The Seal Beach City Council honored Sandra Massa-Lavitt of Mutual 5 on Feb. 27 for years of dedicated public service representing District 5, which encompasses Mutuals 2-9 and half of Mutual 1. LWer Nathan Steele was sworn in to replace her. The festive evening featured a finger food reception, lots of certificates of recognition and a boatload of praise for exemplary public service. The spillover crowd included California Sen. Janet Nguyen who represents the 36th district, and a host of representatives from Orange County, Boeing, the Seal Beach Chamber of Commerce, the Los Alamitos School Board, the Naval Weapons Station and more. They were there to bid a fond farewell to Massa-Lavitt and Mike Varipapa, an eight-year Seal Beach councilman representing District 3 who was also termed out. District 1 Councilman and outgoing mayor Joe Kalmick praised Massa-Lavitt's comprehensive approach to city administration. "I thoroughly enjoyed working with Sandra these past four years," he said. "While she has been a strong advocate for her district in Leisure World, she was always engaged in the issues that were important for the city as a whole. Sandra's wise advice helped me to be a better council member." City Manager Jill Ingram expressed her "sincerest gratitude and appreciation for her dedicated service. I thank her for her consistent and

by Kathy Thayer
recreation manager

February kicked off the 2023 special events calendar with the Valentine's Day Dinner Dance that drew over 200 happy residents and their friends. Next up is the St. Patrick's Day Dinner that is selling out quickly (see page 21 for more information). There are a lot more special events and excursions planned for 2023, with the Spring Arts and Crafts Festival up next. It will be held in Clubhouse 2 on April 14 and 15. This event was added to the calendar due to the popularity of fall festival. Resident artisans will have an opportunity to sell their handmade crafts and can sign up for the festival at 1 p.m., March Beader Glenda Wixson and lapidary instructor Greg Myers were at the festival in November.

22, in Clubhouse 2.

Theater Outing

The first excursion of the season will be Sunday, April 30, to see “Under the Skin” at the Long Beach International City Theater. The theme revolves around the protagonist, Lou, who needs a kidney. Yesterday. His estranged daughter Raina has one to spare, but does he deserve it? Time leaps backward, forward and sideways, secrets get aired, and truths revealed in this lively, unpredictable comedy that asks what people owe their parents and children. Tickets will go on sale in mid-March.

Cinco de Mayo

Cinco de Mayo, one of Rec’s most popular free events, is back at Clubhouse 6 with live mariachi entertainment, the Taco Tuesday truck and virgin margarita bar for those who want to purchase refreshments. Watch the LW Weekly and LW Live for more details.

Mother’s Day Brunch

Mother’s Day is May 14, and GRF will host sumptuous brunch on Saturday, May 13, in Clubhouse 4.

Harpist Peggy Skomal will entertain.

This is a great way for the whole family to honor mom the day before. Tickets will go on sale in April.

Harpist Peggy Skomal will entertain at the Mother’s Day Brunch set for May 14.

LA Opera Excursion

The LA Opera is back in business, and this year, the Recreation Department was fortunate enough to secure enough tickets for two evening performances of “Othello.”

Hailed as the pinnacle of the Italian operatic repertoire, Verdi’s transformation of the original Shakespeare play is a powerful drama of uncontrolled human emotion at its most extreme. Verdi’s musical portrait of Othello’s descent into a tortured heart of darkness is explicit in every chilling detail as he destroys all in life that he holds dear.

The operatic performances are on May 17 and June 1. Due to the special low pricing and limited seating, residents may submit their names for a drawing and will be randomly chosen for either date.

More information will be available next month.

Stars on Ice

Stars on Ice is on the calendar for May 20 at the Honda Center. The 2023 Stars on Ice tour will boast an international cast of Olympic, world and national champion skaters sure to entertain all ages.

Angels Baseball

On June 9, the Angels will take on the Mariners and one busload of LW residents will be there to see the action. Tickets will be available at the Recreation Office later this spring.

Keep an eye on LW Live as well as the LW Weekly for more information on these and other upcoming events.

Residents are encouraged to sign up for LW Live for the community’s real-time news. Sign up at www.lwsb.com to start receiving the latest information on GRF events and news.

The Recreation Department welcomes input of LW residents, who are invited to attend the next Recreation Committee meeting, either in person or via livestream, at 1 p.m. in Conference Room B on the first Monday of the month. For more information, contact kathyt@lwsb.com.

Distinguished Speakers-Beatles Tribute

Bob Eubanks, best known as an Emmy-winning television host, and little known as the man who brought The Beatles to Southern California in 1964, will present Backstage with the Beatles in Long Beach.

Eubanks and the Beatles tribute band, Ticket to Ride, will appear live at the Terrace Theatre on Monday, March 13, at 8 p.m. as part of the Distinguished Speaker Series. Series tickets can be purchased at www.speakersla.com.

