENTER

Managing pain class offered

To help find options to manage pain without using medications, the Health Care Center will present a class at 10 a.m. on April 15 in the HCC Conference Room. All residents are welcome.

Many people use medications to help with pain, but it’s usually temporary relief. The meds may have other side effects, like nausea or dizziness. A difficult choice: deal with the pain or avoid feeling sick.

Leading the class will be Sheri Shafie, a clinical pharmacist, and Jeremy Matteson, physical therapist and owner of Senior’s Choice Physical Therapy.

Sheri will explore various methods of addressing pain and some of its causes.

Jeremy will demonstrate a few exercises that can help reduce pain. The goal is to raise awareness of other ways to manage pain. The presenters will offer options that are generally safe for everyone.

The presentation is part of an ongoing series of health education classes at the HCC.

Each month a free course on a different topics is presented. Call 795-6204 for reservations.

COMMUNITY SING

Carmen Edwards to lead sing-along

by Ethel Carter
LW contributor

Community Sing will start at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, April 15, in the lobby of Clubhouse 3. All are welcome. People who want to participate in Opening Acts should come at 6 to sign in with the evening’s emcee, Carmen Edwards. Bring sheet music for the pianist as needed.

After Opening Acts, Carmen will lead group singing until she introduces her half-time guest, rock and roll pianist/singer Ben Berg.

On April 1, Betty Ballen was the leader. Opening Acts began with Donald Horning singing “Mr. Bojangles” while accompanying himself on guitar. Next, Ethel Carter sang, “Let There Be Peace on Earth”; Byong Choi, “Molly Darling”; Pat Kogok, “A Shanty in Old Shanty Town” (accompanied on piano by Betty Ballen); Bruce Dupont, “So Beautiful” (a capella); and Chuck Zeman sang “Moonlight Becomes You” (a capella). Pianist Pat Kogok accompanied two of the soloists.

Betty then led group singing until she introduced her half-time guests, soprano Janet Ray and her piano accompanist, Dorothy King. Janet performed two solo numbers with the theme of happiness: “Everybody Loves a Lover” and “Sing.”

Then Janet and Dorothy sang two duets (while Dorothy continued to play the piano): “Whispering Hope” and “Precious Memories.”

The audience was enthralled with the talents of the two performers and expressed its appreciation with loud applause.

Then everyone sang “Kumbaya” to end the musical evening, led by Betty. Thanks to pianist, Pat Kogok and book mover, Byong Choi.

South Coast Orchid Society

The South Coast Orchid Society, serving orchid hobbyists in Long Beach since 1950, will present a lecture and slideshow by Peter Tobias, retired professor of immunology at the Scripps Institute and founder of the Orchid Conservation Alliance. His topic is “Conserving Orchids and Their Habitats.”

The event is free and open to the public. Many orchids grown by members will be on display.

The talk will be held at Whaley Park Community Center, 5620 E. Atherton St., Long Beach on Monday, April 22, from 7-9 p.m.

GRF Weekly Dance

The Golden Rain Foundation sponsors a weekly dance on Saturdays from 7-10 p.m. in Clubhouse 1.

The Robin Fellows Group will play 40s through 60s ballroom and pop April 13.

Hal Willis of the Robin Fellows Group says, “Robin Fellows performed worldwide on major cruise lines as a headliner doing shows that featured her singing and playing several instruments.

The group is made up of musicians who have worked in the recording industry and performed at Disneyland and the Hollywood Bowl among many other venues.

The band tries to fulfill all song requests and loves to interact with the audience.

The Recreation Department asks residents and their guests to cooperate in adhering to a few, simple rules:

- Do not park on the east side of Clubhouse 1. Parking for the clubhouse is across Golden Rain Road at the golf course, or on Burning Tree Lane.
- Attendees must be out of the clubhouse no later than 10 p.m. to permit adequate time for the custodian to tear down the setup and arrange the setup for the following day
- No announcements are permitted from the stage, except by the bands
- Clubhouse lighting and audio visual equipment can only be adjusted by the custodian according to the instructions they have been given
- Be sure to sign in, either as a resident or guest, in the proper spot. This is the only way GRF can judge the popularity of your favorite bands.

