The Diamonds

In 1957 The Diamonds released an instant million-selling hit called “Little Darlin.” The song continues to sell worldwide and has been dubbed “the National Anthem of Rock and Roll.” To date it has sold approximately 20 million copies.
Through the years since the release of “Little Darlin,” The Diamonds have learned one important lesson—the durability of this classic rock-and-roll music is as much about the future as it is about the past.
As a result, The Diamonds continue to expand their audience to this day, performing in a variety of venues and settings worldwide—with symphony orchestras, in major concert halls, on cruise ships, in casinos, on tours of England, Ireland, Brazil, Chile, Korea, Japan and beyond.
A major reason for The Diamonds’ longevity in the diverse backgrounds of the individual members of the group. The youngest member, Adam David Marino, hails from Rochester, New York, where he attended Nazareth College studying musical theater. He performed in regional theaters across the U.S. in such roles as Doody in “Grease,” Ritchie Valens in “The Buddy Holly Story” and Terk in “Tarzan.”

AMERICAN LEGION & AUXILIARY

Bring donations for Fisher House

The GRF Recreation Department, with the assistance of the American Legion and Auxiliary, Post 327, will collect cash donations on Aug. 8 at the Amphitheater concert featuring the Best of Doo Wop—The Diamonds, The Coasters & The Drifters (for concert information, see page 1).

Incorporated in 2013, Fisher House Southern California, Inc., is a nonprofit, all-volunteer collaborative effort of American Gold Star Mothers, the American Legion, Long Beach Rotary members and the Fisher House Foundation, among others. The goal is to support the nation's promise and obligation to those who have sacrificed for the country's freedom and security.

The 16-bedroom house at the Long Beach Veterans Medical Center provides a temporary home to families of veterans receiving care at the hospital when they don't have another option. The concept is based on the same theory as the Ronald McDonald Houses attached to many children's hospitals (including one in Long Beach) — patients do better when family members are close by.

Legion volunteers will be posted at all entrances of the Amphitheater to receive donations. GRF appreciates its members and guests generously supporting these local heroes. Donations must be in cash or checks only, made out to LB Fisher House.

THE STRANGER

The Stranger, a Billy Joel tribute band featuring Mike Santoro (r), filled the Amphitheater Aug. 1 and did not disappoint. "For me, this was one of the top three bands we've ever had at the Amphitheater," posted Elesha Wadel on Leisure World's Facebook page. "Mike Santoro (Billy) nailed it, and that drummer and sax player, amazing!"

Policy changes will affect clubs' use of marquee

by Kathy Thayer

assistant recreation manager

GRF provides ample opportunity for promoting clubs, but some of the policies are changing, which could affect the way clubs advertise. The latest change comes from the newly revised and approved Marquee Usage policy, 70-1422-3.

The policy states:

The Recreation Department is responsible for the operation of the marquee.

The marquee at the corner of Golden Rain Road and St. Andrews Drive is for the exclusive use of the Golden Rain Foundation (GRF) Board, GRF Committee meetings, Mutual meetings, Amphitheater performances, GRF special events and emergency notices.

Any and all exceptions will be determined by the Recreation Department head in consultation with the Recreation Committee.

Since it was donated several years ago by Superwire, the marquee has been used to advertise GRF events, urgent notices and, subject to space available, club events that did not involve solicitation of a fee or donation. About a dozen of LW's 250-plus clubs actually utilized this service regularly. Due to space restrictions and a first-come, first-served policy,

Data breaches in forefront this week

by Cathie Merz
cathiem_news@lwsb.com

This has been a trying week for data breaches. A data breach is a security incident in which sensitive, protected or confidential data is copied, transmitted, viewed, stolen or used by an individual unauthorized to do so. Data breaches may involve financial information such as credit card or bank details, personal health information, personally identifiable information, trade secrets of corporations or intellectual property. Most data breaches involve overexposed and vulnerable unstructured data, files, documents and sensitive information and can often lead to identity theft.

Capital One announced that roughly 100 million individuals in the U.S. were affected by a data breach that occurred March 22-23 and a settlement was reached with Equifax for the data breach incident that occurred in 2017.

The individual behind the recent Capital One data breach, Paige Thompson, a software engineer from Seattle, has been caught by authorities and the method used to infiltrate the system has also been fixed. She is a former Amazon software engineer.

The largest category of information accessed was information on consumers and small businesses who applied for a Capital One credit card product from 2005 through early 2019.

Capital One is confident that the stolen information wasn't used in a fraudulent way and credit card numbers and log-in information were not stolen.

