60th Annual Meeting drew a full house June 13

The 60th GRF Annual Meeting of Members drew a full house June 13 as people congregated to bid farewell to four members of the 2022-23 GRF Board of Directors, install the new board and hear year-end committee reports.

Once the annual meeting was adjourned, directors voted for their new slate of executive officers via secret ballot. Carole Damoci of Mutual 12 and Marsha Gerber of Mutual 4 were nominated for president, with Gerber winning the majority and a second term as president.

William Thompson of Mutual 5 and Janet Isom of Mutual 16 were nominated for vice president. Two secret ballot votes ended in a tie, upon which each candidate gave an impromptu speech ahead of a third vote.

Thompson won the vote. This is his second term as vice president as well.

Carol Levine of Mutual 10 was nominated for corporate secretary and was unopposed and Camille Thompson of Mutual 8 was nominated for treasurer, replacing outgoing director Phil Friedman of Mutual 15. This is also Levine's second term as corporate secretary.

Scam attempts on the rise in Seal Beach; police advise caution

The Seal Beach Police Department has identified a significant uptick in financial "scam" and "fraud" crimes, primarily targeted at the city's senior citizen population. The best way to stop these types of scams is to build awareness and provide preventative suggestions to thwart these crimes before they occur.

Scammers create many scenarios to facilitate their crimes, including threats of violence to pressure their victims into feeling hopeless, intimidated, and having no recourse but to send money. Phone calls, text messages, emails and computer pop-up ads via the internet and social media are the most common types of mediums used by perpetrators. These methods are preferred due to the fact victims can be contacted worldwide through these devices. The following is a compilation of the most common types of mechanisms used by fraudsters; however, this list is not exhaustive.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) estimates there are nearly 2.4 billion robocalls made each month. Robocalls often use spoofed area codes to appear like they are calling from the victim's local area or with the caller ID of a government agency. Typically, an automated message will then inform the

ORANGE COUNTY VECTOR DISTRICT

How to prepare for mosquito season

This month marks the launch of the Orange County Mosquito and Vector Control District's "Tip, Toss, Take Action" campaign, a comprehensive effort aimed at reducing the spread of mosquito breeding and mosquito-borne illnesses. The District will launch the campaign during National Mosquito Control Awareness Week, which is celebrated June 18-24 throughout the country, to raise awareness about what residents can do to protect themselves from the world's deadliest insect: the mosquito.

The record amount of rain the county has experienced this winter created large amounts of stagnant water. While warmer weather is drying up much of this standing water, invasive Aedes mosquitoes will lay their eggs in water sources as small as a bottle cap. Aedes' eggs can survive for years even if they dry up—and will hatch when they come in contact with water again—so it's important to dump and drain all standing water.

The launch of this campaign is timely, as summer is quickly approaching, and mosquito populations are expected to surge. By taking action now, people can help prevent mosquito breeding, take charge of their yards, and protect their communities.

To prevent mosquito breed-

- ing, residents should:
- Tip out any standing water at least once a week.
 - Toss out any unused containers.
 - Clean and scrub bird baths and pet water bowls weekly.
 - Do not transport or share plant clippings rooted in water.
 - Drill holes or puncture containers to eliminate standing water.
- To prevent mosquito bites, people should:
- Apply mosquito repellents to exposed skin before going outdoors; reapply as recommended.
 - Wear repellent containing DEET®, Picaridin, IR3535, or oil of lemon eucalyptus.
 - Close all unscreened doors and windows to prevent mosquitoes from entering a home; repair broken or damaged screens.
 - Wear long-sleeved shirts and long pants and opt for lighter-colored clothing.
- Residents are encouraged to sign up for District email notifications.
- For more information, visit www.ocvector.org.

Korean War and the Hungnam Evacuation remembered

by Grace Kim
LW contributor

On June 25, 1950, the Communist North Korean Army invaded and overtook Seoul, the capitol of South Korea in just three days. The army advanced forward so rapidly that it occupied almost all of South Korea in 60 days or so.

In response to the deteriorating situation in South Korea, Gen. MacArthur, the supreme commander of UN Forces and a brilliant military tactician, directed a brilliant surprise attack on the Inchon Harbor on Sept. 28, 1950. The highly successful maneuver split the North Korean Army in half. Gen. MacArthur is still loved by Korean people as their hero.

After the Inchon landing, UN Forces advanced north up to Yalu River bordering China. However, the fighting took a sharp turn due to a swift counter attack by more than 300,000 Chinese communist soldiers who called themselves the Chinese Volunteer Army.

