MEDICARE UPDATE

Open enrollment to end on Dec. 7

Medicare Open Enrollment began Oct. 15 and ends on Dec. 7. Until then, Medicare beneficiaries can compare coverage options like Original Medicare and Medicare Advantage and choose health and drug plans for 2020.

Medicare health and drug plan costs and covered benefits can change from year to year, so people with Medicare should look at their coverage choices and decide on the options that best meet their health needs. They can visit Medicare.gov (<https://www.medicare.gov>), call 1-800-MEDICARE, or contact their State Health Insurance Assistance Program. People who want to keep their current Medicare coverage do not need to re-enroll.

Haruko Asari, 92, shows off her prized 1943 Manzanar High School Yearbook, which contains photography by the world-famous Ansel Adams.

77 years have not dimmed memories of Manzanar camp

by Ruth Osborn
news editor

It's a place of stark beauty with wide desert skies and howling winds at the eastern base of the Sierra Nevada mountains; it's a place that gave rise to 10,000 stories of struggle and heart-break during World War II.

Haruko Asari, 92, of Mutual 10 is one of them.

She and her family were ordered into the Manzanar War Relocation Center—one of 10 camps hastily built across the western states—in 1942 after Japan bombed Pearl Harbor.

The U.S. Government called it a Relocation Center, but the barbed wire and watch towers with armed guards said otherwise.

It was a hard time in a hard place for Haruko. The high schooler endured pain and loss—her mother's heartache at having to sell her new Pacoima home, growing hostility from from one-time friends, being loaded on buses to parts unknown, and fear and deprivation.

Looking back over the expanse of her nine decades, Haruko also remembers the power of community fostered by camp life, the blessings of unexpected abundance and the forging of lifelong friendships, one of which led her to Leisure World. Hers is a remarkable story.

California Senior Medicare Patrol

The California Senior Medicare Patrol warns Medicare beneficiaries that people promoting genetic testing through cold calls, robo calls, in-person meetings and educational sessions could be using these tests to commit Medicare fraud and abuse.

If you are approached by someone who offers “free” genetic testing or cancer screening in exchange for your Medicare number, turn it down. This is a scam.

Medicare only covers genetic testing if it is medically necessary and prescribed by your doctor.

Remember:

- Don’t give your DNA away to a stranger. Beware of folks who call or visit you and offer free genetic testing and cancer screening. Check with your doctor first.
- Don’t become a victim of medical theft. Criminals and scammers can use your Medicare number to claim monies from Medicare and jeopardize your benefits. Do not give your Medicare number to strangers.
- Look for charges on your Medicare Summary Notice statements and other medical statements for unnecessary tests or screenings that you did not want or were not ordered by your doctor.

If you do come across such a scam, report it to the Senior Medicare Patrol at (855) 613-7080.

POOL, GOLF COURSE

Demolition reveals termite damage

The Golden Rain Foundation golf course, and pool and spa are closed for renovation.

The golf course is scheduled to reopen Dec. 2.

The pool facilities are scheduled to reopen early in the new year.

At the golf course, golf tee turf removal was underway on Monday. Crews are also importing sand and grading the site.

Pool demolition is near completion. The shower wall wood frame was rotten, and the attendants' kiosk was found to have severe termite damage.

The electrical conduit was severely corroded, and tree roots have damaged drains, according to GRF Physical Property Manager David Rudge.

Opening dates are subject to change due to unexpected delays in the project and rain.

The Clubhouse 1 parking lot is being used as a staging area, limiting the number of spaces available for resident use.

CALLING ALL CLUBS

CH tree trimmers will beautify LW

The GRF Recreation Department is seeking clubs that would like to participate in the fifth annual Christmas tree decorating effort at LW clubhouses. Clubs may apply by emailing kathyt@lwsb.com. The 2018 trees were spectacular, and this year's effort is expected to be equally festive.

The theme is "An Old-Fashioned Christmas." Tree decorations should reflect holidays of years gone by. There are five clubhouses and six opportunities to participate, with two trees in Clubhouse 6.

If more than six clubs apply to decorate trees, the winners will be chosen at random. This year, all of the clubs who help to beautify the community will be featured in the LW Weekly and on the GRF website. Entries will not be ranked as they were in last year's contest. Stop by Building 5 to apply, or email Kathy Thayer at the above address, and help Leisure World deck the halls.

AARP offers holiday safety tips

The holiday season brings the blessings of gift-giving, good cheer and time with family and friends. It also brings plenty of opportunities for cybercrooks to spoil celebrations. A few scams are specific to the holidays, but most are variations on everyday frauds, ramped up to match seasonal spikes in spending and web traffic. With a little preparation and vigilance, you can lessen your chances of being victimized.

Not surprisingly, holiday scams often center on shopping, especially online. Sixty percent of consumers take to the internet to buy holiday gifts, according to a Deloitte survey. As real retailers roll out their seasonal deals, cybersecurity company ZeroFOX says, scammers seek to snare bargain-hunting shoppers with bogus websites and, increasingly, social media campaigns that impersonate major brands, especially in fashion, tech and sporting goods.

These “spoofing” sites and fake posts entice you to spend money for products you’ll never receive. Further, many are vehicles for harvesting credit card numbers and other personal data that fraudsters use to commit identity theft or sell on the dark web. Scammers may distribute malware-loaded links or attachments via supposed coupon offers or “order confirmation” emails asking you to verify an order you never placed. Frauds involving gift cards — the No. 1 item on holiday wish lists, according to National Retail Federation research — also shift into high gear during the holidays.