A majority of the information accessed by the hacker was names, addresses, zip codes, phone numbers, email addresses, dates of birth, and self-reported income. There were also 140,000 Social Security numbers of credit card customers and 80,000 bank account numbers from customers included in the stolen information.

Other information in the theft includes fragments of transaction data from 23 days in 2016, 2017 and 2018 and customer status data that included credit scores, credit limits, balances, payment history, contact information.

Capital One will notify those who had their data stolen and provide free credit monitoring and identity theft protection. The hacked information could be used to impersonate those affected or to create targeted phishing attacks.

The chairman of the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee said the committee will look into the matter and Sen. Mike Crapo, R-Idaho, plans legislation that would establish new data safeguards for consumers.

The leaders of the House and Senate committees want Capital One and Amazon to explain to Congress how a hacker accessed personal information from the Capital One credit card customers and applicants. The stolen information was stored on a cloud service provided by Amazon Web Services.

A computer fraud and abuse charge carries a maximum penalty of five years in jail and a $250,000 fine.

Equifax settled its class action suit last week stemming from a data breach on Sept. 7, 2017. The breach impacted the personal information of approximately 147 million people and a $700 million settlement was reached.

Those affected by the breach may be eligible for free credit monitoring or a cash payment.

Victims can get at least four years of free credit monitoring of their credit report at all three credit bureaus, Equifax, Experian and TransUnion, and up to six more years of free credit monitoring of their Equifax credit report.

If the victim has credit monitoring that will continue for at least six months and he/she decides not to enroll in the free credit monitoring offered in the settlement, he/she may be eligible for cash payment. The amount received will depend on the number of claims filed.

Based on the number of potentially valid claims that have been

Making History

Aug. 8, 1974 - President Richard M. Nixon announces his intention to become the first president in American history to resign. Impeachment proceedings were taking place against him for his involvement in the Watergate affair. His term as the 37th president of the United States ended the next day, Aug. 9, 1974.

Aug. 11, 1934 - A group of federal prisoners classified as "most dangerous" arrived at Alcatraz Island, a 22-acre rocky outcrop situated 1.5 miles offshore in San Francisco Bay. The convicts, the first civilian prisoners to be housed in the new high-security penitentiary, joined a few dozen military prisoners left over from the island's days as a U.S. military prison.

Aug. 12, 1961 - Shortly after midnight, East German soldiers begin laying down barbed wire and bricks as a barrier between Soviet-controlled East Berlin and the democratic western section of the city. Over the next 12 years, East Germany saw between 2.5 million and 3 million of its citizens head to West Germany in search of better opportunities.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

The GRF Executive Committee has proposed a reduction of current and future full-time employees 401k Benefit Packages, which would reduce GRF's matching contribution from 4 percent to 1.5 percent, or a 62-percent reduction.

This, in my opinion, is foolish, given one of the stated goals of the current GRF board is to retain and attract competent employees. This proposal would in fact work against accomplishing that goal.

Many shareholders have pensions from the government, school districts, unions and corporations. The only thing that GRF offers its employees is a 401k matching program and this should not be diminished or lowered.

May I respectfully suggest that an Ad Hoc committee, comprising GRF Board Members and Mutual Presidents, be formed and its members selected by the GRF President and the President of the President's Council. This would enable this committee to offer alternative solutions to this ill-conceived proposal.

Current and future employees will benefit from not reducing this important benefit.

Lee Melody
Mutual 14 President

Editor:

We have chosen to live here and enjoy our retirement years. We would appreciate it if you would respect that many of us have normal hearing and want to preserve that hearing.

Last year I brought to your attention the excessive sound at the Amphitheater and was told to buy ear plugs. I have since purchased four different types of ear plugs. None of them can stand up to the volume you deem necessary to blast us with.

The ear drum-piercing levels have stopped me from attending the concerts. I know I am not alone with this complaint.

Please turn it down!!

VIEWPOINT

Where the lost things go

by Jim Greer
LW Interfaith Council

In the Disney sequel, "Mary Poppins Returns," the Banks children who had lost their mother, awoke from what they perceived was a nightmare within a Royal Doulton bowl. Now threatened with the prospect of losing their home as well, Georgie, sadly laments, "I miss mother." To ease their melancholy, Mary Poppins soothingly explains, "you can't lose what you've never lost." And then sings the touching lullaby, "Where the Lost Things Go."

"Do you ever dream or reminisce?

Wondering where to find what you truly miss.

Well, maybe all those things that you love so,

Are waiting in the place where the lost things go.