U.S. Marines were encircled and trapped in Chosin Reservoir mountains by the Chinese Army, and many died in the attack. It was freezing cold, and many wounded soldiers froze to death.

There were many U.S. soldiers who had never seen snow or experienced such bitter cold winter in their lives.

In response to the unexpected Chinese involvement, Gen. MacArthur ordered about 200 U.S. Navy ships and Merchant marine cargo ships assemble at Hungnam area harbor in order to evacuate 100,000 UN Forces, 18,000 tanks and vehicles and 350,000 tons of military supplies.

Additionally there were another 100,000 North Korean refugees waiting at harbor with hopes of getting aboard one of those ships to flee from the communist North Korea in search of freedom. These people enthusiastically welcomed and supported UN Forces while they were advancing north.

UN supporters were afraid of being killed or put in prison if they were to remain in North Korea.

Lt. Gen. Edward Almond was responsible for the huge evacuation of all military personnel, weapons and supplies but did not consider at all the possibility of having to accommodate 100,000 North Korean refugees aboard ships.

Initially, he refused to take in these refugees. Some commanding officers were against picking up the refugees, claiming that “they are enemy aliens, and some of these people might sabotage or plot destructive acts in the ship.”

However, South Korean President Syngman Rhee, some South Korean generals, and particularly Dr. Bong Hak Hyun, MD, a personal friend and advisor to Gen. Almond, urged him to allow the refugees aboard the ship to save them from the North Koreans.

Finally at the last moment, Gen. Almond agreed to take the refugees to South Korea. Thus, they got on aboard and were situated between weapons and tanks, wherever space was available. So the refugees were saved and transported safely to Koje Island.

Just prior to their departure, U.S. Navy ships destroyed weapons and equipment left in the harbor, and Navy cruisers fired heavy 8-inch guns at the approaching Chinese army.

Frank Dayak who lives in Long Beach was the ship’s electrician, one of a 55-man crew of the Rochester, one of the two cruisers at that time. After he was discharged from the Navy, he became teacher in Long Beach Unified School District, and now he is retired.

During this evacuation, my husband’s responsibility was to work with the captain of one of the merchant marine cargo ships, broadcasting the captain’s announcements in the Korean language.

My husband, Luke, used a loudspeaker system so he could be heard throughout the ship, whenever the captain needed to communicate instructions, warnings and any other items to the Korean soldiers and Korean refugees.

Luke was a 20-year-old pre-med student at Seoul National University Medical School.

Because he had good command of English language, he was recruited by the South Korean Army as an interpreter. His task was to translate into English communication between the South Korean Army and UN Forces fighting in North Korea.

Therefore, he participated in Hungnam Evacuation, which was the largest marine evacuation in the military history.

When Luke went aboard the merchant marine cargo ship, he found North Korean refugees jam-packed on the deck like sardines in a can.

They had to hold on to each other because of strong wind. Babies were born during the journey, and fortunately, there were Korean midwives who safely delivered them.

Because of this humanitarian historical evacuation, the refugees were able to settle in South Korea and enjoy new freedom.

The Korean War is not a forgotten war.

We will never forget all young soldiers’ sacrifices and their love of liberty and justice and democracy in Korea.

Letters to the Editor

Editor:

Am I alone in my grief over the loss of our wonderful pharmacy? When I look at its empty shell, I remember what a comforting presence it was. The clerks, so patient and cheerful, were always willing to come out from behind the counter to help customers find what they needed and to make useful suggestions. Many staff members remembered my name. It was a place with an ambiance of community where I often ran into friends.

It was also a place to buy a candy bar after a distressing doctor visit.

Why weren’t we, the Leisure World population, consulted before our only store was snatched away?

None of the rumors I’ve heard would be good reasons for us to lose such an important part of our community. Behind all of these possibilities is the central illness of our time—the worship of wealth, the unquestioning allegiance to the belief that profit must always be maximized.

Every week I look for letters expressing outrage at the removal of one of the best institutions in Leisure World. There have been none. In talking with people, I hear my distress echoed, so I wonder, where is the outrage?

FREE Leisure World Gold Show

“Turn Your Broken or Unused Gold Jewelry, Gold & Silver Coins and Sterling Silver Into Instant Cash”

One Day Only. This Sunday, 10am to 4pm.

The Leisure World Gold Show is happening this Saturday in Seal Beach. You can get paid cash instantly for your unused/unwanted gold jewelry (even if damaged), gold coins, silver coins, and dental gold — in fact, anything containing gold.

Real Gold?

What if you don't know if an item contains real gold? Don't worry, bring it anyway and gold buyer specialist Greg Schilling, owner of Schilling Gold Exchange will test and inspect your item to determine amount of gold content, purity of gold (10K, 14K, 18K, 24K), and weight.

