GRF OPENS AMENITIES

Golf course and more are now open with COVID-19 restrictions

The GRF Board of Directors approved on Jan. 26 the opening Leisure World's outdoor amenities that were most recently closed Nov. 25 due to surging COVID-19 cases in the region. The GRF Board voted separately on whether to reopen each facility as follows:

- Amphitheater: 15 yes/3 no
- Mission Park: 14 yes/4 no
- Golf course: 14 yes/4 no
- Veterans Plaza: 13 yes/5 no

As a result of the vote, all outdoor amenities reopened on Jan. 27. They will operate under Emergency Operating Procedures drafted by the COVID-19 Ad Hoc Committee. The exception is Mission Park, which will not require reservations, but instead will be monitored remotely and by the custodian to ensure mask and distancing compliance.

All other venues will require reservations, as before. One additional measure has been added to the golf course: A course marshal will monitor play to ensure golfers are abiding by the rules and COVID restrictions.

Even with restrictions, many LWers were seen last week enjoying the fresh air and sunshine while indulging in their favorite sports.

Dance and exercise classes have resumed at Veterans Plaza on their previous schedules. Contact the Recreation Department at (562) 431-6586, ext. 326, if you are interested in particular activities or contact information for the clubs and their instructors.

COVID CLINIC & CALL CENTER

LWer Kurt Bourhenne accepts a treat bag from Mauricio Lopez on his way out of the Jan. 30 COVID-19 vaccination clinic hosted by OptumCare. Bourhenne, one of 1,400 people who got the first dose of the vaccine, said he's been waiting for this day and feels fortunate to receive protection from COVID-19.

1,500 more vaccine doses coming today

The Orange County Health Care Agency is sending another 1,500 doses of the Pfizer vaccine for clinics that will be held today, Feb. 4, and Friday, Feb. 5.

This shipment of the COVID-19 vaccine is expected to cover all registered LWers with some to spare. It's important for residents who want an inoculation to register as soon as possible.

The process is simple: People can register themselves or any LWSB resident at <http://www.lwsb.com/vaccine/>. Those registering others can simply use their own phone numbers and email addresses as the contacts for friends and neighbors. People must have GRF ID cards.

Last weekend, 1,400 residents received their initial doses of the vaccine, bringing the total injections administered in LW to over 2,500 in a two-week period.

So far, about 4,200 Leisure Worlders have registered to receive shots, either by Internet or telephone. All of them will be able to receive their inoculations as vaccine is supplied.

Help Register Elderly Neighbors

To help get everyone registered, the GRF is asking Leisure World residents to sign up their friends and neighbors who are not online or otherwise unaware of the availability of vaccine clinics in LW.

Churches and clubs, Mutual directors, building captains and other LW leaders have been asked to reach into their communities to get people registered as soon as possible.

The GRF would like to thank all its volunteers, from staff to residents, including 15 members of the Golden Age Foundation and Sunshine Club. Pictured here are Tammi Mohr from the LW Library (front) and Physical Property's Susie Flynn. They registered LWers who don't have Internet access for upcoming shot clinics (see page 2 for more).

SEND YOUR SWEETIE

A VALENTINE

Valentine's Day is almost here. The LW Weekly invites residents to email Valentine messages to the ones they love. Messages will be printed as part of a special salute to Valentine's, that little oasis of love in the middle of February. Celebrate your sweeties by emailing Valentines to rutho\_news@lwsb.com. Include your full name and Mutual number. Submissions are subject to editing and will run as space allows. Deadline is Saturday, Feb. 6.

Snow-capped peaks loom over Leisure World after a powerful storm blanketed mountains with snow on Jan. 29.

NWS Participates in Military Exercise

Leisure World residents may see an increase in law enforcement activities in and around the Seal Beach Naval Weapons Station through Feb. 12 as base personnel take part in a series of nationwide security exercises. The exercises, collectively called Citadel Shield-Solid Curtain 2021, will be conducted simultaneously on Navy bases throughout the continental United States. At the naval weapons station, drills and training will be conducted on a wide range of potential security scenarios.

The exercises may cause increased traffic around the weapons

The sooner GRF can complete vaccinations for the majority, the sooner all amenities can be reopened.

For faster registration, have the following information ready:

- Name
- Name (living in same unit)
- Mutual Number
- Unit Number
- Email
- Phone number
- Date of birth

All registered names will be added to a database of those who want the vaccination.

People under 65 will be entered into a separate database for when the vaccine is made available to them.

If one person in a couple is under 65, it is preferable to register together for the later date, or to register separately if the older person needs to be vaccinated sooner.

Names will be selected from the list at random as vaccine is received, and clinics are scheduled. People who are chosen will be contacted for appointments.

- People will be notified of appointments by email if they registered by email.

- Residents who registered their infirm or elderly friends will need to inform them of their appointment times and dates, and, if necessary, transport them or arrange for the Access bus to bring them to Clubhouse 6.

Because only 12 hours' notice is given before receiving the vaccine, there is no choice of appointment times or dates. People must show up for vaccinations on the date and time specified.

Of Importance

- A family member may submit this registration for a resident who is unable to do.

- People must be available to take the second dose three weeks after the first dose.

- Couples will be scheduled together by completing the one form with both names.

- People who registered but have not been contacted by tomorrow, Feb. 5, should email the Recreation Department at andrewd@lwsb.com or call (562) 431-6586, ext. 326.