LB SYMPHONY

Mozart’s Jupiter is focus April 27

The Long Beach Symphony will present a concert called “Mozart’s Jupiter” on April 27 at 8 p.m. The performance will feature highly sensory works by Pärt, Mozart, Golijov and Korngold. The concert is held at the Terrace Theater of the Long Beach Performing Arts Center, 300 E. Ocean Blvd.

Leisure World residents have the convenience of transportation to and from Long Beach Symphony Orchestra classic concerts. Meet the bus at the Amphitheater bus loading area on St. Andrews Drive no later than 5:45 p.m. on concert Saturdays.

The bus leaves promptly at 6 p.m. to arrive in time for Maestro a free pre-concert lecture and returns following the concert.

For further information on the bus or concert schedule, visit LongBeachSymphony.org or contact bus co-hostess Beverly Emus at 296-5586 or bemus@socal.rr.com.

On April 27, Pärt’s otherworldly “Cantus in Memory of Benjamin Britten” (1977) begins with the tolling of a single bell that leads you on a sensory journey, ending with a chord of astonishing breadth and intensity.

The simplicity of this work was influenced by Pärt’s mystical experiences with chant music from which he developed his signature tintinnabuli style that begins and ends with scored silence.

LW LIBRARY TRIP

Take a trip to world class garden center

The LW Library will host a bus trip on May 22 to The Huntington, which is celebrating its centennial year and is considered one of the world’s great cultural, research and educational centers.

The property features 120 acres of specialized botanical landscaped gardens, most notably the Japanese Garden, the Desert Garden and the Chinese Garden. The center also boasts an extensive art collection with a focus in 18th- and 19th-century European art and 17th- to mid-20th-century American art.

The Huntington was founded in 1919 by Henry E. Huntington, an exceptional businessman who built a financial empire of railroads, real estate, and utilities.

Huntington was also a man of vision—with a special interest in books, art, and gardens. During his lifetime, he amassed one of the finest research libraries in the world, established a splendid art collection and created an array of botanical gardens with plants from a geographic range spanning the globe. These three distinct facets of The Huntington Estate are linked by a devotion to research, education, and beauty.

On this 90-minute outdoor walking tour, guests will have the opportunity to explore some of the magnificent gardens and learn how Henry and Arabella Huntington’s San Marino Ranch was transformed into the world-famous cultural landmark that it is today.

Guests will be guided by expert docents through the elements of Joyful Line Dance Club meets from 3-4:30 p.m. on Wednesdays, in the lobby of Clubhouse 3. Members dance to popular favorites at the beginning and learn newer dances in the last hour.

Justin Manalad

The club has a new teacher. Justin Manalad has taken over dancing instruction. He has been teaching ballroom and line dance since 2000 and is well known to Leisure World shareholders through the Filipino Association of Leisure World Valentine's and Luau parties.

He became a dance instructor after his doctor advised him to exercise regularly.

He learned swing ballroom dance and went on to master salsa, tango, cha-cha, Bolero, fox trot, rumba, boogie, waltz, cumbia and merengue.

His mission for the Joyful Line Dance Club is help people get healthier, stronger, happier and younger in mind and body. That's what mastering dance has done for him.

Justin is a retired Los Angeles deputy probation officer. Aside from dancing, he enjoys basketball, boxing, movies and reading the daily news on his computer.

Everyone is welcome to join the Joyful Line Dance Club. He has over 60 songs to teach his new class. A nominal fee is charged.

Sonnet

When after storm the ocean's flat and calm,
When rising sun sees morning bird sip dew,
When searching soul at last finds soothing balm,
That is the time my thoughts return to you.
When deep within my heart resides a peace,
And knowledge of the truth that life's worthwhile,
When I imagine that all wars may cease,
That is the time I contemplate your smile.
If all the world's sick children could be well,
If pain would now and ever disappear,
If faith and hope and love all men indwell,
I'd know and sense your gentle spirit near.
Ah yes, it is when thoughts of you overwhelm,
I know that I have entered heaven's realm!