- Charity scams: 30 percent of giving to nonprofits is done from the Tuesday after Thanksgiving through New Year’s Eve, fundraising software company Network for Good reports. That means more sham charities exploiting Americans’ goodwill via fake websites and pushy telemarketers.

- Delivery scams: As holiday packages crisscross the country, scammers send out phishing emails disguised as UPS, FedEx or U.S. Postal Service notifications of incoming or missed deliveries. Links lead to phony sign-in pages asking for personal information, or to sites infested with malware.

- Travel scams: Going home for the holidays carries risks other than family feuding. Spoof booking sites and email offers proliferate, with travel deals that look too good to be true and probably are.

- Letter from Santa scams: A custom letter from the jolly old elf makes a holiday treat for the little ones on your list, and many legitimate businesses offer them. But so do many scammers looking to scavenge personal information about you or, worse, your kids or grandkids, who may not learn until many years later that their identity was stolen and their credit compromised.

Warning Signs

- Huge discounts on hot gift items, especially when touted on social media posts or unfamiliar websites.

- Spelling errors or shoddy grammar on a shopping website or in an email.

- A shopping or travel site does not list a phone number or street address for the business and offers only an email address or a fill-in contact form.

- A site does not have a privacy policy.

- An unsolicited email asks you to click on a link or download an app to access a deal or arrange a delivery.

Steps to take to protect from scams

- Mouse over links in emails and social media ads to display the true destination URL, and click through only if you’re certain it’s a legitimate site.

- Don’t conduct financial transactions on a site unless the URL begins with “https://” or there’s a padlock or unbroken key icon in the address bar or at the bottom of the browser window. These indicate a secure connection.

- Don’t buy anything online while using a public Wi-Fi network. It might not be secure.

- Pay by credit card. That way you can dispute charges and limit the damage if it turns out you were scammed.

- Don’t make a purchase or donation if a website or caller seeks payment by wire transfer, gift card or prepaid card. These are like forking over cash.

- Research unfamiliar retail, travel and charity sites online. Search for their names with terms like “scam,” “complaints” or “reviews,” and look them up on evaluation and information sites like those listed below under “More Resources.”

- Look for return and refund policies when shopping on an unfamiliar or suspicious site, and make sure they are clear.

- Carefully examine gift cards at the point of purchase. Signs of tampering could mean a thief has accessed the card’s PIN code and can drain its value as soon as someone buys and loads it.

View from the ground—The second or third most used facility in LW (gym is No. 1) is the library. It has approximately 60,000 visits and 60,000 items checked out annually. It’s a fantastic benefit to LW residents. Over the last few years, the library was reconfigured to hold more books, reorganized its offerings for better presentation, and improved/updated the layout.

GRF wastes money all over on “pretty” things, but when it comes to benefits to the residents, they stink. Over 2014-2018, the library ended the years $53,000 below the budgeted amount. So what does the GRF Board do? They decrease its 2020 budget by more than 8 percent compared to 2019.

In 2019, eBooks was in the Board-approved budget. However, the Board has prevented the library from spending that money. As of Sept. 30, the library is $28K better than budget, but not allowed to spend the approved $5-6K for eBooks.

The eBooks are especially attractive to those who like to read on their tablets/computers. It allows the library to expand its offerings without needing additional space. Win-win right? Guess not. Residents have asked about them, but they won’t get them in 2020 either because the Board wouldn’t allow it in its 2020 budget!

The Board is supposed to represent the residents. Will they start doing that soon?

Music in me relieves stress, pain

by Jim Greer

LW contributor

For those who attended the Halloween dance party in Clubhouse 2, it was evident that everyone responds well to music. Some couldn’t get to the dance floor fast enough. Others brightened up just sitting with friends throughout the clubhouse. As in every Abilene performance, just watching the crowd from the bandstand, I see the joyful faces and happy dancing from the moment the music starts.

These immediate reactions to music remind me of the film “The Music Never Stopped.” Based on a true story and an essay titled “The Last Hippie” by neurologist Oliver Sacks, an estranged father and son reunite through their love of music. Since the early 70s, Gabriel Sawyer suffering from anterograde amnesia due to a brain tumor is unable to build or retain any new memories. Henry, Gabriel’s father, discovers that Gabriel will openly engage with him as they listen to Gabriel’s favorite music. With the help of a music therapist, and willingness to venture into Gabriel’s musical tastes, father and son successfully re-established a sincere and loving relationship.

As illustrated in the film, listening to familiar music can better connect us with others and take our minds back decades in an instant. Our favorite music triggers vivid recall of events and feelings. Scientists have found that pleasant music triggers opioids—the body’s natural pain relievers. The influence of music lowers cortisol levels, the hormone released in response to stress. Listening to relaxing music reduces pain and increases functional mobility significantly for people living with fibromyalgia.

In a 2013 University of Alberta study with 42 children, ages 3 to 11, patients who listened to relaxing music while getting an IV inserted reported significantly less pain. In another 2014 study, 89 patients with dementia were provided with music listening or singing coaching, or their usual care. Compared with the usual care, those who received singing and music listening coaching improved mood, orientation, attention, executive function, and general cognition. Those who received singing coaching also experienced enhanced short-term and working memory, and even their caregiver’s well-being improved.

People living with Epilepsy can reduce stress, which contributes to the intensity and number of seizures, by listening to music. Stroke patients who listen to music in the early stages after a stroke have an improvement in recovery. Three months after a stroke, verbal memory improves from the first week post-stroke by 60 percent.

A music-based treatment called Melodic Intonation Therapy was developed in 1973 to help stroke survivors or people who suffer from aphasia to be able to communicate again. The therapy enables patients who can't speak to sing sometimes with the same fluency and clarity they had before the onset of illness.