- People who are unable to complete registration by email and do not have a friend or relative to assist them should contact Cindy Tostado at (562) 431-6586, ext. 317, for a copy of the form to register manually or for personal assistance.

2nd Dose Clinics are Feb. 8-9

People who were inoculated Jan. 18 and 19 will receive their second doses in clinics scheduled for Feb. 8 and 9.

Each person who received the first vaccine on Jan. 18 and 19 also got an appointment card at that time. They are to return at the same time, same day of the week as their first shot.

The Orange County Health Care Agency's Othena app erroneously notified some first-dose recipients to go to Disneyland for their second shot. The agency is looking into what caused the glitch, but GRF members can be assured that they will get their inoculations in Clubhouse 6.

A number of people who had appointments for last weekend's first-shot clinic either canceled or did not show up.

When this happens, registrants are called at random from the standby list.

People who choose to give up a LW appointment and have the vaccine elsewhere are asked to notify Recreation so they can be removed from the registration roster, paving the way for others to be vaccinated.

Last weekend, the GRF was able to vaccinate about 100 standbys due to cancellations.

Random Selection for All

Residents have asked Recreation staff to move them up the vaccine list for various reasons.

Staff is required to offer the vaccine, without special consideration, to any GRF member, co-occupant or lessee over 65. To do this equitably, the computer randomly selects from the pool of LW registrants. Standbys are chosen the same way.

Staff does not choose or reject anybody.

It is a simple matter of mathematics: Nearly 10,000 people live here, and so far, 2,500 have been inoculated.

Vaccine is becoming more available, and everyone should be inoculated in upcoming clinics.

Residents are free to get their shots from another Point of Distribution but are asked to notify the GRF to take them off the registration list.

For more information, contact kathyt@lwsb.com.

Thank You Volunteers

The GRF would like to thank all its volunteers, from staff who came in over the weekend to work the call center, to LW residents, including 15 members of the Golden Age Foundation and Sunshine Club.

LW volunteers covered both clinics in morning and afternoon shifts.

GAF President Anna Derby was at the Information Center, helping Korean American shareholders navigate the clinic, and helpers were at the call center to answer phone lines dedicated to Korean speakers.

Heeja Almeida, in particular, deserves a big thank you for working the Korean speaking phone lines over the two days.

Official ballot drop boxes to open Feb. 8 for special election

A special election for an open seat on the Orange County Board of Supervisors will be held on March 9. At stake is whether Republicans can maintain a 4-1 supermajority or if Democrats can pave the way toward a competitive 3-2 vote on the board.

Voters will decide who will replace outgoing Michelle Steel on the Orange County Board of Supervisors, 2nd district.

Steel resigned to be sworn into Congress after winning the 48th Congressional District from Democrat Harley Rouda in the November election.

There are five candidates in a crowded field: Kevin Muldoon, a small businessman and councilman; John Moorlach, a former state senator who used to represent the 2nd District on the Board of Supervisors; Michael Vo, mayor and business owner; Katrina Foley, mayor and business owner, and Janet Rappaport, tax attorney, according to the Candidate Filing Log at the OC Registrar's Office.

The registrar will open 28 official voter drop boxes, including one in Leisure World, starting Feb. 8 ahead of the March 9 election. It will be the final day of a month of voting.

Under the official schedule, voters can cast mail-in ballots as soon as Feb. 8.

The drop box in LW is located near the Administration Building next to the U.S. mailbox in front of the Amphitheater bus hub.

OC Registrar staff will pick up ballots Monday-Friday between Feb. 8-Feb. 26.

This ballot drop box is located by the mailbox near the Amphitheater bus hub.

From Saturday, Feb. 27-Tuesday, March 9, ballots will be picked up daily, including weekends

On Election Day, March 9, two county employees will be assigned at each Ballot Drop Box starting in the late afternoon to assist with traffic flow, receive dropped off ballots and lock the ballot mail slots at 8 p.m. or after the last voter.

Sound wall prep to start on North Gate

An Orange County Transportation Authority contractor is preparing to install an 8-foot chain link fence with sound blankets behind the k-rail along North Gate Road. The work is in preparation for a new sound wall.

North Gate Road remains closed due to construction related to the 405 Freeway Improvement Project.

The fence installation is scheduled to begin at 7 a.m., Monday, Feb. 8, with work continuing until 4 p.m. The job should be completed by Friday, Feb. 12.

Crews may mobilize as early as 6 a.m. Construction dates and times are subject to change due to unforeseen operational factors or inclement weather.

This activity is in preparation of upcoming wall construction, which includes demolition, hauling, excavation, cast-in-drilled-hole (CIDH) pile installation, pile driving, rebar, concrete, backfill and block wall installation. (CIDH piles are commonly used in the construction of bridge structures and refer to a construction method in which the reinforced concrete piles are cast in drilled holes to predetermined elevations using a heavy wall steel casing to prevent caving.)

The sound wall construction is scheduled to begin in early spring/summer 2021.

North Gate Road has been closed for months due to sewer construction, which was suspended in December as a result of unforeseen soil conditions.

This development required a complete project redesign, according

To get this valuable information, all you need is an email address.

To sign up online, log onto www.lwsb.com and click the "LW Live" icon to the right. A simple form will pop up. ## Questions about COVID-19 vaccines

By CJ Blomquist
OptumCare

It's exciting to see vaccine efforts underway, as it's a major step forward in managing the COVID-19 pandemic. As you consider getting a vaccine, you probably have some questions. Here are answers to some of the more common questions.