Bob Eubanks has been a familiar face on TV since the 1960s. He’s best known as host of the daytime and nighttime versions of “The Newlywed Game” on ABC and coverage of the Tournament of Roses Parade for 36 years. Before that, he was a rock ‘n’ roll deejay in Los Angeles and a music promoter. Many are surprised to learn that Eubanks is the only living person to have produced and financed a Beatles concert all three years they toured America. Eubanks produced their historic 1964 and ‘65 Hollywood Bowl and 1966 Dodger Stadium concerts when the Beatles was still a young unknown British band in the U.S. After the 1966 Los Angeles concerts, there would only be one more, in San Francisco. The Beatles would never tour again.

Eubanks will share how he convinced the Beatles to come to LA and delight the audience with his fascinating and hilarious never-heard-before stories about his experiences with the Beatles, their manager Brian Epstein, and the screaming throngs of fans who attended the concerts.

He has put together an entertaining one-of-a-kind show, Backstage with the Beatles, that combines seldom heard stories about Beatlemania, never before seen photos of Eubanks and the Fab Four, and classic Beatles songs sung live onstage by the talented Beatles tribute band, Ticket to Ride.

Eubanks combines the history of the Southern California music scene in the ‘60s, plus videos and photos of backstage antics with the Beatles and a chance to sing along with all the Beatles songs everyone knows and loves, says Kathy Winterhalter, co-founder of the Distinguished Speaker Series.

The Distinguished Speaker Series of Long Beach is held at the Terrace Theatre, 300 E. Ocean Blvd., Long Beach. Eubanks’ program begins at 8 p.m.

He is the fifth of six presentations offered as part of the Distinguished Speaker Series this year. He will be followed in Long Beach by Ken Burns (May 1).

The Distinguished Speaker Series is open to the public in subscription packages only.

The Long Beach series has been selling well for its second season and the remaining series package of Eubanks and Burns range from $140 to $200.

steady leadership, guidance and support of the city and our entire staff team. Sandra has worked incredibly hard and truly cares very deeply about Seal Beach, our residents, the city, and our entire city staff team,” she said.

Massa-Lavitt is a can-do woman capping off 15 years of civic service that started when she retired in 2008 from her career as a consulting city planner. She served on her Mutual board and then was appointed to the Seal Beach Planning Commission, which she chaired for four years of her seven-year tenure. In 2014, Leisure World voters sent her to the Seal Beach City Council.

A natural born leader, she has served two terms as Seal Beach mayor and in every other capacity as a council member. Over the years, she and her fellow council members have wrestled with city budgets, district boundaries, the 405 Freeway project, vector control, drought, water, waste water and storm water management; organic waste disposal, and the list goes on. Lately, it’s been pandemic recovery and associated economic impacts, loss of revenue, budget cuts, staffing shortfalls, and housing and zoning issues.

It’s a lot, and it demanded a fully scheduled life. Shef, her husband of 63 years, has always supported his wife’s challenging schedule, although it’s not his idea of retirement.

But for Massa-Lavitt, leadership is a core value and that demands time and a lot of it. She loves people and fostering good administration for her community. She likes learning new things and works to find ways to enhance life for the betterment of all.

Married at 17, she and Shef raised three children and, in a different kind of leadership, the couple added foster children to their family, beginning a 20-year campaign to provide a stable family life to the vulnerable among us. From 1964-1984, the Masa-Lavitts serially fostered a total of 11 kids aged 7 to the teen years.

Meanwhile, she earned a bachelor’s degree in political science and a master’s in public administration from California State University, Long Beach.

During completion of her college adventure, Massa-Lavitt started working for the City of Lakewood Planning Department. She ultimately branched out into consulting as project manager in other cities or as interim director to help run a city until a permanent person was hired.

The couple moved to LW in 1991, and Sandra retired in 2008, when she began a new career as a public servant on the Seal Beach Planning Commission.

As a council member, she was appointed to the boards of directors for agencies within Orange County jurisdiction.

“It was like being on the learning curve of so many of the agencies responsible for keeping us safe,” she said. “These appointments are held by the people you elected to represent you.”

During her tenure on the Seal Beach Council, Massa-Lavitt has earned the respect of her colleagues and city staff.

Newly installed Mayor Thomas Moore, who represents the part of Leisure World in District 2, praised Massa-Lavitt for “showing up to almost every council meeting over the past six years and not only that, she would go to almost every GRF meeting to provide updates.

Of special note was the positive collaboration between Moore and Massa-Lavitt: “Sandra and I spent our discretionary funds to redo the ‘Welcome to Seal Beach’ sign outside of Leisure World. Before that, it was an old decrepit wood sign,” Moore said.

The pair also worked on getting the Seal Beach police to start a traffic enforcement program in Leisure World and allocated a dedicated detective, who now helps with fraud prevention and investigations. They also pushed to re-establish free shuttle service to the Seal Beach Pier area, Moore said.

District 4 Councilwoman Schelly Sustarsic thanked Massa-Lavitt for “all your years of service and your expertise as a planner. Thank you for your service on the OC Sanitation District and the West Orange County Water Board. I always looked forward to your very helpful updates at our meetings on how to protect ourselves from mosquitos!”

In turn, Massa-Lavitt thanked City Manager Jill Ingram and her staff: “The city manager is the very best. She has good sense and insight.”

