EARTHQUAKE PREP

Caltech expert will give talk today at 1

The Emergency Information Council will host an earthquake presentation called "Earthquakes Threaten Southern California—Are You Prepared?" All are welcome to attend.

Speaker Margaret Vinci from the Caltech Office of Earthquake Programs will speak today, May 9, from 1-3 p.m. in Clubhouse 2.

Vinci will share the latest information on earthquake hazards and potential losses, and provide earthquake preparedness resources for home, work and business.

All are invited to empower themselves to be ready for the next disaster.

With 22 million people living and working in Southern California, a major earthquake in the region could cause an unprecedented catastrophe. What people do now, before a big earthquake, can help mitigate the damage.

The presentation will be focused on the science of earthquakes, and the risks and hazards particular to Southern California, including a scenario involving a 7.8 magnitude along the San Andreas fault. The presentation will include a realistic portrayal of what could happen in a major earthquake on the southern end of that fault.

People are welcome to take a Minibus to Clubhouse 2. Minibus service is the best and most environmentally friendly way to attend the event. Exact routes and time schedules are printed in the LW Minibus schedule book. Books are available from the LW Weekly office and the LW Library. Also, anyone can wave to a passing blue and white Minibus and the driver will stop and provide a LW Minibus schedule on request. For more information on Minibus transportation, call GRF Fleet Manager Grant Winford at 431-6586, ext. 372.

Arms of Love portraits of memorable mamas

In honor of Mother's Day, the LW Weekly presents the following stories about influential and exemplary mothers who shaped LWer's lives. They hugged their children into feeling better, inspired them to reach for the stars and generally helped shape them into people of character and fortitude.

My Mother Geraldine Africa (photo above, holding Cindy as an infant) brought me into the world at age 30—I can still see her loving face and perfect smile, can almost hear her voice.

She and Daddy decided the California climate was better than Newark, Ohio. In 1934, they settled into a lovely old home on 10th Street in Huntington Beach. During the war, I was allowed to carry the precious sugar up the walk. I almost made it but it slipped out of my hands.

We spent time on our knees scooping up the sugar. That was the last time I was allowed to carry it.

Mother loved to golf and was very active in Beta Sigma Phi. She was an excellent cook, planning meals: Meatloaf on Mondays, on Thursdays, liver and onions, and roast with the family every Sunday.

If our family branches began to fall and bend, Mother was always there to give us strength and love. I was 30 when Mom passed. Happy Mothers Day—I will see you again.

My mom made me laugh! It was sometime in the 60s, and my mom was visiting us from Memphis. While she was here, "Hamlet," starring Sir Lawrence Olivier, was to be shown on TV. The special showing was a big thing. People were talking about it. The bank had information brochures about it, and we made plans to watch it—with mom.

On that evening, we had dinner early, got the kids to bed and settled down to enjoy the show.

My mom watched attentively and silently. At the first commercial, I asked my mom how she was enjoying the show.

 $She\,replied, ``Well, I\,haven't\,understood\,a\,single\,word."$

What is unconditional love? For me it is Mary Agnes Faherty Johnson, otherwise known as Mom to her three children. None of us were a joy to raise, I'm sure, but Mom made it look so easy. She had the solutions to all of our problems, and the solutions actually worked.

After school, ours was the house that the kids would come to just to "hang out." It was a safe haven for them, and Mom welcomed all of them. Looking back now, I think that Mom was glad that we came to our house because then she knew where her kids were, and she could keep an eye on us. I never really thought about offering a safe haven to my classmates until years later at our class reunion when it all came spilling out. Not every kid had a safe haven like we did. At these reunions, many expressed gratitude for my Mom and Dad welcoming them into our house.

Mom was like magic to me. When I was a freshman in high school, all of the girls automatically became a part of the pep club. The stumbling block was that we all had to have a special black sweater. Dad said that it was too expensive, so the answer was no.

All are welcome to attend the Senior Patriots program on Tuesday, May 14, in Clubhouse 3, Room 9 at 2:30 p.m. Carl Mariz will talk about the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and how they are related to the global Goals of the United Nations. Carl is a retired chemical engineer, who has been actively involved in the United Nations Association of the USA (UNA-USA). He has held several offices in the organization including the president of the local Coastline Chapter and later of the Orange County Chapter after retiring and moving to Irvine in 1979.

Y SERVICE

Triviamania to start on June 22

The Y Service Club will sponsor a new program, Triviamania, an exciting quiz game designed especially for seniors on Saturday, June 22, from 1-4 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 1.

Here's how it works: teams of eight people compete in eight rounds of trivia questions to earn first-, second-, and third-place prizes. If you think you might not be a star, keep in mind that you have seven teammates to help answer questions.