I have a health condition. Is this vaccine safe for me?

Yes, clinical trials of the vaccines included people with chronic conditions such as diabetes and heart disease. The vaccines were as effective for them as for people without such conditions, according to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC). This is important because people who have chronic conditions and people older than 65 are at greater risk for severe illnesses with COVID-19. But your first stop should be with your primary-care doctor, who knows your health history and can help you make the right decision.

What happens if I have an allergic reaction to the vaccine?

There have been some severe allergic reactions, but these are rare. If you have allergies to polysorbate or polyethylene glycol, the CDC recommends you do NOT get the vaccine. If you have any other allergies, be sure to tell the doctor or nurse before you get the first dose. Vaccination sites are prepared to monitor and treat allergic reactions, should they occur. If you do have a severe reaction, it is not recommended that you get the second dose.

After administering the shot, they'll give you information on what to watch out for and what to do in case of you experience any side effects or allergic reactions. Your physician should also be available to answer any questions.

How do I know I will get my second dose?

The vaccine is delivered in two doses, with the second about three to four weeks after the first. The vaccine distribution is set up to ensure locations get both doses in time.

I have some sniffles. Is it safe to get the vaccine?

COVID symptoms can be similar to other respiratory illnesses, such as a cold or allergies, so be sure to check with your doctor first.

I haven't gotten my flu shot yet. Should I still do that?

It's been a mild flu season so far, but don't let that fool you! There have been stay-at-home orders and fewer people congregating, limiting that virus' spread. But the flu can show up unexpectedly. If you are getting your COVID-19 vaccine, you'll have to wait on your flu shot. The CDC recommends giving yourself 14 days between the first dose and the flu shot. As always, you should check with your doctor first.

I already had COVID-19. Do I still need to get vaccinated?

The CDC recommends that persons who have fully recovered from having COVID be vaccinated. If you received treatment for COVID with convalescent serum or monoclonal antibodies, it's recommended you wait at least 90 days before getting the vaccine. And, of courses, check with your doctor first.

I can't get the vaccine right now. What can I do to be safe?

You've heard it before, but it's worth repeating: Wear a face mask in public, keep distance from others, and wash your hands often. Avoid any crowded places or areas with poor air circulation. Remember, these guidelines should continue even after vaccination. We cannot let our guards down.

As mentioned several times, check in with your doctor before getting the vaccine. Your primary-care physician can help answer questions specific to your health needs, and together, you can come up with the best plan for you.

Before meeting an unfortunate end (possibly), Sen. Bernie Sanders of Vermont enjoyed a nice lunch in the sunshine at the Amphitheater. Though the temperatures weren't as cold as in his home state, it was very gusty.

Bernie Sanders goes viral at LW and worldwide

Merriam Webster defines the word “meme” as “an amusing or interesting item (such as a captioned picture or video) or genre of items that is spread widely online especially through social media.”

Longtime Facebook users will recognize the split image of a distraught woman pointing at a poised cat, or the father and son from the TV series “American Chopper,” Paul Teutul Sr. and Jr., yelling at each other, the text surrounding them often referencing current events in pop culture.

The latest viral meme centers on Bernie Sanders, who bundled up for the 2021 presidential inauguration and sat with his arms crossed, his handmade wool mittens prominently displayed. The Vermont senator has been Photoshopped into a number of scenarios, his image traversing the globe and even crossing political lines. Memes of him became so popular that Sanders’ team put it on merchandise and raised $1.8 million for national charities.

what could have happened if Sanders sat near where a polar bear might find him. And LW Weekly’s Katya Lukina imagined the senator might someday take his lunch break in the Amphitheater. (He might enjoy the warmer weather here.)

Perhaps you’ve seen Sanders out and about, too. Or maybe there’s have another meme that always brings a smile to your face. Send your favorite memes (ones you’ve seen or originals) to pattym@lwsb.com, and LW Weekly will print them in future issues.

OUT AND ABOUT

Rare teal toad spotted in Mutual 10

Intrepid adventurer Jim Schneiderman of Mutual 3 recently reported another sighting of a rare critter in Leisure World.

“I was out for a cool and blustery walk. . . . Some late-hanging holiday lights drew me like magic to a patio in Mutual 10,” he recalls. “As I was glowing in the greens, reds and blues, I heard the unmistakable sound of an old-time coffee percolator. My mind raced back to my mother’s 1950s Midwest kitchen, but my eyes stayed focused on the flower bed. Then, I spied her—a gigantic teal toad. This unusual animal is usually only seen in the swamps around Washington, D.C. They exist mostly on a diet of rabbits, squirrels and ramen, which may be what attracted this one to Leisure World. Sadly, they were hunted nearly to extinction during World War II when, due to a minor error of diction, the U. S. Army ordered a million pairs of teal toad shoes.”

AQUARIUM OF THE PACIFIC

Aquarium reopens outdoor areas

Less than a week after Southern California's stay-at-home order was lifted, the Aquarium of the Pacific reopened its outdoor exhibits to the public on Jan. 30. Visitors to the Long Beach institution pay a discounted admission price to touch sharks, rays and sea jellies; visit penguins, seals and otters; and feed lorikeets.

Since the first stay-at-home order, the Aquarium has looked for ways to offer programs to the public virtually. Though it will continue to host speakers and presentations, as well as festivals, through its Online Academy, the Aquarium has implemented numerous safety guidelines so that guests can visit the outdoor areas comfortably.