And the feeling is reciprocated. “On behalf of the City of Seal Beach and our executive management team, it has been an incredible honor and privilege to work for and alongside Council Member Sandra Massa-Lavitt for the past eight years,” Ingram said. “Sandra’s expertise, experience and perspective as a well-respected professional urban planning director and consultant for over 30 years, as well as a longtime Seal Beach planning commissioner, has been invaluable in her success and effectiveness.”

Ingram praised Massa-Lavitt’s “in-depth knowledge, respect, and appreciation for how local governments are managed. She has a keen sense of anticipating issues and concerns, and as a result, she continually ensures that city staff has the resources we need so that we can successfully and effectively support the council in their ongoing efforts to provide the best possible service and programs to our community.

“The significant policy work that Sandra has done on the city council and on the regional boards and committees will continue to have a positive impact for many years to come on the quality of life for those that she so passionately served—Leisure World residents and the residents of our entire community.

“Sandra will be incredibly missed, and we wish her so much happiness in this new well-deserved chapter of her life,”

Sandra Massa-Lavitt is known for participating in the LW community. Here is at an American Legion event.

Ingram said.

Massa-Lavitt once said her favorite quote was: “This too shall pass,” and indeed, this chapter in her life is passing. But as Ingram said, her legacy remains—keeping the channel between Seal Beach and Leisure World solid and secure to help residents thrive in their retirement years.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

There were two obituaries of note in the Feb. 23 edition of the LW Weekly. The first, about Nathan Nemnich, contained a loving poem that he had written to his family in 2007 that described beautifully what he would do and say if he had one more day to live. It is great reminder to us all not to put off those final goobyes. We offer our sympathies to his family for their loss, and note that they say “his heart will go on.” True enough!

The other obituary was for 100-year-old Lew Parker. Nancy Goldstein and I had the honor of visiting him on his birthday and presented him with a birthday cake and flowers on behalf of the Peace Club. Lew and his late wife, Alma, were some on the founding members of the Peace Club, and I would also often talk with him at Democratic Club meetings. He was always in good humor, and aware and interested in the world and social justice causes.

In September, he was no longer attending meetings but kept busy with Zoom classes and lectures, which seemed quite impressive as we hear our younger cohorts agonize over modern technology. He was looking forward to his big birthday party that was to be held in Clubhouse 3.

His life values were an inspiration to many, and we extend our sympathies to his family for their loss of a life well-lived.

CERT Training Update

On Feb. 24, Catherine O’Brien, president of CERT, presented information about preparing for, surviving during and recovery from an earthquake. When an earthquake happens, electricity goes out, furniture tumbles and glass breaks. People can prepare by securing furniture and hanging objects. Keep a supply of water, food, flashlights and a battery-operated radio. Put a list of contacts on the fridge.

During an earthquake, people should drop where they are, cover their heads, close their eyes and mouths, and hang on to a sturdy object or get close to a wall or built in cabinet. Do not stand in a doorway.

People who are in bed should turn over and cover their head with a pillow. Keep extra shoes and a flashlight under the bed as there may be broken glass on the floor.

After an earthquake, check for injuries, use a whistle to call for help, and move carefully to a safe place.

For more information, check out Facebook.com, and search “Great Shake Out.”

The next CERT informational meeting will be Friday, March 24, at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 9. The topic will be “Communication During a Disaster.”

CERT President Catherine O’Brien taught a training class on how to prepare for and survive during an earthquake.

Ongoing call for GRF Board candidates

The election cycle for the Golden Rain Foundation (GRF) Board of Directors representing odd numbered Mutuals is underway. The need for candidates for the odd numbered Mutuals is ongoing. If you are considering or know someone who is considering running for the GRF Board, make sure to pick up and fill out an application now. The deadline to submit application is 4:30 p.m., March 31.

Before filling out the application make sure to read the following information and the GRF board candidate requirements in the article below.

Review the following points to ensure eligibility.

1. A Mutual Board of Directors (BOD) may appoint a nominating committee for the purpose of recommending a candidate for election. Any candidates who are recommended by their Mutual BOD or nominating committee will be given candidate instructions by the Stock Transfer Office.
2. A candidate may be a member who is an officer or director of a Mutual Corporation; of any City Council; of the Orange County Board of Supervisors; of the City of Seal Beach or the County of Orange Planning Commission. However, a member of any entity or partnership or an officer or director of any corporation engaged in supplying material or labor to GRF is strongly discouraged from running for the Board. This may cause a potential conflict of interest, causing an unnecessary liability including, but not limited to, breaching fiduciary duties.

3. Candidates must be members of GRF for at least one year. Therefore, renters/lessees of a unit within a Mutual are not eligible to run for the GRF Board of Directors.

Application for Candidacy forms and GRF Directors Handbooks are available in the Stock Transfer Office in the Administration Building. Deadline to submit application is 4:30 p.m. on Friday, March 31.

On behalf of the current GRF Board, thank you to all candidates for the willingness to assist in the continued success of the Leisure World community.