Here are a few sample questions (answers at the end of this article)

- (a) What company uses the slogan "A diamond is forever?"
- (b) What book was written in 1954 by science fiction author Ray Bradbury?
- (c) What's the name of a triangle with 3 uneven sides?
- (d) Who directed the movie The Quiet Man?

The buy-in for this introductory event is $10 per person for an afternoon of brain exercise, socialization, lots of laughs, a chance to meet new friends, and the potential to win up to three times your buy-in. Bring own snacks and dollar bills to enter some fast and fun intermission games. Join along with friends or neighbors or decide to play with new pals.

Research shows that activities that are intellectually stimulating and the ability to socialize with others are important health benefits for older adults.

Seating for this first game is limited. People can buy tickets at the Y Service Club pancake breakfast on Saturday, May 18, from 8-10:30 a.m. and outside Clubhouse 6 from 9 a.m.-11 a.m. on June, 10, 12, 14, 17, 19 and 21.

Proceeds benefit the Los Altos YMCA kids programs and other projects that help the Leisure World community.

VIEWPOINT

A special salute to all of the mothers on their special day

by Jim Greer, Mutual 11

Leisure World Interfaith Council

"I want my children to have all the things I couldn't afford. Then, I want to move in with them."

That joke from the late Phyllis Diller has probably crossed every mother's mind at one time or another. Every mom would love to see a return on their investment and live in the style and comfort to which they want to become accustomed.

Like most mothers, my mom's all-consuming daily effort was the care and feeding six messy, hungry, noisy boys.

She had studied to be a concert pianist, but instead, ended up as a stay-at-home wife of a music professor. Her life was a 1960s version of the insightful 1993 film Groundhog Day - a constant, daily recurring exercise in frustration and exhaustion.

Dad spent his days at the college, and his evenings at the music store teaching private trumpet lessons.

Mom spent every day on her own, from sun up to sun down, wrangling the six sons of the apocalypse.

While we had very little of the high life in our home, but had a good life. Those childhood years taught me an important truth that a mother's love endures forever. Although I lost my mother 24 years ago, I have felt her influence nearly every day, giving me the calm assurance that everything will work out, that I was doing a great job, and that she loved me no matter what.

Mothers know that loving and raising a child is more of a covenant than a sacrifice. That bilateral promise made with God hopefully guarantees successful children in exchange for her undying devotion to her children. But, if one is not careful, a mother's delightful doting can evolve into out-and-out meddling, often leading to well-intentioned interference in the lives of her children.

That interference doesn't always end when the kids leave the house. For some reason, mothers of means may feel an obligation to pay college tuition, finance a car, or provide a down payment on a home. And, even when the kids have become successful in their own right, some mothers insist on picking up the tab at the restaurant, stuffing extra cash into pockets, and sending checks in birthday cards.

While it was funny, Phyllis Diller's joke got it wrong. The real point of having children is to do all you can to make them able to live without you, and hopefully in better living conditions.

In her writing about motherhood, Barbara Kingsolver said it best, "kids don't stay with you if you do it right. It's the one job where, the better you are, the more surely you won't be needed in the long run." And that is what moms fear the most.

So, at this time of the year, we thank God for mothers. We attempt to make up for making their lives unbearable. And if we think back far enough, we can remember looking up from her arms and seeing the light of heaven in that beautiful face.

Or, as Samuel Taylor Coleridge said it, "The love of a mother is the veil of a softer light between the heart and the heavenly Father."

WATCH YOUR STEP

Be careful of those police scams ... and goodbye to all

by Jim Breen editor

Solicitation of funds to help support fictitious law enforcement organizations is on the rise in Leisure World.

Joanne Hawn of Mutual 7 and another anonymous resident received a two-page letter from the California Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund seeking donations for its localized Seal Beach fund.

Thoughtfully, Craig W. Floyd, founding CEO of the organization, enclosed a free sticker for his intended victims to display proudly after making a donation.

The theme of the drive is to "stand up for law enforcement officers and back the men and women in blue so that they know that you are on your side of those who keep us safe."

Mrs. Hawn is not against helping authentic law enforcement groups, just not that one.

For most of us, retirement is inevitable. So after nearly 18 years at LW Weekly, formerly the Golden Rain News, it's time to say goodbye to spend the rest of my days with wife, Amanda, four siblings and seven grandchildren.

For the most part, it will end a career in journalism dating back 56 years to my first newspaper job at the North Hollywood Valley Times.

On my first week on the job, the biggest news story of my life occurred on Nov. 22, 1963, when I was part of the localized coverage of the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Since then I have covered sports, business and finance and local news and spent time in corporate and agency public relations.

I always enjoyed writing about a local community, and where better to do that than in this tight-knit community of Leisure World. It began for me here in 2001 when I was given the responsibility

It began for me here in 2001 when I was given the responsibility of writing this column, still titled "Watch Your Step."

