GRF ELECTION

Directors elected to two-year terms

AMENITY STATUS

Club activities are now resuming

Start getting excited. The club activities LW residents have missed for over a year will likely resume as soon as June 15.

On May 20, Gov. Gavin Newsom cleared the way for reopening LW clubhouses without restrictions, and the GRF Board voted to allow the Recreation Department to go forward with the reinstatement of reservations under state and county COVID-19 guidelines.

This means most clubs can return to normal activities safely with no restrictions. Some clubs have disbanded; others have been relocated, so contact clubs directly or look for articles placed by organizations in the LW Weekly. Most religious services will resume the week of June 15 in their normal time slots and locations. Some clubs are on hiatus during the summer and others will choose to start later, but members will be advised.

Most clubs have already met with Recreation staff to renew their status and secure reservations. Any club that has not yet submitted a Club Officers Renewal Form has had its reservations suspended. Clubs that want to disband but have not submitted the form should immediately contact the Recreation Office at (562) 431-6586, ext. 398.

For more information on the status of trust property facilities, check the Amenity Reopening Chart in last week's issue or contact Recreation for more information by emailing kathyt@lwsb.com.

HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE

Happy Days are Here Again—Classic car clubs will tour Leisure World on June 12 starting at 10:30 a.m. Residents are invited to line the streets along the parade route to catch a glimpse of some of the finest classic cars in the region. Among them are Model A's dating from as 1907 and early V8s, which were introduced in 1932 by Ford with its Flathead V8. See the map on page 3.

Classic car clubs will tour LW streets

Take a trip back in time as three antique car clubs will meander through LWSB trust streets on Saturday, June 12, starting at 10:30 a.m.

The parade will depart from Clubhouse 6.

Participating in the Happy Days Classic Car Tour will be the Model T Club of America, Long Beach and Orange County chapters, featuring cars from 1907-1927;

the Model A Club of America, Orange County, Diamond Tread and Harbor Area chapters, featuring cars from 1928-1931; and the Early V8 Ford Club, Southern California Group No. 11, Palomar Mountain V-8s Group No. 143 and the San Diego Group No. 19, featuring cars from 1932-1953.

The clubs have been touring various communities during the pandemic with drive-through car shows.

Residents are invited to join neighbors and friends lining the streets waving them along as the parade passes through your area (see map on page 3).

If you plan to remove your car from a carport that is on the tour route, kindly wait until the parade has passed by.

Classic Car Facts

- The Ford Mustang made its debut in 1964.
- The car in the 1977 "Smokey and the Bandit" movie was a 1977 Chevrolet Camaro.
- The Chevrolet Corvette is built exclusively in Bowling Green, Kentucky.
- In 1913, the Ford Model T became the first mass-produced automobile.

Work crews used a crane to haul towering palms to the site of the new pool on May 28. St. Andrews Drive was blocked off at Golden Rain Road for a short time in the morning, so a crane could offload palm trees from the flatbed. The towering trees were then planted around the perimeter of the pool site. The job was completed by midmorning. The Leisure World swimming pool was closed for a simple renovation on Nov. 4, 2019, but workers uncovered serious structural defects that necessitated a complete overhaul. Plans are currently in the permitting process.

SBPD Exhaust Enforcement

The Seal Beach Police Department partnered with several coastal Orange County law enforcement agencies to conduct an operation specifically targeting loud/modified exhausts and street racing violations.

During the last several months, the Seal Beach Police Department has received numerous complaints about loud/modified exhausts and street racing along city roadways. To address these issues, the Seal Beach Police Department has pursued education such as issuing press releases, visiting car shows, as well as placing several electronic signboards with messaging in high traffic areas to educate the public on vehicle exhaust and street racing laws in California.

Seal Beach Police Officers also attended a California POST-approved training that involved both classroom and hands-on, in-field vehicle inspections under the instruction of referees from the California Bureau of Automotive Repair (BAR). This training ensures police officers can more readily identify loud/modified vehicle exhausts and other illegal modifications to vehicles to increase their effectiveness in enforcement efforts.

On May 23, a joint enforcement operation utilizing over 50 motorcycle officers and other police officers from the Seal Beach Police Department, Newport Beach Police Department, Huntington Beach Police Department, Laguna Beach Police Department, Irvine Police Department, Santa Ana Police Department, Orange County Sheriff's Department, the cities of Dana Point and San Clemente, California Highway Patrol, Santa Ana and Westminster Offices, as well as four investigators from the California Department of Motor Vehicles and four referees from the California Bureau of Automotive Repair participated in enforcement efforts along the entire length of coastal Orange County as well as freeway and arterial access points to the coast.

The Seal Beach Police Department would like to thank the allied law enforcement and state agency partners for their assistance with this enforcement operation, and it looks forward to further joint operations in the coming months.

- As a result of this successful joint operation:
- 445 vehicles were stopped for violations
  - 348 vehicles were cited for vehicle code violations (including loud/modified exhausts)
  - 44 vehicles were inspected on-site for modified exhaust violations by a BAR referee
  - 16 vehicles were referred to on-site DMV investigators for possible registration violations
  - four vehicles were cited for exceeding 100 mph
  - four vehicles were stopped and the drivers/passengers were arrested for possession/sales of narcotics, unlicensed driver and DUI offenses.

For more information about how the Seal Beach Police Department works to keep city roadways safe, follow it on social media @sealbeachpolice.

Election to Serve on Mutual 1 Board of Directors

Dear Shareholders:

As you are aware, an election has been scheduled for the purpose of seating four (4) Mutual One Shareholders on the Mutual One Board of Directors. The board met in emergency Executive Session on Saturday, May 22, 2021, to discuss a legal opinion on the status of the Mutual One 2021-2023 Board Elections. Such action was deemed necessary, as some shareholders came forward stating that they received an incorrect ballot in the Mutual One election material package received via mail. This and statements by Accurate Voting Services of a "printing error" have left the number of wrong ballots sent to Mutual One Shareholders unknown.

The Mutual One Board has ruled that the elections have been compromised and have requested a new election. In order to maintain the integrity of the election, the Mutual One Board has decided to postpone the upcoming Annual Meeting, set for Monday, June 14, 2021.

You are being provided a new secret ballot voting package (this new ballot is green in color). Please read the instructions carefully as the included information contains a new date and time for the return and tabulation of those ballots.

The new Mutual One Annual Meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, August 10, 2021 at 10:00 a.m.

All Mutual One Shareholders are encouraged to participate in the governance of our community which includes, among other things, serving on the Mutual One Board. Should you have any questions, please feel free to contact Administration.

SBPD Community Policing Team

Two Seal Beach Police Officers were selected to join the department's Community Oriented Policing (COP) Team.