LBSO

The cantus was composed as an elegy to mourn the death of the English composer Benjamin Britten, whom he greatly admired. One listener said, "I'm not sure any piece of music will express as well the idea of being utterly bereft."

Mozart also demonstrated his mastery of simplicity in Symphony No. 41 in C Major, nicknamed "Jupiter."

The main theme of the fourth movement consists of only four notes, which Mozart skillfully marries with other motifs to create a grand fugato at the end.

Mozart himself had nothing to do the work's subtitle "Jupiter." That originated in London around 1821 and may have been inspired by the flourishes of the trumpets and drums in the first movement.

Composed 2010 by Argentine composer Golijov, Sidereus was co-commissioned by 36 orchestras in honor of Henry Fogel, the former head of the League of American Orchestras. It was written to commemorate Galileo, and it definitely evokes celestial, galactic feelings with its rich brass and the momentum of the underlying rhythmic sections. Since its premiere, controversy has arisen concerning whether the composer plagiarized some of the material, though that seems to have resolved itself.

The final work on the evening's program is from Erich Korngold, who in the 1940s became the star among Hollywood film composers.

Audiences will be smitten by the rapturous melodies in his Violin Concerto, many of which were taken from film scores. It will be interpreted by guest violinist Simone Porter (b. 1996). Ms. Porter made her professional solo debut at age 10 with the Seattle Symphony and her international debut with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra in London at age 13. More recently, she has played with the New York Philharmonic, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the Los Angeles Philharmonic, among others. Simone's emergence on the international concert circuit has coincided with her studies at the Colburn Conservatory of Music in Los Angeles where she met Gustavo Dudamel and performed with him for her Walt Disney Concert Hall debut with the Los Angeles Philharmonic in 2015.

Concertgoers may enjoy the pre-concert talk that begins at 7 p.m. For those who prefer to mix and mingle, there will be music in the lobby and, weather permitting, firepits outdoors on the plaza. Doors open at 6:30, and concert starts promptly at 8.

Tickets to the concert start at $29 with student tickets available for $10. For more information or to purchase tickets and subscriptions visit www.LongBeachSymphony.org or call 436-3203, ext. 1. Tickets are also available on Ticketmaster.com.

The Symphony's final classical concert of the 2018-19 season is June 8 and will present Beethoven's epic 9th Symphony that ends with vocal soloists and chorus promoting universal brotherhood in the Ode to Joy libretto by Schiller, and Handel's Royal Fireworks Music.

Orchids are topic on April 15 in CH 2

Roberta Fox and Tony Glinskas will give a presentation on orchids at the Leisure World Garden Club meeting at 1:30 p.m, April 15, in Clubhouse 2. The title of the talk is “Orchids in the Back Yard and Beyond.”

Fox and Glinskas grow orchids, mostly outdoors, in Costa Mesa and Huntington Beach, and have about 60 years of experience between them.

They have co-chaired the Fascination of Orchids Show and are also two of the founders of the Cool Growing Orchid Society, a group that meets monthly in Garden Grove.

Their program will focus on the basics for successful orchid growing in Leisure World’s mild coastal climate, as well as inside the home. Outdoors the climate here is nearly perfect for Cymbidiam orchids, but there are many other types that will also thrive.

Indoors the Phalenopsis is queen with blooms that can last for months. With attention to just a few requirements including watering, re-potting and low-toxicity pest control, these and other orchids can thrive and rebloom year after year.

The We Care table will be in the lobby for donations of non-perishable food items, gift cards and cash.

Coffee, tea and cookies will be served after the meeting.

Ruby Johnson did a lovely rendition of “You Are So Beautiful to Me.” Susan Kelleghen followed with “If,” Donna Burr, “First Time Ever” and Byong Choi “I’ll Never Fall in Love Again.”