The only way it could have been done is with the help of you, the residents who call, write and mail your scam attempts on a regular basis.

In closing, my thanks to our team, headed by Nataly Chigireva along with Ruth Osborn, Cathie Merz, Steve "The Good One" Bannon, Karen McElwain, Sylvia King and Katya Lukina.

As my friend Rabbi Galit-Levy Slater of HaLev said this week in her farewell:

SECURITY CORNER

Dog policies in Leisure World

by Victor Rocha

security services director

Dogs are an important and welcomed family addition to many residents in Leisure World. However, it is important that those residents with animal family members review their Mutual's policy regarding all pets (this may be found on the Leisure World Seal Beach website, www.lwsb. com.)

In regards to Security, the two biggest complaints received in the Security Office in regards to dogs are:

 Öwners not picking up dog waste

• Barking dogs causing a noise issue at any time of the day or night when a resident is not home.

Be respectful of your neighbors and pick up after your dog and dispose of the waste immediately, and monitor the noise level your dog.

As a reminder, all residents are asked to advise their family and friends that visitors are not allowed to bring non-resident pets into Leisure World.

If you have any questions, contact the Security Department at 431-6586, ext. 375.

Frequently asked questions about annual meetings, elections

by Courtney Knapp

election specialist

The 2019 annual meeting season begins next week as Mutuals Ten, Fourteen and Seven hold the first annual meetings of the season. The fever-pitch of activity will continue for the next seven weeks as all sixteen mutuals and the Golden Rain Foundation (GRF) host their annual meetings.

The annual meeting and election season begins in February and concludes at the end of June. There are often many questions about this time of the year and why these activities are important.

What is an annual meeting and how is it different from a regular board meeting?

The mutual corporations and the GRF are required to have annual meetings in order to report to the membership their activities during the past year. Directors read reports concerning finances, infrastructure, accomplishments, and goals for the future. An annual meeting is similar to a State of the Union speech as directors are limited to presenting reports whereas business is conducted at board meetings. Who can attend annual meetings?

Shareholders/owners are encouraged to attend their mutual annual meeting (see schedule below). All Foundation members are encouraged to attend the GRF Annual Meeting on Tuesday, June 11, 2019 at 2:00 p.m. in Clubhouse Four.

Are the elections and annual meetings held on the same day?

The ballot counting for your mutual's election will be conducted at the annual meeting. The ballot counting for the GRF election will be conducted at a special GRF Board meeting at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday, June 4, 2019 in Clubhouse Four, one week before the GRF Annual Meeting.

How often are elections conducted?

The mutual boards of directors are elected annually. The GRF has elections every year but elects directors from even-numbered mutuals in even-numbered years and directors from odd-numbered mutuals in odd-numbered years.

How many ballots will I receive?

Depending on your mutual, you may receive one or two ballots. Shareholders in mutuals 1, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 15 and 17 are scheduled to receive two different ballots this season: a yellow ballot to elect your Mutual board of directors and a blue ballot to elect your GRF director(s). Shareholders in mutuals 2, 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 and 16 are scheduled to receive one mutual ballot.

Should I separate the voting-portion of the ballot before mailing it in the envelope provided?

No, please return the full legal-sized ballot in the envelopes provided. Don't forget to sign the outside return envelope!

Has my ballot been mailed?

Half the mutual ballots have already been mailed to households in Leisure World Seal Beach. Check the election schedule (below) to see when the mutual ballots were mailed. The GRF ballots were mailed May 2, 2019.

There are three people who live in my unit; do we each receive a ballot?

One ballot is mailed to each unit on file. The unit represents one share of stock/voting power. Per Mutual bylaws, if there are multiple owners of one membership (unit) in the corporation, despite the multiplicity of owners, they shall jointly have only one vote.

My mutual ballot has a bylaw amendment; why should I vote to amend the bylaws?

More than half the mutual corporations have placed a proposed bylaw amendment on the ballot. The amendment includes, among other things, addressing cumulative voting, removing FHA provisions, and including provisions regarding the Open Meeting Act. The amendment was prepared by your Mutual's legal counsel. Read the amendment information enclosed before casting your yes or no vote on the front of the ballot.

Can I use a proxy or designate someone to vote on my behalf?

Proxies are not permissible in GRF elections but, depending on your Mutual's election policy, proxies may be used in Mutual elections. To ensure the ballot's integrity, ballot envelopes must be signed by the shareholder member connected to that household. Contact your Mutual Board of Directors for further information.

Are write-in candidates permitted?

Foundation bylaws do not permit write-in candidates for GRF directors. However, there is a space on most mutual ballots for write-in candidates. For the vote to be properly cast for the write-in candidate, that candidate must be nominated at the annual meeting (called 'nominated from the floor') and must be present to accept the nomination.