Reservations are required, as attendance is limited. Masks are mandatory for everyone age 2 and older, and numerous handsanitizing stations are available. Temperature checks are done at the entrance. A timed visit costs $19 for adults and children older than 3.

Among the marine life now available to view are the archerfish, which can shoot water out of their mouths, and the shovelnose guitarfish, rays that blend into their sandy surroundings. Open exhibits include "Our Water Future," which discusses the importance of fresh water and how to conserve it; "The Southern California Steelhead Story," in which a local fish changes its body to live in both freshwater rivers and the ocean; and the Molina Animal Care Center, where Aquarium staff demonstrate how they care for the animals.

Tickets and more information are available at aquariumofpacific.org or by calling (562) 590-3100.

MEN'S GOLF LEAGUE

A golfer's refresher on etiquette and 'ready play'

By Dave LaCascia
LW contributor

Since we are back to playing golf on our newly renamed Turtle Lake Golf Course, now is a good time to refresh ourselves on golf etiquette as is practiced everywhere golf is played.

Silence is golden. As a courtesy, do not move or make noise when a fellow player is up to tee off or putt. Stay quiet for the duration. Put your cell phone on silent mode or leave it behind.

Take your time—but not too much. Try to not take too long before you get on with it. Take 30 to 45 seconds to check your lie, select your club, plan your shot, take a practice swing, and then hit the ball.

Don't lose your cool. If you find your sense of frustration rising while playing the game, take a few seconds to breathe and realize it's not that bad. It's a beautiful day, and you're playing a game with friends—and that's something to smile about.

Watch where you stand. Do not walk in another player's putting line. If you happen to be close enough, ask if you may mark a ball for your fellow player.

Respect the greens. Try to repair any damage caused by the ball landing or from the spikes on your shoes. It's just the right thing to do. If you see another one, fix that one, too.

Don't stand too close. Give your fellow golfer some space, or you might get hit.

Be on time, and check in promptly. Lateness will affect everyone playing behind you. This is completely under your control and should not take place except for emergencies.

Don't stand behind a player who is hitting. This applies to the tee box, fairways and on the greens.

Play "Ready Golf." This does not always mean hit when you're ready, but rather be ready when it's your turn. When playing with friends or regular golf buddies, Ready Golf can mean hit if you're ready, even if the individual who should be hitting is not or cannot and there is no safety issue.

This is especially true on greens or when someone is searching for a ball.

Keep up the pace. Slow play is hated by every golfer. Don't lag behind the group in front.

Ways to speed up play include

- Play Ready Golf (see above).
- Concede a short putt you know the golfer should make.
- Don't use the most rearward tees if you're not long hitters.
- Keep an eye on other players' balls.
- Promptly leave the green and proceed to the next tee.

• If your group is lagging, but the next tee is open and the fairway is clear, the players who finish on the green should proceed to next hole and tee off.

Play safely. Make sure the area where your shot should land is clear. Let greens and fringes clear before hitting approach shots. Your playing partners should be scanning the fairway and adjacent rough for golfers who wander onto or toward your fairway while you or another golfer is teeing off or playing from the fairway onto the green.

FORE! Since we've all hit a bad shot, remember to yell "Fore!" and add "Right!" or "Left!" in congested areas. If you end up on an adjacent fairway, etiquette says the approaching golfers have the right of way on hitting.

Carol Levine sculpted this nature scene out of the cardboard delivery boxes that would arrive at her home for last month’s Cool Cardboard Creations Contest.

GRF director’s cardboard creation wins award

By Patty Marsters
pattym@lwsb.com

Carol Levine has always been an artist. “I can’t remember a time when I wasn’t scribbling, drawing or doodling something,” she says. The GRF director from Mutual 10 and longtime Leisure World Art League member has painted with watercolors and sculpted with clay and even, once, marble, but LW’s recent Cool Creations Cardboard Contest inspired her to try something new. “This was my first time using cardboard,” Levine says. “It holds its shape better than clay.”

Among the creations displayed in the roundabout by the LW Library last month was Levine’s dog-and-squirrel combo. A playful pup, his red tongue lolling out, peers at a bushy squirrel descending a tree; hidden on the other side of the trunk was a lizard and a fuzzy mouse. It was a scene of corrugated joy and wonder. But LWers weren’t the only ones who were given the opportunity to judge this beauty. Levine, a member of the Huntington Beach Art League, saw a call for submissions to a virtual contest in the league’s newsletter. She’d entered the group’s contests before, mostly paintings, she says. And while she waited for the mid-January submission date for LW’s contest, she posted photos of her cardboard creation to the HB Art League’s Facebook group. According to The Mixed Media, the league newsletter, 35 artists posted 75 entries to its monthly contest, and Levine’s work “garnered a record 40-plus ‘likes.’”

It was also, notably, the first time a three-dimensional piece had been entered in the group’s online shows. The votes netted Levine a Viewers’ Choice Award, as well as a gift card to Art Supply Warehouse. Though she initially wanted to coat her creation with wax, then take it to a foundry to be bronzed (“But that was outside my budget,” she says, laughing), she ended up parting with the perky pup part of the work. “Someone in the Huntington Beach Art League asked me how much I want for it,” she recalls with a chuckle, “and I said, ‘Make me an offer!’”