There were spirited tunes from Bev Adams, who sang “Spirit in the Sky”; Paul Renaldi, “Say You’ll Be There”; Karen Morris “G.T.O.”; and Pat Kogok, “I’ll Fly Away.”

Vito Villamor and Ric Dizon, Tony Tupas and Vickie Van Ert sang duets.

LW LIBRARY

Pysanky egg collection on display

Pysanky eggs are on display in the LW Library in April. Pysanky (plural form of pysanka) is from the Ukrainian word “pysaty” meaning “to write.” Designs are penciled on eggs and then covered with beeswax and layered with dye, similar to the batik work done on fabric.

In earlier times, Ukrainian Easter eggs were much more than decorative objects or crafts for the holidays. The egg itself is also a symbol—with its unending surface, it represents eternal life. To give a pysanka was to give a symbolic gift of life, which is why the egg had to remain whole. The designs and colors on a pysanka are meant to convey protection and good fortune. A bowl of pysanky would normally be found in every Ukrainian house. Visit the LW Library to see these beautiful symbols of spring now on display.

LW CENTENARIANS

LW begins ‘The 1440’ for firefighters’ families

by Loni Gardette
LW contributor

Picture a house nearly the same style as Laura Ingall’s home on “Little House on the Prairie,” and that’s the house centenarian Maxine Wells was born into on Oct. 17, 1918.

“We had no running water or electricity,” says Maxine with her bright smile and snowy white-blond hair as she recalls her childhood home in Yuma, Colorado. “Being one of 11 children, we never wanted for company!”

Maxine’s sister Gail is also a centenarian. Gail lives in Joplin, Missouri, and has already celebrated her 105th birthday. It’s in the genes.

Raised during the Depression, Maxine remembers a time of limited resources and how much people took care of each other. She vividly recalls witnessing the devastating effects of the Depression-era dust bowl. “Brother Can You Spare a Dime?” was not only a hit song, it was also a way of life back then, says Maxine. “Being born into a working-class family, everyone learned to work and take care of each other.”

Two of her brothers became professional boxers.

Maxine’s early elementary school education, from first-eighth grade, happened in a one-room schoolhouse. High school consisted of a one-building school and after high school everyone went to work.

Since Maxine was used to

helping care for siblings, it was natural that her first job was to become a nanny for another family.

In 1938 her sister relocated to Long Beach and invited Maxine to come out to live in California. What a culture change from Yuma.

Maxine settled in Long Beach to work as a nanny and soon after the move she met Art Wells, who was attending Long Beach City College. While still in college, Art and Maxine got married and Art became a fireman, a career he enjoyed for 31 years. His dedication and hard work saw him rise to the rank of captain.

While Art was busy being a fireman he was not particularly interested in socializing. Not so for Maxine, who was very comfortable in a large social setting and desired to increase their social outreach.

One day Maxine asked Art if he had ever met the wives of the other firemen. Art replied “No,” so Maxine suggested they invite the firemen and their wives over for a little “get acquainted” time. “Something easy, she told Art, maybe a little cheese and crackers get-together.” The invitation was issued and everyone accepted. That little social gathering was the beginning of “The 1440,” which stood for the year 1940 and the 14 firemen at the firehouse. It was the ember that flamed lifelong friendships between the firemen and their wives and families. In fact, The 1440 became a second family to all of them. Today, Maxine is the only 1440 member left to cherish those sweet memories, and her impact on their lives and the lives of their families still lives on.

Maxine has many great memories of days gone by. She fondly remembers a large birthday party to celebrate her 80th birthday with 80 people in attendance.

Some of her fondest recollections are about the different trips she took with Art. Maxine and Art enjoyed freighter trips and she chuckled out loud as she recalled a trip to Yugoslavia where she wore a “skort” (a combination of shorts and wrap-around skirt) and earned the title “Mini-Maxi, referencing the days of mini-skirts and an abbreviation of her name.

Maxine’s younger years were all about being a wife and raising their daughter and a son. Today, though Maxine lives alone, she is still close to her family and her daughter Bonny also lives in Leisure World. Maxine is a very

SUNSHINE CLUB

Olympic gold medal swimmer is guest tomorrow

Not only was Deena Deardurff Schmidt a great swimmer who won an Olympic gold medal at the Munich Olympics, she also is a profile in courage for having courageously dealt with life’s adversities as well.