For any questions on the election process please call 562-431- 6586, ext. 346, for Stock Transfer, or ext. 303, for the Board of Directors Office.

The GRF board looks forward to shareholders participation in the election process as shareholders will also be asked to vote on proposed changes to GRF bylaws. Proposed bylaw changes were printed in the Feb. 16 Weekly.

Candidates needed for Mutual Board of Directors elections

One of the best ways to create and sustain a community like Leisure World is to volunteer for the governance of this incredible lifestyle Leisure World shareholders enjoy.

This community was founded on the premise that the Mutual Boards' elected directors set into operation the day-to-day business of each Mutual corporation. Directors address important issues to shareholders and Mutuals. This is not an easy job. It takes time, effort, and a willingness to dedicate time to the community where they live.

Leisure World Seal Beach is full of highly qualified shareholders who can offer expertise and knowledge to their Mutual. New ideas and perspectives are needed. Consider becoming a candidate.

Those who are interested in running or have any questions call the election specialist at 562-431-6586, ext. 329, as election cycles have started. Check the 2023 election schedule for specific Mutual election dates.

LW Korean Community Church celebrates its 13th anniversary

Leisure World Korean Community Church (LWKCC), led by Rev. Dr. Jang Young Yong, will celebrate its 13th anniversary by holding a revival meeting from March 3-5. All are welcome to participate.

The church's mission is to become a church that plants the "will of heaven on earth." Pastor Yong says he is thankful to God for making the church a great revival over the past 13 years.

The revival theme is "My cup is Overflowing." Pastor Lee Yong-nam, the senior pastor of Jangseok Church in Seoul, will speak. The revival will be filled with grace and inspiration for those who are:

- Worshipers who aim to please God.
- A family in a community that appreciates God's great love.
- A disciple of Christ who resembles the character of Jesus.
- A church member who practices God's love through volunteer work.

The revival kicks off on Friday, March 3, at 6 p.m. with the LWKCC choir and Women's Quartet singing "The Lord is My Shepherd." On Saturday, March 4, at 6 a.m., the praise team leader will guide attendees in the "Guidance on the Path of Righteousness." Then at the 6 p.m. service, the Southern California Presbyterian Choir in Seal Beach will sing "Be with Me." On the final day of the revival, Sunday, March 5, at 11:45 a.m. the LWKCC choir and men's choir will sing "Live Forever." After the sermon, there will be a special time of praise.

LWKCC, located next to the St. Andrew's Gate, holds weekly worship services at the sanctuary at 11:50 a.m. on Sundays and 6 a.m. on Tuesdays and Saturdays.

First Christian Church

First Christian Church of Leisure World teaches from God's word, the Holy Bible, most often verse by verse. It is a friendly church that welcomes all visitors to join in worship and explore God's word together. "That we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine," Romans 1:12.

Pastor's Message

Pastor Gary Whitlatch invites LWers to join him this weekend to look at the letter from Paul the apostle to believers in Colossae known as Colossians: "If Ephesians can be labeled the epistle portraying the 'Church of Christ,' then Colossians can surely be the 'Christ of the church.'" Paul describes Christ in Colossians 1:17: "Christ is before all things, and in him all things hold together."

Paul writes this epistle from prison. He had never visited the church at Colossae, but he had heard of their love in the spirit and their stability of faith in Christ. He urges them to keep seeking the things from above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. He reminds them that they "no longer walk as sons of disobedience, having put on the new self who is being renewed to a true knowledge according to the image of the one who created him."

Pastor Gary is excited to go through this beautiful little epistle and impart the encouragement that Paul has for the Colossians and for the entirety of the church today.

Sunday services are held from 9:30-10:45 a.m. The service is traditional with hymnal music led by Janet Ray and Pat Kogok at the piano. This week, Sherry Parmenter will bring special music.

Saturday services are more contemporary with Gregory Black leading worship with guitar accompaniment. The service is held from 9:30-10:45 a.m.

Midweek Studies

Melli Herrera leads the women's Bible study on Mondays from 10:30-11:45 a.m.

Pastor Gary Whitlatch leads the Bible study held on Tuesdays from 9:30-10:30 a.m.

Thursday's Bible study, led by Elder Jack Frost, is held from 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Pastor Bruce Humes leads Friday's prayer and Bible study from 6-7 p.m.

All are welcome to join.

Scripture of the Week

"God, after he spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many ways, in these last days had spoken to us in his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the ages. And he is the radiance of his glory and the exact representation of his nature," Hebrews 1:1-2.

Assembly of God

Service/Gathering Times: Sunday morning at 10:30 in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. The Wednesday morning Bible study is at 10 in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. The Hymn Sing is held on fourth Sunday at 6 p.m. in the Clubhouse 3 Lobby.

Sermon for this Week: The next installment in the series “What is Truth?” will come from Revelation 20:11-15 and 21:8, concerning final judgment and punishment.

There is no threat or fear in this judgment for the child of God, only those who choose to reject Jesus as their savior. Pastor Chuck Franco will preach a sermon titled “Here Comes the Judge” in the Sunday morning service on March 5.