Mr. Schilling will provide you information about your item and discuss purchasing it for cash should you wish to sell it.

Often times people with gold items are amazed at how much something is worth.

Hold or Sell — It's Up To You

There is never any pressure for you to sell your item.

Mr. Schilling states, “I have a lot of folks who just want to know more about their item, which is fine. Often times there is sentimental value attached, in which case I always recommend to my customers they hold on to it. I build my business through repeat customers, and I know that if I treat my customers right, they will refer their family and friends. I want everyone to walk away feeling good about attending this event.”

Comments From Previous Gold Show Attendees

“After shopping around, I found Schilling Gold Exchange gave me the best price for my gold. I highly recommend Schilling Gold Exchange to other Seniors.” — J.R.

“I am more than pleased with Greg Schilling of Schilling Gold Exchange. He was able to give me top dollar for my gold jewelry and coins. After my wife passed, I had some gold coins that I wanted to cash-in. Not only did Greg give me a fair price, but I also got more than I was expecting as one of the coins had extra numismatic value that I was unaware of. I now recommend to all my family friends they use Schilling Gold Exchange instead of jewelry stores.” — G.P.

“Try it. You'll like it. Very friendly and honest.” — M.B.

Mr. Schilling (on right), of Schilling Gold Exchange and member of the World Gold Council, and American Numismatic Association, evaluates jewelry for show goers. Mr. Schilling will be at the event and available to provide information about gold jewelry, gold and silver coins, sterling silverware sets, and diamonds.

SENIORS FOR PEACE

Athens to discuss composting

Got melon rinds?

The next Seniors For Peace Club meeting will be on Thursday, July 6, at 2 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2 or 9 (TBA).

The club has arranged for representatives from Athens Services, LW's waste disposal provider, to explain and clarify the mandatory organic waste recycling program to all interested residents now that the program has been in effect here in LW for some time now. There will be ample opportunity for residents to ask questions regarding the program.

The organic recycling program was mandated by the State of California last year to stop huge amounts of food scraps and other organic waste from being dumped into landfills, which releases massive amounts of methane into the

The club encourages all Leisure Worlders to attend this important meeting. Those interested in attending should call Pat Kruger at 562-357-4040 so that the club can gauge the size of the audience and make a decision on which room to reserve.

Humanist Association

The Leisure World Humanist Association will meet Sunday July 2, in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, at 10:20 a.m.

The guest speaker will be author and religious scholar Bill Zuersher. The title of his talk will be "Consciousness: Brains, Minds and Souls."

How is consciousness possible? Is consciousness the preserve of human beings only, or do animals, plants and even electrons participate? Can a rational worldview accommodate someone's everyday concepts of the self, or does a person have a God-given soul to account for their subjective experience, free will and rationality?

Bill Zuersher

Zuersher is an activist for the separation of church and state and the author of "Seeing through Christianity: a Critique of Beliefs and Evidence." His interest in religion derives from a concern about the role of faith-based beliefs in American politics. Rather than engage in public policy debate about multiple disparate issues, Zuersher has focused on the root cause of all of them.

The Leisure World Humanist Association attempts to provide a forum for topics of interest and relevance for the community.

How to turn on closed captions

Loud televisions make up the majority of noise complaints in Leisure World each month.

As people age and their hearing begins to change or diminish, watching TV and movies can become more difficult without turning the volume to its loudest setting, which then disturbs neighbors.

For deaf individuals or people who are hard of hearing, satellite television, streaming services and more offer closed captions and subtitles to make watching television easier.

XFINITY: First, turn on the program you want to watch, then press the Down arrow or OK button on the remote. Next, press the Left arrow to move to the "Closed Captioning CC" option and press OK with the remote. Choose to turn captions On, then you can customize the font size, color and formatting of your subtitles in the "Closed Captioning Options" menu.

Spectrum: Press the Menu button on the remote control, then scroll to "Settings & Support" and press OK/Select. Next, click on the Accessibility tab. Choose between Closed Captioning or Descriptive Video Service to turn captions on.

DirecTV: Press the Info button on the remote control, then press the Right Arrow button to get to Closed Captioning (CC). Select CC, and captions will turn on. You can personalize caption options with the following steps: Press the Menu button, click on the Settings option, then press the Right Arrow button to get to the Accessibility option and press Select. Navigate using the Up and Down arrow buttons to the make the changes you need.