Memories you've shed gone for good, you feared.

They're all around you still though they've disappeared.

Nothing's really left or lost without a trace.

Nothing's gone forever only out of place.

So, when you need her touch and loving gaze.

Gone but not forgotten is the perfect phrase.

Smiling from a star that she makes glow.

Trust she's always there watching as you grow.

Find her in the place where the lost things go."

Philosophers, scientists, and physicians have all tried to explain to us where our lost loved ones go. Many of us, through our spiritual upbringing, have our own personal hopes. But in the Feb. 10, 2018, issue of Newsweek, an article titled, "Where Do You Go When You Die? The Increasing Signs That Human Consciousness Remains After Death," by Dr. Sam Parnia, director of critical care and resuscitation research at New York University Langone Medical Center explains, "we have a consciousness that makes up who we are—ourselves, thoughts, feelings, emotions—and that entity, it seems, does not become annihilated just because we've crossed the threshold of death; it appears to keep functioning and not dissipate."

Each of us has struggled through our lives to understand what it means to pass to the other side. But British theologian Adam Clark shared his concept of passing when he wrote, "Death to a good man is but passing through a dark entry, out of one little dusky room of his Father's house into another that is fair and large, lightsome and glorious, and divinely entertaining."

Within the New Testament, in John chapter 14, verse 2, Jesus explains to his disciples, "In my Father's house are many mansions, ...I go to prepare a place for you." Bible scholars have found that the

SECURITY CORNER

Respect for GRF employees

by Victor Rocha security services director

All GRF employees have the right to work in a professional workplace free from threats, intimidation, and harassment. It is the expectation that all interactions with GRF employees be professional. Even though you may believe you have a significant issue and concern you must express, under no circumstance is any GRF employee to be yelled at, demeaned, suffer insults about their ethnicity, etc.

In addition, sexual harassment of GRF employees will not be tolerated. All employees deserve a workplace that is free of unwelcome verbal, visual, non-verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature or based on an individual's sex. We have received various reports that some residents are engaged in the following inappropriate behaviors directed towards female staff, such as:

- Unwanted sexual advances.
- Vulgar, obscene comments or jokes.
- Offensive remarks about their gender.
- Comments about their body and physical appearance.
- Repeated requests for dates or social visits.
- Touching of any sort including hugs, neck rubs or placing your arm around a GRF employee.
- Sharing inappropriate pictures or e-mails.
- Long conversations that quickly lead to asking inappropriate questions about the employee's personal life.

The GRF Board of Directors is currently reviewing a new Code of Conduct policy that will provide for fines and loss of membership for inappropriate behavior toward ANY GRF staff. We ask everyone to respect our GRF staff in providing a harassment free workplace.

submitted to date, payments for time spent and alternative compensation of up to $125 will most likely be substantially lower according to the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). The payments will be distributed on a proportional basis, and the amount received may be a small percentage of the initial claim.

Victims may be eligible for reimbursement and cash payments up to $20,000 for their time spent protecting their identity or recovering from identity theft, up to 20 hours at $25 per hour; for money spent protecting their identity or recovering from identity theft, such as the cost of freezing or unfreezing credit reports or unauthorized charges to their accounts; and for up to 25 percent of the cost of Equifax credit monitoring or identity protection products bought between Sept. 7, 2016-Sept. 7, 2017.

People who already submitted a claim for the alternative cash payment can change their minds. The settlement administrator will email those who chose the cash option with information on how to switch to free credit monitoring if they want. Consumers can also send an email to change their claim request.

Those affected by the breach may exclude themselves from the settlement by informing the Settlement Administrator that they want to "opt-out" of the settlement. This is the only option that allows people to retain their rights to separately sue Equifax for claims related to the data breach. Those who opt-out, may not make a claim for benefits under the settlement.

If a victim does not file a claim they can receive free help recovering from identity theft for at least seven years. If a victim discovers misuse of personal information, they should call the settlement administrator at (833) 759-2982 for instructions on how to access free identity restoration services.

Starting in 2020, all U.S. consumers can get six free credit reports per year for seven years from the Equifax website. That's in addition to the one free Equifax report (plus Experian and TransUnion reports) that are available at AnnualCreditReport.com.

To file a claim or to see if your information was impacted visit www.equifaxbreachsettlement.com.

GRF

Minutes from meetings will be by request

At its July 23 meeting, the Golden Rain Foundation Board of Directors approved printing a GRF Board of Directors meeting summary immediately following the meetings in LW Weekly in lieu of publishing the GRF Board Minutes. This change becomes effective Sept. 1.