During the busy summer months, officers Kendra Owen and Ben Jaipream will patrol the city, including Main Street and the beach area, in anticipation of increased crowds and summer activity. The team will be deployed from Memorial Day through the Labor Day weekend.

The officers were chosen because of their proactivity and dedication to the City of Seal Beach.

Their primary objective will be to help keep the most trafficked areas of Seal Beach safe by being a uniformed presence and by preventing crimes.

The officers will patrol on foot, in cars, on bicycles and in off-road vehicles.

Owen began her career in law enforcement with the Los Alamitos Police Department in 2009. She has worked in patrol, investigations, as a field training officer and as a corporal. In 2019, she transferred to the Seal Beach Police Department, where she has been assigned to patrol operations.

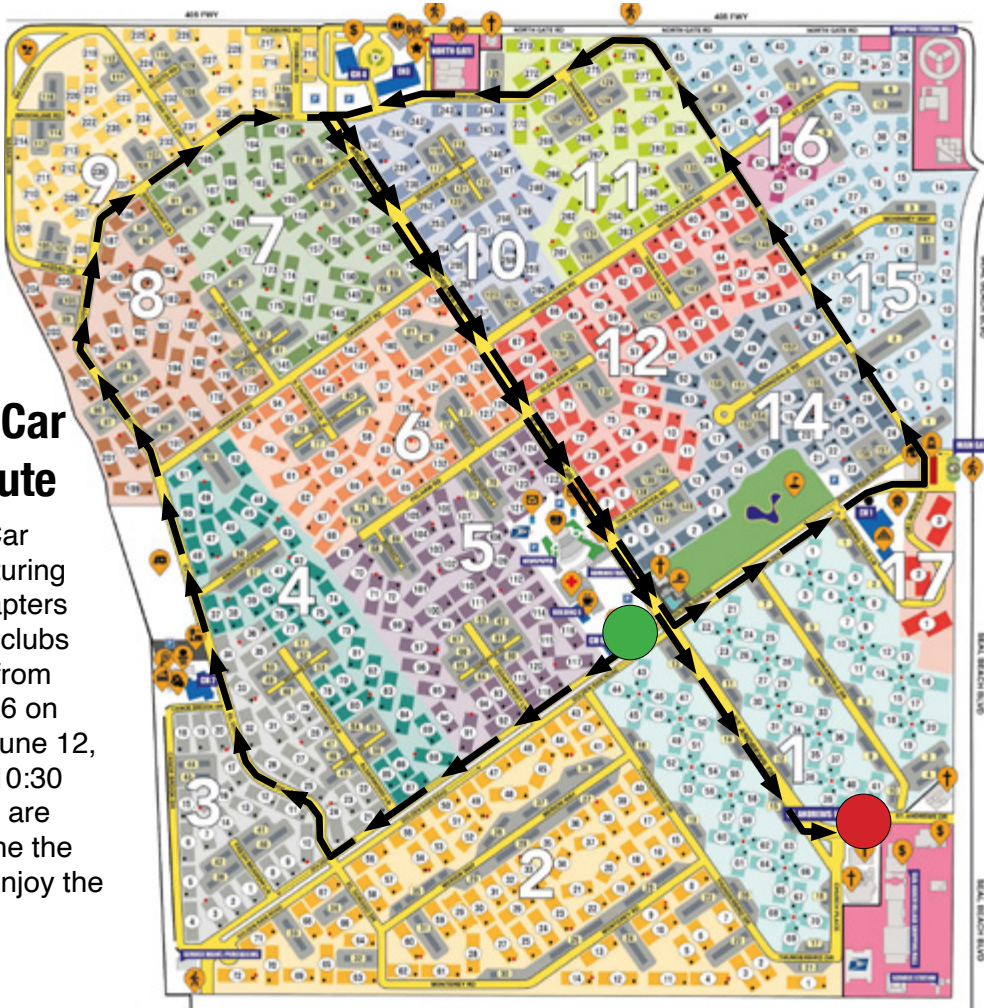

Jaipream began his law enforcement career with the Westminster Police Department in 2004. He worked various assignments including patrol, special investigations, narcotics and gangs, and served on the multi-jurisdictional West County SWAT Team.

In 2017, he transferred to the Seal Beach Police Department. He is currently assigned to patrol operations, field training officer, explorer advisor, and on the peer support and special enforcement teams.

Officer Jaipream rejoined the West County SWAT Team and is currently a team leader on one of the tactical elements.

Member Column

by Jim Greer
LW contributor

The relief we've been praying for has arrived. God is answering our prayers. We prayed the pandemic would start to dissipate, and it has. We prayed that people would stop suffering, and now fewer are. We prayed a vaccine would be developed, and now we have several.

So why are we still fearful?

For many, this pandemic has been a traumatic experience. The effects of trauma are evident all around us, with many showing levels of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Usually, only the most harshly traumatized individuals have PTSD. But the perfect storm of a worldwide pandemic, reduced confidence in authority, the loss of a sense of belonging, and declines in community solidarity have left many of us traumatized.

With the state lifting restrictions, we clearly see the light at the end of the COVID tunnel. But, despite the good news, our pent-up fears are not easily forgotten.

In his May 28, New York Times column, "The Great Unmasking," David Brooks declared, "For millions of Americans, the next six months are going to be great. The power COVID had over our lives is shrinking, and the power we have over our own lives is growing."

Still, there is a connection we have developed with our masks that many are hesitant to acknowledge. That connection may be more psychological. Brooks explains, "Productivity is a mask. I'm too busy to see you. Essentialism is a mask. I can make all sorts of assumptions about you based on what racial or ethnic group you are in. Self-doubt is a mask. I don't show you myself because I'm afraid you won't like me. Distrust is a mask. I wall myself in because I'm suspicious you'll hurt me."

Brooks went on to explain that those of us blessed to have received vaccines can now move from "absence to presence, from restraint to release, from distance to communion." Whether we do it in small groups or with a loved one, we now have permission to share time and space with others and have fun again, without masks!

Leisure World is a warm and supportive community beset over the past months by an external threat. Unknowingly, we internalized that external threat and began mistrusting and fearing one another. Now is the time to reject those fears, and trust one another. It's okay to take off your mask and smile at your neighbors, embrace one another, and enjoy our community connection.

Coretta Scott King wisely stated, "The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members."

Now is the time to take compassionate action and replace our face coverings with openness, replace social distancing with social closeness.

Our compassionate actions can start with something as simple as a smile. Dick Van Dyke challenged each of us to "Put On a Happy Face" when "Bye Bye Birdie" opened on Broadway on April 14, 1960. In perhaps the most popular song of the play, Van Dyke challenged all of us to "Take off the gloomy mask of tragedy. It's not your style. You'll look so good that you'll be glad you decided to smile."