Join the Amateur Radio Operators

When all else fails, Amateur Radio Operators use their training, skills and equipment to provide communications during emergencies and disasters. An amateur radio station can be set up almost anywhere in minutes. People will be able to watch demonstrations on CW (morse code), see how operators talk to other Hams all over the world using Echolink, and send digital email via Winlink, or by using a cell phone and Zello. The group will have Chameleon Loops and Buddy Antennas on display too.

Many service agencies will be represented including The American Red Cross, CERT, the Los Angeles County Disaster Communication Service, RACES and ARES.

ARTS & LEISURE

Orchid Society

The South Coast Orchid Society will present a program by Arnold Gum on how to get better results from orchid photography from cell phone cameras versus “standard” cameras. The meeting will be Monday, June 26, from 7-9 p.m. at the Whaley Park Community Center, 5620 E. Atherton St., Long Beach.

Arnold has been growing orchids for decades, in spite of his career and multiple moves. He is now an accredited orchid judge, based in San Diego, and one of the official photographers in the SoCal area for orchid awards. In fact, he has been able to take the official portraits of his own awarded plants since 2011.

He photographs everything: orchids, flowers, butterflies, wildlife, and anything that catches his eye.

Head to head, the cell phone camera often produces better results than “standard” cameras, especially if people can understand how the two kinds of cameras “see” the world.

These skills can be used for all types of pictures. The meeting is free and open to the public.

For more information, email southcoastorchidsociety@gmail.com.

Themed genealogy workshops in June

The Leisure World Genealogy Workshop hosts "Theme Thursday" classes each week at 1:30 in the Genealogy Library located at the east end of Clubhouse 3. Look for the sign above the door. These classes are open for anyone to attend. Here is the schedule for June:

- June 22: Quakers
- June 29: Immigration (This is a follow-up of the presentation by the speaker on June 28.)

Speaker will present 'Immigration: Ports of Entry'

The club's meetings are held the fourth Wednesday of each month. Christine Cohen will speak on immigration on June 28. About 47 million people immigrated to the U.S. between 1607 and 1990, and about 70% entered through the Port of New York.

When researching one's genealogy, a person should consider a broader search in all ports, such as Boston, New Orleans, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Providence, as well as entry through Canada and Mexico. The club will review the websites and resources to locate clues to these entry ports such as state censuses, voter registrations, WWI draft registrations and passport applications.

Cohen is a longtime member of the Whittier Area Genealogical Society (WAGS), and is currently the program director. In addition to WAGS, she is also a member of the El Redondo Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the

Christine Cohen

Society of Daughters of Holland Dames and the Association of Professional Genealogists.

Cohen's interest in genealogy began in 1977 with the airing of the TV mini-series "Roots" and was piqued when she found a typed pedigree chart of her Dutch heritage from the New Netherlands in the 1660s. She is a native Californian, a graduate of UCLA in political science and worked for Vitol Aviation Company since 1993.

Friends of the Library Bookstore makes record sales

With joy on the faces of both patrons and volunteers, the Bookstore and Boutique reopened on June 7 with record-setting sales in the first week.

The group is grateful for the quick action taken by the volunteers and Board in closing the facility for assessment and repairs, to assure that the store was a safe place to work, browse and shop. The club appreciates the patience of its patrons, as well as the prompt and thorough corrective work performed under the auspices of GRE.

Volunteers have all been working diligently to check in books and related materials to get the bookstore's shelves stocked with all the new donations.

Marta Brounley, Friends of the Library Board vice president, is in charge of the boutique. She has worked after-hours and on weekends with her committee members to organize the boutique items to make certain that donations are displayed and presented in an attractive manner.

All of the boutique committee members also all work a regular volunteer schedule, as does Brounley. She works on Thursday afternoons. People are invited to wish her a happy birthday if they see her. Her energy, caring and talents are much appreciated by the Friends of the Library.

Aloha Club celebrates with group ukulele performance

by Leah Perrotti
LW contributor

The newly formed Leisure World Aloha Club celebrated the end of the semester with a culmination ceremony on June 14. Over 70 friends and family members attended the celebration.

Twenty-eight "Beginning and Beyond Beginning" students performed several songs they learned to play during the spring semester.

The beginning students received their ukulele class completion certificates.

The Aloha Club "ohana" (Hawaiian word for family) learns about Hawaiian music, food, language, dance, culture and promotes acts of kindness for residents and for others beyond LW's walls.

The Aloha Club embodies the "Aloha Spirit." Aloha is a word that means much more than just a single salutation—Aloha is a way of life.

It is the coordination of mind and heart within each person. It means to hear what is not said, to see what cannot be seen and to know the unknowable.