There are so many musical opportunities around us. Join a choir, a band, or an orchestra. Get together with friends and dance or sing along with your favorite songs. Come to the dances and concerts in our clubhouses scheduled regularly. Remember, it's not just a matter of hearing the music. It's all about how the music makes you feel.

Greenbrier was notified by the FDA about violations by two Chinese companies as early as 2017. The FDA's Nov. 6 warning to Greenbrier International says that the company continued to receive products from companies on "import alert," even after the company agreed not to.

The letter states that the Chinese companies have shown a pattern of serious violations of the law, such as not testing raw materials or testing drugs for pathogens and quality.

A spokesman for the Chesapeake, Virginia-based Dollar Tree said the company is cooperating with the FDA.

Dr. Seza Barsamian

Dr. Barsamian gives back

Los Alamitos dentist Dr. Seza Barsamian's office hosted it's annual Veteran's Day free service for retired veterans on Nov. 11. It was the sixth year that Dr. Barsamian hosted the annual event at her location, 4022 Katella Ave., suite 206 in Los Alamitos.

Dr. Barsamian and her staff worked from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. to accommodate all who made appointments. This year they were able to accommodate around 20 veterans, many did not have their teeth checked in years, some are returning veterans from previous years, while others are regular patients at the office. All veterans were very grateful and were thrilled to have their dental checkup and cleaning. The services amounted to over $500 worth of dental work.

Dr. Barsamian's office has been doing this service annually since 2014. Since then they have been able to accommodate over 100 veterans over the years, all complimentary.

Last year, Dr. Barsamian was recognized by Los Alamitos City Council members and former Mayor Troy Edgar for her continued support of veterans. She also supports local public schools and foundations. She volunteers her time once or twice a year to serve local charities by performing free dentistry for kids and adults.

WA-RITE

McCullough receives Master of Goal Weight Certificate

We love to celebrate success at Wa-Rite. Congratulations to all the Wa-Rite ladies. One day at a time, stay focused, take control, plan your meals and eat healthy in moderation.

Patty McCullough received her Master of Goal Weight Certificate. She's lost about 26 pounds since joining six years ago and has been steady with her commitment by adhering to Wa-Rite suggestions. Geri Seaton was Top Loser this week with a 2-1/2 pound loss, she wasn't sure how it happened, but she is glad that it did. Another Top Loser with a three-pound loss is Lillian Silva. Journaling helped her reduce food portions, knowing that when you write everything down, it makes you think twice about that other piece of bread or cup of juice. She also tried to chew more and eat more slowly. Erna Durano received the Bachelor of Goal Weight Certificate by achieving her short term goal. When asked how she was able to obtain her weight she shared that her meals were prepared by a professional nutritionist when she had a fall and was in rehab for six weeks. That'll do it but we don't suggest it.

An informative program was given by Judy Crimmins on Your Cold and Flu Survival Plan, a few highlights were to boost your immunity by getting your rest, eat plenty of fruits and vegetables, drink plenty of fluids, lessen your stress by prayer or meditation, exercise, take supplements and reduce the risk of flu by more than 40 percent by getting the flu shot. There were also many good suggestions on how to dodge germs.

Wa-Rite is a support group for women needing to lose 10 pounds or more. Members meet on Fridays in Clubhouse 3, Room 1 from 9-10 a.m. Weighing begins at 7:45 a.m., annual dues are $10. You must be a LW resident to join. Call Carol Chambers at (562) 822-4641 or Bev Bender at (562) 594-9148 with any questions you may have.

Consider all your Medicare options

It's annual enrollment period, a time when Medicare beneficiaries can sign up for different Medicare options. A lot of people choose to stick with what they have, but since this is the only time of the year you can change your coverage, it's a good idea to look around.

Dr. Au-Co Nguyen, or Dr. Au-Co, as her patients call her, is a doctor at OptumCare Seal Beach Village, just outside the gates. AEP patients ask her what they should do. Here's what she advises them on.

Compare your options with what you have. "You may be happy with your current plan, and that's great," Dr. Au-Co said. "But it's worth doing a little homework to make sure it's the right plan for you." That doesn't mean checking if you like what you see. It also means looking at what else is available from other companies.

"If you have a chronic condition, there may be a Medicare Advantage plan just for it," she added. "Some companies offer plans for diabetes, heart disease, and others. It's worth looking into those to see if they are a better fit."

Life changes are another big factor. "Maybe you're not driving as much, or at all. Or you've lost your spouse and need more help around the house," Dr. Au-Co said. "There are some plans that offer non-medical benefits to cover these things. Depending on what's important to you, these benefits may be more meaningful than a plan with just medical benefits."

"At the end of the day, it's all about what you need," she said. "Get the most out of your benefits. If you aren't sure where to start, consider working with an independent insurance agent, who can help you compare all your options. You can also contact the health plans directly for information, or visit Medicare's website to compare options."

COMMUNITY CHURCH

Members collect a record number of socks to donate to veterans

Pastor Johan Dodge prays over donated socks that were given to veterans.

Community Church, together with the generosity of many in the Leisure World community, exceeded every past record in the “Sock-It-To-Em!” sock campaign for veterans. The socks, cash and checks kept flowing, with a final count of 400 pair of socks delivered to the Long Beach VA Hospital on Nov. 13.

Special thanks go out to all in Leisure World who participated and to church member Marv Jahn. He and Missions Chair Joyce Reed went on a sock shopping spree at JC Pennys, where he applied his executive discount. The cash and checks were used to purchase socks in bulk using the tremendous discount.