Bible Study: A person’s final words are often weighty with emotion, meaning and significance. “Jesus’s Farewell Message,” by Francis Chan walks the reader through the night before Jesus was crucified, the time he spent with his disciples, and the things he said and did to prepare them for the events ahead. Prepare to experience the intimate moments of the Last Supper with the circle of 12 disciples. Come away with a new understanding of Jesus’s mission and commission.

Contact: More information about the church can be found at www.lwassemblyofgod.com.

Those who would like prayer, personal contact from a pastor or a DVD of the Sunday morning sermon can contact pastors Chuck and Sheryl Franco by calling 562-357-4360 or emailing pastorchuck@lwassemblyofgod.com.

Carolyn van Aalst is also available to add to the prayer chain at 562-343-8424.

Pastor Chuck’s sermons can be accessed on the Faithlife app under “Leisure World Assembly of God,” where people can also give online.

Faith Christian Assembly

Faith Christian Assembly sets aside time to partake in holy Communion on the first Sunday of each month during its 10:30 a.m. service.

Christians take Communion to follow Jesus’ directive when he said “keep doing this in memory of me” (1 Corinthians 11:25). People can read more about the first Communion, which took place at the last supper, in Matthew 26:26-28. The bread is a symbol of Jesus’ broken body, which he endured for the world’s healing and wholeness. “But He was wounded for our transgressions, he was crushed for our wickedness [sin, injustice and wrongdoing]; the punishment [required] for our well-being fell on him, and by his stripes [wounds] we are healed,” Isaiah 53:5.

The wine is a symbolic of Jesus’ shed blood, done for the forgiveness of sins. “In fact under the Law almost everything is cleansed with blood, and without the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness [neither release from sin and its guilt, nor cancellation of the merited punishment],” Hebrews 9:25.

Taking Communion is a reminder of this sacrifice that represents the New Covenant believers have in Jesus, established out of God’s immeasurable love. People don’t have to be a member of the church to join with in Communion, as long as they have accepted Christ as their savior.

People are also welcome to attend the pre-service prayer at 5 p.m. on Sunday, followed by the Sunday evening Celebration Service at 5:30. Spending time at service is a great way to end the weekend, and set a positive tone for a new week ahead.

Those who are looking for a friendly, Bible-based church are welcome to join one of the services this Sunday.

GriefShare meets each week on Thursdays at 5:30 p.m. in the

Pastor Sheri Leming

Garden Room. The men’s and women’s ministries meet on the third Thursday of month at 1:30 p.m. in the main sanctuary and the Garden Room, respectively.

To receive a free newsletter and more information on the church, call 562-598-9010 and leave a message or visit www.FCAchurch.net.

LW Baptist

God is good to all, even to those who are not good and ungrateful. In his grace, God postpones final reckoning. God’s merciful forbearance should stir his intelligent creatures to love their creator, to repent of sin and ask his forgiveness.

LW Baptist Church will spend the service on Sunday, March 5, at 10 a.m. recognizing the undeserved blessings God bestows on all his creatures.

William R. Newell expressed his personal experience of God’s goodness in verse: “Years I spent in vanity and pride/caring not my Lord was crucified/knowing not it was for me he died on Calvary. Mercy there was great and grace was free/Pardon there was multiplied to me/ There my burdened soul found liberty, at Calvary.”

The Men’s Bible Fellowship group will meet on Monday, March 6, at 10 a.m. to study the truth that there is no God like Jehovah. The Energizers group meets on Wednesday, March 8, at 3 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, for a report from missionaries, prayer time and devotional thoughts from the Psalms.

The devotional “Come, Follow Me” says that these passages show that “Word of Jesus’s healing miracles was spreading quickly. Multitudes followed him, hoping for relief from their sicknesses. But when the Savior looked upon the multitudes, he saw more than their physical ailments. He saw ‘sheep having no shepherd.’” face in the near future. Only a few hundred years ago the world seemed so vast that little thought was given to the impact of human activities on the environment.

On May 28, 1892, John Muir founded the Sierra Club. In 1962, Rachel Carson wrote "Silent Spring," exposing the dangers of pesticides on the environment. Just 53 years ago "Earth Day" was first celebrated on April 22 and is now a holiday around the world.

Humanists tend to be for measures that will protect the environment because they are concerned about what kind of planet they will leave for future generations.

Longtime golf starters for men’s and women’s golf clubs will retire; GRF seeks replacements

by Dave LaCascia
LW Contributor

Carl Richard Wiggins, a longtime LW resident and golf course starter, has hung up his spikes and retired.

Carl was born and raised in Kansas City, Kansas. He joined the Navy and served for four years on a destroyer after WWII, part of the time off the coast of Korea during that war. After leaving the service in 1951, he toured California with a shipmate and subsequently met and married his wife, Joy Clark. He worked for over 35 years locally as a telephone wireman for General Telephone, which became GTE in the mid-80s.

Carl moved into LW with his wife upon his retirement from GTE in 1987. His wife was active in LW for years and ran a Walk-A-Thon here for five years.