Every word that is uttered and very single action, be it large or small, must first come from a compassionate heart and be supported by a thoughtful mind. The Aloha Club brings love into the hearts of others with the hope to make the LW community and world a better place.

The Aloha Club welcomes new members. A new beginning ukulele class will begin in August. A waitlist is forming now with a maximum of 25 students in the class.

At the June 8 meeting of the Photo Arts Club, a review was made of the many photos taken of buildings by the members. Some felt the assignment had encouraged them to look differently at the buildings around them. During the review of the photos, the entire group made comments.

Members noticed how the presence of features like arches, vegetation, people and other features enhanced the resulting photograph. Light seems to be the key factor in creating an interesting image. Ben Benjamins was impressed with the photos taken, with many members showing their creative approaches to their work.

The Photo Arts Club will meet Thursday, July 13, at 1:30 p.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 9.

The assignment is to photograph a headshot of a person in black and white with light shining on a prominent part of the face. The prominent part could be a partial part i.e., one of the sides, or a full frontal view. The key is to make it a high contrast image.

Use the editing features built into cameras, computer, or cell phones to increase the contrast between the light side of the face and the dark side. The photo must be very sharp. Members will send only three photos to benbenjamins@hotmail.com to be shown at the next meeting.

Hooks and labels will be available for members to use to hang framed photos in the hall of Clubhouse 3.

Individuals with technical or other questions will be paired with someone who can help them for individual discussion after the meeting. Everyone is welcome. For information, call Regine Schumacher at 562-430-7978.

New food trucks coming to LW monthly

Kathy Thayer
Recreation Manager

Several food trucks have just been added to a monthly rotation at the Clubhouse 6 parking lot. Of all of the requests on the New Amenities Questionnaire, more food options were No. 1. If the community supports these businesses, we can count on them coming back. If not, they will require that we guarantee a certain level of sales to return. The Recreation Department is open to more suggestions.

Recreation will email the weekly lineup via LW Live. The LW Weekly will also publish the Grab 'N' Go Menu for your convenience. Old favorites like Taco Tuesday and Domino's Pizza will continue to come weekly. Other vendors will typically come to LW monthly.

New additions to the schedule include Lucille's Smokehouse BBQ, Burning Buns, Berlin Food Truck, Italian Burger and Grill, The Empanada Maker, and Kabobaholic. Cousins Maine Lobster will continue their semi-monthly visits. Recreation have also just booked a popular truck specializing in Asian fare: Mad Dumplings. Watch for LW Live notices for up-to-the-minute schedules and menus.

Church reflects on 13 years

On June 4, Leisure World Korean Community Church (LWKCC), led by Senior Pastor Jang-Young Yong, celebrated its 13th anniversary.

During the ceremony, members reviewed the church's history of the past 13 years through a video that people can view on YouTube on LWKCC's channel. There was a congratulatory message from Pastor Johan Dodge of LW Community Church.

Under the direction of Music Pastor Gyu-sam Kim, the choir sang Handel's "Coronation Hymn" together with the orchestra members. Instructor Chun-Man Hong delivered a message of answer to prayer, and elder Jun Yu, who is also a member of the volunteer choir, said, "I sang God's grace." There

- There is only one valid solution to each Sudoku puzzle. The only way the puzzle can be considered solved correctly is when all 81 boxes contain numbers and the other Sudoku rules have been followed.
- When you start a game of Sudoku, some blocks will be pre-filled for you. You cannot change these numbers in the course of the game.
- Each column must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same column of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each row must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same row of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.
- Each block must contain all of the numbers 1 through 9 and no two numbers in the same block of a Sudoku puzzle can be the same.

First Christian Church

First Christian Church of Leisure World teaches from God's word, the Holy Bible, verse by verse.

It is a friendly church that welcomes all visitors to join in worship and explore God's word together, "That we may be mutually encouraged by each other's faith, both yours and mine" Romans 1:12.

Pastor's Message

In Colossians 2 the apostle Paul writes to encourage believers in Colossae that were besieged by philosophies and deception; no different from today.

Instead of holding fast to the teachings handed down by Christ himself and his apostles, the church had allowed philosophies to take their eyes off the truth.

Colossians 2:8 warns, "See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary principles of the world, rather than according to Christ." The thought continues in 2:9, "For in him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form, and in him you have been made complete."

The definition of complete means no other philosophies and teachings are necessary. Pastor Gary Whitlatch will further explore this chapter and refresh the body of Christ today of the complete work that was done by Christ on the Cross.

Weekend Services

Sunday services are traditional services from 9:30-10:45 a.m. with hymnal music led by Janet Ray and Pat Kogak at the piano. Kogak will also sing a solo special.