To satisfy provisions of the Civil Code, draft and approved GRF Board meeting minutes will be available to shareholders, upon request, from the GRF Administration Reception Desk on the second floor of the Administration Building, and on the GRF website, lwsb.com.

The Communication and IT Committee reviewed the production, printing and distribution costs and estimated that by eliminating redundant printing of the recap of board activity and the minutes would net a $4,026-$4,831 savings per year.

A recap of board activity is printed in the Thursday edition of LW Weekly following the Tuesday GRF board meeting.

Civil Code requires that minutes, minutes proposed for adoption that are marked to indicate draft status, or a summary of the minutes of any meeting of the board of directors of an association, other than an executive session, must be made available to members within 30 calendar days of the meeting. (Civ. Code §4950.)

Publishing the recap of the meeting satisfies the Civil Code requirement.

Once the draft minutes are approved by the Board, they will be posted on lwsb.com and printed copies available at the GRF Administration Reception Desk.

OPTUMCARE AT THE HCC

Instant alerts can be a safeguard

BY CARSON BLOMQUIST
OptumCare

You probably remember that oft-repeated line from 30 years ago: I’ve fallen and I can’t get up! This ad was one of the first for a device called a personal emergency response system (PERS). The device was intended for seniors who lived alone and needed emergency care.

With a home safety fair coming to the Health Care Center on Aug. 13, I decided to find out more about these devices. I spoke to Joe Kopmeyer, vice president of Managed Care for Critical Signal Technologies, one of the companies that provides PERS services. According to Joe, PERS devices have been around since the 1970s, but I’m sure everyone recognizes that ad. It’s what put these devices on the map. The ads helped raise awareness of home safety, especially for seniors.

We all want to age safely in our own homes; this is one additional way of staying safe.

And are these still for home safety?

Home safety is one part, but they have a lot more functionality.

OC VECTOR CONTROL

First mosquito tests positive for WNV

The Orange County Mosquito and Vector Control District (OC-MVCD) has confirmed the first mosquito sample to test positive for West Nile virus (WNV) in 2019. The mosquitoes were collected from the city of Orange at El Camino Real Park on July 30. The District has also confirmed 9 birds with West Nile virus in the cities of Cypress, Buena Park, Huntington Beach and Tustin. There are no confirmed cases of human infections at this time in Orange County.

“The increased temperatures and humidity creates an ideal environment for mosquitoes to breed, it is critical that residents take the necessary steps to eliminate potential mosquito breeding sources and prevent mosquito bites,” said Lora Young, OCMVCD’s Director of Communications.

West Nile virus is transmitted to humans via the bite of infected mosquitoes, which become infected when feeding on birds carrying the virus. Most individuals infected with WNV will not experience any illness. Others will have flu-like symptoms, such as fever, headache and body aches. In severe cases, people will need to be hospitalized, and in rare cases the disease can be fatal. Young children, the elderly, or individuals with lowered immune systems are at greater risk to experience severe symptoms when infected.

Prevent Mosquito Bites

- Apply mosquito repellent to exposed skin before going outdoors; reapply as recommended
- Wear repellent containing DEET, Picaridin, IR3535, or oil of lemon eucalyptus
- Close all unscreened doors and windows; repair broken or damaged screens
- Wear long-sleeved shirts and long pants, and opt for lighter-colored clothing

The Dancing Feet stars include an ensemble of line dancers, who showcased “I know You Want Me” and “Usted” at the club’s dance spotlight on the fourth Sunday of the month.

DANCING FEET CLUB

Line dancers celebrate 5 years of classes, performances

The Dancing Feet line dance club celebrated its five-year anniversary in June. Its continuing success is attributed to professionally and meticulously selected ballroom music that captivates those who have a passion for dancing.

The club’s founders—Ric Dizon, Irene Dizon, Ed Bolos and Rose Vivar—followed the theme of the movie, “The Field of Dreams,” “If you build it, they will come.” True enough, dancers from Leisure World and surrounding communities came and they keep attending the club’s events.

The club hosts ballroom and line dancing every fourth Sunday of the month in Clubhouse 2 from 6-9:30 p.m. It also holds line dance class and practice in Clubhouse 6 every Thursday from 7-9 p.m. and on Sundays (except the second and fourth Sundays) from 4:30-6 p.m.

Dancers are encouraged to perform the line dances they learn each month during the fourth-Sunday events. The dancers are excited to perform before a live audience. Ed and Rose, dance instructors, prepare and motivate the dancers every step of the way, thus giving them confidence and, ultimately, a feeling of accomplishment.