As part of the Mission Moment on Nov. 10, a blessing was prayed over the recipients of the socks. The Missions Team and the Community Church family are delighted to serve local veterans.

Community Church is pleased to welcome church member Kelly Frankiewicz back to the pulpit on Sunday, Nov. 24. Kelly, who holds a master’s of divinity in 2010 from Fuller Theological Seminary, preaches from a solid biblical perspective.

On Oct. 21, the LW Korean Community Church, with Rev. Jang Young Yong, pastor, had its second annual picnic in Doheny State Beach (Dana Point); 40 participants had an enjoyable day. Rev. Yong began the picnic with worship. The picnic included a barbecue, socializing and a walk along the beach. The KCC worships every Sunday at noon in the main sanctuary. Early morning worships are every Tuesday-Saturday at 6 a.m. in the main sanctuary.

Beit HaLev

Beit HaLev services led by Rabbi-Cantor Galit Shirah can be accessed online on Livestream.com/Galityomtov and Facebook.com/galityomtov and on YouTube.com (search for “Shabbat Shalom LIVE!").

Services are every Friday at 6 p.m. and Saturday at 10:30 a.m.

In addition to the Sabbath services, the rabbi also conducts a weekday service every Thursday at 4 p.m. on SimShalom.com.

The Torah reading this Shabbat morning is “Chaye Sarah,” which translates as the “Sarah Lived.” The Torah portion actually talks about her death at age 127; upon her death, Avraham purchases the “field of Machpeleh,” which includes a cave that served as the burial site for several of the patriarchs and matriarchs. Sarah is the only matriarch whose age at time of death was noted, but her cause of death is not. Avraham was perhaps not present at her death, and rabbinic speculation is that she died upon hearing of Avraham’s near sacrifice of her son, Isaac.

A beginner Hebrew class and beginner Modern Hebrew class have begun.

Call Rabbi Galit Shirah to enroll at (562) 715-0888 or duets@icloud.com.

Christian Fun and Fellowship Club

The Christian Fun and Fellowship Club will meet Nov. 26 in Clubhouse 4 at 6 p.m. Bring a potluck dish to share and table service. Coffee and water will be provided. All are welcome.

The call to worship is “Let’s Just Praise the Lord”

Congregational hymns of Thanksgiving include “O For a Thousand Tongues,” “Come Ye thankful People” and “Now Thank We All Our God.” Soloist Jean Davidson will sing “I am His and He is Mine.”

Under the direction of Darlene Harris, the Rolland Coburn choir will sing “We Gather Together.”

Pianist Yvonne Leon will play for the offertory.

Pastor Rolland Coburn’s message from Romans 11:11-24 is titled “A Blessing to the Whole World.”

Thanksgiving will be the theme of the songs that Ruth Olson will lead. Pastor Sam will give the closing devotion after fellowship and sharing treats.

MUSICAL THEATRE WEST

‘Holiday Inn’ kicks off Dec. 6 in LB

Musical Theatre West celebrates the holiday season with Irving Berlin’s “Holiday Inn” Dec. 6-15 at the Carpenter Performing Arts Center in Long Beach. Tickets are on sale now at www.musical.org, by calling (562) 856-1999, or at the Musical Theatre West Box Office. Tickets start at $20.

The 2017 Broadway musical features music and lyrics by Irving Berlin and a new book by Gordon Greenberg and Chad Hodge, in an adaptation of the 1942 Oscar-winning film starring Bing Crosby and Fred Astaire.

Irving Berlin’s “Holiday Inn” features show-stopping dance numbers, laugh-out-loud comedy and a parade of hit Irving Berlin songs, including “Blue Skies,” “Steppin’ Out With My Baby,” “Heat Wave” and “White Christmas.”

The story follows Jim (Cameron Bond), who leaves the bright lights of show business behind to settle down on his farmhouse in Connecticut. He quickly discovers life isn’t the same without a bit of song and dance. Jim’s luck takes a spectacular turn when he meets Linda (Natalie Storrs), a spirited schoolteacher with talent to spare. Together they turn the farmhouse into a fabulous inn with dazzling performances to celebrate each holiday, from Thanksgiving to the Fourth of July. But when Jim’s best friend Ted (Jeffrey Scott Parsons) tries to lure Linda away to be his new dance partner in Hollywood, will Jim be able to salvage his latest chance at love?

Natalie Storrs (Linda Mason) credits include the National Tour of “Sister Act,” and Off-Broadway productions of “Red Roses,” “Green Gold” and “Urinetown.”

Jeffrey Scott Parsons (Ted Hanover) returns to Musical Theatre West, where he has starred in a number of productions, including “White Christmas,” “Catch Me if You Can” and “West Side Story.”

“Holiday Inn” is under the direction of Daniel Pelzig, an acclaimed choreographer who has worked on Broadway, Off-Broadway and with numerous performances at the Metropolitan Opera and Los Music Director Dennis Castellano is an accomplished conductor, accompanist, and vocal coach specializing in musical theater. In addition to serving as the musical director for UCI’s musical theater department, he has waved the baton for such personalities as Carol Burnett, Donna McKechnie, John Cullum and Kaye Ballard.

MTW’s production “Holiday Inn” is made possible thanks to the support of the Port of Long Beach and Los Angeles County Arts and Culture.

The Carpenter Center for the Performing Art is located at 6200 E. Atherton St., in Long Beach on the campus of California State University, Long Beach.