He was married to her for over 70 years. He has had three sons—two of whom are deceased—and six grandchildren. His remaining son lives in South Carolina.

In 2004, he was hired by GRF as a pool attendant. Four years later he was asked to be golf starter, and he agreed. This is a position he held until his retirement in February. He has been a member of the LW Men’s Golf Club and played in tournaments for over 30 years. He served as vice president and president of the club for two years each. Although he no longer plays golf, he is still passionate about the game.

Every Tuesday, for even he doesn’t remember how long, he has announced the golfers of the LW Women’s Golf Club onto the tee for their tournaments. On occasion, he would also perform the same service for the Men’s and the Guys and Gals tournaments.

He always managed to get the difficult to pronounce names correct. Over the years he got to know most golfers by name and was always a friendly and welcome face in the starters shack. In his retirement, he plans to enjoy life, listen to country and western music, and watch the “young’uns” play golf on TV. We’ll miss you Carl.

Anne Walshe is a 13-year LW resident, a nine-year GRF employee and a seven-year fixture in the Golf Starters shack. She has decided to retire and move away from LW to remain close to her only sibling, a sister who recently moved to an assisted living facility in Washington.

Anne was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey, and lived in New York City for 35 years. During that time she received an MBA in health care administration. Afterwards, she worked in major NYC medical centers and clinics.

She met her partner Fran Silverstein in 1990 and moved to Arizona in 2002. Together they lived in Arizona until Fran passed peacefully at their home in 2006.

Anne moved into Leisure World in 2010 to be closer to her sister. Her first week in LW, she played golf and met someone who encouraged her to join the Women’s Golf Club.

She qualified easily and has been playing with the club every week since then. Soon after, she was assisting in totaling and checking the weekly tournament scoring for accuracy. With this role she became a Women’s Club board member. She has continued in that role until January.

She began working as a golf starter in 2014, was then asked to be the attendant in the gym in 2015, and then reverted back to the starter’s role in 2017. She’s been in that role ever since, welcoming and signing in golfers to the Turtle Lake Golf Course.

In addition to her weekly Women’s Club tournaments, Anne has played regularly in the monthly Guys and Gals tournaments, where her first partner was Carl Wiggins. Anne and Carl played together for many years and once made a headline in the LW News: “Wiggins and Walshe win first place with a net 41.”

Anne wanted to express to all LW golfers that as a golf starter, she and the others are all about assisting golfers. The starters endured several golf course renovations and worked outside under a tent to keep the golf course open while the golf shack and the tee boxes were being renovated.

After the pandemic ended, the starters helped golfers make tee times online to play the game we all love. Once it was determined that online tee times were no longer necessary she gladly returned to the current first-come, first-served system.

Thanks for a job well done, Anne. Best wishes and safe travels. We appreciate your efforts over the years.

The Dancers & Mixers Club will host a St. Patrick’s dance from 7-9 p.m. on Tuesday, March 7, in Clubhouse 4. Dancers are encouraged to wear their finest greenery and celebrate the St. Patrick’s holiday early. Linda Herman will be playing from her extensive collection of Irish music.

People are welcome to bring snacks and beverages. All are invited to come out for a fun evening of dancing to lively music. For more information, call 562-431-1257.

Theater Club members in various costumes are getting ready for “The Return to Torrenzio.”

LIVE PERFORMANCE

Theater Club will perform ‘Return to Torrenzio’ in March

The Theater Club will hold its first show of the new year on Saturday, March 4, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 2. Doors open at 6 p.m.

The premise of the show is as follows: the Count of Torrenzio died peacefully one year ago, or so it was thought. An anonymous tip is received and the world famous Detective Columbo and his sidekick Miss Smart have been brought in to investigate the death.

Every person who was at the original reading of the Count’s will has been summoned to “Return to Torrenzio.”

The play welcomes back the former staff of the manor and some relatives. Most of the guests at the manor received some sort of inheritance. The evening will share how much of the inheritance was used by each person. Detective Columbo will also use this time to ask some questions and discover who the murderer was.

A St. Patrick’s Day display (top) and an Easter display (bottom) at the Friends of the Library Bookstore.

Firefighters admire bookstore wares

by Patricia Kruger
Friends of the Library

An unfortunate incident, a fall, triggered a 911 call on Feb. 17. While the paramedics were doing their assessments, a few firemen walked into the bookstore-boutique and, as often happens, found something they didn’t know they needed, coffee mugs, and happily bought several for the fire station.

The fallen volunteer did not have to go to the hospital and happily went home under the watchful eye of her husband.

Meanwhile, in the boutique, the volunteers have been busy creating attractive displays of items for the St. Patrick’s day and Easter holidays.

Profits from the store go to the LW Library for the benefit of LW Library patrons. The Friends donate funds to college scholarships to train future librarians and technicians. The bookstore has no paid employees and is totally operated with volunteer workers and managed with a volunteer board.

The Friends of the Library is a perfect place to find gifts, gift bags and cards. Donations of books, puzzles and knickknacks enrich the LW community in many ways.