My mail is forwarded to a post office box or an address outside the community. Will my ballot be forwarded to me?

No, the majority of the Mutual corporations prohibit forwarding of ballots to outside locations. As the voting rights are tied to the unit, ballots are all mailed to the units. Mutual Seventeen homeowners with outside addresses will receive a ballot at their mailing address. A replacement ballot can be mailed to you at the address of your choice. Call Accurate Voting Services toll free at (833) 861-6352 to request a replacement ballot.

The candidates on my ballot are running unopposed; why should

Your participation in the election process is critical for the operation of this community. Every vote counts! Additionally, the return of your properly cast ballot ensures that your Mutual will obtain the necessary number of votes to produce the annual meeting and counting of ballots.

I don't know the candidates running for my mutual's board of directors; why should I vote?

Read the candidate Statement of Qualifications (often referred to as a resume or biography) included with the ballot for information. Ask candidates questions on topics that are important to you. Attend meet-the-candidates events. Ask your friends and neighbors

If you decide you still do not want to cast your votes for any of the mutual candidates, you are still strongly encouraged to check the box labeled "abstain from voting – ballot counted for quorum only" portion of the ballot. This lets you participate in the election process by returning a properly cast ballot.

Some of the Mutual Candidate Statements of Qualification (resumes) were not included in my ballot packet. Why?

Mutual Board candidates are encouraged but not required to provide a Statement of Qualifications when they run for the Board. Policy 5025-30, GRF Election Procedures, requires GRF Board candidates to provide Statements of Qualification.

I've heard a quorum is necessary before the ballots can be counted. What is a quorum?

A quorum is the minimum number of members that must be present to make mutual annual meeting proceedings valid. In the case of elections, your participation in the voting process, i.e. your properly cast ballot, counts as your attendance. Depending on the Mutual, a quorum of at least one-third (1/3) of the mutual corporation membership or at least a majority (more than 50%) of the eligible shareholders is required before the mutual ballots can be counted.

I lost my ballot OR can't remember if I mailed my ballot. What Call Accurate Voting Services toll free at (833) 861-6352 to have a replacement ballot mailed to you or to confirm if your ballot was received. Once your ballot is cast, it is irrevocable.

Where do I mail the ballot?

The yellow and blue mailing envelopes are postage-paid and preaddressed to the Inspector of Elections, Accurate Voting Services, Inc., P.O. Box 6117, Laguna Niguel, CA 92607-6117. Drop the ballot in a U.S. Mailbox as soon as possible. Your ballot must be received before 12:00 noon on the business day BEFORE the annual meeting. You may also hand deliver your ballot to Clubhouse Four on the day of the annual meeting. See instructions on your ballot for further information. Don't forget to sign the outside return envelope!

BEIT HALEV

Leviticus' focus on holiness is topic

Beit HaLev's Torah reading week will be "K'doshim," Leviticus 19:15-20:27, which focuses on holiness.

The Parashah stands at the physical center of the five Books of Moses, and contains one of the most inspiring passages in the Torah: "You shall be holy, for I, your God, am holy."

Women figure prominently, with laws of protection for mothers, daughters, wives and slaves, who are in vulnerable positions. It also allows women unique avenues of holiness, something that was not allowed in other cultures at that time.

Beit HaLev's services are accessed online at Livestream.com/Galityomtov and Facebook.com/galityomtov.

Shabbat Ma'ariv (evening) services are at 6 and Saturday morning services are at 10:30.

In addition to the Sabbath services, Rabbi Galit Levy-Slater conducts a short weekday Ma'ariv service on Thursdays at 4 p.m. on SimShalom. com. It includes a Torah reading, a D'var Torah, a prayer for healing and the Mourners Kaddish. A beginners Hebrew class is held Wednesdays. To learn Prayerbook Hebrew or Modern (conversational) Hebrew, contact the Rabbi at 715-0888 or duets@icloud.com for more information.

Congregation Sholom

Congregation Sholom will hold Friday night services at 7 on May 10 in Clubhouse 3, Room 9, led by Rabbi Rachel Axelrad.

Carol Levine will discuss her recent trip to Israel and describe life on the West Bank surrounded by Arab towns. An Oneg shabbat featuring falafel will follow services.

All are invited to Saturday services at 9:30 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 9 with Rabbi Axelrad.

A potluck dairy lunch will follow services at noon. During lunch the Rabbi will discuss this week's Torah portion.

Sports & Games

LW Olympic medalists for bocce were determined in round robin tournament that was completed on April 28. The winners will receive medals in a ceremony on June 15.