Saturday services are more contemporary with Gregory Black leading worship with guitar accompaniment. The service is held from 9:30-10:45 a.m.

Midweek Studies

Melli Herrera leads the Women's Bible Study on Mondays from 10:30-11:45 a.m.

Pastor Gary Whitlatch leads the Tuesday Bible study group from 9:30-10:30 a.m.

The Thursday Bible study group, led by Elder Jack Frost, meets from 10:30-11:30 a.m.

Pastor Bruce Humes leads the prayer and Bible study group on Fridays from 6-7 p.m.

All residents are welcome to join any of the studies.

Scripture of the Week

"Above all, keep fervent in your love for one another, because love covers a multitude of sins," 1 Peter 4:8.

Faith Christian Assembly

Faith Christian Assembly will welcome special guest Traci Brewer-Sommer on Sunday, June 25, as she kicks off the service with worship. She will also be at the evening service to share her testimony.

Brewer-Sommer is the daughter of Joanie Brewer and her late husband Randy, longtime friends of former lead pastors Pastor Gwyn and Ginny Vaughn.

As a worship pastor for over 20 years, Brewer-Sommer has a unique ability to blend the latest music with the most beloved traditional hymns and worship. With a heart of worship and a calling on her life to lead people into the presence of the Lord,

Brewer-Sommer says, "We were created to worship our creator. When we focus our hearts and minds solely on him, worship him for who he is and ask him for nothing, he meets all our needs. Worship brings healing into the house of worship and prepares the hearts of the people to hear the word."

Sunday service times are at 10:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Those who are interested in growing through community are welcome to join the men's or women's ministries. The groups meet the third Thursdays of each month at 1 p.m.

Assembly of God

Service/Gathering Times: Sunday morning at 10:30 in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. The Wednesday Bible study is at 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 3, Room 2. The Hymn Sing will be held Sunday, June 25, at 6 p.m. in the Clubhouse 3 Lobby.

This week's sermon: Pastor Chuck Franco will continue the series "The Good Fruit We Bear," with a sermon titled "It Comes Down to Faith" this Sunday, June 25.

Faithfulness is the fruit of being full of faith, but what is faith? More than just a desperate wish or a blind hope, Hebrews 11:1 says that faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. There is an integral faith relationship between what is seen in the natural world and what is happening in the spiritual realm that is not seen. Active, dynamic faith makes all the difference in a Christian's life.

Bible Study: "Job," by Francis Chan, leads students through the experience of a man who had it all: success, wealth, health, family, friends, reputation, and lost everything. Yet, through his suffering and wrestling with who he knew God to be, Job maintained his faith and became the example of how to endure trials successfully.

Contact: More information about the church can be found at www.lwassemblyofgod.com. Those who would like prayer, personal contact from a pastor or a DVD of the sermon can contact pastors Chuck and Sheryl Franco by calling 562-357-4360 or emailing pastorchuck@lwassemblyofgod.com.

Pastor Chuck's sermons can be accessed on the Faithlife app under "Leisure World Assembly of God," where people can also give online.

Community Church

Paul is a polarizing figure in the early church. Paul had a powerful conversion experience that changed his name from Saul to Paul and turned his life upside down. He went from persecuting the followers of Jesus to become one of Jesus' followers. The question then becomes: does Paul's way need to be the believer's way? What are some other ways that people can follow Jesus?

This Sunday, June 25, Community Church will look at Paul's story of transformation and spend some time thinking about the work that God is doing for all believers.

Community Church welcomes all people. Jesus spent his ministry on the margins of his society inviting in those who had been ostracized and called other. The church strives to follow in his footsteps.

People are welcome to join the service on Sunday at 9:50 a.m. in person or online on Zoom and on Facebook @CommunityChurchLeisureWorld.

People can contact the church office to receive the Zoom link. The in-person service is followed by food and fellowship.

For more information, call the church office and leave a message at 562-431-2503.

Redeemer Lutheran

The theme for Redeemer Lutheran Church's worship service is "Call Upon the Lord, Live into the Light of Christ!" All residents are invited to join the community, and share the word and Communion on Sunday, June 25, at 10:30 a.m. in the sanctuary at 13564 St. Andrews Drive, across from the Administration building where ample parking is provided. Dee Sessa and Teresa Smith are this week's greeters and Sharon Heck will play the organ and accompany the choir.

Redeemer thanks those who have contributed to its continuous food drive. LWers are invited to bring non-perishable food to the church anytime. The food is distributed to those in need in the community.