Everyone is welcome. Admission is free. Bring non-alcoholic drinks and snacks to the club’s monthly event in Clubhouse 2. Eating and drinking on the exercise floor in Clubhouse 6 is not allowed. For more information, call Ed Bolos at (551) 998-4223.

Opera Club

The Opera Club will screen “Der Rosenkavalier,” Part 2, in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, on Monday, Aug. 12, at 1:30 p.m. Everyone is invited. This production at the Metropolitan Opera in New York features the spectacular Renee Fleming in her farewell role. A short review of Part 1 will be given by Opera Club member Mary DiDonna for those who missed last week’s meeting.

Act 3 sets the stage for the humorous resolution of the earlier predicaments. At a hotel dinner party intended as an engagement event, Baron Ochs is pursuing Mariandel, who is really Octavian in disguise. Amid waltz tempos, someone appears to accuse Baron Ochs of being the father of her children. Confusion reigns as the Baron nearly engages in a duel. But the Marschallin arrives in time to bring order to everyone’s distress. Above all, she recognizes that love has blossomed between Octavian and Sophie and has the wisdom to wish them well.

The opera is sung in German with English subtitles. No dues or fees are collected. Room 2 is open at 1 p.m. but not before. For further information, contact Beverly Emus, Opera Club president at 296-5586 or beverly90740@gmail.com.

GRF Movie

“West Side Story,” will be shown at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 11, in Clubhouse 4.

A love affair is fated for tragedy amidst the rivalry of two street gangs—the Jets and the Sharks. When Jets member Tony falls for Maria, the sister of the Sharks leader, it’s more than these two warring gangs can handle. And as tensions rise, a battle to the death ensues and innocent blood is shed in a heartbreaking finale.

There are a lot of other emergency situations: you smell smoke, there’s a strange person following you at the grocery store, and so on.

There are also non-emergency situations. You may need help with transportation or getting food. Our company has social workers to help with those issues.

Falls are still an important thing to consider. One in three seniors will have a fall this year. The longer someone goes without getting help, the more of an impact it will have on their health. A lot of devices have fall detection built in, and if a fall is detected, the device will automatically call us.

(To be transparent, I’m not endorsing Joe’s device over any other company. There may be other devices with similar services. If you’re interested in one, I encourage you to do your homework and find the right one for you. Now, back to the interview.)

How do the devices work?

If you have a situation or need help with a non-emergency issue, just press the button. That connects you to a representative. It doesn’t send you to 911. Speak into the device and let the representative know what you need. He or she can then connect you to the right service.

What happens if someone doesn’t speak English?

For our device, we have a translation service available. If we know you speak Korean and you press the button, we’ll have a Korean translator on the line with the representative.

What happens if I accidentally press the button? Is the fire department going to be outside my front door?

No. All calls go through our center here in the U.S. Our representatives can find out if you need help or if it was just an accident.

Are PERS recommended for a certain type of senior?

They work for anyone. If you have a parent with Alzheimer’s who tends to wander at night, a PERS can help track them with GPS. If you’re really active, it can be useful. I had an 80-year-old man who biked 20 miles a day. He fell off his bike in the middle of nowhere. He was able to get help where he was with the GPS tracking. Imagine if he didn’t have it. So this is something that could help anyone.

AMPHITHEATER SATURDAY NIGHT

Cabaret Entertainers will be featured on the big stage on Aug. 10 at 7:30

The Cabaret Entertainers are proud to announce that the club has been selected to perform the first Saturday Night at the Amphitheater show. Every year, the Recreation Department sponsors three shows performed by LW clubs.

The Cabaret Entertainers will feature duets from the ever-popular Tommy Williams and Bette Fritz, and Donna Burr and Tosca Lies, plus the multi-talented Lori Porter and Vickie Van Ert. Memorable baritones Andre Du Somme, who was recently featured in the Summer Serenade Concert, and longtime Theater Club veteran Charlie Guggino will also take the stage in what promises to be a showcase of gifted LW artists.

Admission is free. For more information or to participate backstage, call producer and management assistant Ruth Long at 799-6504. In addition to the performers onstage, there are three times as many people working behind the scenes —as stagehands, in lighting, and more—to produce a top notch show.

Phil Mandeville will be the emcee.

The show has open seating. Admission is free.

Start arriving at 7:30 p.m. for announcements and a small pre-show comic at 8 p.m.