GRF Olympic medalists determined in tournament

by Joy Kolesky LW contributor

The final games of the inaugural bocce tournament were played on April 28 to determine winners Roger and Carolyn Bennett from the Tuesday league who won two games against their Coming in second place Jensen and Tommy Vu from the Sunday league narrowly pulled out the win to beat Robert Berry and Terry Thrift also from the Sunday league.

Winners will receive their June 5, at 11 a.m. in Clubhouse 2. All bocce players are encouraged to attend the ceremony to congratulate and support their friends. Medal winners from the other LW sports clubs will also be receiving medals.

Over 50 people gathered around the bocce court to watch and cheer on the four teams as they competed for the medals.

Bocce, a new sport in Leisure World, has become a favorite game of many LW residents and participation is growing. Bocce is an easy game to learn, exciting to play, and suitable for all ages and skill levels. Currently there are several players in their 80s and a few players who overcome physical challenges to play each week. The one thing they all have in common is their love of the game and the social connections they've made.

Upcoming plans for bocce include a seven-week round robin tournament beginning the week of May 19 and culminating in early July.

The Sunday league will continue to play from 1-3:30 p.m.; Tuesday games are played from 10 a.m. -12:30 p.m.; and Thursday from 3-5:30 p.m. at the bocce court in Mission Park behind Clubhouse 2.

Ten teams are signed up to play in each league, an increase of six new two person teams, evidence of the popularity of the game.

Bocce organizers Dennis and Diane Jensen, Gene Vesely, Joy Kolesky, Tommy Vu and Behroze Irani offer coaching and game strategy for all those interested in learning the game or who want to improve their skills. Clinics are scheduled Sunday, May 5, 1-3 p.m.; Tuesdays, May / and 14, from 10 a.m. - noon; and Thursdays, May 9 and 16, from 3-5 p.m.

Practice and coaching is open to all LW residents. If you are new to the game this is an ideal time to come out and try it for yourself.

A one day tournament is currently being organized for Saturday, June 15, and is primarily for first time bocce players or people who are unable to commit to a weekly tournament schedule.

LW Orchestra

SPRING CONCERT

LW musicians to perform classics on May 23

The LW Orchestra will present its spring concert at 6 p.m. on Thursday, May 23, in Clubhouse 4 (this is a change for the usual Saturday afternoon show). Admission is free.

The orchestra will perform the music of the masters: Handel, Richard Rogers, Brahms, Breval, Bach, Gershwin, Schubert, Offenbach, Chopin, Hoagy Carmichael and others.

The 30-plus piece orchestra has a big sound and full of wonderful harmony. Pianist Esther Chun, who is also the club's vice president, will be showcased in "Little" Rhapsody in Blue," a piece made famous by the Paul Whitman Orchestra in the 1920s. It turned out to be a wonderful crossover between classical and jazz.

In a much different vein, the orchestra will feature Baroque music from the 1500s-1600s with selections from Francois Couperin, Henry Purcell and Michael Praetorius

After the concert there will be refreshments and a chance to mingle with orchestra members and Conductor Rae Boeving.

The orchestra is always trying to improve its musical balance and could use some new members, especially brass players. Contact Fred Reker, (615) 898-0669, if you have played a musical instrument in the past and want to revive your skill. Players can help people regain their proficiency.

COMMUNITY KARAOKE

Vito Villomar celebrated his birthday with subs and ice cream last week

You can never celebrate too many birthdays—especially in Leisure World. Last week, Vito Villomar donated sub sandwiches and ice cream cups to his Community Karaoke friends in honor of his birthday. Julie Nulad and friends had fun serving these treats to the group.

Several times the line dancers got on their feet to the tunes of Vito Villomar, Culley Eaby, Martin Rosendaal and Wayne Urban. "Mockingbird Hill" was a nice duet done by Myrrha and Ren Villanueva. Karen Morris did a rockin' Elvis number. Eva Doroia did well with "Hero." Byong Choi sang a smooth "Anything That's Part of You." Tony, Pete and Tino Tupas are family members with pleasant singing voices.

Audrey McKenzie had fun singing her song from "old England"—"The Last Farewell."

Vito Villomar

Some popular, well-known hits were nicely done by Gwen Preston, Bev Adams, Donna Burr, Ric Dizon, Carolyn Mottola, Anna Le and Bob Barnum.

It was a full house for the Wednesday night karaoke party starting at 5:30 p.m. More than 30 performers entertained and enjoyed hot coffee and treats. Everyone is welcome.

LW Coin Club

The Leisure World Coin Club will meet May 8 in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, at 1:30 p.m. Member and coin expert Andy Kmita will discuss commemorative coins.

These are coins issued by the U.S. Mint and private mints recognizing special events and public figures important to the nation's history, not intended for circulation, but for collectors.