The church invites residents to enjoy its outdoor chapel that reflects God's light on sunny days and is available 24/7 for prayer and contemplation. Feel free to come alongside the church (on the north side, near the golf course) to pause, sit on the bench or at the patio table, rest and pray.

For more information about the church or its outreach within the community, call 562-598-8697.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints

Meetings for the Atherton Ward are held at 6500 E. Atherton St., in Long Beach. The sacrament service is held every Sunday at 10:30 a.m., followed in the second hour by Sunday School on the first and third Sundays, Relief Society and Elders Quorum on the second and fourth Sundays. Primary classes for children are held every Sunday during the second hour. Members who are unable to attend Sacrament services in person can request a link from Bishop Mike Gravley at 562-212-8641.

The reading source for this year is the New Testament. The reading assignment for the week of June 26-July 2 is Matthew 28, Mark 16, Luke 24 and John 20-21.

The "Come, Follow Me" devotional says "As you read the experience of the two disciples who met the resurrected savior, look for parallels to your experience as a follower of Christ. How can you walk with him today and invite him to tarry a little longer? How do you recognize his presence in your life?"

LW Baptist

The modern world, like the ancient world, emulates pride, whereas the Bible condemns it as insubordination to God. Jesus said, "Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

When friends asked a new convert to faith in Christ what she learned in church recently, her reply was, "pride is a sin." LW Baptist will give all glory and honor to Jesus on Sunday, June 25, 10 a.m. in Clubhouse 4.

People cannot save themselves. They need the Savior Christ Jesus. The Energizers group will meet on Wednesday, June 28, at 3 p.m. to consider God's reminder to Earth's rulers in Psalm 58 that they are accountable to him.

For more information, call 562-430-8598.

Congregation Sholom

Congregation Sholom will hold services via Zoom with Rabbi Mike Mymon on Friday, June 23 at 6:30 p.m. Rabbi Eric Dangott will lead the hybrid service on Saturday, June 24, in Clubhouse 3 Room 9, and via Zoom 10 a.m. Saturday's Torah reading will be Korach from the book of Numbers. Parashat Korach recounts the rebellion of Korach (a cousin of Moses and Aaron), Dathan, Abiram, and 250 of their followers. Some rebels are swallowed by the ground, while others are consumed by a fire from God and others die in a plague. The portion ends by describing gifts given to priests and Levites.

To receive a Zoom invitation, contact Jeff Sacks at 714-642-0122.

Congregation Sholom offers a traditional Jewish service in person and online. Those who want to join Congregation Sholom should call Howard Brass at 714-396-0121.

Buddha Circle

Buddha Circle will meet with Ven. Kusala on Saturday, July 1, in Clubhouse 3, Room 1, from 9:30-11 a.m. Ven. Kusala is well known in the Buddhist community and presents Buddhism in a simple way. The group is interactive and those who attend are encouraged to ask questions. Donations are welcome and will support Ven. Kusala in his teachings.

For more information, call 714-468-6887.

Tournament Poker

The next casino tournament is Saturday, June 24 in the Clubhouse 6 Lobby at 10 a.m. Bagel breakfast will be served.

Registration is $20 for members, and $25 for non-member LW residents. Late registration fee on June 24 is $25. For more information, call or text Deborah Barner at 325-721-0687.

Five tables of eight players participated a tournament on June 10. Two players with the highest hands of the day were: John Burns (QQQJ) and Seung Hong (JJJQQ). The new club member Kathy Segroves won a promotional hand.

The final table players were Renato Villanueva, fifth; Joyce Smith, fourth; John Burns, third; Guta Basner, second; and Roger Montero, first.

With five great players there was plenty of action at the table right up until the heads up play between Basner and Montero. In the winning hand, the flop came 6, 6, 10. Montero (6-10) went all in before the flop and Basner, with (K-10), called. The turn was an ace, and the river was a 3. That gave Montero the winning hand of 6-6-6-10-10.

Montero has lived in Leisure World for just a few months and been a member of the club right from the beginning. This was his second final table win. He also enjoys dancing and golfing here in Leisure World.

The club congratulates the winners and invites all who are interested to play a fun and friendly game of Texas Hold 'Em on one of the first three Saturdays of the month in the lobby of Clubhouse 6 at 10 a.m. No late seating is allowed.

—Deborah Barner

Roger Montero got the winning hand June 10.

Club mentors fast-start training for newcomers

Only four additional days are available for the Shuffleboard Club's fast-start training to learn the basics of shuffleboard before the shuffleboard building closes for most of July for repair work on the courts. Until then, all Leisure World residents are welcome Monday and Wednesday mornings from 9-11. All needed equipment is provided. Closed-toe shoes are required.