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

I would like to compliment Phyllis Poper on her well-written poem, "Armed Forces Day" (May 27). It was a wonderful tribute to our veterans, a beautiful story of the poppies and a tribute to the American Legion Auxiliary, which assists veterans by making the poppies. This story goes back 100 years, when the poppies made by veterans were distributed during the month of May to remind our nation of the sacrifices made by our men and women who fought the wars for our freedom. It became evident that the veterans could not make all the poppies needed for distribution so the Auxiliary began helping them. Our Leisure World Unit 327 make the poppies weekly and have made many thousands. We are proud to be a part of this.

As the poem implies, the donations received for a poppy must be spent only on veterans and their families. Due to COVID-19, we were not able to continue providing the hot meals we took to the VA Hospital, so we are now assisting veteran families with food gift cards. With children being home from school, their parents' food budgets did not cover the cost of the young children's and teenagers' appetites.

This has been very rewarding, and we can only thank our community for its generosity in supporting this project.

The Auxiliary is grateful to Phyllis for her touching and well-written poem.

Letters Policy

Letters to the Editor should include your name, Mutual number and phone number, and be emailed to rutho\_news@lwsb.com or typed and delivered to the LW Weekly office.

Letters must be of general interest to the community and may contain opinions, suggestions, compliments and complaints without being scurrilous, libelous, defamatory, repetitive or otherwise inappropriate.

Setting It Straight

A letter to the editor by Russell Gray (May 27) contained unsubstantiated information. He stated, "One director asked to have the new voting procedures separated from the bylaws on the same ballot, by a 5-2 vote that went down," but according to board meeting documents, there was no such vote at any board meetings.

The letter further stated, "By a vote of 5-2, the board passed the bylaws to go on the ballot."

But according to board minutes from May 11, 2020: "By a vote 6-2, the board passed the bylaws to go on the ballot." And there were no corrections to the minutes, which stated, "following discussions and upon a motion duly made by President Mayer and seconded by Vice President Walz, it was resolved to approve that the amended and restated bylaws of Mutual 9 be placed on the 2020 ballot. The motion passed with six yes votes (Mayer, Walz, Doderio, McFadden, Turner and Muller-Gray) and one no vote (Croft)."

Assembly of God

When crossing a bridge over treacherous territory, like a rocky canyon, or a rushing river, one must have complete faith in the integrity and strength of that bridge to support them the whole way. On Sunday, June 6, Pastor Chuck Franco will continue his series with a sermon titled “The Mighty Bridge,” from Hebrews 3:1-19.

Leisure World Assembly of God meets in the beautiful Amphitheater on Sundays at 11 a.m. Those who have questions about the church or need prayer can contact Pastors Chuck and Sheryl Franco at the church office at (562) 357-4360 or lwagpastorc@gmail.com.

Holy Family Catholic Church

Holy Family Catholic Church, 13900 Church Place, next to the St. Andrews Gate, will observe the Solemnity of the Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) on Sunday, June 6. The first reading is from Exodus 24:3-8, and the second reading is from Hebrews 9:11-15. The Gospel reading is from Mark 14:12-16, 22-26.

LW Baptist Church

LW Baptist’s worship service is on Sunday, June 6, at 9:30 a.m. This week’s theme addresses what it means to follow Jesus.

Luke 9:51-62 raises the question when a village refuses to receive Jesus. Those with Jesus find the rejection intolerable, and Jesus rebukes his followers for their attitude and they move on, continuing their journey toward Jerusalem. While traveling, they encounter three would-be followers of Jesus, and Jesus’ conversations with them are illuminating.

Questions for this week’s service are: Why was Jesus determined to go to the cross? What makes people reject Jesus? How must a person prepare to follow Jesus? How does Jesus press his call above every other? How do divided loyalties disqualify would-be followers?

The song “I Have Decided to Follow Jesus,” with a Hindustani melody, was used often by Billy Graham and has its origin in the conversion to Christianity of a man from Assam, India, and his martyrdom for his faith, when he quoted John 12:26 in his language: “Whoever serves me must follow me; and where I am, my servant also will be. My Father will honor the one who serves me.”

Information about the church is available by calling (562) 430-2920.

Faith Christian Assembly

Faith Christian Assembly looks forward to its Communion service this Sunday, June 6. This is a special time as the church remembers the sacrifice of Jesus on the world’s behalf.

Jesus commanded believers in 1 Corinthians 11:25: “As often as you drink from it, keep doing this in memory of me.” All are invited to join this service. Those who want to attend do not have to be a member to partake in Communion as long as they have accepted Jesus Christ as their savior.

LWers are also invited to join Faith Christian Assembly for prayer time at 5 p.m. The Sunday celebration service begins at 5:30 p.m. and is a great way to end the weekend and begin a new week.

Out of an abundance of caution, all who attend services or events at Faith Christian Assembly will have their temperatures taken at the door, be required to wear a mask before and after service, and sit socially distant from others. Those who are ill should remain at home.

Midweek Bible Study is taught by Pastor Sheri Leming every Wednesday at 11 a.m., and Grief Share’s weekly meetings are on Wednesdays at 5:30 p.m. Call the church office for the most updated schedule information.

To watch on Facebook, go to www.facebook.com/galityomtov. On YouTube, go to www.youtube.com and search for "Shabbat Shalom LIVE!"

Beit HaLev's Coffee Chavurah on Zoom will celebrate the Sabbath evening on Friday at 5:30 followed by the evening service at 6. On Saturday, the morning service begins at 10:30, followed by the Coffee Chavurah.

All of Beit HaLev's prayer-books, "Lev L'Lev," are shared onscreen on Zoom, Facebook and YouTube.

The Torah reading is from Numbers 14:8-15;7, "Shelach Lecha," which follows the devastating behavior of the Israelites upon hearing the report that the Promised Land is filled with giants and that they have no chance of defeating the tribes of Canaan. Moses once again must intervene and plead with HaShem to not destroy the people for their lack of faith. Once again, HaShem relents and does not destroy them but forces the people to wander for another 38 years (40 in all). In order for the Israelites to enter the Land of Milk and Honey, an entire generation will have died and a new generation, one "born in the wilderness," will be led by Caleb and Joshua into the Promised Land.

Rabbi Galit Shirah

Rabbi Galit Shirah conducts a weekday Ma'ariv service every Thursday for Sim Shalom, the online synagogue. Sim Shalom presents livestream services Monday-Thursday, with a different rabbi each day. ## Community Church

This week Community Church will look at the things that get in people's way of experiencing the love of God fully in their lives. For those who have felt stuck amidst the pandemic, or feeling like there is some unseen thing in their path keeping them from greater joy in this life, this is a great time to come to Community Church.

Community Church is a place where everything is designed with the first-time participant in mind. Those who have not felt welcome in church in the past or have never participated in church are welcome.