“I look forward to seeing you all there,” said resident and show director Tommy Williams. “You’ll have nothing but a great time, I promise.”

—Tommy Williams

Artist John Harper with some of his work at an arts fest.

ART LEAGUE

Spotlight on the Artist reception is Aug. 16

The Art League will host a Spotlight on the Artist reception Friday, Aug. 16, from 1-3 p.m. in Clubhouse 4, Section A.

This presentation is open to everyone and includes light refreshments.

Two LW photo artists—John Harper and Gil Moore—will be featured.

Both offer their work for sale or commission at various community events.

They will have their art for sale at the Spotlight. All are welcome to come for an air-conditioned summer art festival with all the fun and food that goes along with such a gathering.

Harper will exhibit his digital portraiture, pictures composed of photographs of people and animals and “painted” using a computer.

Backgrounds are done in such a way as to look like the art was hand painted.

The background can be one of his styles or one chosen by the customer, who might want a special place or event. John then prints out the portrait, with sizes up to 22-by-28 inches.

Portraits are printed on paper or canvas and are ready for framing.

John even makes his own frames, called floating frames, if people want them.

Also featured will be Gil Moore and his photo note cards. His note cards feature popular local scenes of Leisure World and Seal Beach. He also has a carousel of lighthouses and another of butterflies.

Many different flowers are depicted plus an endless array of other scenes.

Probably the most popular and most talked about is the one depicting the “Bridgeport Ladies.”

He likes to say that his cards are inexpensive but not cheap.

The Wa-Rite Club honored members for excellent progress last week. Leona San Severino (l-r) was Queen of the Month with a weight loss of 11 pounds; Lyn Kelley was Top Loser of the Week; Tanya Moffat received her Master of Goal Weight Certificate; and Rosie Calhoun tied as Loser of the Week. The women credited club membership with helping them stay focused in an encouraging forum. For the complete story, see the Wa-Rite article on page 8.

LW PT is Sunshine guest tomorrow

Jeremy Matteson, physical therapist and owner of Seniors' Choice Physical Therapy in Leisure World, will be speaking on the topic of longevity at the Sunshine Club tomorrow, Aug. 9, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. Longevity is sometimes referred to as "life expectancy," but Jeremy will put a fun twist on the term and provide some information that everyone in LW will be able to take home. Matteson graduated from Cal State, Long Beach, in 1996, and has spent his career working with orthopedic injuries and surgeries. He came to Leisure World in 2008, and has been active in the community as well as providing for the needs of the residents since then.

Jeremy Matteson

Additional August speakers will be Jon Ainely, Seal Beach Police Officer, on Aug. 16; Pam Lewko Castillo, newest medical technology, Aug. 23; Maryann Shadow, On-Site Sales office on Aug. 30. The Sunshine Club is designed to help all people get along in the community; for neighbors to have better communication; and to get the best out of living in Leisure World by learning how to use available information. The club uses LW Weekly as a textbook to go over LW news, general columns, etc. The club has frequent guest speakers from outside Leisure World who speak on various topics that enhance living in LW. Arrive 5-10 minutes early to enjoy refreshments before the meeting begins at 10 a.m. The club meets on Fridays, in Clubhouse 3, Room 2, from 10 a.m.-noon (except on the first Friday in Room 9). All shareholders are welcome to attend; no membership required. For more information, call Anna Derby at 301-5339.

New residents are especially urged to come, make friends and be welcomed by the Golden Age Foundation hostesses who staff the program. In order to operate the GAF needs substitutes and regular volunteers to help serve guests. A friendly attitude is the only requirement. Male and female applicants are welcome to call Martha Goossesns at 221-3008, and leave a message.

INVESTMENT FORUM Outlook for 2nd half of year will be presented

The LWSB Investment Forum's August presentation, will take place on Tuesday, Aug. 13, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 6. As the second half of the year begins, there are some significant and controversial events taking place, including the Federal Reserve's upcoming policy meeting, with speculation that the first rate cut in 10 years is likely to take place, along with a better indication of the general direction second quarter earnings estimates. So far, 77 percent of S&P 500 companies have beaten estimates, which is excellent, especially considering tariff costs and ongoing trade uncertainty, slowing growth and a strong U.S. dollar. The forum will also take a brief look into U. S. and global market performance for the year as well as key interest rates. Curiosity, questions and suggestions for future topics and presentations are encouraged. For over 30 years, the Investment Forum has been committed to informing and educating Leisure World residents by presenting monthly discussions on timely, critical financial topics Guys and gals enjoyed overcast mornings during two-day golf tournament on LW course.