Hui O Hula dancers meet twice a week, upstairs in Clubhouse 6 to socialize and hula. Everyone—including men—are welcome to hula regardless of skill level. Dancers who do not care to memorize the choreography can come to Monday morning’s Walk-In-Hula-Out class at 10 a.m. Just follow the leader and enjoy. Here Ronald Toguchi gives two Hawaiian shakas to remind everyone to cut loose. In fact, acting a little silly is part of the fun in this class. Hui O Hula also enjoys sharing its aloha in dance with patients who are housebound. They are looking forward to entertaining the veterans staying at the Long Beach VA hospital at a luau party today. A big mahalo to Fortunato Revilla for joining the dancers and volunteering in this performance.

SOUTH COAST

Orchid Society to have program Nov. 25

South Coast Orchid Society, serving orchid hobbyists in Long Beach since 1950, will present a program by Steve Hampson on “Searching for Wild Orchids in China.”

He is well known as the senior horticulturalist at Roger’s Gardens in Corona Del Mar.

The event is free and open to the public. Many orchids grown by members will be on display.

The program will be held at Whaley Park Community Center, 5620 E. Atherton St., Long Beach, on Monday, Nov. 25, from 7-9 p.m.

LWSB BOOK CLUB

Alexie book is topic today at 1

The LWSB Book Club will meet on Thursday, Nov. 21, at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 7, to discuss the non-fiction selection “An Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian,” by Sherman Alexie. This first-person narrative is written from the perspective of a Native American Indian teenager, Arnold Spirit Jr., also known as “Junior.” He is a 14 year-old boy growing up on the Spokane Indian Reservation, where frustration with his poverty-stricken school district leads him to attend high school at an all-white school 22 miles away. A promising cartoonist, the graphic novel includes 65 illustrations that help further the plot of the story.

Controversy of the novel stems from the novel’s discussion of alcohol, poverty, bullying, violence, sexuality, profanity and slurs related to homosexuality and mental disability. As a result, some schools have banned the book from school libraries or inclusion in curricula.

Rick Archbold of Hearing Now USA will give a short demonstration of technology that

Gerry and Vilma Lina Tagulao

Community Karaoke Club

"For The Good Times" sung by Vilma Tagulao, is what the Community Karaoke Club is all about. Each Wednesday evening, members show up to sing for a wonderful audience. Gerry Tagulao performed a nice "Just the Way You Are," and Richard Yokomi had everyone humming along with "I Can See Clearly Now." "The Last Waltz with You" was fun for Diane Wasserman, Tilly Stiehr and Martin Rosendaal. Another catchy tune was Karen Morris' "Tossin and Turnin." Culley Eaby saluted veterans with "God Bless the USA." Other singers included Bob Barnum, Bev Adams, Ed Valenski, David Nobel, Charlie Guggino, Ric Dizon, Mila Cruz, Vicki Van Ert, Barbie May, Janice Chapman, Mike Breen and lots of others. The group will meet the eve before Thanksgiving, Nov. 27, so join us for a social evening with neighbors and friends in Clubhouse 1 at 5:30 p.m.

Community Sing

Leisure World residents are invited to the Community Sing Monday, Nov. 25, in the Clubhouse 3 Lobby at 6:30 p.m. People who want to participate in Opening Acts should come at 6 to sign in with emcee Bob Barnum and bring piano music for pianist Rhonda Fischer if needed. After leading group singing, Bob will be introducing his half-time guest, singer and guitarist, Willy Mirales. On Oct. 28 Ethel Carter was the emcee. She introduced Rhonda Fischer, the new piano accompanist, who shared a little about herself with the audience. Opening acts began with Byong Choi singing "Beautiful Dreamer," followed by Bruce DuPont, "Bewitched" (accompanied on the piano by Betty Ballen); Carmen Edwards, "Maria Elena"; Clarence Hoffman, "The Marines Hymn"; and Bob Barnum, "Make the World Go Away." Rhonda Fischer accompanied four of the Opening Acts. Ethel then led group singing until 7:15 when she introduced her half-time guest, Pat Kogok. Pat performed using a CD player to accompany herself in "Allegheny Moon," "Johnny Angel," "You Can't Get a Man With a Gun" and "Sky Full of Angels." The audience cheered and applauded loudly in appreciation of Pat's talents and humor. After her performance, Ethel led more group singing then ended the musical evening with "Kumbaya." Thanks to Rhonda Fischer and Bob Barnum for helping with the book collection.

Lighting of menorah will take place at Veterans Plaza

On Thursday, Dec. 19, starting at 4 p.m. the GRF Recreation Department will host the lighting of the menorah, the Jewish symbol of Hanukkah, at Veterans Plaza.

The holiday celebrates the Jews defeating Syrian-Greek oppressors who had tried forcing them to abandon their religion and adopt Greek culture. The story has it that, led by Judah Maccabee, they recaptured the holy temple in Jerusalem. Arriving there, they found only enough olive oil to light candles for one night. It lasted for eight nights.

Hanukkah commemorates the defeat of the oppressors and the miracle of the oil lasting eight nights. The oil had led to the holiday being referred to as "The Festival of Lights."

The Chabad of Los Alamitos/Cypress will share with GRF members and their guests the story of the holiday and its meaning for Jew and Gentile alike.

Musical entertainment with a Klezmer band will top off the event. It is an opportunity for the community, rich in culture and customs, to come together to learn and share in the joy of this beautiful festival.

Refreshments will be served, courtesy of GRF and Congregation Sholom.

Rollin' Thunder will be busy in month ahead

The final months of 2019 promise to be unusually busy for members of the Rollin' Thunder Golf Cart Club.