As Leisure World continues to emerge from the pandemic, Community Church is open for limited in-person worship following CDC guidelines for those who have been vaccinated. Worship and fellowship via Zoom and Facebook are also available.

Those who missed last week's message can find it on Facebook.

Those who are in need of assistance can leave the Rev. Johan Dodge a message on the church's phone system at (562) 431-2503 or email at leisurewccsue@yahoo.com.

are standing at their seat for Aliyah and not kissing religious objects. Social distancing will be enforced except for members of the same household. Members should bring their own sanitizer, and there should be no physical contact between participants.

People are encouraged to RSVP, as only a small percentage of room capacity will be allowed.

A short 30-minute mid-week Bible study led by Pastor Lynda Elmer is held each Wednesday at 10:30 a.m. A brief service of prayer and reflection is held at 11:30 a.m. in the sanctuary.

First Christian Church

First Christian Church of Leisure World teaches from God’s word, the Holy Bible, most often verse by verse. It welcomes all visitors.

Message
Continuing this week in 1 Peter 4:7-11, the apostle Peter tells us that the end of all things is at hand, and knowing this, we should be serious and watchful, living our lives in a manner pleasing to him. First Christian Church will investigate some of those things that are pleasing to God and the impact of those things to God and others.

Scripture of the Week
In Psalm 86:4, the psalmist asked God to “make glad the soul of your servant.” Believers can ask God to make them “glad” to the depths of their being.

Services
Saturday and Sunday services have the same message.

Sunday is a traditional service, with hymnal music provided by Pat Kogok at the piano. Sunday service times are from 9:30-10:45 a.m. (note that this is a different service time than before the pandemic).

Saturday services are more contemporary, with Gregory Black leading worship with guitar accompaniment. Saturday service time is 9:30-10:45 a.m. (also a new time).

The Friday evening prayer meeting is from 6-7.

Announcements
First Christian Church is concerned about the health and safety of its members as well as everyone in Leisure World. Anyone experiencing any coronavirus, flu or common cold symptoms should stay home. Those who have been in contact with anyone testing positive for the virus within the last 14 days are also asked to stay home. To receive more information on the church, call (562) 431-8810. The church location is on Northwood Road, behind Carport 125.

A LIFETIME OF LOVE

Celebrating 71 years and still going strong

by Ruth Osborn
managing editor

Helene and Mort Goldberg, 30-plus-year residents of Mutual 14, will celebrate 71 years of marriage tomorrow. They will be surrounded by family—son Marshall, daughters Linda and Jeanne, and lots grandchildren. There will be cake and memories.

The couple was married on June 4, 1950, in Duquesne, Pennsylvania. It was a day in the middle of the year in the middle of a century.

But that Sunday was the start of a long and love-filled union.

Helene's father, Rabbi Morris Moskowitz, married the couple. Rabbi Moskowitz came to this country from Hungary after serving in the Hungarian Army in World War I. He and his wife, Lena, immigrated to Pennsylvania, moving to Duquesne in 1934. There, he served as a rabbi at Congregation Beth Jacob, where Helene and Mort wed.

They first met at one of the many young men's and women's clubs that spread out from Pittsburgh to surrounding steel towns like Duquesne.

Mort was ready to settle down after serving as a U.S. Army medic in World War II. He was 18 when Pearl Harbor was bombed and was inducted on March 22, 1943.

By June 1950, times were good for starting married life. America stood at the summit of the world, as the former British Prime Minister Winston Churchill described it. The economy was booming, and the fruits of this prosperity—new cars, suburban houses and other consumer goods—were available to more people than ever before. Women were wearing full swingy skirts, thanks to designer Christian Dior, and trendy men were beginning to grease back their hair and sport narrow trousers and velvet-collared jackets.

Jukeboxes were playing Nat

King Cole, Gordon Jenkins and The Weavers, and Bing Crosby, and lots of people were watching "The Ed Sullivan Show."

The Goldbergs settled into married life. They both worked, raised three children and traveled when they could.

The years went by easy. "We just like each other. We agreed on almost everything," said Helene. "We did everything we could together."

"I can't speak for him, but I like him in addition to loving him," she added, smiling at Mort, who responded with a robust, "You're wonderful."

After they met at the Young Men's and Women's Hebrew Association a couple of times, Mort asked for Helene's phone number. She gave it to him with alacrity.

"He was gorgeous, adorable, very blond and blue-eyed," she recalled.

Poor Mort lost her number, but not to be derailed, he canvassed 5th Street—where he thought she lived—and asked if anyone knew a Helene Moskowitz.

He had no luck. Probably because Helene lived two streets away, on 7th.

But all was not lost. Where sheer determination failed, the fates intervened.

She was leaving the club one day, when out of a phone booth popped Mort. He had been trying to reach her.

"That was it," said Helene. "I never dated anyone else again, and neither did he."

The couple announced their engagement on his birthday, Feb. 12, 1950, and they were married four months later.

They are happy to celebrate 71 years with their dear ones in person. Everyone has been vaccinated. Seeing those faces will be a gift, but they are grateful for FaceTime and other technology that have kept them connected to the world and people, even from home. Because home is where life mostly happens now, as they are fragile, said Helene: "We see the world from here," and it's a beautiful world when you are sharing it with your one-and-only.

Helene and Morton Goldberg have been married for 71 golden years. The couple's anniversary is tomorrow, June 4. They will be celebrating a lifetime of love, more than 30 years in Leisure World and surviving the COVID-19 pandemic. A family party will be a highlight this weekend.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Elizabeth Denney from the OC Fire Authority will be the speaker at the next Zoom meeting

Elizabeth Denney from the Orange County Fire Authority (OCFA) will present at the next Sunshine Club meeting on Friday, June 4, at 10 a.m. via Zoom. She will help LWers learn how to plan in advance to survive and recover from disasters.

All shareholders are welcome to join the meeting at <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/84982089743?pwd=UGR3RlZRaUJmWmlSNE9KdTdNMUUh3QT09>. The meeting ID is 849 8208 9743, and the passcode is 508742.

Those who would like to get a Zoom link by email should text their name, Mutual number and email address to (562) 301-5339 no later than today, June 3, at 5 p.m. (text only, no phone messages).

OCFA is a regional fire service that provides emergency response, training and community education to 23 cities and unincorporated areas throughout Orange County. OCFA serves over 2 million residents from its 77 fire stations located throughout Orange County. It serves cities as far south as San Clemente and as far north as Los Alamitos. OCFA has proudly served the residents of Seal Beach since 1982.

The OCFA community outreach and education department raises public awareness through teaching the following campaigns:

- Disaster preparedness
- Fire safety
- Drowning prevention
- Ready, Set, Go!