During the pandemic, she has kept busy with other projects, including a couple of commissioned pet portraits for her neighbors. “Art is my thing,” she says. LW looks forward to whatever she creates next.

SENIOR PEACE CLUB

Club's discussion on White Privilege and Racism Continues

By Nancy Goldstein
LW contributor

The Senior Peace Club's next meeting will take place via Zoom on Tuesday, Feb. 9, at 2 p.m. The group will continue discussing the topic of race, the unfinished business of our time. A YouTube video with Robin DiAngelo titled "Deconstructing White Privilege" will be viewed and discussed during the meeting as well.

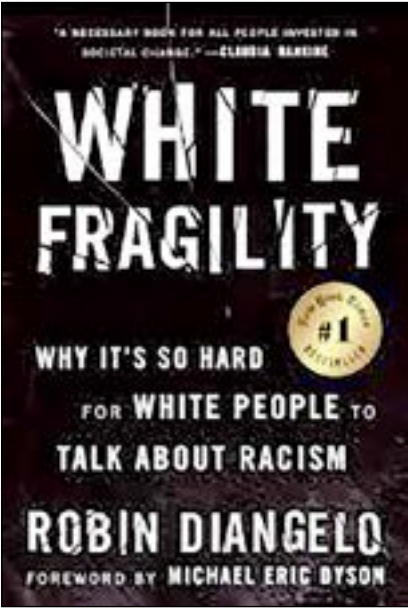

DiAngelo received a Ph.D in multicultural education from the University of Washington in Seattle in 2004. Currently, she is an affiliate associate professor of education at the University of Washington, Seattle. Her area of research is in whiteness studies and critical discourse analysis, tracing how whiteness is reproduced in everyday narratives. She has numerous publications and books, including "Is Everybody Really Equal?" and "An Introduction to Key Concepts in Critical Social Justice Education," which was co-written with Özlem Sensoy. In 2011, she coined the term "white fragility" in an academic article which influenced the international dialogue on race. Her book, "White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk About Racism" was released in June 2018 and debuted on the New York Times Bestseller List, where it remained for 85 weeks.

Dr. DiAngelo has been a consultant, educator and facilitator for over 20 years on issues of racial and social justice and has worked with a wide range of organizations including private, nonprofit and governmental. She says she grew up poor and white. While her class oppression had been relatively visible to her, her race privilege had not. In her efforts to uncover how race shaped her life, she gained deeper insight by placing race in the center of her analysis and asking how each of her other group locations have socialized her to collude with racism. She now makes the distinction that she grew up poor and white, for her experience of poverty would have been different had she not been white.

There are three options to join the meeting:

Old Town Bakery is the home of the world-famous sourdough Miner's Bread. My favorite flavor is the vegetable medley bread; you can actually see carrots, peppers and other veggies baked into the dough. Cinnamon raisin is also a great choice.

"Scotty" Williams has driven 70 miles from Rancho Cucamonga for many years to sell his tasty lemon, chocolate and other sweet breads. He also carries individual cookies, cupcakes and muffins for a quick snack.

During the summer, he works in Big Bear, singing for customers as they shop.

Democratic Club

By Mary Larson
LW contributor

Costa Mesa Mayor Katrina Foley, the Democratic Party’s endorsed candidate for election to the Orange County Board of Supervisors, was the keynote speaker at the LW Democratic Club’s January membership meeting. She began her presentation by outlining how the current COVID-19 pandemic was personally affecting her family. Club members on the Zoom call instantly identified with the mayor as she talked about how the members of her four-generation household (including her mother and 94-year-old grandmother) were taking measures to protect themselves from exposure to the virus. She followed this very personal account with a review of what she would do as a board member in overseeing the county’s response to the pandemic.

As mayor of Costa Mesa, Foley has established lasting relationships at the city, county, state and federal level. She is committed to bringing these attributes to bear at the county level. During the meeting, she indicated that one of her special concerns centered on the mental health problems associated with the current pandemic.

dem. She shared that the Board of Supervisors has approximately $600 million earmarked for mental health that it is not releasing. The County is required to hold one year’s worth of these funds supplied by the state in reserve, but have decided to hold back three years of expenditure due to economic prudence. At a time when so many are suffering mental health problems due to the pandemic and other factors, Foley feels it would be appropriate to immediately release some of the funds for their intended purpose.

In addition to Foley, there are three Republican men and another Democratic woman who seek to replace Michelle Steel as the District 2 representative on the Board of Supervisors in the election on March 9. The Republican candidates are John Moorlach, who lost re-election to a state Senate seat in November; Newport Beach Councilman Kevin Muldoon; and Fountain Valley Mayor Michael Vo. Janet Rappaport, the only other Democrat running in this nonpartisan race, has not responded to requests for information, but she does have a campaign website.

Mayor Katrina Foley

Republican Club

By Brian Harmon
LW contributor

The top priorities of the LW Republican Club are the election of John Moorlach as County Supervisor and the recall of Gov. Gavin Newsom.

John Moorlach has been endorsed by the OC Republican Party and the OC Register. There are two other Republicans in the race, so the party endorsement is significant.

The Orange County Register endorsement is significant, since the Register nonpartisan, its endorsement could influence independent voters. The Register does not always endorse Republican candidates. For example, it endorsed Democrat Harley Rouda over Michelle Steel in the November 2020 election for Congress.