Novice cribbage players Midge Bash (l-r) of Mutual 14, Donna Gorman of Mutual 8, Suzanne Tester of Mutual 14 (observer), Bea Lisson of Mutual 4 and Jack O’Brien of Mutual 2 play at a decidedly slower pace, but, as with all in the club, they enjoy the social interaction and how the game itself stimulates bits of the brain to fire up its neurons.

It had been over a year since Howard Bleakley of Mutual 14 was last at the Cribbage Club’s tables at the regular meeting of the group in Clubhouse 1. Club members were delighted to welcome him back. Howard is a master player.

Cribbage Club

The Cribbage Club meets on Tuesdays from noon to 3:30 p.m. in Clubhouse 1. Dues are $5 per year and weekly each member contributes $1 toward the cost of refreshments.

Conversation is lively. Players move up and down among tables, splitting partners between each game, thus ensuring the opportunity to meet and play with a variety of folks.

Skilled players are patient and assist in the point counting, scoring and dealing. About 70 folks are active participants in the club.

Newcomers are welcome.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL

Doo Wop show is March 18 in CH 2

The club’s next show and dance will be at Clubhouse 2 on Saturday, March 18. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. The show start at 7. LW residents and their guests are invited to enjoy the entertainment. People should bring their own snacks and drinks. Donations to the club will be graciously accepted at the door.

The club has successfully recruited one new vocalist and three new dancers. Male vocalists are still needed. If a person would like to become a member of the club and don’t sing or dance, they can volunteer for other services such as club photographer, videographer, music researcher, stage hand, or house and stage decorating. People can come to any Tuesday night rehearsal at 7 p.m. to sign up, or join the club Facebook Group Fan page, leave a comment and one of the club officers will respond.

HOLIDAY DINNER

St. Paddy’s Dinner Dance on March 17

The GRF’s third annual St. Patrick’s Day Dinner Dance will fill Clubhouse 4 on Friday, March 17, with the aroma of corned beef and cabbage, baby carrots and roasted red potatoes, a Sonoma salad dressed with a raspberry vinaigrette, and brownies catered by Country Gardens. People will hear strains of Irish music, provided by an authentic Celtic band.

This year, the GRF is bringing residents Sportive Tricks, a Celtic band with a kick.

From time-honored sing-alongs to sea shanties to covers with a twist to original songs, the seven members of Tricks each bring their own voices, instrumental talents, experience and energy for a toe-tapping good time.

Tickets are available now at the Recreation Office, located in Building 5. Dinner and dancing, all included for $35 or $250 for a table of eight.

Doors open at 5:30 p.m. The band performs from 6-8 p.m. People can also buy tickets online using their debit or credit card at www.lwsb.com.

It’s sure to be a blast, so practice the jig, dig some green duds out of the closet, and call all your fellow leprechauns.

The U.S. Naval Academy Glee Club

FREE CONCERT

U.S. Naval Academy Glee Club returns to Long Beach

About 10 years ago, many Leisure World residents traveled to Covenant Presbyterian Church in Long Beach to hear a concert by the incomparable U.S. Naval Academy Glee Club. The tremendously responsive crowd that evening gave them multiple standing ovations. Those who missed that opportunity to hear them in the wonderful acoustics of Covenant Church now have another opportunity.

On Friday, March 17, at 7 p.m., the Naval Academy Glee Club from Annapolis, Maryland, will present a free concert in the Sanctuary at Covenant Presbyterian Church, 607 E. 3rd St. (at the corner of Atlantic Avenue), Long Beach.

The 75 singers represent Midshipmen from all three vocal performing organizations at the Academy. These very disciplined singers participate in the Academy Glee Club as an extra-curricular activity, over and above their very heavy academic load. Audiences are thrilled with their musical performances, under the direction of Dr. Aaron Smith, chairman of the United States Naval Academy Musical Activities.

Parking in the church lots is very limited. Car-pooling and early arrival are recommended. For additional information, contact Peter Bates in Covenant’s music department at 562-437-0958, ext. 130.

Vinyl Rock

LIVE MUSIC

Velvetones, Vinyl Rock and Abilene return to LW in March

The Velvetones Ballroom Dance Orchestra is Leisure World’s own professional big band, playing Big Band Swing and jazz standards—music for dreaming and dancing. They are back in action on Sunday, March 5, from 6-9 p.m. in Clubhouse 4 and again on March 19. The Velvetones play regularly at LW Clubhouse 4 on the first and third Sunday evenings.

Vinyl Rock will play on Saturday, March 11, at 7 p.m. in Clubhouse 4. The Orange County based band consists of nine members who passionately perform classic rock, Motown, and pop tunes primarily from the ‘60s, ‘70s and ‘80s. The band keeps the audience engaged, inviting them to participate in sing-alongs and by mingling with them on the dance floor. They’ll have everyone smiling, singing, swinging and swaying to the songs they grew up listening to and easily recognize. Vinyl Rock is sponsored by Cabaret Entertainers. The doors open at 6:30.