In addition, OFCA's community outreach and education team offers an array of free services to residents within its jurisdiction that are available by contacting one of the six community education specialists:

- Fire Station tours (virtual and prerecorded options)
- School visits
- Community event attendance
- Safety presentations (virtual or prerecorded)
- Fire extinguisher training

The Sunshine club will host four speakers via Zoom this month including Denney. Other speakers include Christine Tran-Le from the Council on Aging Orange County on June 11; Keegan Ferraro from State Farm Insurance company in Seal Beach on the 18th; and Col. Richard Lalor from the Joint Force Training Base in Los Alamitos on June 25.

The Sunshine Club brings LW leaders to meetings to introduce their organizations to the group. It also invites specialists from outside Leisure World to share their experiences and ideas with club members.

For more information, contact Anna Derby at (562) 301-5339.

Ren Villanueva greets guests at 2019 picnic.

Annual veterans picnic is on July 3

The annual picnic to honor all U.S. veterans living in Leisure World was cancelled last year because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The Filipino Association of Leisure World, in gratitude for veterans and their unselfish service and sacrifice to preserve freedom, will honor them with its annual picnic. Every veteran living in Leisure World is invited.

The picnic will be on Saturday, July 3, at the picnic grounds in Clubhouse 1 starting at 11:30 a.m. Those who want to attend should call and register their name, phone number, service branch and number of guests to be eligible to receive a token gift.

Call Ren Villanueva at (562) 493-1406 or (323) 854-6209; Ric Dizon at (714) 225-3597; or Eileen Merritt (562) 486-1252 to RSVP.

ROLLIN' THUNDER

Air & Water Day is Saturday

The Rollin' Thunder Golf Cart Club will host a free golf cart maintenance event on Saturday, June 5. The Air & Water Day is staffed by club volunteers who will check and fill battery water levels and check tire pressure to make sure tires are filled to factory-recommended levels.

Maintaining water levels will lengthen battery life and prevent dangerous and unexpected stalling or failure to start. Improper tire pressure can contribute to tip-overs on turns and accelerated tire wear.

The Air & Water Day will be held from 9-10:30 a.m. in the Clubhouse 4 parking lot. Entrance to the inspection site will be via the Clubhouse 3 driveway. Signs and traffic cones will be posted and monitored by Security staff.

Face masks must be worn at all times. No more than two persons per cart; drivers must remain in their carts. Refusal to follow these few rules will result in removal from the inspection line-up.

There is never a charge for this valuable service, and all LW cart owners are urged to participate. Club membership is not required.

Club meetings may resume this summer, so non-member golf cart owners are encouraged to join Rollin' Thunder. Luncheon meetings are fun, and guest speakers bring timely information. Membership applications will be available at the event.

Get a new flag to celebrate Flag Day

The American Legion Auxiliary wants to thank the LW community for its generous donations during this year's poppy campaign. All donations will go to veterans and their families. Because of COVID-19, the American Legion Auxiliary was asked to support families who have children school-aged and younger. The children were home all day, and appetites soared due to missing out on school lunch programs. The problem continues with summer approaching and families needing extra help with their food budget.

The next district meeting has been moved to June 5. It will be held at 9 a.m. at the Cypress Unit. For carpool and other information, call Geri McNulty at (562) 673-1725.

The Auxiliary will hold its annual installation luncheon at 11:30 a.m. on June 21 at Fiddlers 3, located on the Joint Forces Training Base. All members are invited to join. Members will order from the menu and at the on-your-own luncheon. Call McNulty for carpool information and to RSVP.

June 14 is Flag Day. People who have dirty, tattered or torn flags can get a new from the Auxiliary for $10. The old flag will be properly and respectfully disposed. Call (562) 673-1725.

REPUBLICAN CLUB

Reserve a spot for the June 11 picnic

by Brian Harmon
LW contributor

The GOP club is looking forward to its picnic on Friday, June 11, at the picnic area near Clubhouse 1 at 12:30 p.m. The picnic will celebrate the volunteers who have made the club so successful over the past two years. Those who want to attend should RSVP to धारlow50@aol.com or call (562) 335 0779. All food will be provided except salad, beans and chips. People whose last name begin with the letters A-N should bring a salad; last names beginning with O-Z should bring beans or chips. All club members are invited to come and bring a friend.

Republicans who want to join the club should call (714) 928-1950 or email धारlow50@aol.com. If sending an email, individuals should put "HARLOW" in capital letters in the subject line along with the topic, because the recipient receives around 200 emails each day and this will help him know which emails are a top priority.

All members will be sent via email an agenda and minutes for each meeting and other information deemed necessary and/or appropriate by the president.

The June meeting of the Republican Club is scheduled to be held live on Wednesday, June 16, at 7 p.m. The room had not been assigned as of press time. A speaker from the police department will discuss current issues facing law enforcement. The club president said he expects a large attendance because people are excited to meet in person after such a long mandatory break.

A hat will be passed at the meeting to accept voluntary contributions to keep the club active.

The club is planning to have the Election Integrity Project present at the July meeting.

Many members indicated they would attend the May 31 Memorial Day remembrance at Veterans Plaza during the club's most recent meeting. Members also discussed a number of issues, including the reasons to vote to recall Gov. Gavin Newsom, abortion and school board policies, along with national attempts to pack the Supreme Court, add at least one new heavily Democratic state (D.C.), and impose nationwide laws to weaken or eliminate election integrity laws in every state.

The club encourages anyone, especially club members, to send their opinions on public issues or ideas about what the club should be doing. To do so, call or text (562) 335 0779. If sending a text, type "HARLOW" on the subject line. Those not wanting their name, ideas or opinions to be made public should so indicate.

DEMOCRATIC CLUB

Committees prep for in person meetings, recall election

by Mary Larson
LW contributor

The Democratic Club welcomes two new people, Carolyn Smith and Debbie Wrathall, to its board. Smith will serve as the board's interim secretary, and Wrathall will be the interim chair of the Program Committee.

Membership meetings will resume on Aug. 18 in Clubhouse 2 or via Zoom if necessary. In the meantime, the club's board and committees are actively preparing for the anticipated face-to-face meetings that will center on the 2021 recall election and the June 2022 Primary.

The Program Committee will meet on June 9. The committee has been in conversation with a number of potential speakers, including club favorites such as Josh Lowenthal, Harley Rouda and California Comptroller Betty Yee. All three have expressed interest in meeting with club members. Yee was recently elected as one of two vice chairs of the California Democratic Party. The committee will also be inviting a number of 2022 Primary Election candidates as speakers for future club meetings.

The Publicity Committee is looking for help from a Leisure World resident with experience in developing websites. It is also looking for a volunteer to be in charge of the club's Facebook page. Interested members should call (562) 296-8521.