John Moorlach

The Register complimented Moorlach on being one of the brightest people in state government. Moorlach is respected nationally as an expert on government finance, especially with regard to bankruptcy issues.

But the best news for the Republican Club and Republican Party this year is that former President Donald Trump disavowed two Patriot Parties, one formed in Texas and another in Georgia. Most analysts agree that such a party would destroy the GOP as an effective force by siphoning away many, if not most, of his supporters.

According to the San Antonio Express-News, Trump said that neither he nor his PAC, Donald J. Trump for President (DJTFP), would endorse the new parties and that he disavowed their support.

The Trump campaign’s statement to the Federal Election Commission said, “DJTFP is placing this disavowal notice on the public record out of concern for confusion among the public, which may have been led to believe that the Patriot Party’s activities have been authorized by Mr. Trump or DJTFP—or that contributions made to this unauthorized committee are being made to DJTFP—when that is not true.”

Other good news for the LW GOP Club and other California Republicans came from the Sacramento Bee: “The California Republican Party has seized on the support for the recall [of Gov. Newsom] as evidence of Newsom’s failures. On Monday, when Newsom lifted the stay-at-home orders, party chair Jessica Patterson tweeted that the decision was fueled by his fear of recall,” the Bee said.

“This governor’s decisions have never been based on science,” she wrote. “Him reopening our state is not an attempt to help working Californians, but rather an attempt to counter the recall movement.”

No recall or other ballot initiative has ever made it onto the ballot without massive financial support. Support from the state Republican Party, along with other major backers, has made the prospect of a recall of Newsom more likely. So far, all of the signature gathering has been done by volunteers, including some from the Republican Club in Leisure World, but extra help will be provided by professional signature gatherers now that funding is available. The volunteer efforts of the Republican Club and others will continue “full speed ahead.”

Since the club booth will only be open at limited times, those who want to register to vote, sign the recall petitions, join the LW Republican Club, get on the mailing list, or receive additional information about John Moorlach or the recall should contact the club president at धारlow50@aol.com.

Community Church

By Johan Dodge
Reverend

As I write this, we have begun to receive vaccines in the community, and there is still a ways to go before everyone is vaccinated. In my own home, my wife is recovering from a blessedly mild case, and my children and I have thus far been spared—although we have had our scares and testing. Now there are reports of new variants of the virus, and we are in a race against time to get people vaccinated. There is a light at the end of the tunnel in the summer or fall, but that time table may be pushed back if we are waiting for booster shots to contain the new variants, which, blessedly, are already in development.

In the midst of it all, we will read Gospel of Mark this week and see the accounts of Jesus healing people with fevers—who are understood to be possessed by demons. To be clear, there are dark forces that possess us, that play on our fears and turn us against one another and God's creation. But there is also the light of Jesus, who is the love of God for all of creation. And so this week, in the midst of the darkness—with the storms raging around us—look for Jesus. Look for Jesus not in the church building, but in the church body. The body of Jesus is you, your neighbors, your friends and your family. The body of Jesus lives now, even in this moment, to drive out the demonic forces of darkness that would seek to control us. Amidst this darkness, seek the light of God's divine love and truth.

First Christian Church

By Bruce Humes
Pastor

"Rejoice in the Lord, O you righteous! For praise from the upright is beautiful. Praise the Lord with the harp; make melody to him with an instrument of 10 strings. Sing to him a new song; play skillfully with a shout of joy" (Psalm 33:1-3).

The righteous and upright are to rejoice, make music, sing a new song and shout for joy to the Lord, but why? Let's look at verses 4-5 for the answer: "For the word of the Lord is right, and all his work is done in truth. He loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of his goodness." The psalmist recognizes four things of the Lord: his word is right, his work is truth, he loves righteousness and justice, and earth is full of his goodness. When we recognize these things of the Lord, we are compelled to respond just as the psalmist did.

"By the word of the Lord the heavens were made, and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap; he lays up the deep in storehouses" (verses 6-7). The psalmist recognizes three more things: the Lord is the creator of all things, he is the source of life, and he controls all elements of his creation.

So, there are seven things the psalmist rejoices over and prompt him to make music. But look at what he writes in verses 8-9: "Let all the earth fear the Lord; let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him, for he spoke, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast." The psalmist now calls on all the earth to stand in awe of the creator God, for he spoke, and it was done.

In verses 10-11, the psalmist writes of the sovereignty of God. "The Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; he makes the plans of the people of no effect. The counsel of the Lord stands forever, the plans of his heart to all generations." The Lord in his sovereignty controls all human counsel, advice and planning, and his counsel and plans stand forever.

Let's finish up with verse 12, "Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, the people he has chosen as an inheritance." The psalmist makes a statement: "Blessed is the nation that recognizes God is Lord. That he is sovereign over that which he created, and the nations that stand in awe of and recognize this will be blessed."

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
• There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
• When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
• Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.

Assembly of God

By Sheryl Franco
Co-Pastor

We have a very special 2-year-old in our family right now. She is quickly coming into her own as a vibrant, dynamic little girl and shedding everything “baby” about her. One of the most typical behaviors of a 2-year-old is the budding concept of possession, of realizing that certain things are “mine.” She freely claims her toys, food, clothes, books, chair and territory. Never mind that she hasn’t worked a day in her brief life to pay for what she claims as her own. She knows it’s hers because Daddy and Mommy gave it to her and told her that it’s hers.