The club's Thanksgiving luncheon takes place Tuesday, Nov. 26, in Clubhouse 2. Lunch and the meeting get underway at noon. And, for once, no side dishes are requested. This will be a fully catered luncheon for all club members.

The popular Air&Water Day, in which club members volunteer to check golf cart tire pressure and battery water levels for all Leisure World cart owners, is the first December event. It will be held Saturday, Dec. 7, from 9-10:30 a.m. at the Pit Stop cart maintenance area adjacent to the Mini-Farms. At the September event, more than 60 carts and scooters were inspected and brought up to spec. There is never a charge for this vital community service.

The annual Golf Cart Club Holiday Parade will take place Thursday, Dec. 12. The route, begins and ends at Clubhouse 6. It will cover most of Leisure World's main thoroughfares and largest residential streets. Parade line-up will be at 4:30 p.m. to add last-minute seasonal decorations; carts will roll at 5.

Club member volunteers will set up refreshments and hot beverages at the parade's conclusion.

All parade participants are urged to drop off their contributions, including desserts and other finger foods, for the post-parade goodies prior to the parade's start. In case of rain, snow, sleet or hail, the parade will be postponed to

Dec. 19, same time, same place. If it drizzles, however, the parade will roll on Dec. 12.

For further information on any of these activities, contact President Tom Davis at 431-6859.

Also, NPPs can request a new ballot at one of the 188 vote centers where people can cast ballots, in person,

April 26, 1926 – Oct. 31, 2019

Dr. Thomas E. Nelson was born in Leigh, Nebraska, to Florence Elizabeth (Wuamett) and Hans Christian Nelson. He had four siblings, Robert, Kris, Luana and Glenn. Tom married Juanita Mae Hollenbeck and they had four children, Holly, Thomas, Laura, and Daniel; four granddaughters, Hannah, Taylor, Paige, and Lindsey; and two great-grandchildren, Ryder and Rowynn.

Tom loved his family dearly and was so proud of every one of them, including nieces, nephews, cousins, etc. He also loved and appreciated his many friends and all people.

A proud veteran, Tom loved telling stories of his time in the Army serving in World War II, and earned a Purple Heart. He also enjoyed Costa Mesa Water Board, Kiwanis, elder hostels, the American Legion, AF and AM, 32°, and Old Guys Rule. He was a retired optometrist, local politician and lifelong liberal Republican.

Tom had a simple but full life in Leisure World, Seal Beach, for the last 30-plus years enjoying music, dancing, singing, theater, golf, bridge and popcorn. His cheery smile and laughter brightened the days of many. He attended church and numerous lectures and classes, believing one should continuously learn and stay active in mind, body and soul. He was a giving person and reached out with weekly phone calls. He appreciated visits to and from anyone; his CSULB nurses, Meals on Wheels, neighbors, friends and especially family. He said he liked his life to be like the state of Nebraska, flat.

Tom loved life and his family and friends. He did his best to have only good, positive thoughts for a wonderful life full of love and was happy to have the chance to serve his God whom he loved.

POKER

Stone has fifth win on Nov. 9

Linda Stone won the final table on Nov. 9. Her hole cards of jack and five resulted in two pair, defeating second place Drew Sargent. Third place was Roy Mittelsteadt followed by Carole Damoci, Bill Clawson and Richard Grodt.

High hand was also Linda Stone with aces full of queens. Second was Valerie Jorgenson with aces full of tens. The promotional hand of two and six were won by both Ms. Jorgenson, again, and Drew Sargent. Drew's win in this category was particularly interesting. Late in the game he won a pot, holding the two and six and making a full house on the river, for a total of $17,600 in chips, becoming the table leader. He eventually won the whole table and earned the right to attend the final table.

Linda has won the final table five times since joining the club four years ago. She has lived in Mutual 3 for 20 years and currently serves all of LW as the GRF president. Her other interests include reading, cooking and she belongs to the Rolling Thunder Club.

The club will host another all LW poker tournament on Dec. 14, 9:30 a.m. Clubhouse 4. Tickets are $15 for club members, family members, or LW shareholders, and include a continental breakfast and final table prizes. Tickets are available at all tournaments through Dec. 7, to a maximum of 90 players, on a first-come, first-serve basis. Last June's tournament turned away potential players, so purchase tickets early, if possible. No additional players will be allowed to purchase a seat on Dec. 14. Contact Cleo Looney at (562) 342-9400 for more information.

Barry Brideau gives private individual or group lessons. Call him at (714) 401-7622. Call President Wendy Wu for other club information at (714) 366-0940.

POOL

Bird makes bank shot

The Favorites moved to within one game of first place, edging the Hot Shots seven games to five. The way we play nine ball is we count the three, six and nine as point balls, so if a team makes any two of those three balls they win the game. Sandy Bird of The Favorites was faced with a long bank shot on the six ball and had made the three. She asked me how I would play the shot and I told her it was too difficult a bank and that I would try to play it safe. She ignored my advice and banked it straight in to win the game.

A similar shot was made by Gary Monahan of the Ballers as he banked in the six ball to win his nine ball doubles match against The Hustlers. The Hustlers took that match nine games to three to move within two games of The Three Amigos, who had a bye week.

Boon Buntra won five of his six games, including both his singles matches. Boon plays a lot of pool and it shows in his consistency.

The Spoilers moved up by winning their match against The Hot Mess Express, 9-3. Kent Wells of The Spoilers won all his games except for one nine ball doubles match.

Pickleball

New Pickleball court hours are 8 a.m.-8 p.m. every day. Courts will be closed the first Wednesday of each month for maintenance.