Members who have access to the web should check the club's online resource center at <https://sblwdems.wordpress.com/resources> for the committee's in-depth reporting on a number of issues.

The Nominating Committee will meet on June 7. The committee is responsible for the development of what is tentatively being called "Training for Leadership." The training, scheduled to last for several weeks, will be held on the second Wednesday of the month. These sessions are being designed to provide a way for members to become more knowledgeable about the club and general politics as well as get to know each other better. All club members can enroll, regardless of whether they anticipate assuming responsibility for leadership roles in the immediate future.

The club will continue to staff a voter service center booth outside Clubhouse 6 every Tuesday from 10:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Voter registration forms, membership applications, club newsletters, brochures and other resource material will be available.

Members should be on the lookout for a letter from the Special Events Committee concerning the club's current fundraising efforts for candidates. Due to the restrictions imposed by the COVID-19 pandemic, this campaign is being conducted by mail for a second consecutive year. The committee hopes to resume the club's festive once-a-year get-together in 2022.

Club members who had not yet renewed their membership for 2021 recently received a letter requesting that they do so. To check renewal status, call (562) 431-7275.

Lastly, the Strategic Planning Committee is beginning to develop a plan to reach Leisure World voters about the importance of voting in the upcoming recall election.

The Woman's Club is a philanthropic organization, and its main goal is to raise money to give to organizations that help others.

The club's first meeting for the year will be held on Oct. 2. It will be a luncheon for the club's welcome back party. This event is for members only. More details will be printed in the LW Weekly in September.

Those who have questions should call Jan Krehbiel at (562) 431-8240 or email her at jhkhoop@aol.com.

GAF

Mobility Aids chair position available

The Golden Age Foundation (GAF) is searching for someone who would be interested in charing of the Mobility Aids program. This program is one of GAF's longest running programs, and it has been beneficial to the community.

People should apply for the position if they enjoy helping others when they need it most. The job includes record-keeping for the wheelchairs and walkers, along with training new volunteers and leading a team. The Mobility Aids program has an office in Clubhouse 6, where it keeps inventory that the Mobility Aids chairperson will be in charge of maintaining.

The new chair would be on the GAF's Board of Directors and attend its monthly meeting, which usually lasts around two hours. Along with the other program chairs, a monthly report is also prepared. If more than one person is interested, there is the possibility for this position to be co-chaired.

The GAF would like to thank the current Mobility Aids Chair, John Hlavac, for his dedication and commitment to the program. He will be leaving by the end of the year and is willing to train his replacement.

For more information or to meet to discuss the position, call Anna Derby at (562) 301-5339.

INTERNATIONAL CITY THEATRE

Musical examines all love's sides

by Patty Marsters
pattym@lwsb.com

Long Beach's International City Theatre (ICT) continues to bring live performances to homebound theater-lovers with this production of Jason Robert Brown's "The Last Five Years." The livestream presentation opens today, June 3, and is available via www.internationalcitytheatre.org.

The innovative musical, which premiered in 2001 and was adapted for the big screen in 2014, shows the two sides to a marriage, but with the bride's and groom's timelines moving in opposite directions. Novelist Jamie Wallerstein (John Battagliese) starts the play at the beginning of their relationship and progresses forward, while actress Cathy Hyatt (Gabriella Carrillo) starts five years later, at the dissolution of their marriage, then moves backward in time. The timelines intersect once, at the couple's wedding.

They share their tales entirely through song, truly duetting in "The Next Ten Minutes," as they get engaged.

Described as funny and uplifting, the play captures almost all the feelings in modern romance, from passion to heartache. It was named one of the 10 best productions of 2001 by TIME magazine and given that year's Drama Desk Award for music and lyrics.

Directed by Jamie Torcellini, with musical direction by Graham Sobelman, "The Last Five Years" streams through June 20 on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. Tickets are $35 per household. A post-show talk with the cast is scheduled for Sunday, June 13.

This is ICT's first virtual musical and last planned streaming performance, as the theater intends to reopen for live shows, starting with "Closely Related Keys" in August.

Drone Service Club

The Drone Service Club promotes the positive image of the remote-controlled aerial vehicles and their users. The group, which fosters their safe and responsible use, seeks to train and establish a pool of volunteer first-responder drone operators. Anyone interested in keeping abreast of the rapidly evolving technology or using drones as a hobby should contact Joseph Valentinetti at 0501042@gmail.com for an invitation to the club's next meeting.

Opera Club to Restart Meetings

Members of the LW Opera Club are making plans for the best season ever, choosing good versions of popular and lesser known works. Knowledge of plots and composers may spark interest for both opera newcomers and experts, both of whom are invited to and welcome at the meetings. The group focuses on one opera each month, with a complete performance accompanied by information and discussion in two sessions; there are also occasional potluck extravaganzas.

In the past five years, the club has shown 50-plus operas and heard from multiple speakers from the LA Opera as well as other experts. It also facilitated a connection between the LA Opera and the LW Recreation Department, arranging for LW buses to transport club members to and from operas in Los Angeles. Members also receive discounts on concert tickets and busses to Long Beach Symphony Orchestra performances.

During the pandemic, an "email tree" provided members with links to watch free virtual performances by the New York Metropolitan Opera, the LA Chamber Orchestra, USC Music Department and more.

Members and those interested are invited to the club's monthly meetings, details for which will appear in advance in LW Weekly. No fees or dues are collected. To receive emails with meeting information and more, to join the free email tree, or for answers to any questions involving the LW Opera Club, contact Beverly Emus at Beverly90740@gmail.com.

Ladies Golf Club

Flight A: Low gross: Soo Choi, 26; low net: Margie Thompson, 21; chip-in: Thompson (Hole 6).

Flight B: Low gross: Judy Kim, 29; low net: Helen Yoon, 23; chip-ins: Kim (Hole 2) and Pam Krug (Hole 9).

Flight C: Low gross: Soonja Min, 29; low net: three-way tie between Sue Yokomi, Marilyn Hewitt and Sally Park, 23; chip-ins: Min (Holes 7 and 9), Yokomi (Hole 3) and Park (Hole 4).

Men's Golf Club

On May 26, three flights of variously skilled golfers vied for best net scores, four circle holes (within a 5-foot circle) and two closest-to-the-pin challenges in the Leisure World Men's Golf Club Tournament. There were no holes-in-one this week, however, in the previous tournament, played May 12, Bill Long had a rare hole-in-one, which was not included in the accompanying article in LW Weekly.

A total of 54 golfers competed through the early morning and into the afternoon. The weather was initially overcast and windy, and though the wind never left, the sun came out warmly mid-round. The early morning front nine rounds were met with "sticky" greens and wet fairways. By the time the back nine started, the greens had become much quicker and the wind began to challenge accurate drives. The tee boxes continue to try to improve, and the greens have still not recovered from their aeration several weeks back. These conditions certainly led to only 27 of 48 rounds being under par.