A good example are the Olympic coins issued for fund raising purposes. Andy will tell members how to pick the winners from all of the coins issued every year. The meeting is open to all Leisure World residents and anyone interested in coins is welcome.

Lapidary Luncheon

The Lapidary Club will hold a luncheon to honor members who have been routinely volunteering for the many day-to-day tasks necessary to run the club. The luncheon will be held May 29 at 11 a.m. in Clubhouse 4. Members and their friends who plan to attend are encouraged to sign up in Lapidary Clubhouse 4. Cost is $10 per member and $15 for non-members.

RECREATION

Clubhouse lockers must be cleared

In anticipation of improving resources in GRF amenities, all lockers currently held by clubs, organizations and Mutuals must be emptied of all contents in the near future. Only those in Clubhouse 4 are required be cleared immediately. A new locker system will be installed there soon, and lockers must be vacated and cleaned out by May 24.

Groups are asked to contact Consuelo Reyes in the Recreation Department at 431-6586, ext. 279, to confirm the locker has been emptied and whether they want to continue having locker service.

Lockers will be unavailable for 4-6 weeks.

Other clubs should start looking for new storage because the lockers in all the clubhouses will eventually be ungraded.

Notice will be provided in the LW Weekly and via LW Live, GRF's email alert system.

GRF Movie

"The Happy Prince," rated R, will be shown at 2 p.m. on Sunday, May 12, at Clubhouse 4. This is the untold story of the last days of Oscar Wilde. As he lays on his deathbed in Paris, memories of his life come to him in flashes. He recounts his fame in London and how he fell from grace in the same city. He looks back at his past lovers including his wife, his affair with a lord, and the love of someone who tried saving him in the end.

ART LEAGUE

Talented watercolorist to demonstrate

The Leisure World Art League is proud to host a demonstration by one of Southern California's most acclaimed watercolorists, Moira Hahn, on the evening of Tuesday, May 14.

The monthly meeting starts at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 4 and, as always, people who want to attend are encouraged to arrive early to get good seats. The Art League demos continue to draw a large turnout from the community.

Hahn's demonstration promises to be entertaining and educational, and people will surely be impressed by her amazing talent at using brilliant colors as well as by the extent to which she draws on diverse cultural themes in her work.

Moira is descended from artists on both sides of the family. Her father's parents met in a landscape painting class in upstate New York. Despite naming her for a famous British ballerina, her parents encouraged her from an early age to pursue her interest in drawing.

Hahn received her BFA in Drawing and Painting at the Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) in Baltimore, through which she took advantage of a mobility program to attend California College of Arts and Crafts (now California College of the Arts) in Oakland. Ms. Hahn later studied printmaking at Otis Art Institute, and other art curricula at California State University, Fullerton, where she earned an MFA in 2000.

In her 20s, Moira studied experimental animation at CalArts in Valencia with Jules Engel, and later worked in the animation the end of the world. I cried for days because I wasn't going to be a part of the pep club like the other girls in my class. I finally came to terms with it. One day I came home from school, and there on my bed was the black sweater. It was Mom. I don't know how she did it or what she sold to get the money, but I will always remember that day being one of the happiest of my life. Her joy was in seeing me so happy....magic.

While Mom taught us how to pray, Dad taught us how to play. We worshiped together, and we played games and laughed together all the way into our adult life.

If our household sounds like a Norman Rockwall painting, it wasn't. We didn't have a lot of things, but we did have the important ingredients of a secure home—faith, hope and unconditional love, otherwise known as...Mom.

Kuzuko Monobe Mutual 9

Twenty years ago, my mother passed away quietly in her sleep. She was 93 years old. Although it was the most tragic event in me and my three sisters' lives, we almost couldn't believe she was able to live that long.

One summer day right after the end of WWII, my mother felt dizzy and fell on the tatami floor. We laid her on the futon and hurried to get the only doctor available in town. All the other doctors were not back from the war yet. An elderly doctor told us that her blood pressure was more than 230, and the only thing he could do was to drain some blood from her arm to ease the pressure in the vein since he didn't have high blood pressure medications.

After the doctor left, my older sister Nagako carefully carried out a small metal pan filled with the viscous, dark-red liquid to dispose of somewhere. I didn't want to believe that it was my mother's blood. I was 12 years old, and my mother, aunt and we sisters were living in a town in Yamaguchi prefecture, the western part of Honshuh.

After the doctor left, all four sisters sat around our mother's futon and watched her pale and haggard face. Her eyes were closed. At that moment we heard the radio talking about caskets. We looked at each other in silence and tried to ignore what we had just heard. We were scared of the possibility of her dying. The room was dark and quiet. Our mother was 44 years old.

After that, we experienced many similar incidents. Moreover, she was handicapped since she was 30 years old. My father was the cause of it. Her left leg was permanently fixed straight, and she was often in pain.