MEN'S GOLF

Goltra and Ballard triumph at Willowick golf course Nov. 8

The Men's Friday Golf League played on Nov. 8 at Willowick Golf Course in Garden Grove. This golf club is the longest the league plays and surprisingly has no water hazards. Sloping greens and long holes make this a fun and challenging course. Eight players teed off at 7 a.m. on a cool and dry morning. The sun came out mid-round making for a great day to golf. The next Friday round will be at the David L. Baker, par 62, executive course, Nov. 15.

All scores are net (actual score minus handicap).

A flight:

First place, Jim Goltra, net 3 under 68 and a birdie; second, tie between Dave LaCascia and Fujio Norihiro, 73. Dave also had the closest to the pin on the 145-yard par three fourth hole and Fujio had an amazing 23 putts over 18 holes to capture fewest putts. Fourth, Sam Choi, 78 and a birdie; fifth, John Meyer, 80.

B flight:

First place, Marv Ballard, 1 under 70; second, Bob Munn, 74 plus fewest putts with 29; third, Lowell Goltra, 75.

The Men's Monday Golf League played on Nov. 4 at the Meadowlark Golf Course in Huntington Beach. Narrow fairways and sloping greens make this a fun and challenging course. Eight men tackled the par 70 course. Scores were kept down by the cool, foggy and later overcast morning.

There were only two birdies this week – one each by Gary Stivers and Sam Choi. Fewest putts for A flight was Sam with 29. B flight fewest putts was a tie between Lowell Goltra and Bob Munn with 33. There were no holes-in-one. Closest to the pin on the 140-yard par three 7 hole was Fujio Norihiro. None of the golfers were closest to the pin (requires hitting the green) on the 150-yard par three 15 hole which will be carried over.

All scores are net (actual score minus handicap).

A Flight:

First place, tie between John Meyer, Sam Choi and Gary Stivers with 2 over 72; fourth, Jerry Hore, 77; fifth, Fujio Norihiro, 80.

B Flight:

First place, Lowell Goltra, 72; second place, Bob Mun, 88.

Both the Monday and Friday Golf Clubs play at four local courses, all within 15 minutes of Leisure World, starting between 7-7:30 a.m., except holidays. The courses are David L. Baker in Fountain Valley, Meadowlark in Huntington Beach, Riverview in Santa Ana and Willowick in Garden Grove. LW Men's Club membership is not required. Ladies, friends, spouses and family are all welcome. There is a prize pool for each round that players are not obligated to enter. Prizes are awarded for low gross in each flight; two prizes for closest to the pin on par threes; and a prize for the lowest number of putts. Holes-in-one, although infrequent, are generously rewarded. If interested, contact Gary Stivers for more information, (714) 313-3697.

BOWLING

New all time high game score

A new high game of 265 was achieved by Danny Bigelow, coming within one strike of a perfect game. Danny had an open frame in the fifth with eleven strikes. He also had a 201 for a 646 scratch series as his team Elcisme swept Mutual Busters. Of course people asked Danny, "What happened in the fifth?"

Pindilicious took three from Very Striking to replace them at the top of the standings. Gary Wood opened with a 211 for Pindilicious.

Strikingly Different took three and a half points from Phyl's Guys as they won the first two games but tied game three. Tom Kaczmarek had a 221 followed by a 192 for Strikingly Different. Phyl's Guys were previously know as Arny's Gals, but changed the name since Irv Hart replaced one of the gals.

CRIBBAGE

Darlene Meyers scores a 28 hand

During the play on Nov. 5 Darlene Meyers scored a 28 hand. The hand must be played to collect the prize money. This is a difficult score to get.

PICKLEBALL

Sibert learns a new sport

The Pickleball Club welcomes Janice Sibert, one of it's newest pickleball players, beginning in August of this year. She lives in Mutual 17 with her husband, Andy Sibert, and has had an adventure-filled life. She has circumnavigated the world in a 43-foot sailboat, and actually lived on board for 10 years. She has been quite the athlete, enjoying water skiing, snow skiing, tennis and recently become a bocce ball player. She gets down to the pickleball courts several times each week, and although she is a beginner, always can pick up a few games each session.

"Getting my feet to work as fast as my brain, was the most difficult part of learning pickleball" Janice said.

At the start of the game the serving side must make the first point to continue by alternating service to opposite sides. If it does not, the serve is passed to the receiving side. From then on, each player on a team is allowed to serve until they lose the serve. A game is 11 points, or more, until a team has a two point advantage.

The club will host its annual Christmas party on Dec. 7, at 5 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 1. A catered meal will be offered as well as an opportunity drawing, music, dancing and door prizes. The cost is $15, payable in advance to any board member. Payments should be in by Dec. 1. For more information contact club President Tim Linehan at (714) 818-6404.

Current standings after seven weeks has the Hot Shots in first place with 4 points and Puck Masters second, with 3 points. Sliders are third. The next game, week eight, will be Puckmasters versus Hot Shots on Nov. 15.

The first tournament of the year will be the Turkey Shoot scheduled Nov. 22. This is always a fun competition and many participants are expected. No sign up required. Tournament starts at 9 a.m. Arrive by 8:30 to get starting positions.

after Japan’s attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. The bombing led the United States into World War II and radically changed the lives of every American.

In February 1942, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed Executive Order 9066 to establish Military Areas and to remove from those areas anyone who might threaten the war effort.

Without due process, the government gave everyone of Japanese ancestry living on the West Coast just days to decide what to do with their houses, farms, businesses and other possessions.