A flight encompasses golfers with handicaps of 0-6; B flight is handicaps of 7-12; and C flight is handicaps of 13-18. All scores below are net (gross score minus handicap).

A Flight winners: First place: Dong Kim, 6 under 48; second: Jae Kim, 5 under 49; third: tie between John Kolthoff and Ron Steele, 3 under 51; fourth: tie between Bob Barnum and Glenn Barry, 2 under 52; fifth: Bill Lyons, even par 54.

B Flight winners: First place: Dale Williamson, 5 under 49; second: Ryan Hong, 4 under 50;

In the May 12 tournament, Bill Long played a hole-in-one.

third: tie between Paul Alloway, Young Lee and Gene Archambault, 3 under 51; fourth: tie between Andrew Kim and Jae H. Lee, 1 under 53; fifth: tie between Hyun Jun Lee, Jay Kim and Bruce Bowles, even par 54.

C Flight winners: First place: Ken Noyorleva, a very nice 8 under 46; second: tie between Youn Lee and Hyon Shin, 6 under 48; third: Bill Smith, 5 under 49; fourth: tie between Joon Sup Yoon and Kap Son, 4 under 50; fifth: tie between Mike Carlson and Marv Jones, 2 under 52; sixth: Ivan Painschab, 1 under 53; seventh: Jong Lee, even par 54.

Closest to the pin on the 85-yard, par-3 eighth hole was Won Song at 3 feet, 10 inches, and on the par-3 17th hole, it was Bob Turner at 7 feet, 9 inches. There were also six circle hole winners.

The next Men's Tournaments will be on June 9 and 23. The next Guys and Gals Tournaments will be on June 16 and 30. If you are scheduled to but cannot play, contact Alan Sewell at (541) 324-8558 or Dave LaCascia at (801) 674-5975 as soon as possible.

—Dave LaCascia

LW Book Club

On May 20, 13 members of the LW Book Club met via Zoom. All present enjoyed the book "Freakonomics" by Stephen J. Dubner and Steven Levitt and were engaged in the discussion.

The next meeting is scheduled for June 17 at 1 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 7. The group will discuss "The Leopard" by Giuseppe Tomasi di Lampedusa. The popular historical fiction novel has been translated from Italian and was made into a movie in 1963, starring Burt Lancaster as the title character.

"The Leopard" takes place during the political upheavals of Italy in the 1860s, when the decadent but dying aristocracy were threatened by the forces of revolution and democracy. Don Fabrizio is a Sicilian prince of immense sensual appetites, wealth and great personal magnetism, and around him swirls a glittering array of characters, including a Bourbon king, liberals and pseudo liberals, peasants, and millionaires.

The author himself was part of the aristocracy as the last prince of the island of Lampedusa.

The LW Library carries a copy of "The Leopard," which is also available for purchase with free shipping from websites such as www.abebooks.com and alibris.com.

For more information, contact Thomas Gan at gljtjook@gmail.com.

Master Gardeners Zoom Workshop

The GRF Mini Farm's Master Gardeners workshop titled "Insect Pest Management" will be held via Zoom on Thursday, June 10 at 10 a.m. The link can be found on the Mini Farm website at www.lwsb.com/mini-farm/ that morning. All are welcome to attend, but current and prospective mini farmers are especially encouraged to join.

Coin Club

The LW Coin Club will meet on June 9 on the green adjacent to 13550 Medinac Lane, 103-L, starting at 1:30 p.m. and continuing until the last coin is auctioned off (likely around 3:30). Meetings are informal, mostly centering on the quest for that one coin needed to fill a folder and a discussion with a dealer about a desired purchase. Hobbyists, investors and new visitors, especially the resident who has that one old coin left to them many years ago, are welcome to join members for what may be the last fresh-air meeting before returning to an indoor venue.

Chess Club

The Chess Club publishes weekly puzzles to keep the love of the game alive until its members meet to play in person again.

This week's puzzle is checkmate in three moves. White moves first. Any answer by Black, and White's third move is checkmate.

The solution to this week's puzzle's first move is: Qg8. The White Queen moves from f7 to g8. Then Black to Kg8, White Pd8 becomes a Q, and black Qe8. White's next move is checkmate.

Men's Golf League

In quite a change from the previous week's gloomy outing, it was beautiful and sunny at Riverview Golf Course in Santa Ana on May 24. Thirteen men and guest Digna Vesely teed off at the well-manicured, par-70, 5,800-yard course. The tees, fairways and greens were again in great condition, and with the good weather, it was surprising that only six of the 13 rounds were under par, though the course yielded seven birdies.

All scores are net (actual score minus handicap). A Flight handicaps range from 0-20; B flight is higher than 20.

A Flight Winners: First place: Glenn Barry, 4 under 66; second: Gary Stivers, 2 under 68; third: tie between Dave LaCascia and Jim Goltra, 1 under 69; fourth: Larry Hillhouse even par 70; fifth: Clay Fischer, 1 over 71; sixth: Bill McKusky, 2 over 72. Fischer had two birdies, and Barry, Stivers, Goltra, Hillhouse and McKusky each had one. Barry also had the fewest putts. Goltra was closest to the pin on the 150-yard, par-3 second hole, and McKusky was closest on the 100-yard, par-3 ninth hole.

B Flight Winners: First place: Gene Vesely, 1 under 69, plus fewest putts; second: Bob Munn, 2 over 72; third: Marv Ballard; fourth: Tom Ross.

Four days later, the David L. Baker Golf Club in Fountain Valley welcomed 10 men, one woman and guest Vesely to its par-64 Executive Course, which measures

Bob Barnum

Community Singers

The sun was still shining brightly when 38 folks gathered for karaoke in Veterans Plaza on May 27. There were selections from country and western, gospel, pop, and show tunes.

Bob Barnum wowed the crowd with "There's Always Me." Pat Kogak sang a peppy "Johnny Angel." The group enjoyed Carmen Edwards' version of "Just in Time," Amy Walker singing "Volare," Ellen Brannigan's "Hey Good Looking," Ric Dizon performing "This is My Song" and Tony Tupas crooning "Let It Be." Walt Bier served as host, and other singers included Frank and Martha Destra, Vickie Mendoza, Ruby Johnson, Carolyn Mottola, Essie Hicks, David Noble, Richard Yokomi, Ren Villaneuva, Wayne Urban, Tino Tupas, Rick Riley and Ray Geierman.

Everyone is welcome to join the fun on Thursdays from 4-6:30 p.m.