On Saturday, March 25, Abilene returns to Clubhouse 2 at 7 p.m. Abilene is Seal Beach Leisure World’s No. 1 country rock band going strong for 20 years. Terry Otte leads Abilene and shares singing duties with Tina Schaffer. Guitarist Rod Anderson, bassist Doug Decker and drummer Jim Greer round out the group. Doors open at 6:30 and the music goes until 9.

People attending these concerts must adhere to the following rules and guidelines:

- No table saving. People may bring their own snacks.
- Attendees must be out of the clubhouse no later than 10 p.m. to permit adequate time for the custodian to tear down the setup and arrange the setup for the following day (except New Year’s Eve).
- No announcements are permitted from the stage, except by the bands.
- Clubhouse lighting and audio-visual equipment can only be adjusted by the custodian according to the instructions they have been given.

Be sure to sign in, either as a resident or guest, in the proper spot. This is the only way GRF can judge the popularity of LW-ers’ favorite bands.

Dancers practice 'Green Rose Hula' as anniversary approaches

Hui O Hula, the LW Hawaiian dance club, meets for hula dance lessons twice a week. All are welcome. On Tuesday, dancers meet in Clubhouse 6 with a lesson on basic hula from 12:30 p.m., then regular class begins from 1 p.m. On Thursdays, the club holds class outdoors in Veterans Plaza at 1 p.m., or inside Clubhouse 3 during bad weather. Call 562-431-2242 for class information or to book a Hawaiian style performance. In class, the current hula subject is "Green Rose Hula." The club will celebrate its 19th anniversary on St. Patrick's Day, March 17, with an annual tradition, dancing the "Green Rose Hula." The song was composed by popular Hawaiian musician John Almeida. His lyrics describes his love interest to the beauty and fragrance of the green rose—which are rare but do exist. Dancers are learning the motions to "the rose's fragrance reaches me here" by waving their hands by the both sides of the nose. All are welcome to audit the classes or take lessons.

Men's Golf Tournament

The Leisure World Men's Golf Club tournament was played on Feb. 22. It was a sunny but very cool and gusty for the entire round.

Two groups of three flights of variously skilled golfers played for best net scores (gross score minus handicap), plus two circle holes (shots within a 5-foot radius are rewarded) and two closest to the pin challenges. The Turtle Lake Golf Course is a 1,658-yard, 18 hole, par 54 course, that challenges all who play.

Note on golf etiquette: Do not walk or step in a player's "putting" or "sight line." Walk around a ball or marker to reach your own. Park golf carts and clubs toward the next tee, not in front of the green being played. Do not ever place a golf bag or cart on a tee box or green.

A total of 55 golfers braved the blustery weather and teed off for 18 holes. A special "low gross" challenge was offered again this week, and 18 golfers accepted. Kyoo Choi took first place with an excellent gross score of 1 over 55; second place was a three-way tie between Bob Johnston, Mike Mayfield and Bill Lyons with terrific gross scores of 2 over 56.

Considering the weather conditions, there were still 36 birdies and 10 circle hole winners.

Additionally, 16 of 55 golfers were net at or under par. Closest to the pin on the seventh hole was Jon Russell, and on the 16th hole was Pat Paternoster.

Winners: (All scores below are net, which is gross score minus handicap)

"A" flight encompasses golfers with handicaps of 0-6:

First place: Bob Johnston, a well-played 3 under 51; second: tie between Kyoo Choi and Seung Lee, a terrific 1 under 53; third: tie between Young Lee and Trai Nguyen, a hard-earned even par 54; fourth: between Bill Long and Mike Mayfield, at a nice 1 over 55.

"B" flight has handicaps of 7-10:

First place: Mark Rice, a great 6 under 48; second: Rolando

Ramirez, a super 3 under 51; third: tie between Ryan Hong and Andrew Kim, a well-played 1 under 53; fourth: tie between Jae H. Lee, Won Song and, John Haley, at 2 over 56.

"C" flight has handicaps of 11-18:

First place: Paul Shellenberger, a very good 6 under 48; second: Manny Miranda, at 5 under 49; third: tie between Byron Schweitzer and Jun Um, a sweet 4 under 50; fourth: tie between James Choi and Brian Tivnan, at 2 under 52; fifth: Bill Zurn, at even par 54; sixth: Richard Yakomi, at 2 over 56.

The next men's tournament will be on March 15 and then every second and fourth Wednesday of the following months.

People who planned to play in any tournament and cannot should contact Alan Sewell at 541-324-8558 or Dave LaCascia at 801-674-5975 as soon as possible. Arrive 10-15 minutes prior to scheduled tee times and be ready to play.

—Dave LaCascia

Members and prospective members are encouraged to attend and participate in the festivities.

This will be a special meeting with guest speaker Marv Jones who will review the rules of the course.

There will also be a celebration honoring retiring golf starters Anne Walshe and Carl Wiggins for their years of working on the course.

Anyone interested in joining the Women's Golf Club can obtain an application from the golf course starter or contact Club Treasurer Margie Thompson at 562-493-0484 for more information.

The Basic Rules of Sudoku:
• There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
• When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
• Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
• Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