I still can't picture her without crutches under her arms. She was small, skinny and frail, but her four daughters' lives were centered around her.

During a serious food shortage, many people, including a well-known Kabuki actor, died of malnutrition. Our mother managed to put some food on the table. The only food we had plenty of was our home-grown kabocha (Japanese pumpkins). She cooked pumpkin soup, stewed pumpkin, rice gruel with plenty of pumpkin, and similar dishes for us.

However, even though we were starving, we gradually became sick of pumpkins.

We didn't even want to look at them. Mother finally came up with the solutions to coax us to eat more food. She made cute little pumpkin dumplings, and piled them high on a large plate and left them on the dining table all day, so when we were really hungry, we would pop one in our mouth and swallow.

She would sit beside our futon watching us all night even when we had slight fevers, and when we failed at something, she would tell us, "It's a good experience. Don't blame yourself too harshly."

We all felt safe as long as she was with us.

When she reached 80 years old, I made a point of visiting her in Japan once a year, staying for three weeks, dipping into our meager savings with the blessing of my good-natured husband.

A few days ago, while I was organizing a drawer, I opened a large brown envelope filled with her letters to me.

They were all written on the blue international airmail called Aerogram stationary. The blue ink was slightly faded, but I was able to read her carefully written words.

She wrote, "...at Narita Airport when you disappeared into the departure gate, I wept because I felt your back seemed so fragile, so lost, and so forlorn going back to America all by yourself..."

Contrary to what she felt at that time, I now realize how lucky I was to have two families who cared for me, one in America and one in Japan.

I wish I could have told her so, but somehow, I have the feeling that she still feels that way.

LW CENTENARIAN

104-year-old spent many years living abroad

Marge Novak's fulfilled, illustrious, unique and adventurous life began as Marguerite M. Sailer in Helena, Montana, on June 20, 1915. She grew up in Helena and received her nursing degree

She met Joseph "Joe" Novak and they were married in 1940. They settled for a few years in Butte, Montana, where their first child, Joan, was born in 1942, just before Joe joined the U.S. Army Air Force.

He served as a navigator on a B-24 bomber in the European

After the war, he earned a mining engineering degree and they had two more children, Jean in 1946 and Stephen in 1948.

Then their lives really took an unorthodox, challenging and adventurous turn. Joe took a position as a mining engineer with Anaconda Copper Mining Co., in the Atacama Desert, a very remote part of northern Chile. During this time, following World War II, most Americans were settling in suburbs throughout the U.S.

Their fourth child, Mary, was born in Chile a few months after they arrived in 1953.

Life for Marge, Joe, and their four children was a courageous undertaking, and a pioneering experience in Chile for the next 18 years.

They spent their yearly vacations traveling around the United States visiting family and friends. They made frequent trips to other parts of South and Central America and enjoyed traveling throughout Europe.

Marge was an accomplished seamstress, making most of her outfits and clothes for her daughters. She also was very adept at knitting and crocheting.

Marge developed a keen interest in bridge and other card games. She enjoyed golf and gardening. They built a homemade smoker and grill to cook and smoke various cuts of meat and homemade sausages.

Marge taught Catechism to the children in the community in preparation to receive their First Communion and Confirmation. She was also a Camp Fire Girls

Joe and Marge loved going to the beach during long weekends. They started out setting up a tent on a sandy beach in Northern Chile. Later, along with a few other families from the mining community, they built small beach homes on a beautiful and isolated part of the Northern Chilean coast. Marge specialized in making homemade cinnamon rolls and Cornish pasties, while Joe harvested bounties of shellfish for all to enjoy.

In 1971, after the new president, Salvador Allende, nationalized all foreign enterprise in Chile, Marge and Joe transferred, through Anaconda, to British Columbia, Canada, to work and enjoy life on the Howe Sound. They bought a boat and cruised with family and friends to Vancouver Island, set crab pots, fished for ling cod and trolled for salmon. It was a very special time for them.

Joe's job then took them to Western Australia and the Philippines before retiring to Stockton, California, in 1978.

In Stockton, Marge promptly volunteered at the Cardiac Rehab Center at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Depression, anxiety is topic

Dr. John Timberlake will focus on depression and anxiety in seniors at the Sunshine Club tomorrow, May 10, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2.

Dr. Timberlake is a licensed clinical psychologist and provides private therapy services in Los Alamitos. He is well-versed in treating adults and seniors with a variety of clinical diagnoses, and has effectively treated persons experiencing difficulties with major life changes.

About one-in-four seniors will experience a mental health concern that needs treatment at some point. The most common, depression and anxiety, are not just a normal part of growing older. Additionally, depression and anxiety can be triggered by common chronic medical conditions that older people often experience, such as diabetes, chronic pain, Parkinson's disease, arthritis, cancer, heart attack or stroke. Older adults are more likely to improve their medical condition if mental health is properly managed.