Guy, Gals Tourney turns low scores

by Dave LaCascia
LW contributor

The second Guys and Gals Golf tournament in July was played on July 31 at the local course. Like many previous mornings it was cool and damp, and the sun did not come out until the tournament was more than half over.

Thirty-six teams of one man and one woman contended over 18 holes in three Flights. ‘A’ flight has teams with combined handicaps of 0-10. ‘B’ flight 11-13, and ‘C’ flight 14-18. All scores are net, actual score minus handicap.

There were no holes-in-one, but there were four circle hole winners. Scores were astonishingly low this week with the winners being net -11 or 10 under par; which translates to gross, one under or even par. Pretty good for amateur golfers.

Flight winners:
Flight A: First place: Fujio Norihiro-Keiko Sekino with a spectacular 44; tie for second place between Chang Choi-Soo Choi, and Won Song – Jane Song, 46; tie for third place between Hyon Shin-Sang An and Bill Lyons-Pam Krug, 47.

Fight B: tie for first place between Bill McKusky-Yvonne Lim and Steve Moody-Sandy Derouin with another terrific 44; tie for second place between Jae Kim-Anne Walshe and Jae H. Lee-Sun Lee, 46.

C: tie for first place between Jim Dickerson-Laura Garcia and Ryan Hong-Kay Hong with unbelievable 11 under 43s; second place, Joon Yoon-Young Yoon, 44; tie for third place between Lee Broadbent-Joanne Lim and Sang Kim-Soo Kim, 45.

Closest to the pin on hole No. 8 was Jae Kim 8 feet, 2 inches and Janice Turner , 2 feet, 3 inches. On hole number No. 17 it was Bob Barnum, 2 feet, 9 inches and Sun Lee, 6 feet, 9 inches.

Guys and Gals Tournament is held on the third Wednesday of each month, and on the fifth Wednesday of months that contain five Wednesdays.

The next tournament is scheduled for Aug. 21.

Scrabble Club has new officers; score nine bingos

The Leisure World Scrabble Club had an eventful month of July. The club installed a new slate of officers. Maria Giegerich became the president after having served for many years as the club secretary-columnist. Flo Nesland stepped down from the presidency after several years. Larry Edgar assumed Giegerich’s former role as secretary-columnist. Sylvia Makus is the vice president, and Zoe Pickell is the treasurer.

On July 17, Edgar celebrated his 300th win as a member of the club by bringing lunch for all of the members who were present.

There were 13 scores of 350 or above: Edgar registered ones of 448, 386, 367 and 351. Pam Smithson had her personal best of 400 and also a 354. Geigerich scored a 392. Nesland had a 376, a 367, and a 350. Charla Gae scored a 368. Suthy Chhoeuy had games of 363 and 352.

Also, there were nine “bingoes” accomplished by club members during the month. In Scrabble, a bingo is a move in which a player uses all seven tiles in one move.

Edgar played the words “ironies,” “bloomer” and “pitched.” Ruth Depuy used “tangents” and “defined”; Nesland played “liqueur”; Ms. Chhoeuy, “yarders”; Beth Winslow, “snorted”; and Wanda Bemben, “fueling”.

The club meets on Wednesday afternoons in Clubhouse 3, Room 5 at 1 p.m. Games begin on the hour at 1, 2, and 3. New players of all levels are welcome.

For additional information about the club, call Edgar at (310) 927-3785.

original text which was written in Greek used the word “monai,” which means abodes, dwelling places, or rooms. At this time in history, insula-style dwellings were common in Roman-ruled Palestine, which consisted of small house-rooms surrounded by large courtyards. Rather than dwelling for eternity in individual mansions, believers would enjoy a communal style of living with extended family. So, Adam Clarke's concept of moving from one small room through the courtyard to another more easily aligns the original intent of John 14:2.

Regardless of our professed faith or personal spiritual philosophy, each of us longs for eternal relationships with loved ones. Which may explain the growing interest in genealogical research, through which we come to know our ancestors, and inevitably ourselves. As we discover those of our family tree that came before us, we suddenly take them from darkness into the lighted rooms prepared for them. When we claim them as ours and bring them into the light and lives of our homes, they are no longer lost. And our homes then become the place where the lost things go.