“I was 15 years old,” said Haruko, whose family farmed land in Pacoima, one of the oldest neighborhoods in the northern San Fernando Valley. “It was hard on so many people, especially my mother. My father had built a house two years earlier, and they had to sell it for $150.” She remembers her family—her mother, twin sister and two brothers—hastily packing up the household and storing boxes in a neighbor’s shed. The FBI had picked up her father in March 1942, and confined him in Texas, and her oldest sister had just married and was living in Gardena. All around her, neighbors and friends were hastily renting their properties or just abandoning their homes and businesses.

Like all Japanese Americans living in the West Coast in 1942, the family did not know where it was going or for how long. Haruko’s family was assigned an identification number.

She and the other detainees were loaded into cars, buses, trucks and trains, taking only what they could carry.

“We were only allowed to bring clothing,” said Haruko. Before the war, she was “a carefree teenager,” who loved to harvest strawberries with her brothers. She got to keep the profits. She played high school basketball with her Japanese teammates and was a member of a social club. The Nisei youth clubs offered hundreds of girls like Haruko a place of camaraderie and belonging where they could play sports and socialize.

When the war began, “our friends all of a sudden ignored us,” but there were unexpected supporters too. Cowboy actors Tom Mix and William Boyd of Hopalong Cassidy fame lived nearby.

“They were always riding horses by the houses,” said Haruko. “One day a whole group rode onto the driveway, and we were scared. I tried to get in the house, but they said, ‘don’t worry. If you need help, just come down to our house.’ Hopalong came to offer his help.” She smiles at the memory.

Haruko’s family ended up at Manzanar. It opened on March 21, 1942, as one of 16 Wartime Civil Control Administration camps housing nearly 10,000 people, most from the Los Angeles area. As with the other sites, Manzanar was hastily constructed and barely fit for family living, according to the Densho Encyclopedia, a website on many aspects of the Japanese American story during World War II.

The relocation exodus that started in February 1942 was complete by November.

For Haruko, life at Manzanar began in the summer of ’42.

“I was too young to grasp the reality of moving to a camp, but I knew we had no choice. We didn’t know if there would be a school, my father was gone. I didn’t see him for two years, and it was very hard on my mother,” she said.

The family had to get used to communal outhouses and small living quarters that barely shielded them from the harsh elements in the Owens Valley. Summer temperatures can soar above 100 degrees. And in the winter, night-time lows can plummet 30 to 40 degrees. High winds often howl.

Camp life meant waiting in lines—for meals, at latrines and at the laundry room. Each camp was intended to be self-sufficient; there was a camp newspaper, beauty and barber shops, shoe repair and more, according to Wikipedia. In addition, people raised chickens, hogs and vegetables, cultivated existing orchards for fruit and made their own soy sauce and tofu.

“The food was very good,” remembers Haruko, “better than the people on the outside were getting with rations.”

Haruko and her friends made life at Manzanar more tolerable through recreation.

They participated in sports, including basketball, went to school and took music lessons. People made gardens, which often included pools, waterfalls and rock ornaments. There was even a nine-hole golf course.

Haruko remembers the organized club sports and dances boosted her morale and relieved boredom.

Manzanar would become one of the best-known internment camps, largely because one of America’s best-known photographers, Ansel Adams, documented daily life there.

In September 1942, there were 1,000 kids from 200 L.A. schools housed at Manzanar. One school opened in the Block 7 barracks. It had no chairs, books or other classroom equipment, but the students carried on.

There were teachers, and a student body council. There was a Christmas Dance, an a capella choir, concerts, a senior play, pep rallies. Haruko remembers it fondly and prizes her “Our World—Manzanar High 1943-44” yearbook. The book is priceless to her because it features the photography of Ansel Adams.

Adams’ Manzanar work is a departure from his signature landscape photography, according to the Library of Congress, which houses his collection of Japanese-American Internment at Manzanar.

He shot more than 200 photographs, mostly portraits, but there are also views of daily life, agricultural scenes, and sports and leisure activities. When offering the collection to the Library in 1965, Adams said in a letter, “The purpose of my work was to show how these people, suffering under a great injustice, and loss of property, businesses and professions, had overcome the sense of defeat and despair by building for themselves a vital community in an arid (but magnificent) environment.”

By 1945, the war and Haruko’s exclusion from the West Coast ended.

Japanese-Americans returned to their communities. Haruko remembers that her family returned to nothing. Many of the detainees faced housing and job discrimination, vigilante violence and harassment, compounded by a housing shortage and a swelling labor force.

Haruko’s family persevered, and after a brief detour to Grand Junction, Colorado, returned to the San Fernando Valley, where they bought a home and leased farmland near the Hansen Dam.

Haruko was later trained as an X-ray technician. She moved to Long Beach, where she met her husband, Moto Asari, and the couple had a daughter, Teri Iwaki.

Haruko was good with her hands, and got a job soldering circuit boards. “I was very fast and efficient.”

From a career in soldering, she found a beloved vocation: jewelry making. She took adult education classes in Long Beach. She learned how to work with turquoise and other gemstones and silver, creating beautiful works of art.

Haruko came to Leisure World through a friendship that started in Manzanar.

When her friend moved into Leisure World, Haruko visited her.

“I liked it,” she said. “I was a widow, and it made me feel safe.” Her life here is full.

She found her happy place at the Lapidary Room in Clubhouse 4 where she still makes striking silver-and-gemstone jewelry and has cultivated a community of steadfast friends. Her artwork is almost a metaphor for her life—she takes the roughest of stone, mineral or gem and cuts, grinds and polishes it into a shiny cabochon—just like the grit of Manzanar refined her into a woman with an easy smile and a positive attitude, a person who endured hardship and came out whole on the other side.

- There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
- When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
- Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