Marge and Joe signed up for the "Swim for Health Program" at San Joaquin Delta College and kept in shape by swimming three times a week and walking two miles every day for close to two decades.

Marge volunteered at the Seifert Center, a senior center. She was an avid bridge player at the center.

Early in 1997, they moved into their current home in Leisure World.

Marge joined knitting, travel and garden clubs.

She took courses at the Braille Institute when she became sight impaired, but never gave up on activities she enjoyed doing so much.

She still goes to the gym at least three times a week. She has listened to over 2,900 Braille books, and has recorded each and every one in her log book.

Sadly, Joe died in 2011 and is buried at Riverside National Cemetery. Marge visits him, with her children, at every opportunity.

She still loves to travel, visiting her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She never passes up an invitation to go on an outing. This passion and zeal for life has kept her very much alive.

Her positive attitude and quest to exercise has made her "the ever ready battery bunny"; she keeps "going and going and going!"

Great for you Marge, Mom and Gommie, from all who are so close to you and love you; our steadfast, loving and true Matriarch.

The Bowers Guo Pei exhibit enthralls LWers

by Leila Claudio LW contributor

We were supposed to go for appetizers for Jane Haass' birthday celebration, but the weather was gloomy, and it rained the previous night, preventing us from walking at the El Dorado Nature Center. So Jane suggested that we go see Guo Pei's couture collection at the Bowers Museum in Santa Ana.

Boy, what a revelation.

Guo Pei grew up in China during the Cultural Revolution when everyone dressed in gray jackets and pajama style pants. Her grandmother used to tell her of colorful dresses of silk and intricate floral embroidery worn by her generation.

Her creations mix modern fashion with Asian influences, utilizing ancient myths of dragons and Phoenix-like beasts, Buddhist and Christian forms, a gown that evokes the era of Queen Elizabeth I of England. Her clothes are made of silk and taffeta, embroidered with gold or silver thread, sequins, feathers and Swarovski crystals that have taken thousands of hours by skilled embroiderers. Even the undersides of the dresses were masterpieces of engineering design.

I couldn't believe the ingenuity of each dress following another, complete with high platform shoes (court shoes worn by Chinese imperial women), neck, ear and headwear.

By the time Jane and I finished

OPERA CLUB

'L'heure Espagnole' will be featured

Everyone is invited to come and watch "L'heure Espagnole" in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, on Monday, May 13, at 1:30 p.m.

This work composed by Maurice Ravel is in the humorous style of opera buffa or opera-comique. It concerns a clockmaker whose task is to wind the municipal clocks in Toledo—a task which requires him to leave his shop for a full hour to make the appointed rounds.

During his absence, his wife, Concepcion, likes to receive the attentions of a bevy of men, namely a poet and a banker to while away her time and her boredom.

However, on this one day, a muleteer stops by for a repair of his timepiece and is told by the clock maker he must wait an hour for his return. To ensure her privacy, Concepcion asks the muleteer to transport a heavy clock upstairs to her bedroom, but when he returns too soon, she changes her request asking him to carry another clock (with the poet hidden inside) to her bedroom. Also she asks the banker to enclose himself in yet a third clock which is destined to be delivered upstairs.

Of course, the muleteer catches on to the hi-jinks and audience enjoys a surprise before all five singers take a bow for their entertaining musical tale.

The opera is sung is French with English subtitles. Room 2 is open at 1 p.m. (but not before). No dues or fees are collected. For further information, ontact Beverly Emus, LW Opera Club president, at 296-5596 or bemus@ socal.rr.com.

All photo club members and Leisure World residents are invited to enter the Photo Arts Club Photo Contest. Prizes will be awarded; first place wins $100; second, $50; and third, $25.

Non-members will pay a $10 entry fee.

In keeping with subject matter covered in current club meetings, the photo for entry into the contest must be a creative portrait of one individual. This might be a spouse, a neighbor, a friend, adult or child. A portrait is defined as a "head and shoulders" image from the top of the head to no-lower than the waist. Landscapes, travel pictures, or snapshots will not be accepted.

All entries must be submitted at the June 13 meeting in Clubhouse 3, Room 9, at 1:30 p.m. Entry format shall be a minimum print size of 8x10 and no larger than 11x14 mounted on a 16x20 mount board. Photos must be recent creations. A "model release" may be required for publication of the winning photographs in the LW Weekly.

For specific instruction on lighting, camera techniques and modeling the subject, come to the photo club meeting today, May 9, in Clubhouse 3, Room 9, at 1:30 p.m. to learn how to create award winning portraits. For more information, call 430-7978.

Everyone is welcome.