- Store personal information in a safe place.
- Shred credit card receipts and/or old statements before discarding in a garbage can.
- If you do not have a shredder, use scissors. Protect PINs and passwords.
- Carry only the minimum amount of identifying information.
- Remove your name from mailing lists for preapprove credit lines and telemarketers.
- Order and closely review bi-annual copies of your credit from each national credit reporting agency

- (Equifax, Experian, and Trans Union).
- Ask the DMV to assign an alternative driver's license if it currently features your Social Security Number. Also remove your SSN from personal checks.
- Ensure that your PIN numbers cannot be observed by anyone while using an ATM or public telephone.
- Close all unused credit card or bank accounts .
- Contact your creditor or service provider if expected bills do not arrive.
- Check account statements carefully.
- Guard your mail from theft.

If You are a Victim of Identity Theft

- Contact the fraud departments for the three major credit bureaus to place fraud alerts on your credit file to reduce your risk of further victimization.
- Obtain and review a current copy of your credit report to determine whether any unknown fraud has occurred. You will need to more closely monitor your credit going forward as some identity thefts can continue for extended periods of time.
- Contact the account issuer(s) where fraudulent accounts have been opened or where your accounts have been taken over. Ask for the fraud/ security department and notify them both via telephone and in writing.
- Close all tampered or fraudulent accounts.
- Ask about the existence of secondary cards.
- Contact your local police department and file a police report.
- Notify the police department in the community where the identity theft occurred, if it is different from your own.
- Obtain copies of any police reports filed.
- Keep a detailed log of who you talked to and when,

- including their title, phone number and other contact information.
- Contact the Federal Trade Commission's Identity Theft Clearinghouse and file an identity theft complaint at www.consumer.gov. Those complaints are used by law enforcement agencies, including the FBI, that investigate identity theft. You can also obtain additional information at the website regarding your rights as a victim.
- Online identity thefts can also be reported at www.IC3.gov.

many clubs never managed to get in. The clubs that did—week after week or month after month—are understandably concerned that this will affect their attendance.

Clubs that were formerly promoted on the marquee before the policy revision have not seen their numbers go down.

Simply put, no one likes change, even when it may be for the better. In this case it would seem the perception differs with the reality.

Also, GRF and Mutual meetings and events are of interest to the community as a whole and therefore the marquee would be more useful to a larger audience.

Clubs who take issue with the new policy might ask themselves if it's time to upgrade their promotional methods.

Does your club have a Facebook page or other social media presence? Do you send email blasts to your members and fans?

Do you submit LW Weekly articles and flyers in a timely manner?

One of the best ways of getting the word out about your organization or event is on the digital bulletin boards that grace every clubhouse, as well as GRF offices.

Professionally crafted, eye-catching flyers scroll 24 hours a day, seven days a week, giving your club its best exposure.

The newly passed policy governing this option, with the specifications, can be obtained at the LW Weekly office or Recreation Department. Simply put, you may submit your own professional quality artwork digitally, in landscape view.

There is no charge to post digital flyers unless you ask GRF to create the artwork for you.

Currently, clubs may also provide six 8½-by-11-inch paper flyers, in portrait view, two weeks to one month in advance of meetings or events.

These flyers will be posted by the Recreation Department at designated locations throughout LW. They only have to be of general interest to the community and are not restricted in the same ways a digital flyer is.

This means clubs are free to advertise fundraising events or other meetings where a donation or fee is solicited during the regularly scheduled meeting

Clubs can always submit articles to the LW Weekly newspaper by the end of business on Thursdays to be published the following week.

Any GRF club or organization may submit contact and meeting information or even have a link to a subsite under the Active Living tab on LWSB.com.

It is the club's responsibility to see that this information is kept up to date.

GRF Policy 1406-50, Item 5, states: "Although Members are allowed to invite guests, no club may advertise or publicize its activities so as to imply its membership or events are open to non-GRF Members."

Recently, with the prolific use of social media, postings and ads for club events have been showing up online.

It is incumbent upon club officers to educate their members about the policies governing clubs.

Members should know that promoting an event on trust property outside of Leisure World is strictly prohibited. Electronic newsletters would fall under this provision and should be shared exclusively with club members, with the disclaimer that this event is closed to non-GRF Members.

Although club members may invite guests, it should be emphasized that the shareholder/member who invites the guest must accompany him or her at all times.

Clubs may not advertise any activity that is in violation of local, state or federal law. Unless a club is a registered charitable organization or other non-profit with a license to conduct a lottery, raffles and other games of chance are illegal and cannot be promoted.

Recreation receives calls daily inquiring about clubs when information is not readily found. Help us help you get the word out and we thank you for doing it within the rules.

For more information, contact the Reservations Office by email at kathyt@lwsb.com.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
• There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
• When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
• Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