Wouldn’t it be wonderful to experience that kind of abundance, the peace of knowing we were so well-cared-for that our every physical, social, emotional and spiritual need was met? Here is some good news: We can experience that assurance in our lives every day. God gives in abundance. It is his nature to be generous and give good things to those who put their trust in him.

The fourth week in the “Promises of God” series looks at the promise of an abundant life, found in John 10:10. That’s why Jesus came, ASSEMBLY, page 19

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

By Jim Greer
LW contributor

On Jan. 24, a virtual Stake Conference convened under the direction of Area 70, Elder Mark A. Mortensen and General Authority 70 Elder Devn Cornish. The conference reorganized the stake presidency, released Emerson Fersch and his counselors, and then sustained President Nate Fernley as president of the Long Beach California East Stake, with Roland Sponberg and Chad Donvito as counselors.

In his final address, Fersch recounted Jesus’ journey from Judea to Galilee by way of Samaria. Traveling through Samaria was a deliberate variance from Jewish custom that forbade interaction with Samaritans. But in his mercy, Jesus stopped at Jacob’s well, where he met a Samaritan woman.

In addressing the woman, he set aside convention and asked her to draw water for him. To which she replied, “How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria?” The savior replied, “If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, ‘Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.’”

Continuing his conversation with the woman, the Lord further testified, “Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.” The faithful Samaritan woman then requested of the Lord, “Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not.”

During their conversation, Jesus told her of events in her life that no other person could know.

His knowledge of her past and her familiarity with the scriptures confirmed that he was, in fact, a prophet. She confessed, “I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.” To which Jesus replied, “I that speak unto thee am he.”

“The first time the Lord acknowledged himself to be the Christ, it was to a Samaritan woman at Jacob’s well,” said Elder M. Russell Ballard of the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles. “And, hearing this, she hurriedly returned to her village and shared the good news. Upon hearing her report, villagers quickly went to the well where Jesus again revealed his true identity. To which they declared, ‘Now we believe, for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the savior of the world.’”

This incident reveals:

1. In time, all Scripture will be fulfilled.
  2. God’s enduring love for all of his children.
  3. Christ rejects the cruel stigmas and burdens that societies place on groups and individuals.
- Emphasizing these points, President Russell M. Nelson stated, “a fundamental doctrine and heartfelt conviction of our religion is that all people are God’s children. We truly believe that we are brothers and sisters—all part of the same divine family.” Also, “the true brotherhood of man and the true sisterhood of women... inspires us with passionate desire to build bridges of cooperation instead of walls of segregation.”

Beit HaLev

Beit HaLev’s Coffee Chavurah on Zoom will celebrate the Sabbath evening on Friday, Feb. 5, at 5:30 followed by the evening service at 6. Service begins on Saturday, Feb. 6, at 10:30 a.m., followed by the Coffee Chavurah. To join on Zoom, go to <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/9152434704?pwd=THJGTE1OUXI5VXFDTWtuZHF4K3VxUT09>. The meeting ID is 915 243 4704, and the passcode is RavGalit.

Beit HaLev continues to livestream on Facebook as well. To attend, go to Rabbi Galit Shirah’s website at Facebook.com/galityomtov.

Beit HaLev’s prayerbooks, “Lev L’Lev,” are shared onscreen on both Zoom and Facebook.

The core of this week’s Torah reading, “B’Shalach” (Pharaoh, let the people go) from Exodus 14:15-16:10, is the “Song at the Sea.” Pharaoh allowed the Israelites to leave Egypt following the 10th plague, the death of the firstborn, which took the life of his own son. God once more “hardened Pharaoh’s heart,” and the Egyptian army, led by the furious ruler, pursues the former slaves, trapping them between their forces and the Red Sea. The Divine parted the sea, allowing the Israelites to cross on dry land between two walls of water. Once they have safely crossed to the other side, the sea crashed down upon the Egyptians, drowning all, men, horses and chariots. The song the Israelites sang in thanks to their God is chanted in a different melodic trope than the traditional one, giving the “Song at the Sea” an even more special feeling.

Rabbi Galit Shirah conducts a weekday Ma’ariv service every Thursday for Sim Shalom, the online synagogue. Sim Shalom presents livestream services Monday-Thursday, with a different rabbi each day. To say Kaddish, pray for healing and to hear a spiritual message, go to SimShalom.com.

Zoom classes for beginning Hebrew and Pirke Avot will begin in February. Classes have been delayed due to the postponement of Rabbi Galit Shirah’s cataract surgery. For information, contact the rabbi at (562) 715-0888 or duets@icloud.com

Faith Christian Assembly

Faith Christian Assembly takes part in the sacrament of the Holy Communion on the first Sunday of each month at 10:30 a.m. Jesus commanded Christians in 1 Corinthians 11:25 that “As often as you drink from it, keep doing this in memory of me.” Pastor Vaughn gives valuable insights into Communion each month. This a special time for all members. You don’t have to be a member to participate in Communion, as long as you have accepted Christ as your savior.

Out of an abundance of caution, all who attend services or events at Faith Christian Assembly will have their temperature taken at the door, be required to wear a mask before and after service, and have to sit socially distant from others. Those who are ill should remain at home.

Due to COVID-19, Faith Christian Assembly is not having all of its regular ministries at this time. Call the church office for the most updated information on midweek Bible study, which is taught by Pastor Sheri Leming on Wednesdays at 11 a.m., and the weekly Grief Share meeting.