Deena will be the guest speaker at the Sunshine Club tomorrow, May 12, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2.

In 2008, Deena served as a national Susan G. Komen Foundation Cancer Survivor Spokesperson. At 47, she successfully battled breast cancer and has helped to increase the awareness of the importance of early detection for anyone over 40 with a known family history for this deadly disease. In addition, Deena has been an outstanding swimming coach having successfully coached the swim team at San Diego State University for 14 years. After retiring from coaching, Deena was an adjunct faculty member at Grossmont College in San Diego.

In the 1972 Olympic Games, Deena swam the butterfly event

Honor LW vets with banners

Golden Rain Foundation, in conjunction with the Recreation Department, will offer Veterans Honor Banners for sale again.

Banners will be posted throughout the community on trust streets and may honor current or former GRF members in good standing.

The name used will be the full legal name, used on the stock certificate of Golden Rain Foundation or deed, in the case of Mutual 17. GRF membership will be verified by the Stock Transfer & Recreation Office. The banner will also include the mutual and military branch under which they served. The cost is $150 and orders will be filled on a first come, first served basis while the limited supply lasts.

The banners will be displayed for Memorial Day. If you have previously purchased a banner you can opt to pick it up from Recreation or donate it and have it redisplayed, subject to space available. All sales are final, and no refunds will be given.

HOSPITALITY CENTER

Starbucks donates coffee to GAF

When the manager at Ralph’s, Seal Beach, learned that the Golden Age Foundation (GAF) participates in the company’s community reward program she contacted GAF and offered the leftover Starbucks coffee from the store’s kiosk for the Hospitality Center.

GAF received three five-pound bags of freshly ground coffee the first week.

All are invited to come to the Hospitality Center in Clubhouse 6 each weekday morning for a fresh cup of Starbucks coffee and to sign up for the Ralph’s Community Reward program on Tuesdays between 9 to 11 a.m. Lillian Kennedy will assist shareholders to sign up. A Ralph’s membership ID is required.

“It benefits to raise funds to give back to community,” says President Anna Derby.

in the 4 x 100-meter medley relay that broke the world record and earned a gold medal. She also placed fourth in the 100-meter butterfly in those Olympics.

In addition to battling breast cancer, Deena has displayed exceptional courage in stepping forward to fight the sexual abuse of young swimmers. In 2010 she testified on this issue and as a result many changes have taken place in youth sports safety policies.

Throughout all of her challenges, Deena has retained her strong positive attitude and determination to represent the ideals of the Olympic movement.

The Sunshine Club has frequent guest speakers and uses information in the LW Weekly as a textbook to get the best out of living in Leisure World. The class reviews news, general columns, the minutes of monthly mutual meetings, the minutes of monthly Board of Directors meetings, etc. in the paper each week.

The club appreciates shareholders bringing their own coffee mugs to participate in the club’s “Save The Earth” program. Arrive 5-10 minutes early to enjoy refreshments before the meeting.

The club meets from 10 a.m.-noon on Fridays, in Clubhouse 3, Room 2 (except the first Friday in Room 9). All shareholders are welcome to attend; membership is not required.

For more information, call Anna Derby, 301-5339.

GAF president Anna Derby presented Rollin’ Thunder President Tom Davis with a check for $200. Also participating in the check presentation are club directors Jim Long, Roy Nakamura and Mike Levitt, along with GAF member Carol Damaci, who first suggested GAF’s support of the cart club activities.

ROLLIN’ THUNDER

Donation from GAF augments funds for Air & Water Days

An infusion of funds by the Golden Age Foundation (GAF) will help the Rollin’ Thunder Golf Cart Club carry on with its mission of assisting golf cart owners. The GAF donated $200 to the Rollin’ Thunder Golf Cart Club for use at its quarterly Air & Water Days.