Lapidary Club

The next fused glass class, taught by Yvette Louie, is on June 8 from 12:30-3 p.m. The cost is $10. Anyone interested should sign up in the Lapidary Room in Clubhouse 4. The room is open Monday-Friday from 9-11:30 a.m. and 12:30-3 p.m.

Leisure World Orchestra

Among LW's 9,000 residents, there is a lot of musical talent, though much of it is latent and needs to be unleashed and developed. Leisure World Orchestra is restarting on June 16. Those who have musical interest and talent, even if it has been dormant since high school or college, are encouraged to rehabilitate that talent and relive the fun of playing classical music. There is especially a need for a drummer and brass players.

The LW Orchestra rehearses for a few hours in the Amphitheater starting at noon on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. They perform two concerts a year and take a hiatus in summer. For more information, call or text club president Fred Reker at (615) 898-0669 or drop by during rehearsals.

Both the Monday and Friday Golf Leagues play at four local courses, all within 15 minutes of Leisure World, starting between 7-7:30 a.m., except holidays.

LW Men's Club membership is not required, and friends, ladies, spouses and family are all welcome to play and/or join. If interested, contact McKusky at (562) 430-8618 or LaCascia at (801) 674-5975.

The colorful dancers and musicians greeted visitors to the Salvation Army’s “Spring Fling.”

HUI O HULA

Hula club performs again for friends outside LW

Hui O Hula is happy to bring its aloha outside the gate as the pandemic is coming to an end. On May 20, the dancers and musicians enjoyed welcoming attendees to Long Beach Salvation Army’s “Spring Fling” drive-through event. People cheered and honked as they cruised by.

The hula club is looking forward to performing for residents and friends at Stanton’s Rown-tree Gardens on June 22. They have been entertaining there twice a year for more than a decade, but had not been able to visit since Christmas 2019. “It will feel like homecoming,” said Jojo Weingart.

Thanks to the GRF Board’s recent decision, coupled with the governor’s announcement, the Hawaiian Dance Club will host its first class since the pandemically closed amenities on June 15 in Clubhouse 6. Starting at 1 p.m., basic hula steps will be taught upstairs. The house band, led by Larry Yamashiro, will play island music for those who just want to “walk in and hula out” after the beginners’ class; hula lessons will continue until 5 p.m. For class information, contact Kaye Huff at (562) 431-2242 or email Jojo@huihula.com.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:

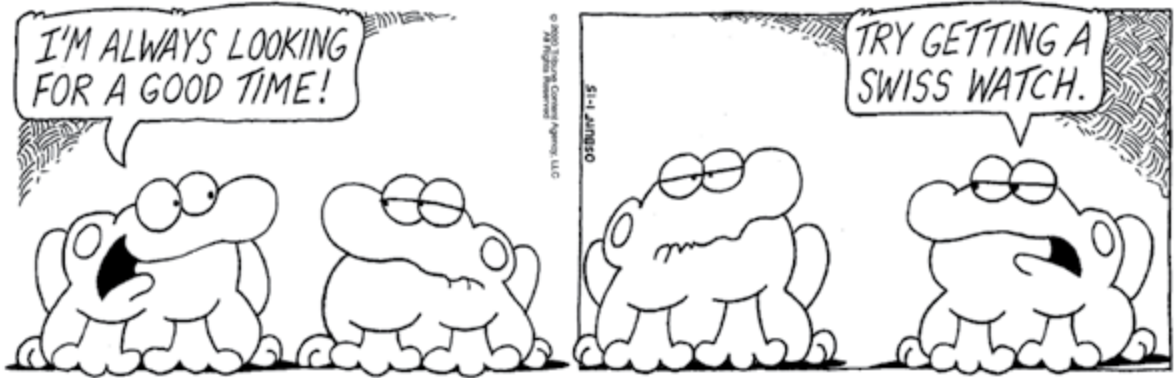

- There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
- When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
- Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.

Editor:
After 32 years in Mutual 9, my mother, Geraldine "Geri" Stone, is leaving Leisure World, which she loves dearly and where she made many friends. She is moving to an assisted living facility near my home in La Mesa, near San Diego.

My mom was active in Theater Club and the Chorale, and was a featured soloist or performer for many years. She kept Theater Club records as secretary and had a great time with all her colleagues, pre-pandemic.

Her move was necessitated by a series of hospitalizations and other medical issues. Since she won't return to her unit, she won't have access to her voice mail. But you can text or call me at (619) 277-5610 if you want to share your thoughts, which I can pass on to her. I also can give you her new mailing address, if you'd like to send a card or letter. I'm sure she'd be delighted.

Thanks for all your love and support for Geri over the years. They were the best years of her life.

*Ken Stone
La Mesa, California*

Editor:
Thank you to Ogan Construction, Jill and the crew for your trustworthy, organized and affordable service, and the great clean-up.

*Bea Zorrilla
Mutual 5*

Editor:
Mutual 9 just held a fair election that represented its shareholders for the first time.

In the past, every unit had seven votes, which they could use for multiple candidates or give them all to one candidate. So, with 384 units, a candidate could persuade 54 units to give them their seven votes, which equals 384 votes. In past elections, candidates have received over 800 votes. This did not represent the 384 units fairly. The election became a popularity contest.

The new bylaws for Mutual 9, which has always had parcel voting, now have restated the parcel voting. Each unit has one vote for its Parcel Director. So, depending on the size of the parcel, the most a candidate could receive would be 36 votes in the smallest parcel, and 72 votes in the largest parcel. The shareholders in their parcel elect their representative (director) like they do with state and federal elections.

That Parcel Director representing their parcel will now answer to those shareholders. Each parcel will now be able to make the decision of whether to keep its director on the board in future elections based on the director's interaction with his or her parcel, the Mutual and the board in general. If there are other items on the ballot that affect the whole Mutual, each unit will have only one vote for those issues.

I thank the past boards for their efforts on the bylaws and voter restatement, and I wish the newly elected board goodwill for their future year.

*Debra Schnauffer
Mutual 9*

"Because of our beautiful beaches, popular Main Street and excellent weather, we normally see a large increase in tourists to our city," said Seal Beach Police Chief Philip Gonshak.

"Unfortunately this increase in population also creates an upward trend in criminal activity. By dedicating these two officers to patrol our busiest areas, our mission will be to drive down crime and improve the quality of life for residents, visitors and businesses."

Although the COP Team will deploy from the police substation at the base of the pier, officers will respond to emergencies throughout the city and address quality-of-life issues in all neighborhoods.

They will also act as liaisons between the police department and businesses and will participate in community education events.

During the non-summer months, the COP Team will be assigned as liaisons to McGaugh Elementary School, conduct directed enforcement for specific vehicle and penal code sections, host community meetings and work with the Chamber of Commerce.

COP Team members will also be assigned as Quality of Life officers and will help connect community members in need to various resources.