To receive a free newsletter and for more information on the church, call (562) 598-9010 or visit the website at www.FCAchurch.net.

LW Baptist

By Rolland Coburn
Pastor

Luke 4:14-30 records Jesus telling his mission to his hometown, clearly showing he was God’s anointed savior at age 30.

Following Jesus’ baptism, the baptizer said, “He who sent me to baptize identified the Messiah as he on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, and I have seen and testify that Jesus is the Son of God” (John 1:33-34). Jesus returned to Galilee in the spirit’s power, and news about him spread. He was teaching in their synagogues, and everyone praised him.

Jesus had come home to share the message of salvation. In Nazareth, where he grew up, he went to synagogue on the Sabbath, stood up to read from the Isaiah scroll: “The spirit of the Lord is upon me because he anointed me to proclaim the Gospel to poor people. He sent me to proclaim liberation to captives and sight to blind people, to set free the oppressed, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.” All eyes were fastened on him. “Today, this Scripture is fulfilled,” he said, referring to himself as God’s promised one.

Jesus explained his countrymen’s need for faith. He retold the stories of prophets Elijah and Elisha, whose word brought people salvation, but fell on unbelieving ears in Israel.

Jesus said to them, “No doubt you will quote me this saying: ‘Physician, heal yourself.’ What we have heard happened in Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.” He knew they wanted signs. “Truly I tell you,” he continued, “no prophet is accepted in his hometown. I assure you that many widows were in Israel in Elijah’s time, during the three-and-a-half-year famine. Yet Elijah was sent to none but to a widow in Zarephath in Sidon. And many in Israel had leprosy in Elisha the prophet’s time, yet none was cleansed—only Naaman the Syrian.”

Everyone in synagogue was enraged at Jesus’ call for their faith and forced him out to the cliff to throw him to his death. Isaiah 53 said the messiah would face rejection and hostility.

Besides ultimate victory for God’s anointed, he manifests his glory in the long-suffering, as he has always done. Luke describes Jesus just passing through their midst and going his way. He does not wish any to perish, but all to come to repentance. Blessed are all who put their trust in him.

The Year of St. Joseph Hail

Pope Francis proclaims the 2021 liturgical year as the Year of St. Joseph Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. “To you God entrusted his only Son; in you, Mary placed her trust; with you, Christ became man.

“Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

“Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us.”

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

“Our Lord is truly present: body and blood, soul and divinity in the Blessed Sacrament.” Holy Family will observe the Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament on Saturday, Feb. 6, after 8:30 a.m. Mass, concluding with Holy Hour from 2-3 p.m.

Masses

To receive a copy of the weekly parish bulletin, sign up at <https://ebulletin.jspaluch.com> or <https://www.jspaluch.com/Subscribe>.

The church is now open to public entry and can return to its regular Mass schedule. Saturday (Vigil Mass) is at 4 p.m., and Sunday Masses are at 8 a.m., 10 a.m. and noon.

Those who attend must wear a mask or face shield, sit socially distanced, and use hand sanitizer upon entry into the building.

have a pencil and piece of paper ready.

Congregation Sholom is making Hamantaschen online this year. Kits of dough and filling that are ready to shape, fill and bake are available to those interested. You can deliver some to your Jewish neighbors or have a volunteer pick up what you do not eat to use as Mishloach manot to the rest of Congregation Sholom. The recipe is Pareve. You will need to make an egg wash and have baking trays available. Pick up your kit at Carol Levine’s house on Tuesday, Feb. 23, or request it to be delivered.

Participants will learn how to roll out the dough; cut with a glass; and fill, shape and seal them so they do not leak out while baking. Make sure to wear the gloves in the kit and a mask while baking.

Learn the tricks of shaping and sealing Hamantaschen on Wednesday, Feb. 24. Use the same Zoom code that is used for weekly services.

Purim starts at sundown on Thursday, Feb. 25. Congregation Sholom will join the Orange County congregations for a special Megillah reading on Zoom.

RSVP to Ruth Hermann at (562) 430-3107 or susanmichlindesigner@gmail.com as soon as possible so that there is enough supplies for everyone. Gluten-free requests are also available. The recipe, including dairy-, gluten-, and sugar-free versions, will be in the News & Nachas for those who want to make more.

Call Ron Yaffee at (562) 430-7040 to participate in the weekly livestreamed services.

so that we can have abundant life. Opulent wealth is not guaranteed, but the things that prosper our spiritual well-being are. Psalm 37:11, Proverbs 3:10, Romans 15:13 and John 1:16 are a few Scriptures that speak of God’s promise of abundance. There is no lack in God’s kingdom. His will is to provide for his people well. God’s grace is sufficient.

Pastor Chuck Franco and your friends at Leisure World Assembly of God look forward to meeting together again in the Amphitheater on Sunday morning at 11. Face coverings, and maintaining physical distance are required, but there will be no restrictions enforced on abundant joy and gratitude for God’s continued blessing and goodness.

There will be a worship service on Ash Wednesday, Feb. 17, at 10 a.m. on Zoom and Facebook. A Lenten resource is available in the church office with daily Scripture and weekly prayers. Contact the church office to have one sent to you, or you can pick up a copy at the office.

To join the virtual fellowship, call the church office or email leisurewccsue@yahoo.com. Those who don’t have a computer or Facebook can call (562) 431-2503 and listen to the weekly message beginning Sunday evening.

If you are in need without another way to address it, call the church office to leave a direct message at (562) 431-2503.