“This money,” Derby explains, “will help pay for the many hundreds of gallons of mineral-free water the club uses when servicing golf cart batteries on their Air & Water Days. It will also support maintenance and repairs of the club’s air compressors and other equipment for maintaining cart tires.”

Air & Water Days are held the first Saturday of March, June, September and December from 9-11 a.m. at the Pit Stop golf cart service area.

Air & Water Days have assisted more than a thousand cart and motorized scooter owners over the last few years.

“Many of these Leisure World residents are physically incapable of performing these vital preventative measures,” adds President Davis, “and would be risking loss of their only means of transportation, or even an accident, without our club’s help.”

The Rollin’ Thunder also sponsors and directs three community-wide parades a year, at Easter, with this year’s parade on April 20, as well as the Fourth of July and Christmas.

Rollin’ Thunder Golf Cart

Club meetings are held monthly on the fourth Tuesday at noon. Membership and activity information is available by contacting Pat Davis at 431-6859.

LWer annually conquers Renegade Coastal 5K Race series

by Nancy J. Barber
LW contributor

Age has no place in the life of Eileen Dohl, Mutual 11 resident. She is a 5K-walk competitor and winner. The “K” in 5K stands for kilometer or 3.1 miles—a fantastic distance for beginning walkers to conquer.

On Mother’s Day, 2012, Eileen started doing 5K walks at the age of 75 with her two daughters and three grandchildren.

Since that time, Eileen has competed in the Renegade Coastal 5K Race Series every year. The Renegade Race is a series of three races per year in various locations, including Los Alamitos Joint Forces Base, Seal Beach, Cypress and Irvine.

Eileen now competes in the “Over 80” age group and has won several of her races.

the Renegade Races with Eileen. However, they both compete in the triathlon that includes swimming, biking and running. All of these races have not only health benefits but are charitable in that the fee the participants pay to be in these races goes to a designated charitable organization. Keep walking, Eileen.

Linda DeRungs (r) sang again under her college professor, Eph Ehly, who was one of 11 famous choral conductors named “Legacy Conductors” by the American Choral Directors Association.

LWer chosen for Legacy Directors Choir

Linda DeRungs, Mutual 5, sang under the baton of 11 of the world’s most famous living choral conductors in a performance at the American Choral Directors Association conference, which attracted over 25,000 choral directors and singers in early March.

DeRungs was chosen for the Legacy Directors Choir by her college conductor, Eph Ehly of the University of Missouri Conservatory of Music, where she earned her master’s degree in choral conducting.

She sang soprano during the concert in which each of the 11 conductors, including Ehly, Dale Warland, Donald Neuen, Albert McNeil and Charlene Archibeque, chose approximately 10 of their own former students, and then conducted the joint choir of personally chosen works.

DeRungs retired to Leisure World after a 33-year stint as director of choral activities at a large Louisville-area high school. While in Kentucky, her groups performed with the Louisville Orchestra, the Kentucky Ballet and the Dallas Brass. Concurrently, DeRungs was soprano soloist for the Ars Femina Ensemble, a chamber group that discovered and performed classical works written by women who lived before 1800.

The group’s six recordings included “La Liberazione di Ruggerio dall’ Isola d’Alcina,” which the BBC named one of 1994’s top-10 CDs. The group also performed at the Boston Early Music Festival and was featured on NBC’s “Sunday Today” show and on National Public Radio “All Things Considered.”

DeRungs’ Legacy Choir performance was staged in the Muriel Kaufmann Theatre, an 1,800-seat venue that houses the Kansas City Lyric Opera and the Kansas City Ballet. Her concert was the closing event of the 60th ACDA conference, which presented performances by over 50 choirs from throughout the United States as well as Korea, Slovenia, Kenya, Mexico, Taiwan and Canada.

Of local note, this year’s groups included The Westminster Chorus.

Florence Gordon, Mutual 2, celebrated her 99th birthday on March 30 with her two sons, three grandsons, two daughter-in-laws and four great grandchildren.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
 • There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
 • When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
 • Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
 • Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
 • Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