For more information about the summer schedule, call or text

Kay Mount at 775-527-0426.

The club invites all present and past members to join them for a potluck on Wednesday, July 5, at 5 p.m. at the Courts Building and the Clubhouse 1 outdoor tables. The courts repair work is scheduled to begin July 10 and should be completed by the end of July.

Throughout the last year there have been many milestones for the Shuffleboard Club. The most unfortunate one is Red Ryals' passing on June 10, who worked tirelessly for the club, usually in silent ways. For many years Ryals kept all equipment in working order, and often did the set-ups for weekly tournaments and special events. Even after 20 years in the club, he was supportive at every turn with changes in practices and scheduling. Generous and patient, he'll be sorely missed by many.

Men's Golf Tournament

On June 14, the Leisure World Men's Golf Club held its first tournament of the month. Two groups of three flights of variously skilled golfers played for best net scores (gross score minus handicap), plus four circle holes (shots within a 5-foot radius are rewarded) and two closest to the pin challenges.

As a reminder, all the golfers must repair their ball marks on the greens. Also, filling tee box divots with the provided mixture will keep the tee boxes from deteriorating.

A total of 64 golfers challenged the 1,658-yard, 18 hole-par 54 Turtle Lake Golf Course that challenges all who play. The course is in continuing good condition with the weed patches on the greens starting to disappear.

A special low gross challenge was offered again, and 15 golfers accepted. Alan Sewell took first place with a terrific three under 51; John Kolthoff, second, at one under 53; and third place was a tie between Don Newhall and Richard Jun at one over 55.

With fair weather conditions there were 68 birdies and nine circle hole winners. Additionally, 30 of 64 golfers were net at or under par. Closest to the pin on the seventh hole was Kolthoff, and on the 16th hole was Sewell both within 18 inches. Low net score was

Men's Golf League

Friday Golf

On June 9, six golfers played on the 5,800-yard, par 70 River-view Golf Course in Santa Ana. Sam Choi had the fewest putts for round. Fujio Norihiro and Choi were closest to the pins on the par three second and ninth holes respectively. Norihiro had two birdies; Gene Vesely and Dave LaCascia had one each.

The winners were: Vesely, first place, a 11 under 59; Norihiro, second, a nine under 61; LaCascia, third, seven under 63; Gary Stivers, fourth, five under 65; Choi, fifth, three under 67; and Lowell Goltra, sixth, one under 69.

Monday Golf

On June 5, 12 golfers played on the 6,000-yard, par 71 Wil-lowick Golf Course in Santa Ana. Gene Vesely had the only birdie of the round. Lowell Goltra and Bill McKusky were closest to the pins on the par three fourth and twelfth holes. Stivers had low putts in the A Flight and Vesely had fewest in the B.

A flight winners: Clay Fischer, first, one under 70; Sam Choi and Larry Hillhouse tied for a second place; Chris Lankford, third; Stivers, fourth; Jim Goltra, fifth; and Norihiro and LaCascia tied for sixth place.

B flight winners: Lowell Goltra, Gene Vesely and Digna Vesely tied for a first place; and McKusky, second.

The Monday and Friday golf leagues play at four local courses, all within 15-20 minutes of Leisure World. The courses are always quite full, so advance league reservations are required with a sign-up sheet available at each round.

There is a prize pool for each round that players are not obligated to enter. Rewards are given for low net in each flight, birdies, closest to the pin on two par threes, and for the lowest number of putts in each flight. Holes-in-one and eagles (two under par) are generously rewarded. If interested, contact Gary Stivers at 714-313-3697 or Dave LaCascia at 801-674-5975.

Bocce Ball wraps up its spring tournament with pizza and games

On June 10, the Bocce Ball Club completed its spring tournament with a pizza party and the tournament championship games. Tuesday league winners were: Chandra and Harshad Patel; Thursday league: Dennis Noethens and Bill Zurn; Saturday league: Mike and Kathleen Pitts; and Sunday winners: Rod Osgood and Laura Garcia. Dennis Noethens and Bill Zurn won the final championship. The club congratulates all the winners.

The Bocce Ball club will take a summer break during July and August, and start a fall tournament the week of Sept. 5, right after Labor Day. The fall league will play for seven weeks and will finish with another championship and party day on Saturday, Nov. 4.

Those who did not attend the party on June 10 and filled out the sign-up sheet should let Rhonda Cox of their interest to play again in the fall. The new schedules will be emailed in late August.

Those interested in joining the bocce ball league, can call 714-904-6458, as few openings may be available in the fall. The club meets on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays. The courts will be open for practice all summer unless the court is being worked on.
